LEGISLATION, GOVERNANCE, EDUCATIONAL FINANCE, WASHINGTON,

THIS BILL, ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON, IS KNOWN AS THE "COMMUNITY COLLEGE ACT OF 1967."
IT AMENDS EXISTING LEGISLATION TO BRING IT MORE IN KEEPING WITH PRESENT-DAY REQUIREMENTS FOR A JUNIOR COLLEGE SYSTEM.
ITS PURPOSE IS TO (1) OFFER A POST-HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATION TO EVERY CITIZEN, REGARDLESS OF BACKGROUND OR EXPERIENCE, AT A COST WITHIN HIS MEANS, (2) OFFER COMPREHENSIVE EDUCATIONAL, TRAINING, AND SERVICE PROGRAMS TO MEET THE NEEDS OF BOTH STUDENTS AND COMMUNITY, (3) PROVIDE ADMINISTRATION BY STATE AND LOCAL BOARDS, AVOIDING DUPLICATION AND ENCOURAGING EFFICIENCY, (4) ALLOW FOR GROWTH, IMPROVEMENT, FLEXIBILITY, AND MODIFICATION OF THE COLLEGES, AND (5) ESTABLISH FIRMLY THAT THE COMMUNITY COLLEGE IS AN INDEPENDENT AND UNIQUE SECTION OF THE STATE'S HIGHER EDUCATION SYSTEM, SEPARATE FROM BOTH THE COMMON SCHOOLS AND THE INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION, AND THAT IT IS NEVER TO BE CONSIDERED FOR CONVERSION INTO A FOUR-YEAR LIBERAL ARTS COLLEGE. THE ACT
THEN SPELS OUT THE LEGISLATIVE DETAILS OF SUPPORTING AND ADMINISTERING THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING DUTIES, FUNCTIONS, AND FUNDING OF ITS VARIOUS ELEMENTS. (HH)

25 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

26 NEW SECTION. Section 1. This act shall be known as and may 27 be cited as the Community College Act of 1967.

28 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The purpose of this act is to provide 29 for the dramatically increasing number of students requiring high 30 standards of education either as a part of the continuing higher edu-31 cation program or for occupational training, by creating a new, inde-32 pendent system of community colleges which will:

33 (1) Offer an open door to every citizen, regardless of his

1 academic background or experience, at a cost normally within his 2 economic means;

3 (2) Ensure that each community college district shall offer
4 thoroughly comprehensive educational, training and service programs
5 to meet the needs of both the communities and students served by com-6 bining, with equal emphasis, high standards of excellence in academic 7 transfer courses; realistic and practical courses in occupational ed-8 ucation, both graded and ungraded; and community services of an edu-9 cational, cultural, and recreational nature;

10 (3) Provide administration by state and local boards which 11 will avoid unnecessary duplication of facilities or programs; and 12 which will encourage efficiency in operation and creativity and im-13 agination in education, training and service to meet the needs of the 14 community and students;

15 (4) Allow for the growth, improvement, flexibility, and modi-16 fication of the community colleges and their education, training and 17 service programs as future needs occur;

18 (5) Establish firmly that community colleges are, for purposes
19 of academic training, two year institutions, and are an independent, unique, 20 and vital section of our state's higher education system, separate 21 from both the common school system and other institutions of higher 22 learning, and never to be considered for conversion into four-year 23 liberal arts colleges.

24 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. As used in this act, unless the context 25 requires otherwise, the term:

26 (1) "System" shall mean the state system of community col-27 leges, which shall be a system of higher education;

28 (2) "College board" shall mean the state board for community 29 college education created by this act;

30 (3) "Director" shall mean the administrative director for the 31 state system of community colleges;

32 (4) "District" shall mean any one of the community college 33 districts created by this act;

1 (5) "Board of trustees" shall mean the local community col-
2 lege board of trustees established for each community college district 3 within the state;

4 (6) "Council" shall mean the coordinating council for occupa-
5 tional education;

6 (7) "Occupational education" shall mean that education or 7 training that will prepare a student for employment that does not re-8 quire a baccalaureate degree.

9 (8) "K-12 system" shall mean the public school program in-10 cluding kindergarten through the twelfth grade.

11 (9) "Common school board" shall mean the public school dis-12 trict board of trustees.

13 (10) "Community college" shall include where applicable, vo-
14 cational-technical and adult education programs conducted by communi-15 ty colleges and vocational-technical institutes whose major emphasis 16 is in post-high school education.

17 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The state of Washington is hereby di-18 vided into twenty-two community college districts as follows:

19 (1) The first district shall encompass the counties of Clallam
20 and Jefferson;

21 (2) The second district shall encompass the counties of Grays 22 Harbor and Pacific;

23 (3) The third district shall encompass the counties of Kitsap
24 and Mason;

25 (4) The fourth district shall encompass the counties of San 26 Juan, Skagit and Island;

27 (5) The fifth district shall encompass Snohomish county ex-
28 cept for the Northshore common school district;

29 (6) The sixth district shall encompass the present boundaries
30 of the common school districts of Seattle and Vashon Island, King 31 county;

32 (7) The seventh district shall encompass the present bound-33 aries of the common school districts of Shoreline in King county and

1 Northshore in King and Snohomish counties;

2 (8) The eighth district shall encompass the present boundaries
3 of the common school districts of Lake Washington, Bellevue, Issaquah, 4 Lower Snoqualmie, Mercer Island, Skykomish and Snoqualmie, King county;

5 (9) The ninth district shall encompass the present boundaries
6 of the common school districts of Federal Way, Highline and South 7 Central, King county;

8 (10) The tenth district shall encompass the present boundaries
9 of the common school districts of Auburn, Black Diamond, Renton, Enum-10 claw, Kent, Lester and homa, King county;

11 (11) The eleventh district shall encompass all of Pierce
12 county, except for the present boundaries of the common school districts 13 of Tacoma and Peninsula;

14 (12) The twelfth district shall encompass the counties of 15 Lewis and Thurston;

16 (13) The thirteenth district shall encompass the counties of 17 Cowlitz, and Wahkiakum;

18 (14) The fourteenth district shall encompass the counties of 19 Clark, Skamania and that portion of Klickitat county not included in 20 the sixteenth district;

21 (15) The fifteenth district shall encompass the counties of 22 Chelan, Douglas and Okanogan;

23 (16) The sixteenth district shall encompass the counties of 24 Kittitas, Yakima, and that portion of Klickitat county included in 25 United States census divisions 1 through 4;

26 (17) The seventeenth district shall encompass the counties of 27 Ferry, Lincoln (except consolidated school district 105-157-166J), 28 Pend Oreille, Spokane, Stevens and Whitman;

29 (18) The eighteenth district shall encompass the counties of 30 Adams and Grant, and that portion of Lincoln county comprising consol-31 idated school district 105-157-166J;

32 (19) The nineteenth district shall encompass the counties of 33 Benton and Franklin;

1 (20) The twentieth district shall encompass the counties of 2 Asotin, Columbia, Garfield and Walla Walla;

3 (21) The twenty-first district shall encompass Whatcom county;

4 (22) The twenty-second district shall encompass the present
5 boundaries of the common school districts of Tacoma and Peninsula, 6 Pierce county.

7 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is hereby created the "state 8 board for community college education", to consist of seven members, 9 one from each congressional district, who shall be appointed by the 10 governor, with the consent of the senate. The terms of the initial 11 members shall be as follows: Two members shall serve for a term of 12 one year, two members shall serve for a term of two years, two mem-13 bers shall serve for a term of three years, and one member shall serve 14 for a term of four years, respectively, following the effective date 15 of this act. The successors of the members initially appointed shall 16 be appointed for terms of four years except that any persons appointed 17 to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of any term 18 shall be appointed only for the remainder of such term. Each member 19 shall serve until the appointment and qualification of his successor.
20 All members shall be citizens and bona fide residents of the state.
21 No member of the college board shall be, during his term of office, 22 also a member of the state board of education or a member of a K-12 23 board, or be employed by the common school system, or have any direct 24 pecuniary interest in education within this state.

25 No member of the college board shall receive any salary for 26 his services, but shall receive the sum of twenty-five dollars 27 per diem for each day actually spent in attending to his duties as 28 a member of the college board, and mileage at the rate of ten cents 29 per mile.

30 The members of the college board may be removed by the gover-31 nor for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office, in 32 the manner provided by RCW 28.76.290.

33 NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A director of the state system of 1 community colleges shall be appointed by the college board and shall 2 serve at the pleasure of the college board. He shall be appointed 3 with due regard to his fitness and background in education, by his 4 knowledge of and recent practical experience in the field of educa-

5 tional administration particularly in institutions beyond the high 6 school level. The college board may also take into consideration an 7 applicant's proven management background even though not particularly 8 in the field of education.

9 The director shall devote his entire time to the duties of his 10 office and shall not be actively engaged or employed in any other 11 business, vocation or employment, nor shall he have any direct pe-12 cuniary interest in or any stock or bonds of any business connected 13 with or selling supplies to the field of education within this state.

14 He shall receive a salary to be fixed by the college board and 15 shall be reimbursed for all traveling and other expenses incurred by 16 him in the discharge of his official duties in accordance with RCW
17 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, as now or hereafter amended.

18 He shall be the executive officer of the college board and 19 serve as its secretary and under its supervision shall administer the 20 provisions of this chapter and the rules, regulations and orders es-21 tablished thereunder and all other laws of the state. He shall at-22 tend, but not vote at, all meetings of the college board. He shall 23 be in charge of offices of the college board and responsible to the 24 college board for the preparation of reports and the collection and 25 dissemination of data and other public information relating to the 26 state system of community colleges. At the direction of the college 27 board, he shall, together with the chairman of the college board, 28 execute all contracts entered into by the college board.

29 Subject to the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW, the state
30 civil service law, the director shall, with the approval of the col-31 lege board, appoint and employ such field and office assistants, 32 clerks and other employees as may be required and authorized for the 33 proper discharge of the functions of the college board and for whose

1 services funds have been appropriated. All employees of the state 2 board of education who are governed by the provisions of chapter 41-3 .06 RCW, and who are employed exclusively or principally in perform-4 ing the powers and duties and functions transferred by this act to 5 the state board for community college education, and who are trans-6 ferred to the state board for community college education, shall con-7 tinue to be governed by the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW, the 8 state civil service law, without any loss of rights granted by said 9 law.

10 The board may, by written order filed in its office, delegate 11 to the director any of the powers and duties vested in or imposed 12 upon it by this act. Such delegated powers and duties may be exer-
13 cised by the director in the name of the college board.

14 NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The governor shall, within thirty days 15 after the effective date of this act, make the appointments to the 16 college board.

17 The college board shall, within thirty days after its appoint-18 ment, organize, adopt a seal, and adopt by-laws for its administra-19 tion, not inconsistent herewith, as it may deem expedient and may 20 from time to time amend such by-laws. At such organizational meeting 21 it shall elect from among its members a chairman and a vice chairman, 22 each to serve for one year, and annually thereafter shall elect such 23 officers; all to serve until their successors are appointed and qual-24 ified. The college board shall at its initial meeting fix a date and 25 place for its regular meeting. Four members shall constitute a quo-26 rum, and no meeting shall be held with less than a quorum present, 27 and no action shall be taken by less than a majority of the college
28 board.

29 After organization, the first order of business for the col-30 lege board shall be to assist the district college boards in the as-31 sumption of administration, control and occupancy of the various com-32 munity college and such other vocational facilities as are covered by 33 this act which are now under the administration, control and occupancy

1 of the common school boards.

