ABSTRACT

This is a students' programmed text for Level Alpha of a humanistic approach to the instruction of Classical Greek and Greek culture in secondary schools. The goals of the program are to help students become aware of: (1) the impact of Hellenic civilization on contemporary society, including the impact of the Greek language on English; (2) the similarities and differences between classical civilization and that of the present; (3) classical allusions in literature and other forms of art; and (4) Classical Greek as a viable form of communication within its cultural milieu. The programmed text is divided into seven units: (1) An Introduction to Greek, (2) The Geography of the Greek World, (3) Everyday Life among the Greeks, (4) The Alphabet, (5) Ancient Crete, (6) Troy, and (7) Greek Gods and Heroes. Each unit consists of a set of frames containing questions. The answers, to be supplied first by the student, are also provided. The units contain cultural, lexical and grammatical material in order of increasing difficulty, and are designed to be used with appropriate tapes. Language is taught by audiolingual methods, according to principles of structural linguistics. (CLK)

FOREWORD

THE ANCIENT GREEKS SPEAK TO US οἱ Ἕλληνες ἡμῖν λέγουσιν
is a curriculum resource and instructional system in the Classical Greek language and culture for secondary school students. It is designed to help students become aware of:

- . The impact of Hellenic civilization on our contemporary society
- . The spoken Classical Greek language as a viable form of communication within its cultural milieu
- . The enrichment of the English language through the incorporation of Classical Greek roots and affixes
- . Classical allusions in literature and other art forms
- . Similarities and differences between an ancient civilization and our own

This instructional system was created by a team of specialists in classical languages and literatures for the School District of Philadelphia. It consists of the following specially prepared materials:

- . A Teachers' Guide
- . A Student Programmed Text
- . Tapes To Accompany the Student Programmed Text
- . Visual Cues

It utilizes additional multisensory materials available from commercial publishers.

This new approach for the study of Classical Greek has been developed as a pilot project in an effort to stimulate a renaissance of interest in Hellenic language and culture.

Frame 1 - Welcome to the study of Greek! You are now using a programmed text. In using this programmed text you will need an index card or a piece of cardboard to cover up the right-hand column where answers will sometimes appear. Sometimes in a frame you will be asked to answer a question. In some frames you will be asked to perform a small task. In this frame your small task is to find an index card or piece of cardboard with which to cover up the right-hand column.
Frame 2 - The theory behind programmed learning is that you learn faster if you solve many easy problems and know right away whether you are right or wrong. But you would get no practice in solving problems if you were to see the answer----(before/after) you replied.	Answer - before

Frame 3 - If you find that you cannot answer a question it means that you have probably missed something in one of the earlier frames. Therefore, what should you do if you cannot answer a question?	Answer - Go back a few frames. As a last resort look at the answer and review the entire frame.
Frame 4 - Let's talk a little now about the English derivatives from Greek that we have been studying. About what percentage of English words come from Greek?	Answer - 10%

UNIT IV

THE ALPHABET

Frame 1 - The frames you will be working with now deal with the alphabet and its history. The word alphabet comes from the names of the first two letters in the Greek alphabet, viz., alpha and beta. In the answer slot for this frame you will see the Greek letters alpha and beta. These letters are very similar to the English letters a and b.	Answer - α β
Frame 3 - Picture writing spread from Egypt to other parts of the Middle East. The Semitic people in what is now Israel, Jordan, Syria, and Lebanon used picture writing but changed it somewhat. The Phoenicians were an important Semitic people. Their trading vessels sailed throughout the ----- sea.	Answer - Mediterranean
Frame 4 - Besides the Phoenician alphabet, two other Semitic alphabets that developed were the Hebrew and the Arabic. The Hebrew alphabet is still used today in the writing of the Hebrew language. The Arabic alphabet is used today to write the Arabic language. Is the Phoenician alphabet still used today?	Answer - No
Frame 5 - The Phoenicians brought their alphabet to the Greeks. The Greeks changed the Phoenician alphabet somewhat. The Greek alphabet is used in the writing of both Classical and ----- Greek.	Answer - Modern
Frame 6 - The Greek alphabet itself developed into two alphabets which are very important to the modern world. One was the Cyrillic alphabet used in the writing of Russian. The other was the ---- alphabet used in the writing of English and many other languages.	Answer - Roman
Frame 7 - The Roman alphabet is used in the writing of most of the languages in the world. Almost all European languages are written in the Roman alphabet with the exceptions of Russian and -----.	Answer - Greek

Frame 8 - The Roman alphabet is gradually spreading to non-European languages. Chinese and Japanese are now being written in the Roman alphabet. Swahili and many other African languages are also being written in the ----- alphabet.	Answer - Roman
Frame 9 - The Cyrillic alphabet was invented by Saint Cyril, a missionary in Eastern Europe. It is really the Greek alphabet with some new letters added. It is used in the writing of the ----- language.	Answer - Russian
Frame 10 - Study this chart which summarizes the history of the alphabet. The alphabets still in use today are indicated in capital letters: <pre> graph TD     A[Egyptian Hieroglyphics] --&gt; B[Early Semitic]     B --&gt; C[Phoenician]     B --&gt; D[HEBREW]     B --&gt; E[ARABIC]     C --&gt; F[Simple Greek]     F --&gt; G[STANDARD GREEK]     F --&gt; H[Western Greek]     G --&gt; I[CYRILLIC]     H --&gt; J[ROMAN]     H --&gt; K[Etruscan]     K --&gt; L[Oscan]     K --&gt; M[Umbrian]   </pre>
Frame 11 - In the chart given in Frame 10 naturally there was some oversimplification. All of the steps in the development of the various alphabets are not shown. The chart shows only the broad outline of development. Try to draw the chart on a piece of scrap paper from memory. Check your work with Frame 10.

ANCIENT CRETE

1 - Read the following paragraph aloud in Greek: ἡ Κρήτη ἐστὶν ἐν τῷ Αἰγαίῳ πελάγει. ἡ Κρήτη ἐστὶ νῆσος. Μίνως ἐστὶν ὁ ἄρχων ἐν Κρήτῃ. ὁ Λαβύρινθος ἐστὶν ἐν Κρήτῃ. ὁ Μινώταυρος ἐστὶ καὶ ἄνθρωπος καὶ ταῦρος.
2 - Now read each of the following questions aloud in Greek and try to give an oral answer. Refer to Frame 1 if necessary. Then read each answer aloud from the answer column. ποῦ ἐστὶν ἡ Κρήτη;	ἡ Κρήτη ἐστὶν ἐν τῷ Αἰγαίῳ πελάγει.
3 - ἔστιν ἡ Κρήτη νῆσος;	ναί. ἡ Κρήτη ἐστὶ νῆσος.
4 - τίς ἐστὶν ὁ ἄρχων ἐν Κρήτῃ;	Μίνως ἐστὶν ὁ ἄρχων ἐν Κρήτῃ.
5 - ποῦ ἐστὶν ὁ Μινώταυρος;	ὁ Μινώταυρος ἐστὶν ἐν Κρήτῃ.
6 - ποῦ ἐστὶν ὁ Λαβύρινθος;	ὁ Λαβύρινθος ἐστὶν ἐν Κρήτῃ.
7 - τί ἐστὶν ὁ Μινώταυρος;	ὁ Μινώταυρος ἐστὶ καὶ ἄνθρωπος καὶ ταῦρος.

8 - Read the following paragraph silently:

Ἡ Κρήτη ἐστὶν ἐν τῷ
Αἰγαίῳ πελάγει. Ἡ Κρήτη
ἐστὶ νῆσος. Μίνως
ἐστὶν ὁ ἄρχων ἐν
Κρήτῃ. Ὁ Λαβύρινθος ἐστὶν
ἐν Κρήτῃ. Ὁ Μινώταυρος ἐστὶ καὶ ἄνθρωπος καὶ ταῦρος.

9 - Now answer the following questions in writing. Check your answers carefully with the answer column.

Ποῦ ἐστὶν ἡ Κρήτη;

Ἡ Κρήτη
ἐστὶν ἐν
τῷ Αἰγαίῳ πελάγει.

10 - Ποῦ ἐστὶν ὁ
Μινώταυρος;

Ὁ Μινώταυρος
ἐστὶν ἐν Κρήτῃ.

11 - Ποῦ ἐστὶν ὁ
Λαβύρινθος;

Ὁ Λαβύρινθος
ἐστὶν ἐν
Κρήτῃ

12 - Τίς ἐστὶν ὁ
ἄρχων ἐν Κρήτῃ;

Μίνως ἐστὶν
ὁ ἄρχων
ἐν Κρήτῃ.

13 - Τί ἐστὶν ὁ
Μινώταυρος;

Ὁ Μινώταυρος
ἐστὶ καὶ ἄνθρωπος καὶ ταῦρος.

14 - Read the following paragraph aloud in Greek: Μίνως ἔστιν ὁ ἄρχων ἐν Κρήτῃ. Μίνως οἶδε Δαίδαλον. Μίνωα οὐ φιλεῖ Δαίδαλος. Μίνως μισεῖ Δαίδαλον.
15 - Now read each of the following questions aloud in Greek and try to give an oral answer. Refer to Frame 14 if necessary. Then read each answer aloud. Τίς ἔστιν ὁ ἄρχων ἐν Κρήτῃ;	Μίνως ἔστιν ὁ ἄρχων ἐν Κρήτῃ.
16 - οἶδε Μίνωα Δαίδαλος;	ναί. Μίνωα οἶδε Δαίδαλος.
17 - φιλεῖ Μίνωα Δαίδαλος;	οὐ. Μίνωα οὐ φιλεῖ Δαίδαλος.

