ABSTRACT

Secondary level students explore the state of poverty in affluent America in this quinmester social studies course. The objectives are for students to assess personal views and understandings of poverty; to locate the poor through research; to identify the causes and economic, social, and political effects of poverty; to examine changing attitudes and viewpoints of Americans toward the poor from a historical perspective; to compare and contrast efforts made toward helping the poor; to research present efforts to alleviate the plight of the poor on a national, state, and local level; to investigate welfare programs implemented in other nations; and to compare these programs with ones in the United States to assess their applicability in America. Emphasis is upon activity learning that involves discussion, role playing, and research. The curriculum guide follows the same format used in other quinmester courses including outlines of a course description and rationale, objectives, content, and activities. Resources are suggested throughout the activities section, and a teacher/student bibliography lists textual, and audio visual materials, filmstrips, films, simulation games, slides, reports, periodicals, and books. INTRODUCTION

This course of study was written as a part of a total effort to revise curriculum to fit the quinmester administrative organization of schools. The materials and information in this Guide are meant to be neither all-inclusive nor prescriptive; but rather, an aide to teachers as they plan instructional programs, taking into account student needs and characteristics, available resources, and other factors.

The major intent of this publication is to provide a broad framework of goals and objectives, content, teaching strategies, class activities, and materials all related to a described course of study. Teachers may then accept the model framework in total or draw ideas from it to incorporate into their lessons.

The guide is divided into 1) a broad goals section, 2) a content outline, 3) objectives and learning activities, and 4) materials. The first section provides descriptive and goal-oriented information for the teacher; "indicators of success" refers to suggested prerequisite or corequisite experiences. The content outline illustrates, in general terms, the scope and major subdivisions of the course. The objectives and learning activities section, hopefully, provides a total picture of the concept or main idea and specific behavioral objectives for a set of given learning activities. The materials section of the guide lists resources in four categories: essential textual or other material; alternate classroom materials to use in place of or in addition to the aforementioned; supplementary teacher resources; and supplementary student resources. The appendix may include other material appropriate for a specific course: e.g., pretests, readings, vocabulary, etc.

Anyone having recommendations relating to this publication is urged to write them down and send to : Social Studies Office, Room 306, Lindsey Hopkins, A-1.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

A STUDY OF POVERTY IN AMERICA, CENTERING ON THESE QUESTIONS: WHY ARE THERE MILLIONS OF POOR PEOPLE IN OUR LEADING NATION? WHO ARE THEY? WHERE ARE THEY? HOW CAN WE AS A NATION ELIMINATE POVERTY? WHY ARE POOR PEOPLE POOR? WHAT ARE THE CAUSES? WHY - HOW TO ALLEVIATE POVERTY OR ELIMINATE ITS CAUSES? SHOULD WE HAVE WELFARE?

GRADE LEVEL: 9-12
COURSE STATUS: Elective
INDICATORS OF SUCCESS: None

COURSE RATIONALE:

POVERTY, AND THE PROBLEMS OF POVERTY HAVE REACHED SUCH DIMENSIONS IN AMERICA THAT THE UNITED STATES IS AT "WAR" WITH POVERTY. THE "WAR ON POVERTY" ANNOUNCED BY PRESIDENT LYNDON B. JOHNSON IN 1964 SALVAGIZED MANY SECTORS OF THE SOCIETY INTO UNCOMFORTABLE AWARENESS AND A SINCERE DESIRE FOR POSITIVE ACTION.

WE, AS EDUCATORS, ARE COMMITTED TO PROVIDING THE OPPORTUNITY FOR STUDENTS TO EXPLORE THE SURPRISING STATE OF POVERTY IN AFFLUENT AMERICA.

HAVING DISCOVERED THE CAUSES AND EFFECTS OF POVERTY AND THE HIGH COSTS TO ALL OF US IN TERMS OF SHAME AND RESULTANT SOCIAL, ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL PROBLEMS, IT IS HOPED THAT THE STUDENT WILL BE CONCERNED ENOUGH TO ENGAGE IN CONSTRUCTIVE ACTIONS THAT WILL HELP ELIMINATE POVERTY FROM OUR MIDST.