2 Special meetings may be called as provided by its rules and 3 regulations. Regular meetings shall be held at the college board's 4 established offices in Olympia, but whenever the convenience of the 5 public or of the parties may be promoted, or delay or expenses may 6 be prevented, it may hold its meetings, hearings or proceedings at 7 any other place designated by it. The college board shall transmit
8 a report in writing to the governor before December 1st of each year 9 which report shall contain a summary of its proceedings during the 10 preceding fiscal year, a detailed and itemized statement of all rev-11 enue and all expenditures made by or on behalf of the college board, 12 such other information as it may deem necessary or useful and any 13 other additional information which may be requested by the governor.
14 The fiscal year of the college board shall conform to the fiscal 15 year of the state.

16 NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Suitable offices and office equipment 17 shall be provided by the state for the college board in the city of 18 Olympia, and the college board may incur the necessary expense for 19 office furniture, stationery, printing, incidental expenses, and oth-20 er expenses necessary for the administration of this act.

21 NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The college board shall have general 22 supervision and control over the state system of community colleges.
23 In addition to the other powers and duties imposed upon the college 24 board by this act, the college board shall be charged with the follow-25 ing powers, duties and responsibilities:

26 (1) Review the budgets prepared by the community college 27 boards of trustees, prepare a single budget for the support of the 28 state system of community colleges, and submit this budget to the 29 governor as provided in RCW 43.88.090; the coordinating council shall 30 assist with the preparation of the community college budget that has 31 to do with vocational education programs;

32 (2) Establish guidelines for the disbursement of funds; and 33 receive and disburse such funds for maintenance and operation and

1 capital support of the community college districts in conformance
2 with the state and district budgets, and in conformance with chapter
3 43.88 RCW;

4 (3) Ensure, through the full use of its authority, 5 (a) that each community college district shall offer thoroughly 6 comprehensive educational, training and service programs to meet the 7 needs of both the communities and students served by combining, with 8 equal emphasis, high standards of excellence in academic transfer 9 courses; realistic and practical courses in occupational education, 10 both graded and ungraded; and community services of an educational, 11 cultural, and recreational nature: PROVIDED, That notwithstanding 12 any other provisions of this act, a community college shall not be 13 required to offer a program of vocational-technical training, when 14 such a program as approved by the coordinating council for occupa-15 tional education is already operating in the district;

16 (b) that each community college district shall maintain an 17 open-door policy, to the end that no student will be denied admission 18 because of the location of his residence or because of his education-19 al background or ability; that, insofar as is practical in the judg-20 ment of the college board, curriculum offerings will be provided to 21 meet the educational and training needs of the community generally 22 and the students thereof; and that all students, regardless of their 23 differing courses of study, will be considered, known and recognized 24 equally as members of the student body: PROVIDED, That the adminis-
25 trative officers of a community college may deny admission to a 26 prospective student or attendance to an enrolled student if, in their 27 judgment, he would not be competent to profit from the curriculum of-28 ferings of the community college, or would, by his presence or con-29 duct, create a disruptive atmosphere within the community college not 30 consistent with the purposes of the institution;

31 (4) Prepare a comprehensive master plan for the development 32 of community college education and training in the state; and assist 33 the state census board in the preparation of enrollment projections.

1 to support plans for providing adequate community college facilities
2 in all areas of the state;

3 (5) Define and administer criteria and guidelines for the es-4 tablishment of new community colleges or campuses within the existing 5 districts;

6 (6) Establish and administer criteria and procedures for mod-7 ifying district boundary lines;

8 (7) Establish minimum standards to govern the operation of 9 the community colleges with respect to:

10 (a) qualifications and credentials of instructional and key 11 administrative personnel, except as otherwise provided in the state 12 plan for vocational education,

13 (b) internal budgeting, accounting, auditing, and financial 14 procedures as necessary to supplement the general requirements pre-15 scribed pursuant to chapter 43.88 RCW,

16 (c) the content of the curriculums and other educational and 17 training programs, and the requirements, degrees and diplomas awarded 18 by the colleges,

19 (d) standard admission policies.

20 (8) Establish and administer criteria and procedures for all 21 capital construction including the establishment, installation, and 22 expansion of facilities within the various community college dis-23 tricts;

24 (9) Encourage innovation in the development of new education-25 al and training programs and instructional methods; coordinate re-26 search efforts to this end; and disseminate the findings thereof;

27 (10) Exercise any other powers, duties and responsibilities 28 necessary to carry out the purposes of this act.

29 The college board shall have the power of eminent domain.

30 NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is hereby created a community 31 college board of trustees for each community college district as set 32 forth in this act. Each community college board of trustees shall be 33 composed of five trustees, who shall be appointed by the governor

1 from a list of nominees submitted by the nominating committee in ac-2 cordance with section 11 of this act.

3 The initial appointees to the board of trustees shall draw 4 lots at the first meeting thereof to determine their respective ini-
5 tial terms. One trustee shall serve for one year, one for two years, 6 one for three years, one for four years, and one for five years.

7 Thereafter, until July 1, 1969, the successors of the trustees 8 initially appointed shall be appointed by the governor to serve for 9 a term of five years except that any person appointed to fill a 10 vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of any term shall be ap-11 pointed only for the remainder of the term.

12 Every trustee shall be a resident and qualified elector of 13 his community college district. No trustee may serve as a member of 14 the board of directors of any school district, or as an elected of-15 ficer or member of the legislative authority of any municipal cor-16 poration.

17 Each board of trustees shall organize itself by electing a 18 chairman from its members. The board shall adopt a seal and may 19 adopt such bylaws, rules and regulations as it deems necessary for 20 its own government. Three members of the board shall constitute a 21 quorum, but a lesser number may adjourn from time to time and may 22 compel the attendance of absent members in such manner as prescribed 23 in its bylaws, rules, or regulations. The district president, or if 24 there be none, the president of the community college, shall serve

1. as, or may designate another person to serve as, the secretary of
2. the board, who shall not be deemed to be a member of the board.

3. NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. In each community college district of 4. the state there is hereby created a nominating committee to select
5. no less than five nominees for consideration by the governor for the 6. initial trustees. The nominating committee shall be composed of 7. each member of the state legislature residing within the boundaries
8. of the community college district to be served.

9. The senior legislator on each committee shall serve as chair-
10. man of the committee and shall call the meeting at some conveniently
11. located place and shall set the time of the meeting.

12. The members of the nominating committee shall be entitled to
13. per diem and expenses as provided in RCW 44.04.120 and such payments
14. shall be a proper charge to the college board.

15. NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Within forty-five days after the ef-
16. fective date of this act, each nominating committee shall submit a
17. list of no less than five nominees, who shall be residents of the 18. community college district, to the governor for selection of the 19. community college district board of trustees for that district. In 20. preparing the list of names to be submitted to the governor, the mem-
21. bers of the committee shall give consideration to geographical ex-
22. igencies, and the interests of labor, industry, agriculture and the 23. professions. In the event that the nominating committee from any 24. district fails to submit a list of nominees to the governor by the 25. prescribed date, he shall appoint the trustees for that district
26. from registered voters residing within that district, observing the 27. same considerations as prescribed for the committee in making its 28. nominations.

29. NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Within thirty days of their appoint-
30. ment or July 1, 1967, whichever is sooner, the various district
31. boards of trustees shall organize, adopt bylaws for its own govern-
32. ment, and make such rules and regulations not inconsistent with this
33. 1967 act as they deem necessary. At such organizational meeting it

1 shall elect from among its members a chairman and a vice chairman, 2 each to serve for one year, and annually thereafter shall elect such 3 officers to serve until their successors are appointed or qualified.
4 The chief executive officer of the community college district shall 5 serve as secretary of the board. Three trustees shall constitute 6 a quorum, and no action shall be taken by less than a majority of 7 the trustees of the board. The first order of business after organ-8 ization shall be to prepare for the orderly assumption of the duties 9 and responsibilities of the administration and management of the 10 community college district and the facilities thereof. The district 11 boards shall transmit a report in writing to the college board be-12 fore October 1st of each year which report shall contain a summary 13 of its proceedings during the preceding fiscal year, a detailed and 14 itemized statement of all revenue and all expenditures made by or on 15 behalf of the district boards, such other information as it may deem 16 necessary or useful, and any other additional information which may 17 be requested by the college board. The fiscal year of the district 18 boards shall conform to the fiscal year of the state.

19 NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Each community college board of trus-20 tees:

21 (1) Shall operate all existing community colleges and voca-22 tional-technical institutes in its district;

23 (2) Shall create comprehensive programs of community college
24 education and training and maintain an open-door policy in accord-25 ance with the provisions of section 9(3) of this act;

26 (3) Shall employ for a period to be fixed by the board a 27 college president for each community college, a director for each 28 vocational-technical institute or school operated by a community 29 college, a district president in the event there is more than one 30 college and/or separated institute or school located in the district, 31 members of the faculty and such other administrative officers and 32 other employees as may be necessary or appropriate and fix their 33 salaries and duties;

1 (4) May establish, under the approval and direction of the 2 college board, new facilities as community needs and interests de-3 mand.

4 (5) May establish or lease, operate, equip and maintain dor-
5 mitories, food service facilities, bookstores and other self-support-6 ing facilities connected with the operation of the community college;

7 (6) May, with the approval of the college board, issue and 8 sell revenue bonds for the construction, reconstruction, erection, 9 equipping with permanent fixtures, demolition and major alteration 10 of buildings or other capital assets, and the acquisition of sites, 11 rights-of-way, easements, improvements or appurtenances, for dormi-12 tories, food service facilities, and other self-supporting facilities 13 connected with the operation of the community college in accordance 14 with the provisions of RCW 28.76.180 through 28.76.210 where applic-15 able;

16 (7) May establish fees and charges for the facilities author-17 ized hereunder, including reasonable rules and regulations for the 18 government thereof, not inconsistent with the rules and regulations 19 of the college board; each board of trustees operating a community 20 college may enter into agreements, subject to rules and regulations 21 of the college board, with owners of facilities to be used for hous-22 ing regarding the management, operation, and government of such fa-23 cilities, and any board entering into such an agreement may:

24 (a) Make rules and regulations for the government, manage-25 ment and operation of such housing facilities deemed necessary or 26 advisable; and

27 (b) Employ necessary employees to govern, manage and operate 28 the same.

29 (8) May receive such gifts, grants, conveyances, devises and 30 bequests of personal property from private sources, as may be made 31 from time to time, in trust or otherwise, whenever the terms and 32 conditions thereof will aid in carrying out the community college 33 programs as specified by law and the regulations of the state college

1 board; sell, lease or exchange, invest or expend the same or the pro-2 ceeds, rents, profits and income thereof according to the terms and 3 conditions thereof; and adopt regulations to govern the receipt and ex-4 penditure of the proceeds, rents, profits and income thereof;

5 (9) May establish and maintain night schools whenever in the 6 discretion of the board of trustees it is deemed advisable, and author-7 ize classrooms and other facilities to be used for summer or night 8 schools, or for public meetings and for any other uses consistent with 9 the use of such classrooms or facilities for community college purposes;

10 (10) May make rules and regulations for pedestrian and vehicu-11 lar traffic on property owned, operated, or maintained by the commu-12 nity college district;

13 (11) Shall prescribe, with the assistance of the faculty, the 14 course of study in the various departments of the community college 15 or colleges under its control, and notwithstanding any other provi-
16 sion of law, publish such catalogues and bulletins as may become nec-17 essary;

18 (12) May grant to every student, upon graduation or comple-
19 tion of a course of study, a suitable diploma, nonbaccalaureate de-20 gree or certificate;

21 (13) Shall enforce the rules and regulations prescribed by the 22 state board for community college education for the government of com-23 munity colleges, students and teachers, and promulgate such rules and 24 regulations and perform all other acts not inconsistent with law or 25 rules and regulations of the state board for community college educa-26 tion as the board of trustees may in its discretion deem necessary or 27 appropriate to the administration of community college districts: PRO-28 VIDED, That such rules and regulations shall include, but not be lim-29 ited to, rules and regulations relating to housing, scholarships and 30 discipline: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the board of trustees may sus-31 pend or expel from community colleges students who refuse to obey any 32 of the duly promulgated rules and regulations;

33 (14) May, by written order filed in its office, delegate to

1 the president or district president any of the powers and duties 2 vested in or imposed upon it by this act. Such delegated powers and 3 duties may be exercised in the name of the district board.

