Uncommonly Good Materials for Remedial Reading

This annotated listing is made up of materials which are particularly suited to teaching reading to adolescent and adult males. A special effort has been made to include unusual or frequently overlooked publications. All of the material cited here is particularly suited to the interest level of adolescents and older youth.

The selections provide a source of materials which engage, interest, stimulate and challenge readers whose achievement levels range from grades 1 to 6.

This is a preliminary edition. The selections have been suggested and are being used by teachers in remedial classes with good results. The lists of publishers who are printing materials of this type will be of value to many. We hope that teachers, librarians and others will find this listing useful.

We welcome and invite your suggestions for additional items for a larger and more comprehensive edition. A form in the back of this booklet has been added to make it easy for you to list your contributions. Your comments on the items and how the booklet can be made more useful will be appreciated as well.