COURSE GOALS:

1. THE STUDENT WILL ASSESS HIS PERSONAL VIEWS AND UNDERSTANDINGS OF POVERTY IN AMERICA; AND CONDUCT INQUIRY INTO THE BELIEFS AND EXPERIENCES OF OTHERS.
2. THE STUDENT WILL CONDUCT RESEARCH TO IDENTIFY AND LOCATE THE "POOR" IN AMERICA.
3. THE STUDENT WILL IDENTIFY THE CAUSES OF POVERTY IN AMERICA TODAY.
4. THE STUDENT WILL HYPOTHOSIZE AS TO THE ECONOMIC, SOCIAL AND POLITICAL EFFECTS OF POVERTY, AND SUBSTANTIATE HIS CONCLUSIONS.
5. THE STUDENT WILL EXAMINE THE CHANGE IN ATTITUDE AND VIEWPOINT OF AMERICANS TOWARDS THE POOR FROM COLONIAL TIMES TO THE PRESENT; AND COMPARE AND CONTRAST THE EFFORTS MADE TO HELP THE POOR.
6. THE STUDENT WILL RESEARCH THE EFFORTS NOW BEING MADE TO ALLEVIATE THE PLIGHT OF THE POOR ON A NATIONAL, STATE AND LOCAL LEVEL.
7. THE STUDENT WILL INVESTIGATE THE "CRADLE TO GRAVE" SECURITY PROGRAMS USED BY SUCH NATIONS AS SWEDEN, NORWAY, DENMARK AND FINLAND TO SOLVE THE PROBLEMS OF POVERTY; AND MAKE A JUDGMENT AS TO REASONS FOR OR AGAINST APPLICABILITY OF SUCH PROGRAMS WITHIN THE AMERICAN ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL SETTING.

GOAL #1: THE STUDENT WILL ASSESS HIS PERSONAL VIEWS AND UNDERSTANDINGS OF POVERTY IN AMERICA; AND CONDUCT INQUIRY INTO THE BELIEFS AND EXPERIENCES OF OTHERS.

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
GENERAL DISCUSSION ABOUT POVERTY IN AMERICA. GAINING DIVERGENT VIEWS ABOUT POVERTY.	A. Student will exchange ideas about Poverty in America. B. The student will assess the views of others regarding Poverty in America.	On the first class meeting, the student will exchange ideas about Poverty in America. Some of the discussion questions could be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) What is meant by poverty? Is it defined differently by different people? (b) Is poverty a serious problem in America? Why? or Why not? (c) Who are the poor? Why are they poor? (d) Is it a total society problem, or only one of individuals? (e) Do most Americans understand the plight of the poor? (f) Where did you learn about the problem? (g) Is enough being done to alleviate or correct the problems of poverty? (h) It is said that society pays the price for poverty by increased crime, riots, unemployed unhealthy people, etc. Do you agree or disagree? Why? (Teacher can add to the list of questions) 1. The student will devise a questionnaire to determine the attitudes and beliefs of friends, neighbors, parents and the general public about poverty Sample questions: Same as those discussed in class, plus: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Do all people have a right to be free from want? (b) Do all people have a right to be free from worry about illness and doctor bill (c) Should government provide food and medical care to all who need it? (d) Can poverty be eliminated? How? (e) Is the welfare system in America adequate

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
		Why or why not? Should those with no "saleable" skills be retrained for available jobs? At whose expense? Do you know any poor people? Why are they poor? How do you feel about the government subsidizing the poor; farmers not to grow food or to dispose of food to keep prices up; certain industries?
	(f) (g) (h) (i)	2. The teacher will appoint a committee (or volunteers) to analyze the findings of the questionnaire and submit a report to the class (They might construct charts and graphs to display the results of their analysis) 3. Have the students discuss the results of the questionnaire. They should clarify any new and relevant concepts introduced by the responses to the questionnaire. 1. The student will read and summarize newspaper and magazine articles dealing with the problem of poverty in America and the viewpoints of the writer of the article. 2. The student will cut out pictures from newspapers and magazines illustrating poverty in America and place them together to form a collage. (This can be very effective in demonstrating a particular idea) The collages should be exhibited in the classroom and/or hall bulletin boards.
C. The student will become acquainted with current materials on poverty.