4 (15) May perform such other activities consistent with this 5 act and not in conflict with the directives of the college board; 6 and

7 (16) Shall perform any other duties and responsibilities im-
8 posed by law or rule and regulation of the state board.

9 NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Any resident of the state may enroll
10 in any program or course maintained or conducted by a community col-11 lege district upon the same terms and conditions regardless of the 12 district of his residence.

13 NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. In order to facilitate the greatest 14 possible coordination and cooperation between the agencies of the 15 state and the federal government, and to carry out the purposes and 16 intent of this act and the acts of Congress relating to distribution 17 of federal funds for the support of vocational education and voca-18 tional rehabilitation, there is hereby created the coordinating 19 council for occupational education to serve as the sole agency of 20 the state for the receipt of federal funds made available by acts of 21 Congress for vocational education and for vocational rehabilitation 22 within this state.

23 Consistent with the requirements of Public Law 88-210, and 24 other acts of Congress dealing with vocational education, and to the 25 extent necessary to comply therewith the coordinating council shall 26 have power to supervise the administration of the state plan for 27 vocational education in the community college system; and, subject 28 to the supervisory powers of the state superintendent of public in-29 struction, the coordinating council shall have the power to adminis-30 ter the state plan for vocational education in the public schools of 31 the state.

32 NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The coordinating council for occupa-
33 tional education shall consist of nine members, who shall be chosen

1 by July 1, 1967. Three of the members shall be selected by the 2 state board of education from its membership; and they shall serve 3 at the pleasure of the state board of education. Three members shall 4 be selected by the community college state board from its membership; 5 and they shall serve at the pleasure of the state board for community 6 college education. Three members shall be appointed by the governor, 7 one of whom shall represent the field of labor, and one of whom 8 shall represent the field of management, both of whom shall have had 9 recent actual experience in or association with the fields of man-10 agement and labor within the state to assure their familiarity with 11 the vocational education needs of management and labor within the 12 state. The governor's appointees shall serve at his pleasure. No 13 member appointed by the governor shall, during the time he serves 14 on the council, be a member of any other education board, state or 15 local.

16 No member of the council shall receive any salary for his 17 services, but shall receive the sum of twenty-five dollars per diem 18 for each day actually spent in attending to his duties as a member 19 of the council, and mileage at the rate of ten cents per mile.

20 NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The council shall, within thirty days 21 after its appointment, organize, and adopt such by-laws for its own 22 administration, not inconsistent herewith, as it may deem expedient, 23 and may from time to time amend such by-laws. At such organization-24 al meeting it shall elect from among its members a chairman and vice 25 chairman, to serve for one year, and annually thereafter shall elect 26 such officers who are to serve until their successors are appointed 27 and qualified or until their term expires, whichever is sooner. The 28 council shall at its initial meeting fix a date and place for its 29 regular meeting. Five members shall constitute a quorum, and no
30 action shall be taken by less than a majority of the council. Spe-31 cial meetings may be called as provided by its by-laws. Regular 32 meetings shall be held in the city of Olympia, but whenever the con-33 venience of the public may be better served, or delay or expense may

1 be prevented, it may hold its meetings, hearings or proceedings at 2 any other place in the state of Washington. The council shall trans-3 mit a report in writing to the state board of education and the state 4 board for community college education before October 1st of each 5 year, which report shall contain a summary of its proceedings during 6 the preceding fiscal year, a detailed and itemized statement of all 7 moneys allocated to the council either by the state or by a branch 8 of the federal government, and all expenditures made by or on behalf 9 of the council, budget projections for the next fiscal year, such 10 other information as is necessary and useful, and any other addition-11 al information which may be requested by the boards. The fiscal 12 year of the council shall conform to the fiscal year of the state.

13 NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is hereby established under the 14 direction and control of the coordinating council for occupational 15 education, a division for vocational education and a division for 16 vocational rehabilitation. The purpose of the division of vocation-17 al education is to furnish staff services to the coordinating coun-18 cil in carrying out its duties with respect to vocational education 19 under the state plan for vocational education. The purpose of the 20 division of vocational rehabilitation is to furnish staff services 21 to the coordinating council in carrying out its duties with respect 22 to vocational rehabilitation in the state.

23 NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A director of the division of voca-
24 tional education shall be appointed by the coordinating council and 25 shall serve at the pleasure of the coordinating council. He shall 26 be appointed with due regard to his fitness and background in educa-27 tion, by his knowledge of and recent practical experience in the 28 field of vocational educational administration. The council may 29 also take into consideration an applicant's proven management back-30 ground even though not particularly in the field of education.

31 The director shall devote his entire time to the duties of 32 his office and shall not be actively engaged or employed in any other 33 business, vocation or employment, nor shall he have any direct

1 pecuniary interest in or any stock or bonds of any business con-2 nected with or selling supplies in the field of education in the 3 state.

4 He shall receive a salary to be fixed by the council and shall 5 be reimbursed for all traveling and other expenses incurred by him
6 in the discharge of his official duties in accordance with RCW 43-7 .03.050 and 43.03.060, as now or hereafter amended.

8 He shall be the executive officer of the division of vocation-
9 al education and under the council's supervision shall administer 10 the provisions of this chapter and the rules, regulations and orders 11 established thereunder and all other laws of the state pertaining to 12 vocational education. He shall attend, but not vote at, all meet-13 ings of the council. He shall be in charge of offices of the divi-14 sion of vocational education and responsible to the council for the 15 preparation of reports and the collection and dissemination of data 16 and other public information relating to vocational education in the 17 state. At the direction of the council, he shall, together with 18 the chairman of the council, execute all contracts entered into by 19 the division of vocational education.

20 The director shall, subject to the approval of the coordinat-
21 ing council, pursuant to chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service 22 law, appoint such field and office assistants, clerks and other 23 employees as may be required and authorized for the proper discharge 24 of the functions of the division of vocational education. All 25 employees of the former state board for vocational education who 26 are employed exclusively or principally in performing the powers, 27 duties and functions transferred by this act to the division of 28 vocational education shall, upon the effective date of this act, be 29 transferred to the division of vocational education. All such em-30 ployees so transferred shall continue to be governed by the provi-31 sions of chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, without 32 any loss of rights granted by said law. The coordinating council, 33 in cooperation with the state board of education and the state

1 board for community college education shall prepare a study for the 2 forty-first legislature evaluating the effectiveness and efficiency 3 of the division of vocational education, including a study of the 4 permanent placement of the employees of the former state board for 5 vocational education.

6 The coordinating council may, by written order filed in its 7 office, delegate to the director any of the powers and duties relat-8 ing to vocational education vested in or imposed upon it by this act 9 and the federal vocational education acts. Such delegated powers 10 and duties may be exercised by the director in the name of the 11 council. The coordinating council shall have the power to cooperate 12 with all agencies of government, local, state, and federal, in the 13 promulgation and conducting of public service training with particu-14 lar reference to fire training and law enforcement training.

16 tional rehabilitation shall be appointed by the coordinating council 17 and shall serve at the pleasure of the council. He shall be ap-18 pointed with due regard to his knowledge of, and recent practical 19 experience in, the field of vocational rehabilitation. The coordin-20 ating council may also take into consideration an applicant's proven 21 management background even though not particularly in the field of 22 vocational rehabilitation.

23 The director shall devote his entire time to the duties of 24 his office and shall not be actively engaged or employed in any other 25 business, vocation or employment, nor shall he have any direct pecuni-26 ary interest in or any stock or bonds of any business connected 27 with the field of vocational rehabilitation within the state.

28 He shall receive a salary to be fixed by the coordinating 29 council and shall be reimbursed for all traveling and other expenses 30 incurred by him in the discharge of his official duties in accord-31 ance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, as now or hereafter amended.

32 He shall be the executive officer of the division of vocation-
33 al rehabilitation and under the council's supervision shall administer

1 the provisions of this chapter and the rules, regulations and orders
2 established thereunder and all other laws of the state. He shall 3 attend, but not vote at, all meetings of the coordinating council.
4 He shall be in charge of offices of the division of vocational reha-5 bilitation and responsible to the council for the preparation of re-6 ports and the collection and dissemination of data and other public 7 information relating to vocational rehabilitation within the state.
8 At the direction of the council he shall, together with the chairman 9 of the council, execute all contracts entered into by the division 10 of vocational rehabilitation.

12 ing council, pursuant to chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service
13 law, appoint such field and office assistants, clerks and other em-14 ployees as may be required and authorized for the proper discharge 15 of the functions of the division of vocational rehabilitation and 16 for whose services funds have been appropriated. All employees of 17 the former division of vocational rehabilitation of the state board 18 for vocational education who are employed exclusively or principally 19 in performing the powers, duties and functions transferred by this 20 act to the division of vocational rehabilitation of the coordinating 21 council shall, upon the effective date of this act, be transferred 22 to the division of vocational rehabilitation of the coordinating 23 council. All such employees so transferred shall continue to be 24 governed by the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil 25 service law, without any loss of rights granted by said law. The 26 state board of education, the state board for community college edu-27 cation and the coordinating council shall prepare a study for the 28 forty-first legislature for the permanent placement of the employees 29 of the former division of vocational rehabilitation of the state 30 board for vocational education.

31 The coordinating council may, by written order filed in its 32 office, delegate to the director any of the powers and duties re-33 lating to vocational rehabilitation vested in or imposed upon it by

1 this act. Such delegated powers and duties may be exercised by the 2 director in the name of the council.

3 NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. In addition to its other powers and 4 duties, the coordinating council shall have the following powers and 5 duties:

6 (1) To prepare, adopt and certify the state plan for voca-
7 tional education and the state plan for vocational rehabilitation;

8 (2) To adopt necessary rules and regulations and do such 9 other acts not forbidden by law necessary to carry out the provisions 10 of this act and the federal acts: PROVIDED, That the coordinating 11 council shall meet, consult and cooperate with the office of the 12 state superintendent of public instruction on all matters falling 13 within his constitutional supervisory powers in advance of exercis-14 ing any of the powers or duties granted to the council by this sec-
15 tion;

16 (3) To carry out the aims and purposes of the acts of Con-17 gress pertaining to vocational education and vocational rehabilita-18 tion.

