 - b. a salary grade level into which each job shall be slotted based on the Administrative Salary Structure attached as Appendix B.
- 2. By the same date Temple and the AAUP shall have jointly established a six-member Review Committee (three members to be selected by each party). Any Academic Professionals dissatisfied with Temple's determinations in (a) or (b) above shall be entitled to appeal to the Review Committee within 20 days after the issuance of Temple's determinations. The Review Committee shall hear all appeals and shall make such written recommendations as it deems appropriate within 20 days to the Vice President for Personnel Resources for final determination. Such determinations shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

A fund at the rate of 1% of the 1973-74 salary base of academic professionals shall be assigned for these adjustments effective January 1, 1975. Any unused monies from this fund shall be divided equally among the academic professionals, as of January 1, 1975.

C. Merit Salary

1. FACULTY

Faculty are evaluated for merit increases by their peers, by their chairperson and by their Dean. Merit increases reflect the contributions that an individual faculty member makes to the teaching, research, and service functions of the University. The process for determining merit increases will be as follows:

Each college, for the 1974-75 year, shall receive, effective January 1, 1973, a merit fund at the rate of 1% per year of the 1973-74 salaries of faculty bargaining unit members in the college; and, each college, for 1975-76 year, shall receive a merit fund of 1½% of the 1974-75 salaries of faculty bargaining unit members in the college.

The Dean will notify each department of the merit funds assigned to it. The chairperson of each department, after consultation with an appropriate committee selected by the faculty of the department, will submit to the Dean recommendations for individual merit salary increases. In the event that the recommendations of the committee differ from those of the chairperson, the committee's recommendations shall also be submitted to the Dean. To aid them in their deliberations, both the chairperson and the committee shall upon request have access to current salaries of eligible faculty members in their departments.

The Dean of the college, in and after consultation with the appropriate college committee (as designated by the college faculty), shall make recommendations to the Academic Vice President, explaining in writing to the Academic Vice President, to the college committee, and to the AAUP significant departures from the department committee's recommendations.

2. LIBRARIANS

Paley Library for the 1974-75 year shall receive a merit fund effective January 1, 1975 at the rate of 1% per year of the 1973-74 salaries of bargaining unit members in that unit; and Paley Library for the 1975-76 year, shall receive a merit fund of 1½% of the 1974-75 salaries of bargaining unit members in that unit.

The Director of Libraries, in and after consultation with the appropriate elected committee of the Academic Assembly, shall make merit recommendations to the Academic Vice President, explaining in writing to the Academic Vice President, the elected committee, and the AAUP significant departures from the elected committee's recommendations.

3. ACADEMIC PROFESSIONALS

Each Dean or Vice President, whichever pertains, shall, for 1974-75 year, receive a merit fund effective January 1, 1975 at the rate of 1% per year of the 1973-74 salaries of the bargaining unit academic professionals in his area of responsibility; each Dean or Vice President, whichever pertains, shall, for the 1975-76 year receive a merit fund of 1½% of the 1974-75 salaries of the bargaining unit academic professionals in his area of responsibility. Each Dean or Vice President will, in conjunction with his department heads and supervisors, determine the individual merit awards. Notification of the awards will be given to the AAUP (and, upon request, an explanation of a given merit award will be made to the AAUP).

- 4. The procedures described above shall be the exclusive method of determining merit salary increases.

- D. Salary Adjustment for Faculty — Inequities Fund
Within 30 days of the signing of this Agreement, a University Inequity Adjustment Committee shall be formed. It shall consist of a representative from the Office of the President, the Vice President for Academic Affairs (or one person designated by him), one small school Dean and one other Dean (each selected by the Council of Deans), and four members named by the AAUP.

The Committee shall first consider among other things the differences between colleges in average salaries by years of service in each rank to see if they represent inequities. Using its best judgment, the Committee shall then apportion among the various colleges an amount of money equivalent to salary increases at the rate of 1% per year of the 1973-74 salary base of faculty members within the bargaining unit in a manner designed to help correct salary inequities between colleges and within colleges.

it shall complete the apportionment between colleges within 60 days after its appointment.