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
		3. The student will view television programs which editorialize about the problems of poverty in America. The student will comment on the program and react to the viewpoint presented.
POVERTY LEADS TO FEELINGS OF FRUSTRATION AND HOPELESSNESS.	D. Given a hypothetical situation, the student will role-play individuals caught in the vise of poverty.	1. Given a hypothetical situation of a family submerged in "poverty" or utilizing a case study from the booklet: POVERTY IN AN AFFLUENT SOCIETY, the student will role-play one of the principals in the situation: For example: Father has a chronic heart condition, with no "saleable skills" but works part time because he doesn't want charity. Mother works in a factory sewing dresses. There are five children-all under 15 years of age. The combined income of the parents is $120 a week. The family finds that it has barely enough money for food, a great portion of the income goes for rent, and there is no money left for medical expenses, recreation, etc.
	E. The student will discuss his personal reaction to the poverty situation.	1. The student could role-play one of the children in the family and consider some of the following problem questions: (a) What would your life be like? (b) Would you get a job after school? At your age what kind of jobs are available? (c) Would you quit school at sixteen? (d) Would you urge your family to accept supplemental welfare or assistance? (e) What would your feelings be towards your parents?

	F. The student will investigate the findings of national polls regarding poverty.	(c) What would your feelings be towards your government and society in general? 2. Have the student consider the slogan "I fight poverty-I work". What impression does this give of people on welfare? Is this a correct or fair impression? Why might people paste this slogan on their cars? How can false impressions about poor people be corrected? The student will investigate the findings of some of the National Polls (Gallup and Harris) regarding attitudes towards the poor in America and some of the programs aimed at helping the poor. Sources: Poverty in an Affluent Society by David Durfee Issues Today, Mar. 5, 1971 "The Welfare System That Nobody Likes" (Case study) U.S. News and World Reports, May 24, 1970 Saturday Review, May 23, 1970 Poverty in the U.S.A. by J. Stouder Sweet (Public Affairs Pamphlet No. 326) Low-Income Life Styles, L. M. Ireland, ed.

GOAL #2: THE STUDENT WILL CONDUCT RESEARCH TO IDENTIFY AND LOCATE THE PROBLEM IN AMERICA

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
POVERTY KVCJS TO RACE, CREED OR RELIGION.	A. The student will know the vocabulary of poverty. B. The student will become acquainted with materials in library on Poverty. C. The student will form a hypothesis relative to the problems of poverty. D. The student will gather information regarding the problem of Poverty in America	Thru discussion, the student will clarify the meaning of the following concepts: poverty low income invisible poor welfare poverty level social worker ghettos insular poverty subsistence level slums war on poverty inequality census disadvantaged emergency funds "the culture of poverty" fixed incomes subsidize public assistance incentive The student will become acquainted with materials in the library on the topic of "poverty." Using the "Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature" the student will become familiar with magazine articles relating to the topic. (Consider student reports on content articles) The student will formulate a hypothesis relative to the problem and gather evidence to substantiate or reject his hypothesis. (The student may present his findings and conclusions whenever he and/or the teacher is ready) Some sample hypothesis might be: (a) People are poor because they want to be poor. (b) Welfare Programs promote laziness and dishonesty. (c) The Poor are neglected in America today. (d) The Government has not fulfilled its obligations to the poor. (e) The Poor need help to help themselves. (f) Re-allocation of U.S. priorities would put an end to poverty. The student will write to the following for information: U.S. Dept. of Indian Affairs U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Bureau of Census Department of Health, Education and Welfare

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
POVERTY KNOWS NO GEOGRAPHICAL BOUND- ARIES	E. Using different media and methods, the student will identify the poor in America	Dept. of Urban Affairs and other governmental agencies that will give them information. (Local agencies (e.g., U.S.C.) may be able to supply speakers) 1. Have the students conduct a review of the literature on poverty (perhaps via the "Reader's Guide") to compile a description of the common characteristics of the following "types" of poverty stricken groups. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Rural poor (b) Urban poor (c) White (d) Non-White minority groups (e) Elderly (f) Disabled (g) Dependent children When possible have the students make graphs summarizing the results of their research. 2. The student will locate the "poor" in America by plotting the statistics on an outline map of the United States. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Urban poverty in such cities as Chicago, San Antonio, New York City, Washington, D.C., Bronx, Brooklyn, etc. (b) Rural Poverty in such places as Appalachia, Black Belt, Indian Reservations, Migrant Camps, etc. Utilize JUNIOR SCHOLASTIC (November 15, 1958 and Nov. 22, 1968) and other materials previously listed.