19 NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. (1) The coordinating council in pre-20 paring the state plan for vocational education shall give consider-21 ation to the following:

22 (a) Vocational education for persons attending high school;

23 (b) Vocational education for persons who have completed or 24 left high school and who are available for full time study in prep-25 aration for entering the labor market;

26 (c) Vocational education for persons (other than persons who 27 are receiving training allowances under the Manpower Development and 28 Training Act of 1962, Public Law 87-415, the Area Redevelopment Act, 29 Public Law 87-27, or the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, Public Law 30 87-794) who have already entered the labor market and who need train-31 ing or retraining to achieve stability or advancement in employment;

32 (d) Vocational education for persons who have academic, so-33 cio-economic, or other handicaps that prevent them from succeeding

1 in the regular vocational education program;

2 (e) Construction of area vocational educational school fa-
3 cilities, as authorized by the state board for community colleges 4 and the state board of education; and

5 (f) Ancillary services and activities to assure quality in 6 all vocational education programs, such as teacher training and su-7 pervision, program evaluation, special demonstrations and experimen-8 tal programs, development of instructional materials, and state ad-9 ministration and leadership, including periodic evaluation of state 10 and local vocational education programs and services in the light of 11 information regarding current and projected manpower needs and job 12 opportunities.

13 (2) In determining the allocation of funds, the council shall 14 comply with federal statute.

15 NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The state board of education shall 16 have the power to authorize the school districts to offer vocational 17 education programs which are a part of the high school curriculum 18 and to offer adult education and post-high school vocational educa-19 tional programs which are not in conflict with community college 20 programs, as determined by the coordinating council.

21 NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. The state board for community college 22 education is hereby authorized to cooperate with the state board of 23 education to permit, on an ad hoc basis, the common school districts 24 to conduct a program of vocational education and community service 25 of an educational, recreational or cultural nature which is not a 26 part of the high school curriculum when such program will not con-27 flict with existing programs of the same nature and in the same geo-28 graphical area conducted by the community college districts.

29 NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The council shall conduct business 30 for the division of vocational education separately from its business 31 for the division of vocational rehabilitation, and when so separately 32 considered, the director of the appropriate division shall be the 33 secretary of the council for the conduct of such business.

1. Sec. 27. Section 1, chapter 160, Laws of 1919, as last a-
2. mended by section 1, chapter 183, Laws of 1939 and RCW 28.09.070 are
3. each amended to read as follows:

4. The state of Washington hereby accepts all the provisions and
5. benefits of an act passed by the senate and house of representatives
6. of the United States of America in congress assembled, entitled "An 7. act to provide for the promotion of vocational education, to provide
8. for cooperation with the states in the promotion of such education
9. in agriculture and the trades and industries; to provide for cooper-
10. ation with the states in the preparation of teachers of vocational 11. subjects; and to appropriate money and regulate its expenditure," 12. approved February 23, 1917; and of an act of congress entitled "An
13. act to provide for the further development of vocational education
14. in the several states and territories," approved June 8, 1936, and 15. the Vocational Education Act of 1946 and supplemental vocational
16. education acts including but not limited to Public Law 88-210.

17. Sec. 28. Section 2, chapter 160, Laws of 1919 and RCW 28.09-
18. .080 are each amended to read as follows:

19. The state treasurer is hereby designated and appointed cus-
20. todian of all moneys received by the state from the appropriations
21. made by the said acts of congress and is authorized to receive and
22. to provide for the proper custody of the same and to make disburse-
23. ments therefrom in the manner provided in said acts and for the pur-
24. poses therein specified. He shall also, upon the order of the ((state 25. ~~board-for-vocational-education~~)) appropriate agency in accordance 26. with the provisions of this act, pay out any moneys appropriated by 27. the state of Washington for the purpose of carrying out the provi-
28. sions of this chapter.

29. Sec. 29. Section 6, chapter 160, Laws of 1919 and RCW 28.09-
30. .090 are each amended to read as follows:

31. For the purposes of this chapter vocational schools or classes
32. may be established, (1) as all day schools or classes giving instruc-
33. tion in ((~~agricultural,-home-economies-or-trade-and-industrial~~))

1 vocational subjects; (2) as part time schools or classes giving in-
2 struction ((~~as prescribed by the state board for vocational educa-~~ 3 ~~tion to promote civic and vocational intelligence~~)) in vocational 4 subjects; (3) as evening school classes giving instruction supple-5 mental to the daily employment.

6 NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. Title to or all interest in real 7 estate, choses in action and all other assets, including but not 8 limited to assignable contracts, cash, deposits in county funds (in-9 cluding any interest or premiums thereon), equipment, buildings, 10 facilities, and appurtenances thereto held as of the date of pass-11 age of this act by or for a school district and obtained indentifi-12 ably with federal, state or local funds appropriated for community 13 college purposes or post-high school vocational educational purposes, 14 or used or obtained with funds budgeted for community college pur-15 poses or post-high school vocational educational purposes, or used 16 or obtained primarily for community college or vocational education 17 purposes, shall, on the date on which the first board of trustees 18 of each district takes office, vest in or be assigned to the state 19 board for community college education: PROVIDED, That cash, funds, 20 accounts or other deposits obtained or raised by a school district 21 to pay for indebtedness, bonded or otherwise, contracted on or be-22 fore the effective date of this act for community college purposes 23 shall remain with and continue to be, after the effective date of 24 this act, an asset of the school district: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, 25 That any option acquired by the school district to purchase real 26 property which in the judgment of the school district will be used 27 in the common school program, may remain with the school district 28 notwithstanding that such option was obtained in consideration of 29 the purchase by such school district of other property for community 30 college purposes: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That unexpended funds of a 31 common school district derived from the sale, prior to July 1, 1967, 32 of bonds authorized for any purpose which includes community college 33 purposes and not committed for any existing construction contract,

1 shall remain with and continue to be an asset of such common school 2 district, unless within thirty days after said date such common 3 school district determines to transfer such funds to the board of 4 trustees.

5 For the purposes of this section and to facilitate the process
6 of allocating the assets, the board of directors of each school dis-7 trict in which a community college is located, and the president of 8 each community college, shall each submit to the state board of edu-9 cation, and the state board for community college education within 10 sixty days of the effective date of this act, an inventory listing 11 all real estate, personal property choses in action and other assets, 12 held by a school district which, under the criteria of this section, 13 will become the assets of the state board for community college edu-
14 cation: PROVIDED, That assets used "primarily" for community college 15 purposes shall include, but not be limited to, all assets currently 16 held by school districts which have been used on an average of at 17 least seventy-five percent of the time during the school year 1965-18 1966, or if acquired subsequent to July 1, 1966, since its time of 19 acquisition, for community college purposes: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That 20 the ultimate decision and approval with respect to the allocation 21 and disposition of the assets under this section shall be made by 22 the governor, or an advisory committee appointed by him for that pur-23 pose. The decision of the governor or his advisory committee may be 24 appealed within sixty days after such decision is issued by appealing 25 to the district court of Thurston county. The decision of the super-26 ior court may be appealed to the supreme court of the state in ac-27 cordance with the provision of the Administrative Procedure Act, 28 chapter 34.04 RCW.

29 NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. The board of trustees of each community
30 college district shall charge to and collect from each of the stu-31 dents registered therein such general tuition, incidental fees and 32 other fees for quarters other than summer session as follows:

33 (1) Resident students:

1 (a) general tuition fees, fifty dollars per quarter; and 2 (b) incidental fees not more than twenty dollars per quarter.

3 (2) Nonresident students:

4 (a) general tuition fees, one hundred-fifty dollars per quar-5 ter; and

6 (b) incidental fees, not more than twenty dollars per quar-
7 ter.

8 (3) Tuition and incidental fees consistent with the above
9 schedules will be fixed by the state board for community colleges 10 for summer school students.

11 (4) The board of trustees shall charge such fees for part 12 time students, ungraded courses, noncredit courses, and short courses 13 as it, in its discretion, may determine, not inconsistent with the 14 rules and regulations of the state board for community college edu-15 cation.

16 The term "resident students" as used in this section shall 17 mean students who have been domiciled in this state at least one 18 year prior to the commencement of the quarter for which he registers, 19 federal employees and military personnel, the children and spouses 20 of federal employees and military personnel residing within the 21 state, and staff members of the community college and their children 22 and spouses. The term "nonresident students" shall mean all students 23 other than resident students.

24 The term "general tuition fees" as used in this section shall 25 mean the general tuition fee charged students registered at the com-26 munity college for quarters other than summer session, which fees 27 shall be used as prescribed in sections 32, 36 and 37 of this act.

28 The term "incidental fees" as used in this section shall include the 29 fees other than general tuition fees, charged all students register-30 ing at the college for quarters other than summer sessions but shall 31 not include fees for correspondence or extension courses, and indi-32 vidual instruction and student deposits or rentals, disciplinary and 33 library fines, laboratory, gymnasium, health fees, or fee charges,

1 rentals and other income derived from any or all revenue-producing 2 lands, buildings and facilities of the colleges heretofore or here-
3 after acquired, constructed or installed, including but not limited 4 to income from rooms, dormitories, dining rooms, hospitals, in-5 firmaries, housing or student activity buildings, vehicular parking 6 facilities, land, or the appurtenances thereon or such other special 7 fees as may be established by the board of trustees from time to 8 time.

9 NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. Sixty percent of all general tuition 10 fees, all incidental fees, and all other income which the trustees 11 are authorized to impose shall be deposited as the trustees may 12 direct. Such sums of money shall be subject to the budgetary and 13 audit provisions of law applicable to state agencies. The deposi-14 tory selected by the trustees shall conform to the collateral re-15 quirements required for deposit of other state funds.

16 Disbursement shall be made by check signed by the president 17 of the community college or his designee appointed in writing, and 18 such other person as may be designated by the board of trustees of 19 the community college district. Each person authorized to sign as 20 provided above, shall execute a surety bond in the sum of not less 21 than the average amount on deposit in the fund during the preceding 22 six months, or ten thousand dollars, whichever is greater. Said 23 bonds shall be filed in the state auditor's office.

24 NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. The boards of trustees of community
25 college districts are empowered in accordance with the provisions 26 of this act to provide for the construction, reconstruction, erec-27 tion, equipping, demolition and major alterations of buildings and 28 other capital assets, and the acquisition of sites, rights-of-way, 29 easements, improvements or appurtenances for the use of the afore-30 mentioned colleges as authorized by the college board in accordance 31 with section 14 of this act; to be financed by bonds payable out of 32 special funds from revenues hereafter derived from income received 33 from such facilities, gifts, bequests or grants, and such additional

1 funds as the legislature may provide, and payable out of a bond re-2 tirement fund to be established by the respective district boards in 3 accordance with rules and regulations of the state board. With 4 respect to building, improvements or repairs, or other work, the 5 trustees shall have and be subject to the same powers or duties as 6 are authorized and imposed upon school directors by the provisions 7 of RCW 28.58.135 as now or hereafter amended.

8 NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. In addition to the powers conferred 9 under section 9 of this act, the community college state board is 10 authorized and shall have the power:

11 (1) To permit the district boards of trustees to contract
12 for the construction, reconstruction, erection, equipping, mainten-13 ance, demolition and major alterations of buildings and other capital 14 assets, and the acquisition of sites, rights-of-way, easements, im-15 provements or appurtenances of the college as approved by the community 16 college state board.

17 (2) To finance the same by the issuance of bonds secured by 18 the pledge of up to forty percent of the general tuition fees.

19 (3) Without limitation of the foregoing, to accept grants 20 from the United States government, or any federal or state agency or 21 instrumentality, or private corporation, association, or person to 22 aid in defraying the costs of any such projects.

23 NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. For the purpose of financing the cost 24 of any projects, the college board is hereby authorized to adopt 25 the resolution or resolutions and prepare all other documents neces-26 sary for the issuance, sale and delivery of the bonds or any part 27 thereof at such time or times as it shall deem necessary and advis-28 able.