18 - μισεῖ Μίνως Δαίδαλον;	γὰρ. Μίνως μισεῖ Δαίδαλον.
19 - Now read the following six sentences aloud:  Μίνως μισεῖ Δαίδαλον.  Μίνως Δαίδαλον μισεῖ.  Δαίδαλον μισεῖ Μίνως.  Δαίδαλον Μίνως μισεῖ.  μισεῖ ὁ Μίνως Δαίδαλον.  μισεῖ Δαίδαλον Μίνως.
20 - All of the sentences in Frame 19 mean just about the same thing. Each could be translated into English -----.	Minos hates Daedalus.
21 - In Greek, word order is not as important as in English. In fact, the words in a Greek sentence can be mixed up usually without really changing the meaning. In English, by contrast, word order ----- (is/is not) very important to meaning.	is
22 - In Greek the relationship between words is often indicated by the endings on the words. You have noticed perhaps that King Minos' name in Greek is sometimes spelled Μίνως . and sometimes Μίνωα Similarly Daedalus' name is sometimes spelled Δαίδαλος and sometimes -----.	Δαίδαλον
23 - Before we explain the difference in spelling between Μίνως and Μίνωα and between Δαίδαλος and Δαίδαλον we have to talk about the distinction between the subject and the direct object in a sentence. The subject of the sentence is often the doer or	direct object

performer of an action. The direct object in a sentence may be thought of as the word toward which the action of the sentence is directed. It should be remembered that not all sentences have both a subject and a direct object.
24 - Pick out the subject and object in the following sentence: Minos hates Daedalus.	"Minos" is the subject. "Daedalus" is the object.
25 - Pick out the subject and object in the following sentence: Daedalus hates Minos.	"Daedalus" is the subject. "Minos" is the object.
26 - As you have seen in Frames 24 and 25 word order in English - - - (is/is not) very important because it shows which word is the subject and which word is the direct object.	is
27 - In Greek the subject is indicated by a special form or spelling and the object likewise by a special form or spelling. The special subject form or spelling is called the nominative case. The special object form or spelling is called the accusative case. Write the phrases "nominative case" and "accusative case" on your paper.

28 - Very often in Greek the nominative case form ends in ς and the accusative case form ends in ν or α . Sometimes the accusative is the same as the nominative. Let us look at the nominative case and accusative case forms of some of the Greek words we have met before. The nominative case will be listed first. Say the words aloud and copy them on your paper. Δαίδαλος Δαίδαλον
29 - Μίνως Μίνωα
30 - χρόνος χρόνον
31 - βίος βίον
32 - ἄνθρωπος ἄνθρωπον
33 - κάλλος κάλλος
34 - Sometimes the nominative case has endings other than ς. Let us now look at some more nominative and accusative forms. Say the words aloud and copy them on your paper. θάλαττα θάλατταν 35 - σκηνή σκηνήν
36 - τέχνη τέχνην
37 - φιλοσοφία φιλοσοφίαν
38 - κυβερνήτης κυβερνήτην

39 - Read each sentence in the following pattern practice aloud. Then make each sentence negative aloud. Check your sentence with the answer column. Μίνως βίον μισεῖ.	Μίνως βίον οὐ μισεῖ.
40 - Μίνως ἄνθρωπον μισεῖ.	Μίνως ἄνθρωπον οὐ μισεῖ.
41 - Μίνως κάλλος μισεῖ.	Μίνως κάλλος οὐ μισεῖ.
42 - Μίνως θάλατταν μισεῖ.	Μίνως θάλατταν οὐ μισεῖ.
43 - Μίνως σκητῆν μισεῖ.	Μίνως σκητῆν οὐ μισεῖ.
44 - Μίνως φιλοσοφίαν μισεῖ.	Μίνως φιλοσοφίαν οὐ μισεῖ.
45 - φιλεῖ ἄνθρωπος Μίνωα.	οὐ φιλεῖ ἄνθρωπος Μίνωα.
46 - φιλεῖ ἄνθρωπος Δαίδαλον.	οὐ φιλεῖ ἄνθρωπος Δαίδαλον.
47 - φιλεῖ ἄνθρωπος κάλλος.	οὐ φιλεῖ ἄνθρωπος κάλλος.
48 - φιλεῖ ἄνθρωπος φιλοσοφίαν.	οὐ φιλεῖ ἄνθρωπος φιλοσοφίαν.

49 - Δαίδαλος οἶδε Μίνωα.	Δαίδαλος οὐκ οἶδε Μίνωα.
50 - Δαίδαλος οἶδε Δαίδαλον.	Δαίδαλος οὐκ οἶδε Δαίδαλον.
51 - Δαίδαλος οἶδε ἄνθρωπον.	Δαίδαλος οὐκ οἶδε ἄνθρωπον.
52 - Δαίδαλος οἶδε κάλλος.	Δαίδαλος οὐκ οἶδε κάλλος.
53 - Δαίδαλος οἶδε θάλατταν.	Δαίδαλος οὐκ οἶδε θάλατταν.
54 - Δαίδαλος οἶδε φιλοσοφίαν.	Δαίδαλος οὐκ οἶδε φιλοσοφίαν.
55 - Δαίδαλος οἶδε σκηνήν.	Δαίδαλος οὐκ οἶδε σκηνήν.
56 - Δαίδαλος οἶδε κυβερνήτην.	Δαίδαλος οὐκ οἶδε κυβερνήτην.
57 - Read each sentence in the following pattern practice aloud. Then make each sentence negative by beginning it with the word μή .
γνώθι σ'αὐτόν.	μή γνώθι σ'αὐτόν.
58 - γνώθι Μίνωα.	μή γνώθι Μίνωα.
59 - γνώθι Δαίδαλον.	μή γνώθι Δαίδαλον.
60 - γνώθι βίον.	μή γνώθι βίον.
61 - γνώθι ἄνθρωπον.	μή γνώθι ἄνθρωπον.
62 - γνώθι κάλλος.	μή γνώθι κάλλος.

63 - γνῶθι θάλατταν.	μὴ γνῶθι θάλατταν.
64 - γνῶθι σκητῆν.	μὴ γνῶθι σκητῆν.
65 - γνῶθι φιλοσοφίαν.	μὴ γνῶθι φιλοσοφίαν.
66 - γνῶθι κυβερνήτην.	μὴ γνῶθι κυβερνήτην.
67 - Now read aloud each question in the following pattern practice and answer aloud each question affirmatively. Check your answer by looking at the answer column.  μισεῖ Μίνως βίον;	ναί. μισεῖ Μίνως βίον.
68 - μισεῖ Μίνως Δαίδαλον;	ναί. μισεῖ Μίνως Δαίδαλον.
69 - μισεῖ Μίνως ἄνθρωπον;	ναί. μισεῖ Μίνως ἄνθρωπον.
70 - μισεῖ Μίνως χρόνον;	ναί. μισεῖ Μίνως χρόνον.
71 - μισεῖ Μίνως κάλλος;	ναί. μισεῖ Μίνως κάλλος.
72 - μισεῖ Μίνως θάλατταν;	ναί. μισεῖ Μίνως θάλατταν.
73 - μισεῖ Μίνως σκητῆν;	ναί. μισεῖ Μίνως σκητῆν.
74 - μισεῖ Μίνως φιλοσοφίαν.	ναί. μισεῖ Μίνως φιλοσοφίαν.
75 - μισεῖ Μίνως κυβερνήτην;	ναί. μισεῖ Μίνως κυβερνήτην.

76 - Now we will turn our attention to the English derivatives we have learned recently. An English word meaning "dictator" or "absolute ruler" and derived from the Greek word τύραννος is -----.	tyrant
77 - An English word meaning "bull-like" and derived from the Greek word ταύρος is -----.	taurine

78 - An English word meaning "highly skilled" and derived from the Greek name Δαίδαλος is - - - - -.	Daedalian
79 - An English word meaning "one who hates the human race" and derived from the Greek words μισεῖ and ἄνθρωπος is - - - - -.	misanthrope
80 - An English word meaning "one who loves mankind" and derived from the Greek words φιλεῖ and ἄνθρωπος is - - - - -.	philanthropist
81 - An English word meaning "woman hater" and connected with the Greek word μισεῖ is - - - - -.	misogynist
82 - An English word meaning "complicated" or "intricate" and derived from the Greek word λαβύρινθος is - - - - -.	labyrinthine
83 - An English word meaning "to flirt" and derived from the Greek word φιλεῖ is - - - - -.	philander
84 - An English word meaning "a lover of the British people" and derived from the Greek word φιλεῖ is - - - - -.	Anglophile
85 - An English word meaning "a lover of the French people" and derived from the Greek word φιλεῖ is - - - - -.	Francophile

86 - Open your Greek notebook to the heading Word Study. Add the following words to the first column of your list there: tyrant, taurine, Daedalian, misanthrope, misogynist, labyrinthine, philanthropist, Anglophile, Francophile, philander.
87 - Now put in the Greek words and the meanings of the English words in the appropriate columns of your list. Refer to Frames 76-86 if necessary.
88 - Explain in your own words the meaning of each of the following English sentences. Pay particular attention to the underlined word which is defined in the answer column. The President of the United States is not a tyrant.	absolute ruler, dictator
89 - The man had a taurine facial expression.	bull-like
90 - John D. Rockefeller was a notable philanthropist.	benefactor of mankind, contributor to worthy causes
91 - Queen Elizabeth II is certainly an Anglophile.	a lover of the British people and traditions
92 - General DeGaulle has been described as a Francophile.	lover of the French people
93 - There are many Daedalian carpenters in Philadelphia.	highly skilled
94 - A person who would wish to destroy the whole world with nuclear weapons would certainly be a misanthrope.	hater of the human race

95 - A person who would want to make all women in the world slaves would certainly be a misogynist .	hater of women
96 - High school students are much too busy with their studies to philander .	flirt
97 - Labyrinthine puzzles can be fun to solve.	complicated

98 - Read aloud the following paragraph in Greek: Μίνως εἰμί. ὁ ἄρχων εἰμί. οἶδα Δαίδαλον. οὐ φιλῶ Δαίδαλον. μισῶ Δαίδαλον.
99 - Now read the following similar paragraph aloud in Greek: Μίνως εἶ. ὁ ἄρχων εἶ. οἶσθα Δαίδαλον. οὐ φιλεῖς Δαίδαλον. μισεῖς Δαίδαλον.
100 - Now read the following similar paragraph aloud in Greek: Μίνως ἐστίν. ὁ ἄρχων ἐστίν. οἶδε Δαίδαλον. οὐ φιλεῖ Δαίδαλον. μισεῖ Δαίδαλον.