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
HOW POVERTY IS MEASURED.	F. The student will discuss how poverty is measured.	1. According to a "poverty scale" devised by the federal government poverty is based on three factors: (1) family income (2) size of the family (3) whether the family lives in rural or urban area. Example: An urban family with 11 or more children is considered below the poverty line if the family income is $7,910 or less. An urban family of four is below the poverty level with an income of $3,568. Ask the student: Do you agree with the "poverty scale"? Are there other factors that should be considered? Sources: Jr. Scholastic, Nov. 15, 1968 U.S. News and World Report, July 12, 1971 Profile, U.S.A. FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
THE U.S. CENSUS GIVES AN INDICATION OF WHO THE POOR ARE IN AMERICA	G. The student will make a profile of today's poor.	2. The student will make a rough estimate of money he spends each week on lunches, clothing, entertainment, buses, and other things. He should multiply this sum by 52 to get a yearly total. How he should divide the poverty line figure for a family of four - $3,968 or less-by four. The teacher might ask (depending upon student population): How does your spending for the year compare with this figure? (Consider you haven't included the money your parents spend on you) Could you get by on $92.00 a year? (this would have to include everything - food, shelter, medicine, clothing, recreation, etc.-) Students might consult the newspapers to determine the "cost of living" as reflected in current advertisements. 1. The student will make a visual profile of today's poor. (chart, graph, poster, etc.) Profile should include facts (e.g., "Latest official figures show that 25.5 million Americans -- 1 in every 8 -- are classified as living in poverty. The Government says an annual income of $3,968 or less puts a non-farm family of four below the poverty line.") The profile should include the aged, blind, handicapped, children who are dependent, unemployed, one-parent families, etc. 2. The teacher should send away for a free class set of pamphlets entitled: OUR INVISIBLE POOR by Dwight MacDonald and DYNA-MICS OF POVERTY by H. Harrington both from Sidney Hillman Foundation, 15 Union Sq. N. Y., N. Y. 10003

GOAL #3: THE STUDENT WILL IDENTIFY THE CAUSES OF POVERTY IN AMERICA TODAY

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
CAUSES OF POVERTY ARE VARIED AND COMPLEX.	A. The student will hypothesize as to the causes of poverty in America today. Based on the information he gathers during this portion of the unit, the student will substantiate or reject his hypothesis.	1. The student will list the following causes/reasons for poverty in the United States: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) The economic system of the United States (unequal distribution of wealth, concentration of land, capital, means of production, etc. in the hands of a small portion of the population) (b) People who lack "saleable skills" which are called for in a technological society. (c) Sickness, disability, aged (d) Large families, small incomes (e) Unequal opportunities (f) Discrimination; racism; prejudice (g) One-parent family (h) Lack of Employment - seasonal (i) Inadequate education (j) Unemployment 3.. Based on the information they have already researched,

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
THERE ARE MANY DIVERGENT VIEWS AS TO THE CAUSES OF POVERTY	B. The student will research the philosophies of American social scientists (especially economists and politicians) regarding poverty.	the student will accept or reject the causes listed; and then rank the causes on the basis of the number of people affected (in the United States only). The cause affecting the greatest number of people is ranked first, and so on. 1. The student will research the philosophies of some of the American Economists (living or deceased) regarding the causes of poverty: Suggested Subjects: Henry George R. A. Gordon, U. of Calif. Barbara Ward Adam Smith Sylvia Porter J. K. Galbraith Michael Harrington Daniel P. Moynihan Leon P. Keyserling Yale Brozen 2. The student will research the philosophies of social scientists and their reasons for poverty in America: Nathan Glazer of the U. of California Kingsley Davis, U. of California Dr. Robert Garren, Georgia State University David Katza, University of California John A. Hamilton, member of Editorial Board N.Y. Times 3. The student will research the philosophies of different politicians regarding the causes of poverty: Rep. Wilbur Mills Abraham Ribicoff Sargent Shriver Sen. Ernest Hollings Sen. Joseph Tydings Sen. Ted Kennedy Spiro T. Agnew Senator George McGovern (Chairman of Spec. Senate Comm. on Nutrition and Human Needs) President Richard Nixon