29 Said bonds:

- 30 (1) Shall not constitute 31 (a) an obligation, either general or special, of the state; 32 or 33 (b) a general obligation of the college or of the college

1 board;

2 (2) Shall be

3 (a) either registered or in coupon form; and

4 (b) issued in denominations of not less than one hundred 5 dollars; and

6 (c) fully negotiable instruments under the laws of this 7 state; and

8 (d) signed on behalf of the college board with the manual 9 or facsimile signature of the chairman of the board, attested by the 10 secretary of the board, have the seal of the college board impressed 11 thereon or a facsimile of such seal printed or lithographed in the 12 bottom border thereof, and the coupons attached thereto shall be 13 signed with the facsimile signatures of such chairman and the sec-14 retary;

15 (3) Shall state

16 (a) the date of issue; and

17 (b) the series of the issue and be consecutively numbered 18 within the series; and 19 (c) that the bond is payable both principal and interest 20 solely out of the bond retirement fund created for retirement there-21 of;

22 (4) Each series of bonds shall bear interest, payable either 23 annually or semiannually, as the board may determine at an effective 24 rate not to exceed six percent per annum over the life thereof, and 25 no single interest or coupon rate shall exceed six percent per annum;

26 (5) Shall be payable both principal and interest out of the 27 bond retirement fund;

28 (6) Shall be payable at such times over a period of not to 29 exceed forty years from date of issuance, at such place or places, 30 and with such reserved rights of prior redemption, as the board may 31 prescribe;

32 (7) Shall be sold in such manner as the board may prescribe;

33 (8) Shall be issued under and subject to such terms, conditions

1 and covenants providing for the payment of the principal thereof 2 and interest thereon and such other terms, conditions, covenants and 3 protective provisions safeguarding such payment, not inconsistent 4 with sections 33 through 40 of this act, and as found to be neces-5 sary by the board for the most advantageous sale thereof, which may 6 include but not be limited to:

7 (a) A covenant that a reserve account shall be created in the 8 bond retirement fund to secure the payment of the principal of and 9 interest on all bonds issued and a provision made that certain amounts 10 be set aside and maintained therein;

11 (b) A covenant that sufficient moneys may be transferred 12 from the capital projects account of the college board issuing the 13 bonds to the bond retirement fund of the college board when ordered 14 by the board in the event there is ever an insufficient amount of 15 money in the bond retirement fund to pay any installment of interest 16 or principal and interest coming due on the bonds or any of them;

17 (c) A covenant fixing conditions under which bonds on a 18 parity with any bonds outstanding may be issued.

19 The proceeds of the sale of all bonds, exclusive of accrued 20 interest which shall be deposited in the bond retirement fund, shall 21 be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the capital 22 projects account of the college board and shall be used solely for 23 paying the costs of the projects, and for the purposes set forth in 24 (8)(b) above;

25 (9) Shall constitute a prior lien and charge against forty 26 percent of all general tuition fees of the community colleges.

27 Sec. 36. There is hereby created in the state treasury a 28 community college bond retirement fund. Within thirty-five days from 29 the date of start of each quarter forty percent of all general tui-30 tion fees of each such community college shall be paid into the state 31 treasury, and shall be credited as follows:

32 (1) On or before June 30th of each year the college board if 33 issuing bonds payable out of general tuition fees shall certify to

1 the state treasurer the amounts required in the ensuing twelve-month
2 period to pay and secure the payment of the principal of and inter-3 est on such bonds. The state treasurer shall thereupon deposit the 4 amounts so certified in the community college bond retirement fund 5 which fund as required, is hereby created in the state treasury.
6 The amounts deposited in the bond retirement fund shall be used 7 exclusively to pay and secure the payment of the principal of and 8 interest on the tuition fee bonds issued by the college board as 9 authorized by this act. If in any twelve-month period it shall ap-10 pear that the amount certified by the college board is insufficient 11 to pay and secure the payment of the principal of and interest on 12 the outstanding general tuition fee bonds, the state treasurer shall 13 notify the college board and such board shall adjust its certificate 14 so that all requirements of moneys to pay and secure the payment of 15 the principal and interest on all such bonds then outstanding shall 16 be fully met at all times.

17 (2) That portion of the forty percent of all general tuition 18 fees not required for or in excess of the amounts certified to the 19 state treasurer as being required to pay and secure the payment of 20 any of the bonds as provided in subsection (1) above shall be de-21 posited in the community college capital projects account which ac-22 count is hereby created in the general fund of the state treasury.
23 The sums deposited in the capital projects account shall be appro-24 priated and expended exclusively for the construction, reconstruction, 25 erection, equipping, maintenance, demolition and major alteration of 26 buildings and other capital assets owned by the state board for com-27 munity college education in the name of the state of Washington, and 28 the acquisition of sites, rights-of-way, easements, improvements or 29 appurtenances in relation thereto, and for the payment of principal 30 of and interest on any bonds issued for such purposes.

31 NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. For the purpose of paying and securing 32 the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds as the same 33 shall become due, there shall be paid into the state treasury and

1 credited to the bond retirement fund of the state board for community 2 college education, the following:

3 (1) Amounts derived from up to forty percent of all general
4 tuition fees as are necessary to pay the principal of and interest 5 on the bonds and to secure the same;

6 (2) Any grants which may be made, or may become available, 7 for the purpose of furthering the construction of any authorized 8 projects, or for the repayment of the costs thereof;

9 (3) Such additional funds as the legislature may provide.

10 Said bond retirement fund shall be kept segregated from all 11 moneys in the state treasury and shall, while any of such bonds or 12 any interest thereon remains unpaid, be available solely for the 13 payment thereof. As a part of the contract of sale of such bonds, 14 the college board shall charge and collect general tuition fees as 15 established by this act and deposit up to forty percent of such fees 16 in the bond retirement fund in amounts which will be sufficient to 17 pay and secure the payment of the principal of, and interest on all 18 such bonds outstanding.

1 NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. In accordance with the provisions of 2 section 34 of this act the college board is hereby empowered:

3 (1) To reserve the right to issue bonds later on a parity
4 with any bonds being issued;

5 (2) To authorize the investing of moneys in the bond retire-
6 ment fund and any reserve account therein;

7 (3) To authorize the transfer of money from the college 8 board's capital projects account to the bond retirement fund when 9 necessary to prevent a default in the payments required to be made; 10 and

11 (4) To create a reserve account or accounts in the bond re-12 tirement fund to secure the payment of the principal of and interest 13 on any bonds.

14 NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. The college board is hereby empowered 15 to issue refunding bonds to provide funds to refund any or all out-16 standing bonds payable from the bond retirement fund and to pay any 17 redemption premium payable on such outstanding bonds being refunded.
18 Such refunding bonds may be issued in the manner and on terms and con-19 ditions and with the covenants permitted by sections 33 through 40 of 20 this act for the issuance of bonds. The refunding bonds shall be 21 payable out of the bond retirement fund and shall not constitute an 22 obligation either general or special, of the state or a general obli-23 gation of the college board. The effective interest cost to maturity 24 on such refunding bonds shall not exceed six percent per annum nor 25 shall any single interest or coupon rate exceed six percent per annum.
26 The board may exchange the refunding bonds at par for the bonds which 27 are being refunded or may sell them in such manner as it deems for 28 the best interest of the college.

29 NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. The bonds authorized to be issued 30 pursuant to the provisions of sections 33 through 40 of this act 31 shall not be general obligations of the state of Washington, but shall 32 be limited obligation bonds payable only from the special funds cre-33 ated for their payment. The legislature may specify additional means

1 for providing funds for the payment of principal and interest of said
2 bonds. Sections 33 through 40 of this act shall not be deemed to pro-3 vide an exclusive method for such payment. The power given to the 4 legislature by this section to provide for additional means for rais-5 ing money is permissive, and shall not in any way be construed as a 6 pledge of the general credit of the state of Washington.

7 Sec. 41. Section 2, chapter 176, Laws of 1933, as last
8 amended by section 2, chapter . . . , Laws of 1967 (SSB 409), and RCW
9 28.10.010 are each amended to read as follows:

10 (1) "Handicapped person" means any individual:

11 (a) Who has a physical or mental disability, which constitutes 12 a substantial handicap to employment, of such a nature that voca-13 tional rehabilitation services may reasonably be expected to render 14 him fit to engage in a gainful occupation consistent with his capaci-15 ties and abilities; or

16 (b) Who, because of lack of social competence or mobility, 17 experience, skills, training, or other factors, is in need of voca-18 tional rehabilitation services in order to become fit to engage in a 19 gainful occupation or to attain or maintain a maximum degree of self-20 support or self-care; or

21 (c) For whom vocational rehabilitation services are necessary 22 to determine rehabilitation potential.

23 (2) "Physical or mental disability" means a physical or men-24 tal condition which materially limits, contributes to limiting or, 25 if not corrected, will probably result in limiting an individual's 26 activities or functioning. The term includes behavioral disorders 27 characterized by deviant social behavior or impaired ability to carry 28 out normal relationships with family and community which may result 29 from vocational, educational, cultural, social, environmental or 30 other factors.

31 (3) "Vocational rehabilitation services" means goods or ser-
32 vices provided handicapped persons to enable such persons to be fit 33 for gainful occupation or to attain or maintain a maximum degree of 1 self-support or self-care and includes every type of goods and ser-

2 vices for which federal funds are available for vocational rehabilita-3 tion purposes, including, but not limited to, the establishment, con-4 struction, development, operation and maintenance of workshops and re-5 habilitation facilities.

6 (4) "Self-care" means a reasonable degree of restoration from 7 dependency upon others for personal needs and care and includes but 8 is not limited to ability to live in own home, rather than requiring 9 nursing home care and care for self rather than requiring attendant 10 care.

11 (5) "State agency" means the ((state-board-for-vocational 12 education-or-any-agency-which-supersedes-the-state-board-for-voce-13 tional-education-and-which-administers-or-supervises-the-administra-14 tion-of-vocational-education-in-the-state)) coordinating council for 15 occupational education.

16 Sec. 42. Section 3, chapter 176, Laws of 1933, as last
17 amended by section 6, chapter ..., Laws of 1967 (SSB 409), and RCW
18 28.10.030 are each amended to read as follows:

19 The ((office-of-vocational-rehabilitation)) state agency shall:

20 (1) Provide vocational rehabilitation services to handicapped
21 persons, including the placing of such persons in gainful occupations;

22 (2) Disburse all funds provided by law and may receive, accept 23 and disburse such gifts, grants, conveyances, devises and bequests of 24 real and personal property from public or private sources, as may be 25 made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, whenever the terms and 26 conditions thereof will aid in carrying out vocational rehabilitation 27 services as specified by law and the regulations of the state agency; 28 and may sell, lease or exchange real or personal property according to 29 the terms and conditions thereof. Any money so received shall be de-30 posited in the state treasury for investment, reinvestment or expendi-31 ture in accordance with the conditions of its receipt and RCW 43.88.180;

32 (3) Appoint and fix the compensation, and prescribe the du-33 ties, of the personnel necessary for the administration of this 1967

1 amendatory act, unless otherwise provided by law;

2 (4) Make exploratory studies, make reviews, and do research
3 relative to vocational rehabilitation.