101 - In Frame 98 Minos is the speaker. In Frame 99 Minos is spoken to. In Frame 100 Minos is - - - - -.	spoken about
102 - Frame 98 is said to be written in the 1st person. Frame 99 is written in the 2nd person. Frame 100 is written in the - - - - -.	3rd person
103 - The difference between the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd persons is indicated by the verbs. Verbs are words which indicate action or being. Try to find the verb in each of the following sentences:  Minos knows Daedalus.	knows
104 - Minos hates Daedalus.	hates
105 - Minos is the ruler.	is
106 - Minos does not like Daedalus.	does like
107 - I know Daedalus.	know
108 - I like Daedalus.	like
109 - I am not a ruler.	am
Now try to locate the verb in each of the following Greek sentences:
110 - Μίνως εἰμί.	εἰμί
111 - Μίνως εἶ.	εἶ
112 - Μίνως ἐστίν.	ἐστίν
113 - οἶδα Μίνωα.	οἶδα

114 - οἶσθα Μίνωα.	οἶσθα
115 - οἶδε Μίνωα.	οἶδε
116 - μισῶ Δαίδαλον.	μισῶ
117 - μισεῖς Δαίδαλον.	μισεῖς
118 - μισεῖ Δαίδαλον.	μισεῖ
119 - οὐ φιλῶ Δαίδαλον.	φιλῶ
120 - οὐ φιλεῖς Δαίδαλον.	φιλεῖς
121 - οὐ φιλεῖ Δαίδαλον.	φιλεῖ
122 - A verb is said to be in the first person when the subject is the speaker. A verb is said to be in the second person when the subject is spoken to. A verb is said to be in the third person when the subject is - - - - -.	spoken about
123 - In English to indicate the first person the word "I" is frequently used. To indicate the second person the word "you" is frequently used. Thus "I know" is first person but "you know" is - - - - -.	2nd person
124 - In English the 3rd person is often indicated by adding "s" to the verb. Thus "he knows" and "Minos knows" are both - - - - -.	3rd person
125 - The verb "to be" in English has special forms or spellings to indicate person. "I am" is first person. "You are" is second person. "Is" indicates the - - - - -.	3rd person

126 - Greek has special forms or spellings to indicate person. Separate words like "I" and "you" are not needed to indicate the first and second person. Thus εἰμί is first person, εἶ is second person, and ἐστί is -----.	3rd person
127 - εἰμί, the first person form, means in English "I am". εἶ, the second person form, means "you are". ἐστί, the third person form, means -----.	"is" (or "he is", "she is", or "it is" or "there is")
128 - οἶδα, the first person form, means in English "I know". οἶσθα, the second person form, means "you know". οἶδε, the third person form, means -----.	"knows" (or "he knows," "she knows", or "it knows")
129 - Look at the following Greek verb forms and their English meanings: μισῶ I hate μισεῖς you hate μισεῖ (he, she, it) hates φιλῶ I love φιλεῖς you love φιλεῖ (he, she, it) loves What do you notice about the endings on the Greek words?	μισῶ, μισεῖς, μισεῖ have the same endings as φιλῶ, φιλεῖς, φιλεῖ.
130 - Many Greek verbs follow the pattern of μισῶ and φιλῶ in indicating person. Some verbs, however, such as οἶδα and εἰμί ----- (do/donot) follow this pattern.	do not

131 - Read each sentence in the following pattern practice aloud. Then make each sentence negative aloud. Check your sentence with the answer column: ἐν Κρήτῃ εἰμί.	ἐν Κρήτῃ οὐκ εἰμί.
132 - ἐν Ἑλλάδι εἰμί.	ἐν Ἑλλάδι οὐκ εἰμί.
133 - ἐν Εὐρώπῃ εἰμί.	ἐν Εὐρώπῃ οὐκ εἰμί.
134 - ἐν Κρήτῃ εἶ.	ἐν Κρήτῃ οὐκ εἶ.
135 - ἐν Ἑλλάδι εἶ.	ἐν Ἑλλάδι οὐκ εἶ.
136 - ἐν Εὐρώπῃ εἶ.	ἐν Εὐρώπῃ οὐκ εἶ.
137 - Μίνως ἐστὶν ἐν Κρήτῃ.	Μίνως οὐκ ἐστὶν ἐν Κρήτῃ.
138 - Μίνως ἐστὶν ἐν Ἑλλάδι.	Μίνως οὐκ ἐστὶν ἐν Ἑλλάδι.

182 - Now we are going to review some of the things we have learned about Crete's history, culture, and influence. Much of what we know about Crete comes from archaeology. Another source of our information is the w - - - - of the Cretans.

writings

185 - The form of Greek that the Cretans knew was written in a script called Linear B. Linear B was very - - - - (different from/similar to) the Greek alphabet that we have learned.	different from
186 - Before 1952 we could not read Linear B. In that year the young British cryptologist Michael Ventris deciphered it and showed that Linear B was a written form of the - - - - (Greek/Cretan) language.	Greek
187 - Crete ruled the Aegean Sea for 800 years. The cities on the Greek mainland seem to have paid taxes and tribute to Crete. The Cretans seem to have established colonies on the Greek mainland. Many of the rulers of Crete seem to have used the name M- - - - -.	Minos
188 - The capital of Crete was Knossos - a place made famous by the great p- - - of King Minos.	palace
189 - Sir Arthur Evans, a famous British archaeologist, discovered the ruins of Knossos in 1899. The palace at Knossos was notable for its staircases, its columns, and its elaborate drainage and plumbing systems. King Minos was apparently so respected that there were - - - - - (no/extensive) fortifications around the palace.	no

190 - The power and wealth of King Minos had three sources: industry, mastery of the sea, and domination of the market. The Cretans did - - - - (little/much) trading with Egypt before the year 1450 B.C.	much
191 - Around 1450 B.C. the Egyptians stopped trading with Crete and started trading directly with the Achaeans on the mainland of Greece. The Achaeans became conscious of their strength and stopped paying taxes to - - - - .	Crete
192 - The Achaeans attacked Crete itself and burned the Great Palace at Knossos. An Achaean war lord installed himself on the throne of - - - - - .	King Minos
193 - After this attack Crete's importance in history greatly - - - - (diminished/increased).	diminished
194 - There are several famous myths connected with Crete and King Minos. Some of these myths involve the Minotaur - the monster born of King Minos' wife. This Minotaur was half man and half - - - - - .	bull
195 - Every year the city of Athens sent seven handsome young men and seven pretty maidens to Knossos as a tax or tribute to King Minos. These young people were sent into the Labyrinth - the Minotaur's home - where eventually they were killed by the Minotaur. The Minotaur enjoyed eating p- - - - - .	people

196 - The Labyrinth - sometimes identified with the Great Palace at Knossos - was a kind of maze having many halls and rooms. It was virtually impossible to find one's way out once one entered. The Labyrinth had been built to house the Minotaur at the request of King Minos by the famous engineer and architect  -----.	Daedalus
197 - One year the son of the King of Athens came to Crete as one of the young people to be sacrificed to the Minotaur. His name was Theseus. Before meeting the Minotaur Theseus fell in love with Ariadne, one of Minos' daughters. Ariadne gave Theseus a special sword with which he killed the Minotaur and a spool of thread that would enable him to find his way through the  -----.	Labyrinth
198 - Later Daedalus, the architect of the Labyrinth, lost favor with King Minos. Minos had Daedalus imprisoned in the Labyrinth. Daedalus built wings for himself and his son Icarus in order to escape. Icarus flew too close to the sun and caused the wax binding in his wings to melt. Icarus was drowned in the Aegean Sea but Daedalus escaped. The part of the Aegean Sea in which Icarus supposedly fell is called today the  -----.	Icarian Sea

199 - The Cretan religion centered around the worship of the Mother Goddess who in a way was like our Mother Nature. The Mother Goddess made the fields and forests grow. She was the life giving spirit in animals. She changed the seasons of the year. Her male companion was sometimes thought of as King Minos or the Minotaur or a - - - - .	bull

219 -	οὐκ ἔστιν εὐρεῖν βίον ἄλυπον οὐδενός.	It is not possible for anyone to find a life without sorrow. (Menander)
220 -	σκηνὴ πᾶς ὁ βίος.	All of life is a stage. (Palladas)
221 -	ὁ βίος βραχύς, ἡ δὲ τέχνη μακρὴ.	Life is short but art is long. (Hippocrates)

222 - Εγώ εἰμι τὸ ἄλφα καὶ τὸ ὠμέγα, ἀρχὴ καὶ τέλος.	I am alpha and omega, the beginning and the end. (New Testament)
223 - On your paper, copy in Greek each quotation found in Frames 209 to 222.