The procedure for distributing these funds to individual faculty members within each college in order to correct individual inequities shall also be determined by the University Inequity Committee. All inequity salary increases so determined shall be effective January 1, 1975.

- E. Redressment of Wage Inequities for Women and Minorities (Faculty and Academic Professionals)

In order to identify and correct any existing faculty salary inequities based on sex or race, Temple and AAUP shall each appoint six persons from within the University community to serve on a Salary Review Committee.

The Committee's responsibilities will be three-fold: (1) to develop a comprehensive system for determining any internal inequities affecting women or minority faculty members; (2) to guide and advise departmental faculties, chairpersons and deans in redressing any such inequities; and (3) to hear appeals from persons who are dissatisfied with redressment decisions of departmental faculties, chairpersons and deans.

Within 30 days of the signing of this Agreement, the members of the Salary Review Committee will be named. The Committee shall collect data as it deems appropriate on such matters as teaching, research and service. Appropriate support staff and computer time will be made available to the Committee. It will run a multiple regression on the data for the majority group (white males) in each school, department or group of departments.

Data for a woman or a minority member will be substituted into the appropriate equation and an estimated salary will be computed and compared with the present salary. The difference, if any, between the estimated salary and the present salary will be submitted to departmental faculties, chairpersons, and deans as a basis for investigating whether an inequity exists. The Committee will be available to work closely with departmental faculties, chairpersons, and deans to help determine if redressment awards should then be recommended. The departmental faculties, chairpersons and deans will inform the Salary Review Committee of their respective decisions.

Any person who is dissatisfied with his redressment award (or lack thereof) as decided by the above process may appeal to the Salary Review Committee. In the event the Committee decides that the appeal has merit, it shall consult with the appropriate dean before submitting its final recommendation to the Academic Vice President. The Committee will also send a written statement of its decision to the person involved.

If the Academic Vice President does not agree with the Committee, he shall so inform the woman or minority person and the Committee of his reasons. The decision of the Academic Vice President shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

The Salary Review Committee shall complete its development of the comprehensive system for determining any internal inequities and shall send estimated salary data to departmental faculties, chairpersons and deans by February 15, 1975.

INEQUITY REDRESSMENT FOR ACADEMIC PROFESSIONALS

An academic professional who believes there is a disparity in salary because of race or sex may avail himself of the grievance procedure herein.

F. Miscellaneous

1 MATCHING OFFERS

In the event that the Administration wishes to pay any member of the bargaining unit in terms more favorable than those set forth herein, it may do so provided that it makes a written request with a detailed rationale to the AAUP and the AAUP grants its written approval in regard thereto; except, however, when the departmental faculty, chairperson and Dean wish to retain a faculty member who has a bona fide offer (in writing) from a rival institution, the Dean (with the approval of the departmental faculty and the chairperson) may offer a competitive salary adjustment to attempt to retain the individual without the prior approval of the AAUP, in the event that a salary increase results, Temple shall inform the AAUP in writing within ten days of the decision.

2. SUMMER COMPENSATION

Summer teaching shall be paid at the rate of 3% of the preceding academic year salary for each semester hour taught.

ARTICLE IV Fringe Benefits

A. Temple will maintain in full force and effect during the term of this Agreement all of the fringe benefits set forth in the Temple University Fringe Benefits Handbook, dated July 1, 1971, as amended to the day immediately preceding the effective date of this Agreement, except as amended within this Agreement.

1. Group Permanent Insurance-Temple will offer to all present policy holders of Group Permanent Insurance an equivalent amount of Group Term Life Insurance at the prevailing payroll deduction based on attained age.

B. Pension Program

Any employee covered by this Agreement who has at least ten years of service at the age of 55 may elect to retire at age 62 or later. The employee must notify Temple in writing that he desires to retire early. Upon delivery of the written request, the employee may elect to accelerate both his contribution and the University's contribution so that at the elected time of retirement there will be additional contributions to his pension fund.

For example, if the election was made at age 55 that the employee wished to retire at age 62, the following alternatives are available:

At age 55 - 12 years paid in 7; each annual contribution increased to $12/7$ of stated rates.