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
	C. The students will research the beliefs regarding poverty by noted Americans. D. The student will invite local resource people to speak on the topic of poverty.	The student will bring in statements made by some noted Americans which define their beliefs as to what are the causes of poverty. Suggested Sources: Dr. Martin Luther King (Mrs. King) Rev. Ralph Abernathy Margaret Mead Cesar Chavez Kate Millet Richard W. Elman, author Joseph C. Wilson, Xerox Frank Fitzsimmons, President Corp. Teamsters Union 1. The teacher will invite a speaker from the Local Unemployment Office (USES) to discuss the unemployment problem locally. Questions could cover: (a) What types of skills are needed? How many? (b) Who are the locally unemployed? (c) What efforts are being made to help the unemployed learn a new skill or get suitable employment? 2. Some students may want to interview people (at the unemployment office) who are waiting for their unemployment checks. They could ask: (a) How long have you been unemployed? (b) Why haven't you been able to find a job? (c) Do you get enough unemployment compensation to keep you going? 3. The student can invite a speaker from: League of Women Voters The Department of Welfare

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
	E. The student will discuss contradictory viewpoints on the causes of poverty.	Urban League of Greater Miami Organizing Parents in Community Action Various United Fund Agencies Metro Government Coordinator for Employing the Handicapped (Mr. Harry Rusoni) Others. All the speakers will speak on the causes of poverty. The student will discuss the following quotes and thoughts: "Wealth in modern societies is distributed according to opportunity; and while opportunity depends partly upon talent and energy, it depends still more upon birth, social position, access to education and inherited wealth; in a word, upon property.." Richard H. Based on his knowledge of who the poor are, where they are and some of the causes of poverty, the student will list the effects of poverty, socially, and politically. The class will discuss the lists individually compiled-sharing the information (perhaps in small groups). The class will then "zero in" on the effects most often mentioned and place them in priority order in each category) on a chart or on the board.

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
	2. Based on the following information the student will formulate a hypothesis regarding the inter-relationships of the effects of poverty. (a) Social Un-equal educational opportunities. (High drop out rate, inability to continue higher education, stunted mental growth due to poor nutrition). Malnutrition and hunger. OBJECTIVE

A. Committees will research the programs in effect in Scandinavian countries which have virtually eliminated poverty.

LEARNING ACTIVITIES

1. The students will clarify the following concepts:
 - "cradle to grave" security allowances
 - taxes "guaranteed four week annual vacation with pay"
 - welfare benefits
 - annual pensions
 - rights vs. privilege
2. The class will be divided into committees. Each committee will take a Scandinavian Country and research the types of programs available to their citizens that have virtually eliminated poverty:

The investigation should cover:

- pre-natal care
- child care
- bonus for new child
- help to unmarried women
- health services
- aid to the aged
- vacations with pay
- pension funds
- free funerals

Each committee should select a spokesman who can report to the entire class the findings of the committee.

The class will react and discuss the programs in operation in different countries as to their effectiveness and their costs..

B. The student will compare and contrast the economic system of the United States with that of Scandinavian countries.

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
IN SOME COUNTRIES ALL NATURAL RESOURCES ARE OWNED BY THE GOVERNMENT FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD.	C. The student will discuss, whether it is time for economic change in the United States.	rate, suicide rate, drug addiction, etc., of the United States with that of the Scandinavian countries. (The student may want to compare and contrast any area that he feels is a result of the conditions of poverty) 4. The student will consider alternatives to the Scandinavian ways of eliminating poverty. 1. The class will discuss the idea that man must change his economic motivation from emphasis on SELF-INTEREST to dedication to the principle of loving mutuality and cooperation... (A change in economic motivation requires both equitable use of resources of production and equitable distribution of products and services. Since there are many programs for economic reform dealing with distribution of wealth, perhaps the emphasis should be on resource use... society's way of determining how individuals and groups gain access to natural, man-made, and human resources, and to technology...) Questions to ponder over: (a) Who should own the land of a nation? (b) Who should own the natural resources, such as water, coal, oil, etc.) (c) Is it time for an economic revolution? WHY? and HOW?

SCJS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
		2. The student may speculate as to the possibility that the United States will solve the problems of poverty.
