F O R E W O R D

In recognition of the special educational need of children of low income families and the impact that concentration of low income families have on the ability of local educational agencies to support adequate educational programs, the Congress under Sec. 201 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act declared it to be the policy of the United States to provide financial assistance to local educational agencies serving areas with concentration of children from low-income families to expand and improve their educational programs by various means which contribute particularly to meeting the special educational needs of educationally deprived children.

Monies under this Title will be used for programs and projects that include the acquisition of equipment and where necessary, the construction of school facilities. Nothing in the Act precludes two or more local educational agencies from entering into agreement, at their option, for carrying out jointly operated programs and projects under this Title. The latest estimated allocation of monies for this Title in New York State is $91,893,253.00 and in the Nation $1,060,082,973.00.

The Steering Committee of the Mid-Hudson School Study Council Research and Development Project recommended the status survey of Title I projects in the Mid-Hudson Region with the insight that:

- a. teachers, specialized personnel, board of education members, all administrators would mutually benefit from sharing the various specialized programs to improve quality and educational opportunities for children of low-income families.
- b. planning groups for local Title I projects would benefit from knowledge of percent of allocated monies for programs, equipment, and personnel.
- c. finally, Sec. 205 (a) (8) of the Law provides that effective procedures should be adopted for disseminating information on the projects, especially where promising practices develop through such projects.

The Committee wishes to express its thanks for the 99% questionnaire returns from schools in the Mid-Hudson School Study Council Region.
