Article II

ACADEMIC FREEDOM

- A. A faculty member is entitled to full freedom in research and in the publication of the results, subject to the adequate performance of his other academic duties.
- B. A faculty member is entitled to freedom in the classroom in discussing his subject, but the faculty member should be careful not to introduce into his teaching controversial matter which has no relation to his subject.
- C. A faculty member is a citizen, a member of a learned profession, and an officer of an educational institution. When he speaks or writes as a citizen, he is free from institutional censorship or discipline; however, he should at all times attempt to be accurate, exercise appropriate restraint, respect the opinions of others, and state that he is not an institutional spokesman.

Article III
FAIR PRACTICES

The College shall not discriminate against any faculty member or candidate for employment on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, family status, religion, age, national origin, Society membership or activity, or political belief and/or political party.

Article IV

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

A. Definitions

1. Grievance

A grievance is hereby defined as:

- (a) A written claim by faculty member or members and which is allegedly caused by a misinterpretation or a misapplication of any provision in this agreement, and
- (b) That the President, Assistant to the President, Department Chairmen, hereinafter defined as administration, acted in bad faith, or in an arbitrary and capricious manner contrary to the established policy or practice governing or affecting a faculty member.

2. Aggrieved Person

An aggrieved person is the person or persons alleging the claim.

Purpose

purpose of this procedure is to secure at the lowest possible level equitable solutions to the problems which may from time to time occur affecting members of the faculty arising from a misinterpretation or misapplication of any provision in this agreement.

The parties hereto agree that these proceedings will be kept as confidential as may be appropriate at any level of the procedure.

C. Procedure

1. Time Limits

Since it is important that grievances be processed as rapidly as possible, the number of days indicated at each level should be considered a maximum. Under the terms of this Grievance Procedure, time is of the essence. The time limit specified may, however, be extended by mutual agreement.

2. Year-end Grievance

In the event a grievance is filed at such time that it can not be processed by the end of the school year, the time limit set forth herein shall be reduced so that the grievance procedure may be terminated prior to the end of the school year or as soon thereafter as is practicable.

3. Level One

A faculty member with a complaint may first discuss it informally with his Department Chairman directly. In the event the faculty member desires, it may be processed through the Society's designated representative. Department Chairmen shall render a decision within three (3) school days of submission by faculty member.

4. Level Two

If the faculty member is not satisfied at level one, he will file a grievance in writing with the President within five (5) school days after the decision at level one.

5. Level Three

(a) If the aggrieved person is not satisfied with the disposition of his grievance at level two or if no decision has been rendered within ten (10) school days after the grievance was delivered to the President, he may, within five (5) school days after a decision by the President or fifteen (15) school days after the grievance was delivered to the President, whichever is sooner, request in writing that the Society submit the grievance to arbitration.

(b) If the parties can not voluntarily agree upon the selection of an arbitrator, the parties shall notify the Bureau of Mediation of their inability to do so. The Bureau of Mediation shall then submit to the parties the names of seven (7) arbitrators. Each party shall alternately strike a name until one (1) name remains. The College shall strike the first name. The last remaining name on the list shall be the arbitrator.

(c) The arbitrator shall have no authority to alter, change, vary, amend, or modify any term of this agreement. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon both parties and any decision of the arbitrator must be within the scope of his authority and confined to the grievance as submitted for his determination. The expense and compensation of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the College and the faculty member, or if the faculty member is a member of the Society, by the Society. Fees paid to arbitrators shall be based upon a schedule established by the Bureau of Mediation.

D. Miscellaneous

1. Group Grievances

If the grievance affects a group or class of faculty members in the Society, the Society may submit such grievance in writing directly at level two, provided that for the preservation of the record sequence and the specificity of testimony, one faculty member is designated as grievant of record. The grievance procedure will then proceed as indicated above.

2. Written Decisions

All decisions shall be in writing setting forth the decision and the reasons therefor and shall be transmitted to all parties.

3. Forms

Forms for filing grievances and other necessary documents shall be prepared jointly by the College and the Society and given appropriate distribution.

4. Meetings and Hearings

All meetings and hearings under this procedure shall be held at the College and not conducted in public. Those persons attending shall include the parties as heretofore defined in A of this Article, Definitions.

Full-time faculty members granted such leaves for one-half (1/2) year may continue benefits by the College at no cost to the individual, or one-half (1/2) cost to the individual for one year. Payment to the College for the purchase of said benefits in behalf of the faculty member shall be made quarterly with the first payment due the College on the effective date of leave, or through payroll deduction. COMPLETE AGREEMENT

A. Protection of Pennsylvania Statutory Law
The parties have included in their agreement those provisions of Pennsylvania Statutory Law, including the Pennsylvania School Code, which establish wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment and which, but for such statutory enactments, would be subjects of compulsory collective bargaining under the terms of Act No. 195. Although some matters provided for by statute are briefly referred to in this agreement, it is the intention of the parties to avoid incorporating statutory provisions as terms of the agreement. This exclusion does not detract from the continuing commitment of the parties to adhere to those provisions of Pennsylvania Statutory Law which govern the rights, duties and immunities of the parties and of the faculty members and which have not been repealed by Act No. 195.

Accordingly, when terms and conditions of employment of faculty members, or minimum standards, are mandated by statute, such terms, conditions and standards, though not part of this agreement, will be observed.

B. Meet and Discuss

The Community College of Beaver County is committed to the principle that the best education for students demands a genuine working relationship among the Board of Trustees, the administrative staff, and the faculty members. Since these groups have the same ultimate goal of providing the best possible educational opportunities for all pupils consistent with their needs and with community resources, relationships must be maintained which are based upon devotion to common aims, mutual respect, continuous and frank communication, and a thorough recognition by each of the contributions, problems, and responsibilities of the others.

Therefore, it is agreed that continuing provisions for meet and discuss relationships shall be established as provided for by Section 702 of Act No. 195.

TERM OF AGREEMENT

This agreement shall be effective from the first day of September, 1972, and shall remain in full force and effect up to and including August 31, 1974, and shall automatically renew itself from year to year thereafter. In witness whereof, the parties hereto have caused this agreement to be duly executed and sealed the 17 day of November, 1972.