At age 56 - 11 years paid in 6; each annual contribution increased to $11/6$ of stated rates.

At age 57 - 10 years paid in 5; each annual contribution increased to $10/5$ of stated rates.

At age 58 - 9 years paid in 4; each annual contribution increased to $9/4$ of stated rates.

At age 59 - 8 years paid in 3; each annual contribution increased to $8/3$ of stated rates.

At age 60 - 7 years paid in 2; each annual contribution increased to $7/2$ of stated rates.

At age 61 - 6 years paid in 1; each annual contribution increased to $6/1$ of stated rates.

An individual who selects an early retirement date may upon proper notice (at least one year) select another retirement date.

C. Life Insurance

1. All employees covered by this Agreement will be offered $5,000 non-contributory life insurance.

2. All employees will be given the opportunity to purchase up to twice their salary (minus the $5,000 non-contributory insurance) on a contributory basis at the prevailing rates.

D. Sick Leave Policy

Librarians shall be entitled to up to three months sick leave. Academic professionals who are class one employees shall enjoy the same sick leave policy as now enjoyed by the faculty. Other academic professionals will enjoy present sick leave policy as set forth in the Employees' Handbook.

E. Maternity Leave

1. For all bargaining unit members compensation for maternity leave shall be treated the same as for any other temporary disability.
2. Compensation for maternity leave shall not exceed the contractual obligation to the faculty member.
3. Credit for tenure shall accumulate during maternity leave only at the request of the faculty member. Similarly, credit for completion of the probationary period for librarians and academic professionals shall accumulate during maternity leave only at the request of the librarian or academic professional.

F. Leave of Absence

1. If the administration approves a leave of absence without pay for a member of the bargaining unit, the employee shall have the option of continuing his fringe benefits during the leave of absence at his own expense.
2. If the employee is disabled, the University will continue to fund all of their fringe benefits except pension.

G. Staffing on Rotation Basis

During the days preceding and following Christmas and New Year, all offices that do not need to be fully staffed shall operate with a partial staff. Members of the bargaining unit in those offices shall work on an equitable rotation basis to provide minimum staffing needs.

ARTICLE V Work Load

A. Faculty

1. Faculty teaching work loads shall be reasonable, fair, and consistent with current practices and shall also reflect research activity, creative activity, and service to Temple University performed by the faculty member.

B. Librarians and Academic Professionals

1. The normal work week shall be 35 hours. The working hours of individuals shall be scheduled by each department in accordance with the standards of professional service.
2. For all hours scheduled and worked beyond 35, compensatory time off shall be granted as follows:
 - a. Time and a half off for all hours worked between 4:30 p.m. on Friday, or the day preceding a holiday, and 8:30 a.m. Monday or 8:30 a.m. of the next regularly scheduled work day following the holiday.
 - b. Straight time off for all other over time hours.
3. Compensatory time off may be accumulated by the librarian or academic professional up to 70 hours and used at his option, subject to approval of his supervisor, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

ARTICLE VI Tenure Procedures

- A. Tenure practices and policies set forth in the Tenure statement approved by the Board of Trustees of September 1, 1970, shall not be altered during the life of this Agreement without the concurrence of the Board of Trustees and the Faculty Senate.
- B. Tenure is an appointment which carries with it a collection of rights enjoyed by the faculty, and as such represents a status unique to institutions of higher learning. The policy of Temple is not to have quotas limiting the number of persons who can advance to the distinguished status of tenured faculty.

- C. Only after exhausting the internal appeals and only if the elected Personnel Committee of the Faculty Senate votes in favor of tenure for a faculty member and Temple rejects this recommendation, may an appeal be made. The process shall be that within 2 weeks after notification of the decision of Temple, an aggrieved faculty member must, if at all, notify Temple and the AAUP that he wishes to appeal the Temple decision. Thereafter, within one week Temple and the AAUP shall jointly appoint a six-member committee to review the decision. Each party shall submit a list of six names of members of the Temple community. If the parties are unable to agree upon six of these twelve proposed names to form the committee, they shall each strike three names from the list submitted by the other party, and the remaining six persons named shall form the committee. Within one week thereafter, the committee shall select three additional members from within the Temple Community. By a majority vote the committee may either:
1. Confirm the decision of Temple
 2. Reverse the decision of Temple
 3. Remand one time for such further consideration as it deems appropriate.