224 - Let's now review some of the things we have learned in this unit about how Greek works. As we have seen, languages are different. For instance, English depends heavily on word order in a sentence to express meaning. In Greek, by contrast, word order - - - - (is/is not) very important to meaning.	is not
225 - In Greek, the relationship between words - - - - (is/is not) often indicated by the endings on the words or, more accurately, by the spelling or form of the words.	is
226 - The special form or spelling of a Greek word which indicates that it is the subject of the sentence is called the - - - - - case.	nominative

227 - The form or spelling of a Greek word which indicates that it is the direct object in the sentence is called the - - - - - case.	accusative
228 - The subject of the sentence is often the doer or performer of an action or the word about which something is said. The word toward which the action of the sentence is directed is often the - - - - - .	direct object
229 - Verbs are words which indicate action or being. A verb is said to be in the first person when the subject is the speaker. A verb is said to be in the second person when the subject is spoken to. A verb is said to be in the - - - - - person when the subject is spoken about.	third
230 - In English to indicate the first person the word - - - - is frequently used.	I
231 - In English to indicate the second person the word - - - - is frequently used.	you

234 - In the following frames you will find sentences written in the first person. Change the verb to the second and third persons. Check with the answer column. εἰμι Μίνως.	εἶ Μίνως. ἔστι Μίνως.
235 - τὸν Μινώταυρον οἶδα.	τὸν Μινώταυρον οἶσθα. τὸν Μινώταυρον οἶδεν.
237 - βίον φιλῶ.	βίον φιλεῖς. βίον φιλεῖ.
238 - In the following frames you will find sentences which have words in the nominative case. Change each nominative form to the accusative. Be sure that you understand the difference in meaning between the original sentence and the new sentence you produce. If the difference is not immediately clear to you, give the meaning of each sentence in English. The English meaning of the original sentence followed by the meaning of the new sentence is given in the answer column. Μίνως οἶδε.	Μίνωα οἶδεν. Minos knows. He knows Minos.

239 -	Δαίδαλος οἶδε	Δαίδαλον οἶδε Daedalus knows. He knows Daedalus.
240 -	ὁ Μινώταυρος οἶδε	τὸν Μινώταυρον οἶδε. The Minotaur knows. He knows the Minotaur.
241 -	ἄνθρωπος οἶδε	ἄνθρωπον οἶδε. A man knows. He knows a man.
242 -	In the following frames you will find a nominative case form listed. Change this form to the accusative case.
	βίος	βίον
243 -	χρόνος	χρόνον
244 -	κάλλος	κάλλος
245 -	θάλαττα	θάλατταν
246 -	σκηνή	σκηνήν
247 -	τέχνη	τέχνην
248 -	φιλοσοφία	φιλοσοφίαν
249 -	κυβερνήτης	κυβερνήτην
250 -	ταῦρος	ταῦρον
251 -	κρήτη	κρήτην
252 -	Εὐρώπη	Εὐρώπην

253 - You have noticed that the nominative case frequently ends is ς and the accusative case frequently ends in - - - - .	ν or δ
254 - You have noticed that the verbs φιλῶ and μισῶ have the same endings to indicate person. The first person ending is -ω . The second person ending is -εις . The third person ending is - - - - . Many verbs in Greek have endings like φιλῶ and μισῶ .	-εις
255 - In this unit you have studied the following things: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Crete's history and culture.</li> <li>b. Myths connected with Crete.</li> <li>c. The English derivatives tyrant, taurine, Daedalian, misanthrope, misogynist, labyrinthine, philanthropist, Anglophile, Francophile, philander.</li> <li>d. 166 - Let us talk more about the author of THE ILIAD and THE ODYSSEY. According to tradition these two great epic poems were written by a man named - - - - - .	Homer
167 - According to tradition Homer was supposed to have lived about the 8th century B.C. several hundred years after the T - - - - - War.	Trojan
168 - A noted 18th century classical scholar named Giambattista Vico pointed out that we really know nothing of importance about Homer. The traditional biographies of Homer are contradictory and therefore - - - - - (reliable/unreliable).	unreliable
169 - There are three major questions about Homer which are still to some extent subjects of scholarly dispute. These three questions are sometimes referred to as the Homeric questions because they concern - - - - - .	Homer

170 - Here are the three Homeric questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Was Homer a poet who actually existed?</li> <li>b. Is Homer the author of both THE ILIAD and THE ODYSSEY or only THE ILIAD?</li> <li>c. How were the Homeric poems formed?</li> </ul> Copy these three questions on your paper.
171 - Many eminent scholars have denied the existence of Homer. Some claim that THE ILIAD and THE ODYSSEY were actually the works of many different poets and that Homer was later invented for the sake of convenience. Among those who rejected the existence of Homer were the 17th century French scholar d' Aubignac, the 18th century German scholar F. A. Wolfe, and the 18th century Italian scholar whom we already mentioned, namely, Giambattista V - - - - .	Vico
172 - Scholars of our own century who have studied THE ILIAD and THE ODYSSEY carefully believe - unlike d' Aubignac, Wolfe, and Vico - that Homer was a poet who really - - - - - (did exist/did not exist).	did exist

173 - In Homer's day there seem to have been many professional poets who went about entertaining assemblies by reciting ballads and lively narrative poems about stirring events in the nation's true or legendary past. These poems were not written down at first but were transmitted from person to person  -----	orally (by word of mouth)
174 - Homer probably reworked and polished many of these old poems and then incorporated them into his ILIAD and -----	ODYSSEY
175 - THE ILIAD and THE ODYSSEY have a definite rhythm or metrical pattern. Each line consists of 6 divisions or feet and the dominant type of foot is called a dactyl. Say the word dactyl several times. Note that it is pronounced "dack till".
176 - A line of poetry which has 6 feet or divisions and in which the dominant type of foot is the dactyl is called dactylic hexameter. THE ILIAD and THE ODYSSEY are therefore written in -----	dactylic hexameters
177 - Here is the first line of THE ILIAD divided into feet:    μνην ἀειδε θεα Πηληϊάδεω Ἀχιλῆος    How many feet does the line contain?	six

178 - Because the line contains six feet it is referred to as a h - - - - - line.	hexameter
179 - Four of the six feet are dactyls. Therefore the line is called a d - - - - hexameter.	dactylic
180 - There are definite rules for deciding what is a foot and what feet are dactyls. We will not have time now to discuss these rules. But you should try to remember that THE ILIAD and THE ODYSSEY do have a definite rhythm or metrical pattern called d - - - - - h - - - - - .	dactylic hexameter
181 - Since poetry in ancient Greece was frequently recited aloud from memory rather than read, the rhythm probably - - - - - (helped/did not help) the poet remember his lines.	helped
182 - We said in discussing the Homeric questions that Homer probably did rework and polish many of the old poems that were handed down orally. So overwhelmingly superior was Homer's work that the poems of his predecessors were forgotten and have perished, while the two Homeric epics became the basis, the model and inspiration, of all later Greek thought and literature. The Homeric epics - - - - - (have/ have not) also influenced the thought and literature of many other nations.	have

183 - We will now look quickly at some of the influence of Homer over the thought and literature of Greece and other nations. In school ancient Greek boys studied Homer carefully and often memorized long portions of the poems.	memorized
184 - When ancient Greek authors wrote about mythology they frequently related what they wrote to THE ILIAD and THE ODYSSEY. For instance, Euripides' play TROJAN WOMEN is in a way an outgrowth or extension of Homer's ILIAD.	ODYSSEY
185 - We have already seen how the great Latin epic poet, Vergil, relates his poem about Aeneas to Homer's ILIAD. Aeneas was a Trojan prince who escaped the burning of Troy and settled in central Italy. His descendants founded the city of Rome.	Rome
186 - Vergil not only treats a subject related to Homer's ILIAD and ODYSSEY but also consciously imitates Homeric style and even writes in Homer's meter, namely, in dactylic hexameter.	hexameter
187 - The great Italian and Latin poet Dante wrote his epic masterpiece THE DIVINE COMEDY with Vergil in mind. Dante even makes Vergil a character in THE DIVINE COMEDY. Dante knew Vergil's poetry well and through it was influenced by Homer.	Homer

188 - John Milton, who wrote the great English language epic poem PARADISE LOST, was a great admirer of Latin and Greek literature. PARADISE-LOST - an epic dealing with the Biblical story of Adam and Eve - shows many traces of H - - - - - influence.	Homeric
189 - The great Portuguese epic poet Camoens has written a poem called THE LUSIADS. This poem deals with the adventures of the explorer Vasco Da Gama. Since Camoens modeled his poem on Vergil's AENEID Camoens shows many signs of H - - - - - influence.	Homeric
190 - THE SONG OF HIAWATHA by Longfellow is the American national epic. It, too, belongs to the great epic tradition begun by - - - - - .	Homer
191 - The great Modern Greek poet Nikos Kazantzakis has written an epic called THE ODYSSEY: A MODERN SEQUEL. This poem focuses on the later life of Odysseus after his return to I - - - - - .	Ithaca
192 - An antiwar play by the modern French writer Giradoux called TIGER AT THE GATES deals with the Trojan War and takes some of its inspiration from H - - - - - .	Homer
193 - Another famous example of Homer's influence on later literature is the great novel ULYSSES by James Joyce. Many other examples could be given. To treat this influence in detail would require - - - - (much/little) time.	much

194 - Read the following paragraph aloud
in Greek:

οἱ βασιλεῖς ἔσμεν. ὁ Ἀγαμέμνων καὶ ὁ Μενέλαός ἔσμεν. Τροίαν ἴσμεν. Τροίαν οὐ φιλοῦμεν.
Τροίαν μισοῦμεν.