4 Sec. 43. Section 5, chapter 176, Laws of 1933, as last
5 amended by section 9, chapter ..., Laws of 1967 (SSB 409), and RCW 28-
6 .10.050 are each amended to read as follows:

7 The state of Washington does hereby:

8 (1) Accept the provisions and maximum possible benefits re-9 sulting from any acts of congress which provide benefits for the pur-10 poses of this chapter;

11 (2) Designate the state treasurer as custodian of all moneys 12 received by the state from appropriations made by the congress of the 13 United States for purposes of this 1967 amendatory act, and authorize 14 the state treasurer to make disbursements therefrom upon the order of 15 the ((office-of-vocational-rehabilitation)) state agency; and 16 (3) Empower and direct the state agency to cooperate with the 17 federal government in carrying out the provisions of this 1967 amenda-18 tory act or of any federal law or regulation pertaining to vocational 19 rehabilitation, and to comply with such conditions as may be necessary 20 to assure the maximum possible benefits resulting from any such feder-21 al law or regulation.

22 NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. If any part of this 1967 amendatory act
23 shall be found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a 24 condition precedent to the allocation of federal funds to the state, 25 such conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inopera-26 tive solely to the extent of such conflict, and such findings or de-27 termination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act

28 Sec. 45. Section 7, chapter ..., Laws of 1967 (SSB 409) is 29 amended to read as follows:

30 The ((office-of-vocational-rehabilitation)) state agency shall 31 make available vocational rehabilitation services to the departments 32 of institutions, labor and industries, public assistance, and employ-33 ment security, and other state or other public agencies, in accordance

1 with cooperative agreements between the (~~office-of-vocational-rehabil-~~ 2 ~~itation~~) state agency and the respective agencies.

3 Sec. 46. Section 8, chapter ..., Laws of 1967 (SSB 409) is 4 amended to read as follows:

5 The (~~office-of-vocational-rehabilitation~~) state agency may 6 purchase, from any source, by contract, vocational rehabilitation ser-7 vices for handicapped persons, payments for such services to be made 8 subject to procedures and fiscal controls approved by the budget di-9 rector. The performance of and payment for such services shall be 10 subject to post audit review by the state auditor.

11 Sec. 47. Section 7, chapter 1, Laws of 1961 as amended by 12 section 1, chapter 179, Laws of 1961 and RCW 41.06.070 are each
13 amended to read as follows:

14 The provisions of this chapter do not apply to:

15 (1) The members of the legislature or to any employee of, or 16 position in, the legislative branch of the state government including 17 members, officers and employees of the legislative council, legisla-18 tive budget committee, statute law committee, and any interim commit-19 tee of the legislature;

20 (2) The judges of the supreme court, of the superior courts 21 or of the inferior courts or to any employee of, or position in the 22 judicial branch of state government;

23 (3) Academic personnel of the institutions of higher learning 24 and other such positions as are exempted under provisions of RCW 41-25 .06.050;

26 (4) The officers of the Washington state patrol;

27 (5) Elective officers of the state;

28 (6) The chief executive officer of each agency;

29 (7) In the departments of employment security, health, fish-
30 eries, institutions and public assistance, the director and his confi-31 dential secretary; in all other departments, the executive head of 32 which is an individual appointed by the governor, the director, his 33 confidential secretary, and his statutory assistant directors;

1 (8) In the case of a multimember board, commission or commit-
2 tee, whether the members thereof are elected, appointed by the gover-3 nor or other authority, serve ex officio, or are otherwise chosen;

4 (a) All members of such boards, commissions or committees;

5 (b) If the members of the board, commission, or committee 6 serve on a part time basis and there is a statutory executive officer:

7 (i) the secretary of the board, commission or committee; (ii) the 8 chief executive officer of the board, commission, or committee; and 9 (iii) the confidential secretary of the chief executive officer of the 10 board, commission, or committee;

11 (c) If the members of the board, commission, or committee
12 serve on a full time basis: (i) the chief executive officer or admin-13 istrative officer as designated by the board, commission, or commit-14 tee; and (ii) a confidential secretary to the chairman of the board, 15 commission, or committee;

8 formed under the provisions of chapter 256, Laws of 1961 (chapter 15-9 .65 RCW);

10 (20) Professional education employees of the state board for 11 community college education.

12 Sec. 48. Section 2, chapter 1, Laws of 1961 and RCW 41.06.020
13 are each amended to read as follows:

14 Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the words
15 used in this chapter have the meaning given in this section.

16 (1) "Institutions of higher learning" are the University of 17 Washington, Washington State University, Central Washington State Col-
18 lege, Eastern Washington State College, ((and)) Western Washington
19 State College, new, four-year state colleges subsequently autho-20 rized, and the various state community colleges;

21 (2) "Agency" means an office, department, board, commission
22 or other separate unit or division, however designated, of the state 23 government and all personnel thereof; it includes any unit of state 24 government established by law, the executive officer or members of 25 which are either elected or appointed, upon which the statutes confer 26 powers and impose duties in connection with operations of either a 27 governmental or proprietary nature;

28 (3) "Board" means the state personnel board established under 29 the provisions of RCW 41.06.110, the personnel committee established 30 under RCW 41.06.050 and the personnel board established under RCW 41-31 .06.060, except that this definition does not apply to the words
32 "board" or "boards" when used in RCW 41.06.070;

33 (4) "Classified service" means all positions in the state

1 service subject to the provisions of this chapter;

2 (5) "Competitive service" means all positions in the classi-
3 fied service for which a competitive examination is required as a 4 condition precedent to appointment;

5 (6) "Noncompetitive service" means all positions in the classi-
6 fied service for which a competitive examination is not required;

7 (7) "Department" means an agency of government that has as 8 its governing officer a person, or combination of persons such as a 9 commission, board or council, by law empowered to operate the agency 10 responsible either to (1) no other public officer or (2) the governor.

11 Sec. 49. Section 43.88.160, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW
12 43.88.160 are each amended to read as follows:

13 This section sets forth the major fiscal duties and responsi-
14 bilities of officers and agencies of the executive branch. The regu-15 lations issued by the governor pursuant to this chapter shall provide 16 for a comprehensive, orderly basis for fiscal management and control, 17 including efficient accounting and reporting therefor, for the execu-18 tive branch of the state government and may include, in addition, such 19 requirements as will generally promote more efficient public manage-20 ment in the state.

21 (1) Governor; budget director. The governor, through his 22 budget director, shall devise and supervise a modern and complete ac-23 counting system for each agency to the end that all revenues, expendi-24 tures, receipts, disbursements, resources and obligations of the state 25 shall be properly and systematically accounted for. The accounting 26 system shall include the development of accurate, timely records and 27 reports of all financial affairs of the state. The system shall also 28 provide for comprehensive central accounts in the central budget agen-29 cy. The budget director may require such financial, statistical and 30 other reports as he deems necessary from all agencies covering any 31 period.

32 In addition, the budget director, as agent of the governor, 33 shall:

1 (a) Make surveys and analyses of agencies with the object of 2 determining better methods and increased effectiveness in the use of 3 manpower and materials; and he shall authorize expenditures for em-
4 ployee training to the end that the state may benefit from training 5 facilities made available to state employees;

6 (b) Report to the governor with regard to duplication of ef-
7 fort or lack of coordination among agencies;

8 (c) Review any pay and classification plans, and changes 9 thereunder, developed by any agency for their fiscal impact: PROVIDED, 10 That none of the provisions of this subsection shall affect merit sys-11 tems of personnel management now existing or hereafter established by 12 statute relating to the fixing of qualifications requirements for re-13 cruitment, appointment, or promotion of employees of any agency. He 14 shall advise and confer with agencies including the legislative budget 15 committee and the legislative council regarding the fiscal impact of 16 such plans and may amend or alter said plans, except that for the fol-17 lowing agencies no amendment or alteration of said plans may be made 18 without the approval of the agency concerned: Agencies headed by 19 elective officials; University of Washington; Washington State Univer-
20 sity; Central Washington State College; Eastern Washington State Col-21 lege; ((and)) Western Washington State College; new, four-year state 22 colleges subsequently authorized, professional education employees of 23 the state board for community college education; and the various state 24 community colleges;

25 (d) Fix the number and classes of positions or authorized man 26 years of employment for each agency and during the fiscal period amend 27 the determinations previously fixed by him except that he shall not be 28 empowered to fix said number or said classes for the following: Agen-
29 cies headed by elective officials; University of Washington; Washington 30 State University; Central Washington State College; Eastern Washington
31 State College; ((and)) Western Washington State College; new, four-32 year state colleges subsequently authorized; professional education 33 employees of the state board for community college education; and the 1 various state community colleges;

2 (e) Promulgate regulations to effectuate provisions contained 3 in subsections (a) through (d) hereof.

4 (2) The treasurer shall:

5 (a) Receive, keep and disburse all public funds of the state 6 not expressly required by law to be received, kept and disbursed by 7 some other persons: PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not apply to 8 those public funds of the institutions of higher learning which are 9 not subject to appropriation;

10 (b) Disburse public funds under his supervision or custody 11 by warrant or check;

12 (c) Keep a correct and current account of all moneys received 13 and disbursed by him, classified by fund or account;

14 (d) Perform such other duties as may be required by law or by 15 regulations issued pursuant to this law.

16 It shall be unlawful for the treasurer to issue any warrant or 17 check for public funds in the treasury except upon forms duly pre-18 scribed by the budget director. Said forms shall provide for authenti-19 cation and certification by the agency head or his designee that the 20 services have been rendered or the materials have been furnished and 21 the treasurer shall not be liable under his surety bond for erroneous 22 or improper payments so made. The responsibility for recovery of er-23 roneous or improper payments made under this section shall lie with 24 the agency head or his designee in accordance with regulations issued 25 pursuant to this chapter.

26 (3) The state auditor shall:

27 (a) Report to the legislature the results of current post 28 audits that have been made of the financial transactions of each 29 agency; to this end he may, in his discretion, examine the books and 30 accounts of any agency, official or employee charged with the receipt, 31 custody or safekeeping of public funds.

32 (b) Give information to the legislature, whenever required, 33 upon any subject relating to the financial affairs of the state.

1 (c) Make his official report on or before the thirty-first of 2 December which precedes the meeting of the legislature. The report
3 shall be for the last complete fiscal period and shall include at 4 least the following:

5 (i) Determinations as to whether agencies, in making expendi-6 tures, complied with the will of the legislature; and 7 (ii) Such plans as he deems expedient for the support of the 8 state's credit, for lessening expenditures, for promoting frugality

9 and economy in agency affairs and generally for an improved level of 10 fiscal management.

11 (d) Be empowered to take exception to specific expenditures 12 that have been incurred by any agency or to take exception to other 13 practices related in any way to the agency's financial transactions 14 and to cause such exceptions to be made a matter of public record, 15 including disclosure to the agency concerned and to the budget direc-16 tor. It shall be the duty of the budget director to cause corrective 17 action to be taken promptly, such action to include, as appropriate, 18 the withholding of funds as provided in RCW 43.88.110.

19 (e) Shall promptly report any irregularities to the attorney 20 general.

21 (4) The legislative budget committee may:

22 (a) Make post audits of such of the financial transactions
23 as it may determine of any agency and to this end may in its dis-24 cretion examine the books and accounts of any agency, official, or em-25 ployee charged with the receipt, custody, or safekeeping of public 26 funds.

27 (b) Give information to the legislature and legislative coun-28 cil whenever required upon any subject relating to the financial af-29 fairs of the state.

30 (c) Make its official report on or before the thirty-first of 31 December which precedes the meeting of the legislature. The report 32 shall be for the last complete fiscal period and shall include at 33 least the following:

1 (i) Determinations as to the extent to which agencies in mak-2 ing expenditures have complied with the will of the legislature and 3 in this connection, may take exception to specific expenditures or fi-4 nancial practices of any agencies; and

5 (ii) Such plans as it deems expedient for the support of the 6 state's credit, for lessening expenditures, for promoting frugality
7 and economy in agency affairs and generally for an improved level of 8 fiscal management; and

9 (iii) A report on the efficiency and accuracy of the post 10 audit operations of the state government.