If the case is remanded for such further consideration and as a result the established time limits for a tenure decision are exceeded, it is hereby understood that this will not constitute de facto tenure. The committee shall be empowered to direct when reconsideration must be completed. If the reconsideration decision extends past July 1, and the final decision is against tenure, the faculty member shall then receive an additional one year terminal contract.

If following remanding a committee must again be constituted, the members thereof need not be the same persons as those who served on the committee when the matter was initially remanded.

The decision of the committee shall in all cases be final and binding upon Temple, the AAUP, and the faculty member involved. A tie vote shall be deemed to be a confirmation of the decision of Temple.

ARTICLE VII

Termination of Service of Faculty

- A. Termination of service of a tenured faculty member or of an appointment before the end of its specified term may be made only for retirement, adequate cause, or retrenchment (i.e. financial exigency, discontinuation or reduction of a program or a department).
- B. Before terminating an appointment because of retrenchment, Temple will make every effort to place the affected faculty members in other suitable positions. The released faculty member's position will not be filled with a replacement within a period of three years, unless the released faculty member has been offered reappointment and at least one month within which to accept or decline.
- C. Written notice that employment is to be terminated because of retrenchment shall be given as follows:
 - 1. Not later than March 15 of the first academic year of service if the appointment expires at the end of that year; or if a one year appointment terminates during an academic year, at least three months in advance of its termination.
 - 2. Not later than December 15 of the second or third academic year of service, if the appointment expires at the end of that year.
 - 3. At least twelve months before the expiration of an appointment after 3 or more years of service at the University.
 - 4. For tenured faculty, at least 18 months notice. In each case, Temple shall have the option of substituting equivalent severance salary.
- D. Retrenchment of faculty is one of the last and most serious steps an institution of higher learning takes in times of financial crisis. Temple and AAUP agree that, as far as possible, the process of natural attrition shall be used instead of retrenchment. In the remote event of retrenchment, Temple and the AAUP shall meet to discuss the best way to implement reductions. Whenever possible, retrenchment should be consistent with the University's moral and legal commitment to Affirmative Action.

The order of retrenchment within a department or program of instruction shall be:

1. Part-time faculty,
2. Non-tenured faculty,
3. Tenured faculty, provided that the faculty with the least years of service to Temple University shall be released first.

Either Temple or the AAUP may consider an order of retrenchment different from that listed above to take into account such important factors as:

1. The faculty remaining shall have the requisite qualifications to perform the work required
2. Affirmative Action goals
3. Academic excellence
4. Early retirement.

In such event each party shall appoint six persons to a 12-person committee to decide the best method of retrenchment. Each party shall appoint at least half its representatives from the faculty of the program, department or college affected. An order of retrenchment different from that specified above shall require approval of a majority of the members of the full committee. The decision of the committee shall be final and binding.

E. Dismissal for Adequate Cause:

The definitions and procedures in the September 1, 1970 statement approved by the Board of Trustees and stated in pages 13-16, entitled Termination of Service by the University, of the September 1971 Faculty Handbook shall be included as part of this Agreement and shall not be altered as applied to members of the bargaining unit during the term of this Agreement without the concurrence of the AAUP, the Board of Trustees, and the Faculty Senate. These definitions and procedures shall govern the dismissal of a faculty member for adequate cause with the addition that if the Board of Trustees overrules the Hearing Committee's reconsideration decision, the faculty member involved may submit his case within 10 days of notification of the overruling decision to binding arbitration, under the arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII Promotions

Any applicant for a promotion to a position (except departmental chairperson) or rank within the bargaining unit shall, upon the denial of his application and after the final exhaustion of internal appeals, be entitled to utilize the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement. In any such arbitration the decision of Temple shall be upheld by the arbitrator unless the arbitrator shall find that the decision of Temple appears on its face to be arbitrary or capricious, or that it violates the procedures established herein for promotion or set forth in the 1971 edition of the Faculty Handbook. In either event, the remedy of the arbitrator shall be to remand the decision for reconsideration.