195 - Now read this paragraph aloud
in Greek:

οἱ βασιλεῖς ἐστε. ὁ Ἀγαμέμνων
καὶ ὁ Μενέλαός ἐστε. Τροίαν ἴστε. Τροίαν οὐ φιλεῖτε.
Τροίαν μισεῖτε.

196 - Now read this paragraph aloud:

οἱ βασιλεῖς εἶσιν. ὁ Ἀγαμέμνων καὶ ὁ Μενέλαός εἶσι. Τροίαν ἴσασιν. Τροίαν οὐ φιλοῦσιν.
Τροίαν μισοῦσιν.

197 - In the paragraph found in Frame 194 the kings speak. In the next frame the kings are spoken to. In the next frame the kings are - - - - - .	spoken about
198 - The paragraph found in Frame 194 is said to be written in the first person. The paragraph in the next frame is written in the second person. The paragraph in the next frame is written in the - - - - - person.	third
199 - A verb is said to be in the first person when the subject is the speaker. A verb is said to be in the second person when the subject is spoken to. A verb is said to be in the third person when the subject is - - - - - .	spoken about
200 - In English to indicate the first person singular the word "I" is used. To indicate the first person plural the word "we" is used. To indicate the second person singular or plural the word "you" is used. Thus "we know" is first person but "you know" is - - - - - .	second person
201 - In English the third person singular is often indicated by adding "s" to the verb. The third person plural will often be indicated by the word "they" or by a plural noun as subject of the verb. Thus "he knows", "they know", and "the kings know" are all - - - - - .	third person

202 - Greek has special forms or spellings to indicate person. Separate words like "I", "we", and "you" are not needed to indicate the first and second person. Thus εἰμί, οἶδα, μισῶ, and φιλῶ are all first person singular while εἶ, οἶσθα, μισεῖς, and φιλεῖς are all ---- person singular.	second
203 - ἐσμέν, ἴμεν, μισοῦμεν, and φιλοῦμεν are all first person plural. ἔστε, ἴστε, μισεῖτε, and φιλεῖτε are all ---- person plural.	second
204 - ἐστὶ, οἶδε, μισεῖ and φιλεῖ are all third person singular. εἶσι, ἴσασι, μισοῦσι, and φιλοῦσι are all ---- person plural.	third
205 - In the following frames make each sentence negative. Check your answer. ἐν Τροίᾳ ἐσμέν.	ἐν Τροίᾳ οὐκ ἐσμέν.

311 - τὴν θεὰν οἶδα.	τὴν θεὰν ἴσμεν.
312 - τὴν θεὰν οἶσθα.	τὴν θεὰν ἴστε.
313 - τὴν θεὰν οἶδε.	τὴν θεὰν ἴσασιν.
314 - ἀγαθός εἰμι.	ἀγαθοί ἐσμεν.

315 - ἀγαθὸς εἶ.	ἀγαθοὶ ἔβμεν.
316 - ἀγαθός ἐστιν.	ἀγαθοὶ εἶσιν.
317 - In English the first person is indicated by the use of the words I and - - - - .	we
318 - In English the second person is indicated by the use of the word - - - - .	you
319 - The third person in English is indicated many times by the words he , she , it , and they or by a noun that serves as the s - - - - - of a sentence.	subject
320 - Greek verbs indicate person by their spellings. Thus all of the following verbs are in the - - - - - person: εἶμι οἶδα φιλῶ μισῶ ἐβμέν ἴβμεν φιλοῦμεν μισοῦμεν	first
321 - The ending -ω often indicates the first person singular whereas the ending -μεν often indicates the first person - - - - - .	plural
322 - The following verbs are in the - - - - - person. εἶ οἶσθα φιλεῖς μισεῖς ἐβτέ ἴβτε φιλεῖτε μισεῖτε	second

323 - The ending s frequently indicates the second person singular whereas the ending - TE often indicates the second person - - - - .	plural
324 - The following verbs are in the - - - - person: ἔστι' οἶδε φιλεῖ μισεῖ εἶσι ἴσασι φιλοῦσι μισοῦσι	third
325 - The ending - σι frequently indicates the third person - - - - .	plural
326 - We are now going to review Troy's history. Troy was a great city in Asia Minor that became involved in a war with the Greek city states around 1200 B. C. The king of M - - - - was the leader of the Greeks.	Mycenae
327 - The Greeks who lived in Mycenae and other cities such as Tiryns and Orchomenos were called Achaeans. Long before the Trojan War the Achaeans had conquered their former masters, the C - - - - .	Cretans

328 - There were probably two historical reasons for the Trojan War. One was the desire of the Achaeans to colonize - - - - - . Another was the unwillingness of the Achaeans to pay toll to Troy for the use of the sea.	Asia Minor
329 - Much of our knowledge of Troy comes from archaeology. Particularly important has been the work of Heinrich S - - - - - and Wilhelm Dorpfeld.	Schliemann
330 - The Trojan War is a central event in Greek mythology and has in fact been called the queen of myths. According to mythology the Trojan War started because a Trojan prince named Paris took away the wife of Menelaus, the king of Sparta. Menelaus' wife was named H - - - - .	Helen
331 - Paris had been promised Helen as his wife by the goddess Aphrodite as a reward. Paris had chosen Aphrodite as the fairest goddess in preference to Hera and Athena. Paris had been asked by Z - - - - , the king of the gods, to judge a kind of beauty contest among the goddesses.	Zeus

332 - The beauty contest among the goddesses resulted from a great wedding feast to which all the gods and goddesses were invited except one, namely, Eris, the goddess of discord. Because she had been insulted and wished to cause trouble, the goddess Eris came to the wedding feast and threw a golden apple on to the table marked "for the fairest". The goddesses started to argue among themselves as to who should have the apple. Finally the choice narrowed down to the three major goddesses: Hera, Aphrodite, and -----.	Athena
333 - When Paris refused to return Helen to Menelaus, Menelaus' brother Agamemnon prepared an army to invade Trojan territory. Agamemnon was the king of -----.	Mycenae
334 - King Agamemnon's army included the mighty Greek warriors, Achilles and Odysseus. A thousand Greek ships were assembled at a place called Aulis. A strong wind blew in the wrong direction and prevented the Greeks from sailing. A soothsayer told Agamemnon to sacrifice Iphigenia, his daughter, to the goddess Artemis who was angry at the -----.	Greeks

335 - The king of Troy was Priam. His wife was Hecuba. The greatest Trojan warrior, Hector, was a son of King Priam. Another son of King Priam was Paris, the young man who took Helen to T - - - - .	Troy
336 - Homer's great epic poem, THE ILIAD deals with the terrible anger of Achilles and its results during the TROJAN WAR. Homer's ODYSSEY deals with the wandering of Odysseus after the - - - - - and his return to his wife Penelope who waited for him in Ithaca.	Trojan War
337 - Homer's ILIAD ends with the funeral of Hector. The story of the fall of Troy is told to some extent by Euripides in the play called TROJAN WOMEN. The most complete account of Troy's fall, however, is found in THE AENEID, a Latin epic poem about the Trojan prince Aeneas. THE AENEID was written by V - - - - .	Vergil
338 - In the great trilogy called THE ORESTEIA, Aeschylus tells the story of the return of A - - - - - to Greece after the Trojan War, his murder by his wife Clytemnestra, and the aftermath of this murder.	Agamemnon

339 - TROJAN WOMEN, THE AENEID, and THE ORESTEIA are all in a way outgrowths or extensions of Homer's poems. The great literary tradition begun by Homer continues to our own day. Name some of the authors in later literature that have been influenced by Homer directly or indirectly.	Dante, Milton, Camoens, Longfellow, Kazantzakis, Giradoux.
340 - Dante wrote a great Italian language epic called THE DIVINE COMEDY. Milton wrote an English language epic called PARADISE LOST. Longfellow wrote THE SONG OF HIAWATHA. Camoens wrote THE LUSIADS, an epic about Vasco Da Gama in the P - - - - language.	Portuguese
341 - Homer's influence continues in the 20th century. For example, Nikos Kazantzakis has written a Modern Greek epic called THE ODYSSEY: A MODERN SEQUEL and Jean Giradoux has written in French a play called TIGER AT THE GATES about the T - - - - W - - - - -.	Trojan War
342 - There are three major questions about Homer that are still to some degree disputed. These so-called Homeric questions are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Did Homer actually exist?</li> <li>b. Did he write both THE ILIAD and THE ODYSSEY?</li> <li>c. How were the Homeric poems f - - - - - ?</li> </ul>	formed

343 - Although scholars like d'Aubignac, Wolfe, and Vico have denied Homer's existence, most modern authorities say that Homer was a poet who really existed and wrote both THE ILIAD and THE ODYSSEY though he probably incorporated many older oral poems into his work. The Homeric questions, however, - - - - - (have/have not) been entirely answered.	have not
344 - Both THE ILIAD and THE ODYSSEY are written in a metrical form called dactylic hexameter. In dactylic hexameter each line contains six feet and the dominant type of foot is the d - - - - -.	dactyl
345 - We have seen that mythology tells rich and interesting stories about what happened after the Achaeans captured and burned Troy. For instance, the wanderings of Odysseus, the wanderings of Aeneas, the murder of Agamemnon. History, however, simply tells us that the Achaeans returned to Greece after 1180 B.C. where they were attacked by another Greek - speaking people - the Dorians. The Dorians destroyed Mycenae itself and the 300 years following their invasion are called the D - - - - - A - - - - - since we have so little information about them.	Dark Ages
346 - We are now going to review English derivatives. In each of the following frames explain the meaning of the underlined word and give its etymology: St. Peter's Church in Rome is a famous basilica.	large, important church; from βασιλεύς "king"