11 Sec. 50. Section 1, chapter 212, Laws of 1957 and RCW 28.76-
12 .390 are each amended to read as follows:

13 The associated students of the University of Washington, the 14 associated students of Washington State University, the student asso-15 ciations of the state community colleges and the student associations 16 of the state colleges shall contract for all purchases for printing of 17 athletic programs, athletic tickets, athletic press brochures, year-18 books, magazines, newspapers and letting of concessions, exceeding 19 one thousand dollars, notice of call for bid on the same to be pub-20 lished in at least two newspapers of general circulation in the county 21 wherein the institution is located two weeks prior to the award being 22 made. The contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, 23 if the price bid is fair and reasonable and not greater than the mar-24 ket value and price, and if the bid satisfactorily covers the quality, 25 design, performance, convenience and reliability of service of the 26 manufacturer and/or dealer. The associated students of the University 27 of Washington, the associated students of Washington State University 28 and the student associations of the state colleges or community col-29 leges may require such security as they deem proper to accompany the 30 bids submitted, and they shall also fix the amount of the bond or 31 other security that shall be furnished by the person to whom the con-
32 tract is awarded. The associated students of the University of Wash-33 ington, the associated students of Washington State University and the

1 student associations of the state colleges or community colleges may 2 reject any or all bids submitted, if for any reason it is deemed for 3 the best interest of their organizations to do so and readvertise in 4 accordance with the provisions of this section. The associated stu-
5 dents of the University of Washington, the associated students of 6 Washington State University and the student associations of the state 7 colleges or community colleges may reject the bid of any person who 8 has had a prior contract, and who did not, in its opinion, faithfully 9 comply with its terms: PROVIDED, That nothing in this section shall 10 apply to printing done on presses owned and operated by the associated 11 students of the University of Washington, the associated students of 12 Washington State University or the student associations of the state 13 colleges or community colleges, or to printing done on presses owned 14 or operated by their respective institutions.

15 Sec. 51. Section 43.19.190, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW
16 43.19.190 are each amended to read as follows:

17 The director of general administration, through the division 18 of purchasing, shall:

19 (1) Establish and staff such administrative organizational 20 units within the division of purchasing as may be necessary for ef-21 fective administration of the provisions of RCW 43.19.190 through 43-22 .19.1939;

23 (2) Purchase all material, supplies and equipment needed for 24 the support, maintenance, and use of all state institutions, colleges, 25 community colleges and universities, the offices of the elective 26 state officers, the supreme court, the administrative and other de-27 partments of state government, and the offices of all appointive offi-28 cers of the state: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That primary authority for 29 the purchase of specialized equipment, instructional and research 30 material for their own use shall rest with the colleges, community 31 colleges and universities: PROVIDED FURTHER, That primary authority 32 for the purchase of materials, supplies and equipment for resale to 33 other than state agencies shall rest with the state agency concerned;

1 (3) Provide the required staff assistance for the state pur-
2 chasing committee through the division of purchasing;

3 (4) Have authority to delegate to state agencies a limited
4 authorization to purchase or sell, which authorization shall specify 5 restrictions as to dollar amount or to specific types of material, 6 equipment and supplies: PROVIDED, That acceptance of the limited 7 purchasing authorization by a state agency does not relieve such 8 agency from conformance with other sections of RCW 43.19.190 through 9 43.19.1939 or from policies established by the state purchasing com-10 mittee;

11 (5) Contract for the testing of material, supplies, and 12 equipment with public and private agencies as necessary and advis-13 able to protect the interests of the state;

14 (6) Prescribe the manner of inspecting all deliveries of 15 supplies, materials, and equipment purchased through the division;

16 (7) Prescribe the manner in which supplies, materials, and 17 equipment purchased through the division shall be delivered, stored, 18 and distributed;

19 (8) Provide for the maintenance of a catalogue library, manu-20 facturers' and wholesalers' lists, and current market information;

21 (9) Provide for a commodity classification system and may, in 22 addition, provide for the adoption of standard specifications when 23 approved by the purchasing committee;

24 (10) Provide for the maintenance of inventory records of sup-25 plies, materials, equipment, and other property;

26 (11) Prepare rules and regulations governing the relationship 27 and procedures between the division of purchasing and state agencies 28 and vendors.

29 NEW SECTION. Sec. 52. The state board for community college 30 education or any community college board of trustees is authorized to 31 receive federal funds made available for the assistance of community 32 colleges, and providing physical facilities, maintenance or operation 33 of schools, or for any educational purposes, according to the 1 provisions of the acts of congress making such funds available.

2 NEW SECTION. Sec. 53. The district boards of trustees and the 3 common school boards are hereby authorized to enter into agreements 4 for the use by either of the other's services, facilities or equipment 5 and for the presentation of courses of either for students of the 6 other where such agreements are deemed to be in the best interests of 7 the education of the students involved.

8 NEW SECTION. Sec. 54. The provisions of RCW 28.67.070 appli-
9 cable to existing teacher contracts between the common school boards 10 and the various teachers in the various community colleges and voca-11 tional-technical institutes shall continue to apply with equal effect 12 after the college district boards assume control and supervision of 13 the said community colleges and vocational-technical institutes pur-14 suant to the provisions of this act.

15 The state board for community college education is hereby di-16 rected to prepare a study report on teacher tenure agreements and to 17 recommend legislation to effectuate the best possible teacher tenure 18 plan consistent with the best interests of the state. The study re-19 port and proposed legislation shall be presented to the members of 20 the forty-first legislature no later than November 30, 1968.

21 NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. When the college district boards assume 22 control and supervision of the respective community colleges and voca-23 tional-technical institutes, the teachers and non-academic personnel 24 shall be deemed to remain an employee of the common school board for 25 the purposes of any sick leave credit plan of the common school board 26 until the district board has established a sick leave credit plan for 27 its employees, whereupon the district board shall place to the credit 28 of the employee the sick leave credits standing to his credit in the 29 plan of such common school board. Where applicable, the prior vaca-30 tion with pay rights of the employees shall be treated in the same 31 manner as above.

32 The provisions of this section also include the leave provisions 33 of RCW 28.58.100, chapter ..., Laws of 1967 (SB 135).

1 NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. (1) When the college district boards
2 assume administration, control and occupancy of the respective com-
3 munity colleges and vocational-technical institutes, the faculty and 4 nonacademic personnel employed therein shall be deemed to remain an 5 employee of the common school board for the purpose of any health care 6 service contract or hospitalization insurance contract provided as a 7 benefit for such faculty or nonacademic personnel, and shall continue 8 to be entitled to all rights thereunder as if they had remained an 9 employee of the common school board.

10 Until the state board for community college education adopts a 11 new hospitalization insurance contract or health care service contract 12 for all employees in the community college system, the district col-13 lege boards shall deduct from the remuneration of such employee the 14 amount which such employee is or may be required to pay in accordance 15 with the provisions of any existing hospitalization insurance or 16 health care service contract and the district college boards shall 17 pay to the hospitalization insurance company or health care service 18 contractor the employer's share required to be paid under the provi-19 sions of such existing plans by the employer and the employee.

20 (2) The state board for community college education is hereby 21 directed to secure the best possible health care service plan avail-22 able under the provisions of RCW 41.04.180 as now or hereafter amended.

23 NEW SECTION. Sec. 57. (1) When the college district boards
24 assume administration control and occupancy of the respective com-
25 munity colleges and vocational technical institutes, the faculty and 26 nonacademic personnel employed therein shall be deemed to remain an 27 employee of the common school board for the purpose of any pension 28 plan of such employees, and shall continue to be entitled to all 29 rights and benefits thereunder as if they had remained employed by 30 the common school board.

31 Until the legislature adopts a new pension plan for such em-
32 ployees, the district boards shall deduct from the remuneration of 33 such employee the amount which such employee is or may be required

1 to pay in accordance with the provisions of the pension plan of the 2 Washington state teachers retirement system and the district boards
3 shall pay to the retirement system any amounts required to be paid 4 under the provisions of such plan by the employer and the employee.

5 (2) Faculty hired by the college district boards after the ef-
6 fective date of this act, who are members of a teachers' pension plan 7 in operation in the state of Washington or who are members of a nation-8 wide teachers' pension plan, may continue to retain membership in such 9 plan if they so elect and if the election is not inconsistent with 10 the regulations of such retirement plan.

11 Until the legislature adopts a new pension plan for such em-
12 ployees, the district boards shall deduct from the remuneration of 13 such employee the amount which such employee is or may be required 14 to pay in accordance with the provisions of the pension plan he has 15 elected to continue and the college district boards shall pay to the 16 pension plan any amounts required to be paid under the provisions of 17 such plan by the employer and the employee.

18 (3) The state board for community college education is hereby 19 directed to consult with the public pension commission and prepare a 20 study report on pension plans for faculty and to recommend legisla-21 tion to adopt a plan for the best interests of the state. The study 22 report shall be presented to the members of the forty-first legisla-23 ture no later than November 30, 1968.

24 NEW SECTION. Sec. 58. Whenever the provisions of the profes-
25 sional negotiations law, chapter 28.72 RCW, as now or hereafter 26 amended, applies to the faculty and staff of the said community col-27 leges and vocational-technical institutes, it shall continue to apply 28 after the effective date of this act, but negotiations and appeals 29 shall be conducted with the respective board and the director of the 30 state board for community college education.

31 The state board for community colleges shall prepare a study 32 for presentation to the members of the forty-first legislature with 33 respect to the applicability of such law to the state system of

1 community colleges.

2 NEW SECTION. Sec. 59. Whenever, prior to the effective date
3 of this act, the use of a single building facility is being shared 4 between an existing community college program and a K-12 program, 5 hereafter the respective boards shall continue to share the use of 6 the facility until such time as it is convenient to remove one of the 7 two programs to another facility. The determination of convenience 8 shall be based solely upon the best interests of the students involved.

9 Whenever a community college district board and a common school 10 district board are sharing the use of a single facility, the program 11 occupying the majority of the space of such facility, exclusive of 12 space utilized equally by both, shall determine which board will be 13 charged with the administration and control of such facility. The 14 determination of occupancy shall be based upon the space occupied as 15 of January 1, 1967.

16 The board which is charged with the administration and control 17 of such facility may share expenses with the other board for the use 18 of the facility.

19 In the event that the two boards are unable to agree upon 20 which board is to administer and control the facility or upon a fair 21 share of expenses for the use of the facility, the governor shall ap-22 point an arbitrator to settle the matter. The decisions of the arbi-23 trator shall be final and binding upon both boards. The expenses of 24 the arbitration shall be divided equally by each board.

25 NEW SECTION. Sec. 60. Whenever a common school board has con-
26 tracted to redeem general obligation bonds used for the construction 27 or acquisition of facilities which are now to be under the administra-28 tion, control and occupancy of the community college district board, 29 the common school board shall continue to redeem the bonds in accor-30 dance with the provisions of the bonds.