ARTICLE IX Appointment, Promotion, and Termination of Service of Librarians

A. Terms of Appointment

1. All full-time librarians within the bargaining unit shall be appointed for such terms of office as shall be provided in this statement of policy, subject to the provisions contained herein with respect to the termination of their appointments. The terms and conditions of every appointment shall be stated in writing and shall be in the possession of both Temple and the librarian before the appointment becomes effective.
2. Librarians who desire to be employed on a ten-month (two months leave without pay) basis rather than on a twelve-month basis shall make application in writing for the same to the Director by March 1st of the preceding fiscal year. The Director shall render a decision by April 1st. In the event that the request cannot be granted to all librarians submitting such a request, the Director, in making his determination, shall do so on the basis of the operating needs of the library, and the relative seniority of the librarians involved. Where there is a conflict and one or more of them has previously been refused in a prior request, then preference shall be granted to such librarian notwithstanding relative seniority.

3. Librarians shall be appointed initially for a term of one year and may be reappointed for two additional terms of one year and two years respectively.
 - a. An appropriate committee of the Academic Assembly will advise the library Director on decisions to grant and not to grant reappointment during the first and second years, preceding consideration for reappointments. The Director's decision shall be made at least 90 days prior to expiration of any contract.
 - b. A series of terms amounting to four years which shall be considered a probationary period will be followed by:
 - (1) a termination of contract, provided at least six months notice of the termination has been given in writing; or
 - (2) a one-year terminal contract for the fifth year; or
 - (3) a regular appointment. (A librarian initially hired at the P1 rank must be recommended for a P2 rank at the end of four years, or he will receive a terminal contract.)
4. Librarians who have completed less than one year at the time of the signing of the contract shall begin their first one-year appointment at the start of the fiscal year 1974-75. Librarians who have completed one year, but less than two years, at the time of the signing of this contract shall begin their second one-year appointment at the start of the fiscal year 1974-75. Librarians with more than one year, but less than four years of full-time service at Temple University will be considered for re-appointment until the completion of their fourth year of full-time service to the library. Librarians currently employed with four or more years of full-time service to the library will be considered to have successfully completed the probationary period.

B. Standards for Promotion and Completion of the Probationary Period

1. A decision that the probationary period has been successfully completed or a decision to promote shall be based on the judgment that an individual meets the accepted standards of performance for professional librarians in areas which contribute to the educational and research mission of the university such as, but not limited to, reference service, collection development, bibliographic organization and control.
2. Criteria for promotion as established by the Academic Assembly and accepted by the Director shall be used in consideration of promotion and/or reappointment. These criteria may be reviewed from time to time and changed by mutual agreement of the Academic Assembly and the Director. The criteria used in consideration in these areas should include:
 - (1) effectiveness of performance as a librarian;
 - (2) evidence of continuing professional growth;
 - (3) effectiveness of service to the library;
 - (4) scholarly performance; and
 - (5) years of service in rank.

No other criteria than that determined by the above procedure may be used in evaluating a librarian's performance in determining promotion or reappointment.

3. Librarians with significant experience in the institution from which they come shall be considered for completion of the probationary period within two years of full-time service, and under exceptional circumstances may be granted a regular appointment on employment.
4. Librarians may always be considered for "completion of the probationary period" after shorter periods of service than those specified above.
5. Librarians have the right to professional expression of judgments and views.

C. Procedures

1. Recommendation for consideration for promotion and/or completion of the probationary period may be initiated at the appropriate time by any or all of the following:

 - (2) the appropriate Committee of the Librarians' Academic Assembly,
 - (3) library administration,
 - (4) any colleague, and
 - (5) the librarian himself.
2. Initial evaluation for promotion shall be through the appropriate Committee of the Academic Assembly of Librarians (which Committee is to be defined by the librarians of the Academic Assembly) and the list of candidates shall be sent to the Director.
3. Prior to the final vote by the Committee it shall consult with the Director on its recommendations. The Committee and the Director will use their best efforts to resolve any differences and to discuss with each other the reasons for promotions or non-promotions.
4. If the Director is not in agreement with the recommendation of the Committee, the Director will inform the individual and the Committee in writing within ten days of his decision. The Committee shall subsequently inform the librarian of the reasons for its recommendations. If the individual and/or the Committee wish to dispute the Director's decision, he must be informed within ten days of receipt of his decision.
5. If there is no change in decision on the part of the Director, it shall be forwarded immediately to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. The decision of the Vice President for Academic Affairs must be given in writing within ten days to the individual, the library Director, the Academic Assembly, and the AAUP. If the matter is not resolved to the librarian's satisfaction it may be submitted to Arbitration in accordance with this Agreement.
6. Librarians who have completed the probationary period shall maintain their status even if they have a temporary physical or mental disability of less than six months duration that prevents them from carrying out their responsibilities. With the appropriate medical certification the librarian may return to his university responsibility with the status of having completed the probationary period.

7. Time spent on official leave from the university will not be included in the calculations of the various time periods stated above unless the librarian requests in writing to the Director, and the Director approves, that such leave time be included in the timing of decisions on completion of the probationary period.

D. Procedures for Periodic Evaluation of Librarians

1. During the initial six months of employment, the immediate supervisor and the librarian shall meet at least once for informal discussions of professional performance and responsibilities involved. At the end of six months a written evaluation shall be made by the supervisor, discussed with the librarian, signed by both, and placed in the librarian's personnel file. This initialing shall not be deemed to constitute approval by the librarian. The librarian is entitled to attach any written comment or refutation he deems appropriate to the evaluations.
2. Thereafter, annual written evaluations shall be made each January by the immediate supervisor, discussed with the librarian, signed by both and placed in the librarian's personnel file. The librarian is entitled to attach any written comment or refutation he deems appropriate to the evaluation.

E. Termination of Service by Temple

1. Written notice that a reappointment or initial appointment is not to be renewed will be given to a librarian who has not completed the probationary period as follows: Three months for less than two years of service, six months after two years of service.
2. Termination of service of a librarian who has completed the probationary period or an appointment before the end of its specified term may be made only for retirement, adequate cause, or re-trenchment (i.e. financial exigency, discontinuation or a reduction of a program or department).

3. Retrenchment: In every case of retrenchment, the librarian who has completed the probationary period shall be given at least six months notice or equivalent severance salary. Librarians during the probationary period shall be given notice or equivalent salary of not less than one month during the first year of service, and six weeks after completing one year of service, and eight weeks after two years of service. Retrenchment shall be made according to the following order:
 - a. part-time librarians,
 - b. librarians on probationary appointment according to the inverse date of hire within the library,
 - c. librarians who have completed the probationary period by inverse order of date of hire within the library, provided in each case above that the librarians remaining have the requisite qualifications or specialties to perform the work required. An appropriate committee of the Academic Assembly will advise the administration on decisions implicit in the retrenchment process.

F. Dismissal for Adequate Cause

1. Adequate cause.
2. Dismissal of a librarian who has completed the probationary period, or before the end of the specified term of an appointment, will be preceded by:
 - a. discussion between the librarian and appropriate administration officers looking toward a mutual settlement;
 - b. informal inquiry by the appropriate elected committee of the Assembly of Librarians, which may, failing to effect an adjustment, determine whether in its opinion dismissal proceedings should be undertaken;
 - c. a statement of reason framed with reasonable particularity from the Director of Libraries. This statement of reasons must be sent to the librarian and the AAUP. If the matter is not resolved to the satisfaction of the librarian involved, he may use the grievance and arbitration procedure.

G. Recall

1. Following a lay off due to retrenchment, any librarian laid off due to retrenchment shall be recalled in inverse order of lay off provided they have the present ability to perform the work available. Laid off employees shall have recall rights for a period equal to their length of service but in no case to exceed two years.
2. Notice of recall shall be sent to the laid off employee at his last address of record. The librarian will be given two weeks to consider the acceptance of such offer. The librarians thus recalled will make every effort to report as soon as possible thereafter, but in no case may such reporting date be beyond two months.