347 - In the deserts of Arizona there are many basilisks.	large lizards with crown-like crests on their backs; from βασιλεύς "king"
348 - The scientist was interested in metrology.	the study of measurement; from μέτρον "measure"
349 - THE ILIAD consists of hexameters.	lines of poetry having six measures or feet; from μέτρον "measure"
350 - The scientist used precision metric instruments.	for measuring; from μέτρον "measure"
351 - The doctor administered androgen.	a drug producing masculine characteristics; from άνήρ , άνδρα "man"
352 - Polyandry is illegal in Pennsylvania.	having more than one husband at a time; from άνήρ , άνδρα "man"
353 - The plant was androgynous.	having both male and female characteristics; from άνήρ , άνδρα "man" and γυνή , γυναίκα - "woman"

354 - Some people think that gynecocracy would solve the problems of war and poverty.	rule by women; from γυνή , γυναῖκα -"woman"
355 - The doctor specialized in gynecology.	the study of female medical problems; from γυνή , γυναῖκα -"woman"
356 - Students have myriad problems.	manifold, countless; from μυρίοι "countless"
357 - Let's review quickly a few English expressions that have their origin in the Trojan War story. Explain how each expression may be used in English. Check your answer. "Achilles Heel"	any weakness that could prove disastrous
358 - "Trojan Horse"	an enemy group within a country; a trick
359 - "Greeks bearing gifts"	people bringing things which seem good on the surface but actually are destructive
360 - "Working like Trojans"	working very hard
361 - In this unit you have studied the following things: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Troy's history</li> <li>b. Mythology and literature connected with Troy</li> <li>c. Greek quotations related to Troy</li> </ol>

UNIT VII

GREEK GODS AND HEROES

145

1 - Read the following quotations about mythology aloud in Greek: ἀνάγκη οὐδὲ θεοὶ μάχονται. 2 - ἔταν ὁ δαίμων εὖ διδῶ τί δεῖ φίλων;
3 - μὴ πίστευε ἀνθρώποις ἀλλὰ μόνῳ τῷ θεῷ. 4 - μόνοι οἱ θεοὶ ἄγευ λύπης διάγουσι.
5 - ὁ θεὸς πάντα τίθησι ὅπως αὐτῷ ἀρεσκεί.

6 -	ΖΕΥΣ ΣΩΤΗΡ ΚΑΙ ΝΙΚΗ.
7 -	ΣΥΝ ἈΘΗΝᾶ ΚΑΙ ΧΕΪΡΑ ΚΙΤΤΕΙ.
8 -	ΠΡΟΣ ΤΗΝ ἈΝΑΓΚΗΝ Οὐδ' Ἄρης ἀνθίσταται.
9 -	Τεκρὸν Ἀφροδίτη Διονύσου δίχα καὶ Δῆμητρος.
10 -	ΠΡΟΣ ΔΥΟ Οὐδ' ὁ Ἡρακλῆς.
11 -	In the following frames read the quotations aloud again. Give the meaning of each quotation in English and the source.  Ἀνάγκη οὐδὲ θεοὶ μάχονται.	Even gods don't fight necessity. (Simonides)
12 -	Ὅταν ὁ δαίμων εὖ διδῶ τί δεῖ φίλων;	When divine power confers well-being what need do we have of friends? (Aristotle)
13 -	Μὴ πίστευε ἀνθρώποις ἀλλὰ μόνῳ τῷ θεῷ.	Don't trust people but only a god. (Greek Proverb)
14 -	Μόνοι οἱ θεοὶ ἄνευ λύπης διάγουσι.	Only gods live without pain. (Greek Proverb)
15 -	Ὁ θεὸς πάντα τίθησι ὅπως αὐτῷ ἄρεσκει	The god arranges everything as he pleases. (Greek Proverb)

16 -	Ζεὺς σωτὴρ καὶ νίκη.	Zeus, our savior and victory. (Xenophon)
17 -	σὺν Ἀθηνᾷ καὶ χείρᾳ κίχει.	Progress is made with the help of Athena and with the help of your own hand. (Greek Proverb)
18 -	πρὸς τὴν ἀνάγκην οὐδ' ὁ Ἄρης ἀνθίσταται.	Even Ares doesn't fight against necessity. (Greek Proverb)
19 -	νεκρὸν Ἀφροδίτη Διονύσου δίχα καὶ Δήμητρος.	Aphrodite is a dead thing without Dionysus and Demeter. (Greek Proverb)
20 -	πρὸς δύο οὐδ' ὁ Ἡρακλῆς.	Even Hercules doesn't stand against two opponents at once. (Plato)

21 - Read the following paragraph aloud in Greek. Then answer in Greek the questions in the frames that follow:

τοὺς Ὀλυμπίους θεοὺς ἐλάτρευσα.
τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου θεοὺς οὐκ ἐλάτρευσα. τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου θεοὺς οὐκ ἐλάτρευσα. τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου
θεοὺς οὐκ ἐφίλησα. ὁ ἦρως τοὺς
Ὀλυμπίους θεοὺς ἐλάτρευγεν. ὁ ἦρως τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου θεοὺς οὐκ ἐλάτρευγεν.
ὁ ἦρως τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου θεοὺς οὐκ ἐφίλησεν.

22 - ἐλάτρευσα τοὺς Ὀλυμπίους θεοὺς;	ναί. τοὺς Ὀλυμπίους θεοὺς ἐλάτρευσα.
23 - ἐλάτρευσα τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου θεοὺς;	οὐ. τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου θεοὺς οὐκ ἐλάτρευσα.
24 - ἐφίλησα τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου θεοὺς;	οὐ. τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου θεοὺς οὐκ ἐφίλησα.
25 - ὁ ἦρως τοὺς Ὀλυμπίους θεοὺς ἐλάτρευσεν;	ναί. ὁ ἦρως τοὺς Ὀλυμπίους θεοὺς ἐλάτρευσεν.
26 - ὁ ἦρως τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου θεοὺς ἐλάτρευσεν;	οὐ. ὁ ἦρως τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου θεοὺς οὐκ ἐλάτρευσεν.
27 - ὁ ἦρως τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου θεοὺς ἐφίλησεν;	οὐ. ὁ ἦρως τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου θεοὺς οὐκ ἐφίλησεν.

28 - Read the following paragraph aloud in Greek. Then answer the questions in the frames that follow. Check your answers. ΤΟΥΣ ΤΟΥ ἌΙΔΟΥ ΘΕΟΥΣ ΟὐΚ ἘΦΙΛΗΣΑΜΕΝ. ΤΟΥΣ ὈΛΥΜΠΙΟΥΣ ΘΕΟΥΣ ἘΛΑΤΡΕΥΣΑΜΕΝ. Ὁ ἈΠΌΛΛΩΝ θεὸς τοῦ ἡλίου καὶ τῆς μουσικῆς ἔστιν. Ὁ Ζεὺς πατὴρ θεῶν καὶ ἀνθρώπων ἔστιν.
29 - ΤΟΥΣ ΤΟΥ ἌΙΔΟΥ ΘΕΟΥΣ ἘΦΙΛΗΣΑΜΕΝ;	οὐ. ΤΟΥΣ ΤΟΥ ἌΙΔΟΥ ΘΕΟΥΣ ΟὐΚ ἘΦΙΛΗΣΑΜΕΝ.
30 - ΤΟΥΣ ὈΛΥΜΠΙΟΥΣ ΘΕΟΥΣ ἘΛΑΤΡΕΥΣΑΜΕΝ;	ναί. ΤΟΥΣ ὈΛΥΜΠΙΟΥΣ ΘΕΟΥΣ ἘΛΑΤΡΕΥΣΑΜΕΝ.
31 - ΤΙΣ ἔστιν ὁ θεὸς τοῦ ἡλίου καὶ τῆς μουσικῆς;	ὁ Ἀπόλλων θεὸς τοῦ ἡλίου καὶ τῆς μουσικῆς ἔστιν.