31 NEW SECTION. Sec. 61. In all cases where an existing office, 32 board, commission, bureau, or department of the state is abolished by 33 this act, or where the powers and duties vested in, and required to

1 be performed by, any existing officer, board, commission, common 2 school district board, bureau, or department, are transferred to, 3 vested in and required to be performed by, an existing or a newly 4 created department, council, district board, state board, or a state 5 officer, all books, papers, maps, charts, plans, records, and all 6 other equipment or property in the possession of such existing offi-7 cer, board, commission, common school district board, bureau or de-8 partment or any officer or member thereof, and pending business in 9 any way pertaining to the powers and duties of such office, board, 10 commission, bureau, or department abolished by this act, shall be de-11 livered and transferred to the administrative and executive head of 12 the department, the council, district board, state board, or state 13 officer to which his or its powers and duties are transferred. In 14 case such powers and duties are divided between two or more depart-15 ments, councils, district boards, state boards, committees, or state 16 officers, each shall receive such books, papers, maps, charts, plans, 17 records, other equipment and property, and pending business as per-18 tain to the powers and duties transferred to that department, council, 19 district board, state board, or officer. In all cases where any ques-20 tion shall arise as to the proper custody of any such books, papers, 21 maps, charts, plans, records, other equipment and property, and pend-22 ing business, the governor shall settle the dispute.

23 All parties to such transfer are hereby directed to cooperate 24 to the extent that the changeover shall be accomplished in the best 25 interest of education and the people served by such state board, de-26 partment, council, or district board.

27 NEW SECTION. Sec. 62. All petitions, hearings, and other pro-28 ceedings pending before any existing officer, board, commission, bu-29 reau, common school district board, or department which is abolished 30 by this act, or the powers and duties of which are vested in, and re-31 quired to be performed by, an existing or newly created department, 32 or state officer, and all prosecutions, legal or other proceedings 33 and investigations begun by any such officer, board, commission,

1 bureau, or department, and not completed at the time of the taking 2 effect of this act, shall continue and remain in full force and effect 3 notwithstanding the passage of this act, and may be completed before 4 or by the department, board, council or district board, or officer 5 which succeeds to the powers and duties of such office, board, com-6 mission, bureau, or department.

7 NEW SECTION. Sec. 63. All orders, rules, and regulations made 8 by any existing officer, board, commission, bureau, common school dis-9 trict board, or department which is abolished by this act, or the 10 powers and duties of which are vested in, and required to be performed 11 by, an existing or newly created department, board, council, or dis-12 trict board, or a state officer, shall remain in full force and effect 13 until revoked, or modified in accordance with law by the department, 14 board, council, or district board, or officer which succeeds to the 15 powers and duties of such existing office, board, commission, dis-16 trict board, bureau, or department.

17 NEW SECTION. Sec. 64. All existing contracts and obligations 18 of the officers, boards, commissions, bureaus, departments, common 19 school district boards, abolished by this act, or the powers and du-20 ties of which are vested in, and required to be performed by, an ex-21 isting or newly created department council, board, district board, 22 or a state officer, shall remain in full force and effect, and shall 23 be performed by the respective departments, council, board, district 24 board, or state officers to which the powers and duties of such ex-25 isting office, board, commission, bureau, department or district 26 board are transferred.

27 NEW SECTION. Sec. 65. All reports required by law to be made 28 by any existing office, board, commission, bureau, department, dis-29 trict board, abolished by this act, or the powers and duties of which 30 are vested in, and required to be performed by, an existing or newly 31 created department, board, council, district board, created by this 32 act, or a state officer, shall hereafter be made by the executive 33 and administrative head of the department, or board, council, district

1 board or officer to which the powers and duties of such existing of-2 fice, board, commission, bureau, department or district board are 3 transferred.

4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 66. In all cases where by this act power
5 is vested in a department or officer to inspect, examine, secure data 6 or information from, or procure assistance from, another department 7 or officer, it shall be the duty of such other department or officer 8 to submit to such inspection or examination, and to furnish the data, 9 information, or assistance required.

10 NEW SECTION. Sec. 67. In all cases where any powers and du-11 ties, which have heretofore been vested in, or performed by, any ex-12 isting officer, board, commission, common school district board, bu-13 reau or department, or any deputy or subordinate officer thereof, are 14 by this act transferred, either in whole or in part, to, or vested in 15 and required to be performed by, an existing or newly created depart-16 ment, or state officer, such powers and duties shall be vested in, 17 and shall be performed by, the department, council board, district 18 board, or officer to which the same are hereby transferred, and not 19 otherwise. And every act done in the exercise of such powers and du-20 ties shall have the same legal effect as if done by the former offi-21 cer, board, commission, bureau, common school district board, or de-22 partment or any deputy or subordinate officer thereof. Every person 23 and corporation shall be subject to the same obligations and duties, 24 and shall have the same rights arising from the exercise of such 25 powers and the performance of such duties, as if such powers and du-26 ties were exercised and performed by the officer, board, commission, 27 bureau, district board, or department, or any deputy or subordinate 28 officer thereof, designated in the respective laws which are to be 29 administered by the departments, council, board, district boards, or 30 state officers to which such powers and duties are transferred.

31 NEW SECTION. Sec. 68. In all cases where an existing office,
32 board, commission, bureau, department, or common school district 33 board is abolished by this act, or where the powers and duties vested

1 in, and required to be performed by, any existing officer, board, 2 commission, bureau, department or district board are transferred to,
3 vested in, and required to be performed by an existing or newly cre-
4 ated department, council, state board, or district board, or a state 5 officer, all teachers and other employees of such office, board, com-6 mon school district board, commission, bureau, or department so abol-7 ished, or the powers and duties of which are so transferred, as the 8 director of the department or council, state board, or district board, 9 or officer to which the powers and duties of such office, board, com-10 mission, bureau, district board, or department are transferred may 11 select, shall continue to perform their usual duties upon the same 12 terms and conditions as heretofore, until removed, or appointed to 13 positions in accordance with the provisions of this act relative to 14 such department, board, or district board or transferred to some 15 other department, board, or district board. In all cases where the 16 powers and duties of any such existing office, board, commission, bu-17 reau, district board, or department are divided between departments, 18 boards, council, district boards, or state officers, each of such de-19 partments, committees, or officers shall receive, on the above terms 20 and conditions, such of the employees of said office, board, commis-21 sion, bureau, or department as are selected by the respective direc-22 tors of the department, or by the council, state board, or district 23 board, or state officer to which the functions thereof are by this 24 act transferred.

25 NEW SECTION. Sec. 69. The appropriations made to the state 26 board for vocational education abolished by this chapter shall be 27 transferred to and made available to the coordinating council for oc-28 cupational education in accordance with the powers, duties and func-29 tions assigned to it by this act. Appropriations for the exercise of 30 powers, duties and functions transferred to the state board for com-31 munity college education from the state board of education shall be 32 transferred to and made available to the state board for community 33 college education in accordance with the provisions of section 70 of 1 this act.

2 NEW SECTION. Sec. 70. The transfer of equipment, funds and 3 appropriations from the state board of education to the state board 4 for community college education, as provided in sections 59 through 5 70 of this act, shall be accomplished in accordance with apportion-6 ments among the several agencies by the director of the budget, who 7 shall have due consideration to the total of the appropriations to the 8 several agencies, the size and nature of the functions to be trans-9 ferred and the feasibility of segregating such equipment to the vari-
10 ous functions. The director of the budget shall certify such appor-11 tionments to the agencies affected and to the state auditor, the state 12 treasurer and department of general administration, each of whom shall 13 make the appropriate transfers and adjustments in their funds and ap-14 propriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with such 15 certification.

16 NEW SECTION. Sec. 71. All funds remaining to the credit of 17 the various special service revolving funds created pursuant to RCW 18 28.84.290 (herein repealed) shall be disbursed in accordance with the 19 provisions of RCW 28.84.290 until July 1, 1967, thereafter such funds 20 shall be transferred to the community college district boards of 21 trustees.

22 NEW SECTION. Sec. 72. If any provision of this act, or its 23 application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the re-24 mainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other per-25 sons or circumstances is not affected.

26 NEW SECTION. Sec. 73. The following acts or parts of acts are 27 each hereby repealed:

- 28 (1) Section 1, chapter 115, Laws of 1945 and RCW 28.84.119;
29 (2) Section 2, chapter 115, Laws of 1945, section 13, chapter

26 NEW SECTION. Sec. 74. Notwithstanding any other statutory pro-27 vision relating to indebtedness of school districts, bonds heretofore 28 issued by any common school district for the purpose of providing 29 funds for community college facilities shall not be considered as 30 indebtedness in determining the maximum allowable indebtedness under 31 any statutory limitation of indebtedness when the sum of all indebted-32 ness therein does not exceed the maximum constitutional allowable in-33 debtedness applied to the value of the taxable property contained in

1 common school district. PROVIDED, that nothing herein shall 2 be construed to affect the distribution of state funds under any ap-3 plicable distribution formula.

4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 75. Until the community college district
5 board has actually assumed the duties and responsibilities of the ad-6 ministration, management, or development of existing or authorized 7 community college facilities, those duties and responsibilities shall 8 continue to be discharged by the common school district operating or 9 developing such community college facilities on the effective date 10 hereof.

11 Where contracts have been let by the common school board pur-12 suant to present law for the purpose of acquisition, construction, re-13 pair or modification of an existing community college facility such 14 projects shall be completed under the administration of the common 15 school board, superintendent of public instruction and/or the state 16 board of education, and payments thereto shall be made from such funds 17 as are allocated thereto.

18 Sec. 76. Section 1, chapter 169, Laws of 1947, as 19 last amended by section 1, chapter 103, Laws of 1965 and RCW 28.58.360
20 are each amended to read as follows:

21 The school directors' association may establish a graduated 22 schedule of dues for members of the association based upon the number 23 of certificated personnel in each district. Dues shall be established 24 for the directors of each district as a group. The total of all dues 25 assessed shall not exceed twenty-two cents for each one thousand dol-26 lars of the state-wide total of all school districts' general fund re-27 ceipts. The board of directors of a school district shall make pro-28 vision for payment out of the general fund of the district of the dues 29 of association members resident in the district, which payment shall 30 be made in the manner provided by law for the payment of other claims 31 against the general fund of the district. The dues for each school 32 district shall be due and payable on the first day of January of each 33 year, and if not paid by any district before the thirty-first day of 1 December of any year the executive committee of the association may 2 present a written request to the county auditor that such payment be 3 made by him by transfer of funds from the general fund of the dis-4 trict. Upon receipt of such request the county auditor shall make 5 such transfer.

6 NEW SECTION. Sec. 77. Notwithstanding any other provisions of 7 this act, the board of directors of any public school district lo-
8 cated in any county of the second, first, A or AA class wherein there 9 is an existing vocational-technical institute, may elect to have such 10 vocational-technical institute remain a part of the public school 11 system rather than have such institute become a part of the state 12 community college system: PROVIDED, That within thirty days after 13 the effective date of this act, any school district operating a 14 vocational-technical institute which operates independently of any 15 existing community college as of January 1, 1967 may elect to remain 16 independent of any community college by resolution of the board of 17 directors of such district: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any public 18 school district may relinquish administrative control over a voca-19 tional-technical institute at the beginning of any fiscal biennium if 20 by resolution dated before the preceding January 1st it shall so in-21 form the state board of education and the state and district com-22 munity college boards.

23 NEW SECTION. Sec. 78. It is the intent of this legislature
24 that the college board provide for the four community colleges autho-25 rized by section 3, chapter 159, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session, 26 and for which local funds for construction have been voted as of the 27 effective date of this act, funds equivalent to those that would have 28 been provided by matching ratios and construction costs in effect on 29 January 1, 1967.

30 NEW SECTION. Sec. 79. This act is necessary for the immediate 31 preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of 32 the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall 33 take effect immediately.