32 - ΤΙΣ ἔστιν ὁ πατήρ θεῶν καὶ ἀνθρώπων;	ὁ Ζεὺς πατὴρ θεῶν καὶ ἀνθρώπων ἔστιν.
33 - Let's talk a little now about how English works. In English we frequently indicate possession with the word "of". For example, in the following English sentence the phrase "of Ghana" indicates possession: Accra is the capital city of Ghana.
34 - But we can frequently indicate possession in English through the use of the possessive case. The possessive case is formed by adding 's or s' to the noun. Pick out the word that is in the possessive case in the following sentence: Accra is Ghana's capital city.	Ghana's
35 - Greek also has a special case to indicate possession. It is called the genitive case. Say the word "genitive" aloud.
36 - In the following Greek sentence try to find the words which are in the genitive case. τὰ τοῦ Ὀμήρου ἔπη ἢ Ἰλιάς καὶ ἢ Ὀδύσσειά ἐστιν.	τοῦ Ὀμήρου

37 - Try to give the meaning of this sentence in English: τὰ τοῦ Ὀμήρου ἔπη ἢ Ἰλιάς καὶ ἢ Ὀδύσειά ἐστιν.	The epics of Homer are THE ILIAD and THE ODYSSEY. or Homer's epics are THE ILIAD and THE ODYSSEY.
38 - So far, then, in Greek we have met three cases: the nominative case which indicates the subject of a sentence; the accusative case which indicates the direct object; the genitive case which indicates possession or the relationship which we express in English with the word o - - .	of
39 - In the following sentences try to locate words in the genitive case. Check your answer. ὁ Ἀπόλλων θεὸς τοῦ ἡλίου ἐστίν.	τοῦ ἡλίου
40 - ὁ Ἀπόλλων θεὸς τῆς μουσικῆς ἐστίν.	τῆς μουσικῆς
41 - ὁ Ἀπόλλων πατὴρ θεῶν οὐκ ἐστίν.	θεῶν
42 - ὁ Ἀπόλλων πατὴρ ἀνθρώπων οὐκ ἐστίν.	ἀνθρώπων
43 - ὁ Ζεὺς πατὴρ θεῶν ἐστίν.	θεῶν
44 - ὁ Ζεὺς πατὴρ ἀνθρώπων ἐστίν.	ἀνθρώπων
45 - ὁ Ζεὺς θεὸς τῆς μουσικῆς οὐκ ἐστίν.	τῆς μουσικῆς

47 - Many times in Greek the genitive singular ending will be - ou or s. The genitive plural ending is always - ων . You have probably noticed that the Greek word for "the" also has g - - - - - forms.	genitive
48 - Let's list all of the case forms for the nouns we have met. Read each list carefully. Then copy the genitives on your paper since these are new. We will list both singular and plural. The nominative will be followed by the genitive which in turn will be followed by the accusative. ὁ θεός            οἱ θεοί τοῦ θεοῦ        τῶν θεῶν τὸν θεόν        τοὺς θεούς
49 - ἡ μουσικῆ        αἱ μουσικαί τῆς μουσικῆς    τῶν μουσικῶν τὴν μουσικῆν    τὰς μουσικάς
50 - ἡ μυθολογία      αἱ μυθολογίαι τῆς μυθολογίας    τῶν μυθολογιῶν τὴν μυθολογίαν    τὰς μυθολογίας
51 - ὁ ἀνὴρ            οἱ ἄνδρες τοῦ ἀνδρός        τῶν ἀνδρῶν τὸν ἄνδρα        τοὺς ἄνδρας
52 - ἡ πόλις            αἱ πόλεις τῆς πόλεως        τῶν πόλεων τὴν πόλιν        τὰς πόλεις

53 - Now we will list the genitive singular of some of the nouns we have met. Try to supply the genitive plural. Check your answer.
του θεου	των θεων
54 - της μουσικης	των μουσικων
55 - της μυθολογιας	των μυθολογιων
56 - του ανδρος	των ανδρων
57 - της πολεως	των πολεων
58 - του ηλιου	των ηλιων
59 - του ανθρωπου	των ανθρωπων

60 - In the following group of frames you will see a phrase in the genitive singular. Change the phrase to the genitive plural. Check your answer. τοῦ ἀγαθοῦ ἀνθρώπου	τῶν ἀγαθῶν ἀνθρώπων
61 - τοῦ ἀγαθοῦ βίου	τῶν ἀγαθῶν βίων
62 - τοῦ ἀγαθοῦ τυράγνου	τῶν ἀγαθῶν τυράγνων
63 - τῆς ἀγαθῆς γυναικός	τῶν ἀγαθῶν γυναικῶν
64 - τῆς ἀγαθῆς θεᾶς	τῶν ἀγαθῶν θεῶν
65 - τῆς ἀγαθῆς τέχνης	τῶν ἀγαθῶν τεχνῶν
66 - τῆς ἀγαθῆς θαλάττης	τῶν ἀγαθῶν θαλαττῶν
67 - Answer each of the following questions. Check your answers. ἔστιν ὁ Ζεὺς πατήρ θεῶν;	ναί. ὁ Ζεὺς πατήρ θεῶν ἔστιν.

68 - ἔστιν ὁ Ζεὺς πατὴρ ἀνθρώπων;	ναί. ὁ Ζεὺς πατὴρ ἀνθρώπων ἔστιν.
69 - ἔστιν ὁ Ζεὺς πατὴρ ἡρώων;	ναί. ὁ Ζεὺς πατὴρ ἡρώων ἔστιν.
70 - ἔστιν ὁ Ἀπόλλων θεὸς τοῦ ἡλίου;	ναί. ὁ Ἀπόλλων θεὸς τοῦ ἡλίου ἔστιν.
71 - ἔστιν ὁ Ἀπόλλων θεὸς τῆς μουσικῆς;	ναί. ὁ Ἀπόλλων θεὸς τῆς μουσικῆς ἔστιν.
72 - ἔστιν ὁ Ὅμηρος πατὴρ τῆς μυθολογίας;	ναί. ὁ Ὅμηρος πατὴρ τῆς μυθολογίας ἔστιν.
73 - Now we will list the genitive plural of some nouns we have met. Try to supply the genitive singular. Check your answer. Then copy the singular and the plural onto your paper.  τῶν μουσικῶν	τῆς μουσικῆς
74 - τῶν μυθολογιῶν	τῆς μυθολογίας
75 - τῶν ἀνδρῶν	τοῦ ἀνδρός
76 - τῶν πόλεων	τῆς πόλεως
77 - τῶν ἡλίων	τοῦ ἡλίου
78 - τῶν ἀνθρώπων	τοῦ ἀνθρώπου
79 - τῶν θεῶν	τοῦ θεοῦ, τῆς θεᾶς

80 - Now we will turn our attention to the English derivatives we have learned recently. An English word meaning "related to myth or legend" and derived from the Greek word μῦθος is -----.	mythological
81 - An English word meaning "of or related to Homer" and derived from the Greek name Ὅμηρος is -----.	Homeric
82 - An English word meaning "death notice" and derived from the Greek word νεκρόν is -----.	necrology
83 - An English word meaning "foretelling the future from contact with the dead" and also from the Greek νεκρόν is -----.	necromancy
84 - An English word meaning "having the characteristics of man" and derived from the Greek word ἄνθρωπος is -----.	anthropomorphic
85 - An English word meaning "god-like" and derived from the Greek name Ὀλύμπτος is -----.	Olympian
86 - An English word meaning "sun worship" and derived from ἥλιος is -----.	heliolatry
87 - An English word meaning "the science that examines everything related to God" and derived from the Greek word θεός is -----.	theology

88 - An English word meaning "a plant or flower which turns toward the sunlight" and derived from the Greek ἥλιος is - - - - - .	heliotrope
89 - A device used to give signals using mirrors and sunlight and taking its name from ἥλιος is called a - - - - - .	heliograph
90 - An English word meaning "ruled by a father" and derived from πατήρ is - - - - - .	patriarchal
91 - An English word meaning "ruled by a mother" and derived from μήτηρ is - - - - - .	matriarchal
92 - Now open your Greek notebook to the heading Word Study. Add the following words to the first column of your list there: mythological, Homeric, necrology, necromancy, anthropomorphic, Olympian, theology, heliograph, heliotrope, heliolatry, patriarchal, matriarchal.
93 - Now put in the Greek roots and the meanings of the English words in the appropriate columns of your list. Refer to Frames 80-91 if necessary.

94 - Explain in your own words the meaning of the words underlined in each of the following sentences. The underlined word is defined in the answer column. The kidnapping of Helen is the mythological reason for the Trojan War.	legendary
95 - The student was interested in Homeric studies.	relating to Homer
96 - There was a long necrology in the newspaper for Rev. Martin Luther King.	death notice
97 - The monster in the horror film was anthropomorphic.	man-like
98 - General DeGaulle, in the opinion of some, is a man of Olympian stature.	god-like
99 - Future rabbis and ministers study theology.	the science related to God
100 - He gave signals with a heliograph.	a device using mirrors to flash signals
101 - Heliotropes are very common in American gardens.	flowers that face the sun
102 - The ancient Egyptians practiced heliolatry.	sun-worship
103 - Some American families are patriarchal.	ruled by the father
104 - Some American families are matriarchal.	ruled by the mother

105 - Read aloud the following paragraph in Greek: τοὺς τοῦ Ἄϊδου θεοὺς οὐκ ἐφίλησα. τοὺς τοῦ Ἄϊδου θεοὺς ἐμίσησα. τοὺς Ὀλυμπίους θεοὺς ἐλάτρευσα.
106 - Now read the following similar paragraph aloud in Greek: τοὺς τοῦ Ἄϊδου θεοὺς οὐκ ἐφίλησας. τοὺς τοῦ Ἄϊδου θεοὺς ἐμίσησας. τοὺς Ὀλυμπίους θεοὺς ἐλάτρευσας.
107 - Now read the following similar paragraph aloud in Greek: τοὺς τοῦ Ἄϊδου θεοὺς οὐκ ἐφίλησε. τοὺς τοῦ Ἄϊδου θεοὺς ἐμίσησε. τοὺς Ὀλυμπίους θεοὺς ἐλάτρευσε.

108 - Now read the following similar paragraph aloud in Greek:          τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου - Θεοῦς οὐκ ἐβίλησαμεν. τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου Θεοῦς ἐμισήσαμεν. τοὺς Ὀλυμπίους Θεοῦς ἐλάτρευσαμεν.
109 - Now read the following similar paragraph aloud in Greek:          τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου Θεοῦς οὐκ ἐβίλησατε. τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου Θεοῦς ἐμισήσατε. τοὺς Ὀλυμπίους Θεοῦς ἐλάτρευσατε.
110 - Now read the following similar paragraph aloud in Greek:          τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου Θεοῦς οὐκ ἐβίλησαν. τοὺς τοῦ Ἄιδου Θεοῦς ἐμίσησαν. τοὺς Ὀλυμπίους Θεοῦς ἐλάτρευσαν.
111 - In each of the above frames everything remained the same except the verbs. The verbs changed from first person singular, to second person singular, to third person singular. Then, in Frame 108 the verbs were in the first person plural. In Frame 109, they were in the second person plural. In Frame 110, they were in the - - - - person plural.	third
112 - A verb is said to be in the first person when the subject is the speaker. A verb is said to be in the second person when the subject is spoken to. A verb is said to be in the third person when the subject is - - - - - .	spoken about

113 - In English to indicate the first person we use the words "I" and "we". To indicate the second person we use the word "you". To indicate the third person we frequently use words like "he, she, it," and "they". Frequently a separate noun subject indicates the t - - - - person.	third
114 - Now we have to talk a little about the tense of verbs. Tense means time. A verb is said to be in the present tense when it indicates present time. For example, I love, and he loves are both in the present tense. To form the past tense in English you add - ed or -d to the present. Thus the past tense of I love is I loved. The past tense of he loves is - - - - -	he loved
115 - Greek also has a present tense as we have seen. The present tense of the verb φιλῶ appears in the following pattern. τὰς γυναῖκας φιλῶ.  τὰς γυναῖκας φιλεῖς.  τὰς γυναῖκας φιλεῖ.  τὰς γυναῖκας φιλοῦμεν.  τὰς γυναῖκας φιλεῖτε.  τὰς γυναῖκας φιλοῦσιν. Try to give the meaning of this pattern in English. Check your answer.	I like the women.  You like the women.  He (or she) likes the women.  We like the women.  You like the women.  They like the women.

116 - Greek has several past tenses. One of these is called the aorist tense. It indicates action in the past that happened once or at one time. It is usually translated by the English past tense. In the following pattern the aorist tense of φιλιῶ appears. Read the pattern carefully and give the meaning in English. τὰς γυναῖκας ἐφίλησα.  τὰς γυναῖκας ἐφίλησας.  τὰς γυναῖκας ἐφίλησεν.  τὰς γυναῖκας ἐφιλῆσαμεν.  τὰς γυναῖκας ἐφιλῆσατε.  τὰς γυναῖκας ἐφίλησαν.	I liked the women.  You liked the women.  He (or she) liked the women.  We liked the women.  You liked the women.  They liked the women.
117 - The aorist tense in Greek is frequently recognized by the endings -σα, -σας, -σε, -σαμεν, -σατε, -σαν. Many times the letter ε is added at the beginning of a verb to indicate the aorist. Thus ἐφίλησα, ἐμίσησας, and ἐλάτρευσαμεν are all in the ----- tense.	aorist
118 - In the following pattern the aorist tense of λατρεύω appears. Read the pattern in Greek and try to give the meaning in English. Check your answers. τοὺς θεοὺς ἐλάτρευσα.  τοὺς θεοὺς ἐλάτρευσας.	I worshipped the gods.  You worshipped the gods.

τοὺς θεοὺς ἐλάτρευσεν.	He (or she) worshipped the gods.
τοὺς θεοὺς ἐλάτρευσαμεν.	We worshipped the gods.
τοὺς θεοὺς ἐλάτρευσάτε.	You worshipped the gods.
τοὺς θεοὺς ἐλάτρευσαν.	They worshipped the gods.

119 - In the following pattern the aorist tense of μισῶ appears. Read the pattern in Greek and try to give the meaning in English. Check your answers. τοὺς θεοὺς ἐμίσησα. τοὺς θεοὺς ἐμίσησας. τοὺς θεοὺς ἐμίσησεν. τοὺς θεοὺς ἐμισήσαμεν. τοὺς θεοὺς ἐμισήσατε. τοὺς θεοὺς ἐμίσησαν.	I hated the gods. You hated the gods. He (or she) hated the gods. We hated the gods. You hated the gods. They hated the gods.
--	---

120 - Read each sentence in the following pattern practices aloud. Then make each sentence negative. Check your sentence with the answer column. τὴν Ἥραν ἐφίλησα.	τὴν Ἥραν οὐκ ἐφίλησα.
121 - τὴν Ἀφροδίτην ἐφίλησα.	τὴν Ἀφροδίτην οὐκ ἐφίλησα.

135 - τοὺς θεοὺς ἐφιλῆσαμεν.	τοὺς θεοὺς οὐκ ἐφιλῆσαμεν.

136 - τὰ κάλλη ἐφιλήσαμεν.	τὰ κάλλη οὐκ ἐφιλήσαμεν.
137 - τὴν μυθολογίαν ἐφιλήσαμεν.	τὴν μυθολογίαν οὐκ ἐφιλήσαμεν.
138 - τὴν μουσικὴν ἐφιλήσαμεν.	τὴν μουσικὴν οὐκ ἐφιλήσαμεν.
139 - τὰς θεὰς ἐφιλήσαμεν.	τὰς θεὰς οὐκ ἐφιλήσαμεν.
140 - τοὺς δαίμονας ἐφιλήσατε.	τοὺς δαίμονας οὐκ ἐφιλήσατε.
141 - τοὺς πατέρας ἐφιλήσατε.	τοὺς πατέρας οὐκ ἐφιλήσατε.
142 - τὰς μητέρας ἐφιλήσατε.	τὰς μητέρας οὐκ ἐφιλήσατε.
143 - τοὺς θεοὺς ἐφιλήσατε.	τοὺς θεοὺς οὐκ ἐφιλήσατε.
144 - τὰς θεὰς ἐφιλήσατε.	τὰς θεὰς οὐκ ἐφιλήσατε.
145 - τὴν ἄρμονίαν ἐφίλησαν.	τὴν ἄρμονίαν οὐκ ἐφίλησαν.
146 - τοὺς ἥρωας ἐφίλησαν.	τοὺς ἥρωας οὐκ ἐφίλησαν.
147 - τοὺς ἀνθρώπους ἐφίλησαν.	τοὺς ἀνθρώπους οὐκ ἐφίλησαν.
148 - τοὺς θεοὺς ἐφίλησαν.	τοὺς θεοὺς οὐκ ἐφίλησαν.
149 - τὰς θεὰς ἐφίλησαν.	τὰς θεὰς οὐκ ἐφίλησαν.

150 - Now read each sentence aloud. Then make each sentence a question by putting the verb first. Check your answer.

210 - Now we are going to review some of the things we have learned about ancient Greek religion and mythology. A traditional or legendary story usually concerning some super-human being or god is called a m - - - - .	myth
211 - Greek myths were very elaborate and detailed and have exerted - - - - - (great/little) influence on literature and art and other fields.	great
212 - We study Greek mythology because it is interesting and enjoyable and has exerted great influence in many fields. For example, Greek mythology influenced very important Greek l - - - - - such as THE ILLAD, THE ODYSSEY, and the tragedies.	literature

213 - The influence of mythology on Greek art is very strong. There are many famous statues of Greek gods and goddesses. The statue of Aphrodite called V - - - - - is one example.	Venus di Milo
214 - The influence of mythology on Greek architecture is very strong also. Myths have inspired many temples. For example, there is a famous temple dedicated to the Virgin Athena on the Acropolis called the P - - - - - .	Parthenon
215 - Greek mythology greatly influenced Roman literature and art. For example, many wall paintings in Pompeii deal with mythological subjects and Vergil's famous poem THE A - - - - is built around Greek mythology.	AENEID
216 - The Christian religion has been influenced by Greek mythology. For example, many of the characteristics of the goddess Athena were absorbed by the Virgin Mary. Also, crossroad shrines to the saints found in modern Greece are similar to shrines to the goddesses found in a - - - - Greece.	ancient
217 - Much of the literature and art of the Renaissance and Post-Renaissance is based on Greco-Roman mythology. For instance, the famous plays by Racine, the French tragedian, often deal with mythology. The Art Museum in Philadelphia is full of paintings on mythological themes. Even some of the world's great music - - - - - (has/has not) been influenced by mythology.	has

218 - English words and phrases are derived frequently from Greco-Roman mythology. For example, we speak of "herculean strength." This phrase means - - - - (great/little) strength or strength similar to that of Hercules.	great
219 - Greco-Roman mythology continues to exert its influence in our own world in many ways. There is literature on mythological themes. For example Giraudoux's play TIGER AT THE GATES. There are modern works of art based on mythology. For example, the statue of Prometheus in Rockefeller Plaza. Even our rockets and space ships bear mythological names. For instance, the plan to put a man on the moon is called Project A - - - -.	Apollo
220 - The early inhabitants of Greece had a very simple religion. They worshipped various features of nature. Their divinities were not individualized and - - - - (had/did not have) human forms.	did not have
221 - With time the Greek religion changed in nature. New gods were introduced. The new gods were anthropomorphic, i. e., they had h - - - - characteristics.	human
222 - The author of THE ILIAD and THE ODYSSEY did much to refine and crystallize the Greek conception of the gods. In these poems Olympus is depicted as a patriarchal system with Zeus as the father of gods and men. The author of THE ILIAD and THE ODYSSEY is traditionally said to be H - - - .	Homer

223 - Let's review now some important information about the Olympians. Zeus, who was later identified with the Roman Jupiter, was king of the gods, the protector of hospitality, oaths, and justice. His symbols were the thunderbolt, the sceptre, and the e - - - - .	eagle
