ABSTRACT

In an effort to improve the quality of trustee selection and participation in the public community colleges of Florida, a "Special Ethics Committee" was established to develop performance guidelines for trustees. This pamphlet is comprised of four documents. The "Code of Ethics" and "Expectations of an Effective Trustee" are to be given to each potential trustee prior to his acceptance. The "Trustee Performance Standards" and "Trustee Self-Evaluation Form" are to be provided after the individual accepts his appointment. Appended information includes: (1) descriptions of the responsibilities of community college trustees and presidents as defined by the State Board of Education regulations; (2) descriptions of the responsibilities of community college trustees as defined by the Florida statutes; and (3) an index to the State Board of Education regulations and Florida statutes pertinent to trustee functions. All four documents, and the appended information, are intended as useful tools to trustees as they carry out their responsibilities. This material is also recommended for use in trustee in-service training. (Author/DC)

INTRODUCTION

Governance of Florida's publicly supported community colleges resides with the local District Boards of Trustees. These Trustees are appointed by the Governor, confirmed by the Senate and serve four-year terms with no remuneration for their services. They serve out of a spirit of civic duty and their effectiveness is reflected in Governor Askew's comment "...that the local control of community colleges is largely responsible for the success of our system." (See Appendix F). Obviously, becoming an effective Trustee requires considerable time and effort on the part of the citizens concerned.

In an effort to improve the quality of Trustee selection and participation, the Trustees Commission of the Florida Association of Community Colleges and the Division of Community Colleges undertook a joint project to develop materials which would help to accomplish this end. The product of this effort is found on the following pages and are entitled:

Code of Ethics
Expectations of an Effective Trustee
Trustee Performance Standards
Trustee Self-Evaluation Form

The intended use of these materials is to have the "Code of Ethics" and "Expectations of an Effective Trustee" given to a potential Trustee prior to acceptance of the Commission. The "Trustee Performance Standards" and "Trustee Self-Evaluation Form" are to be provided after the individual accepts the appointment. All four documents, along with the references to statutory and regulatory responsibilities such as are provided as appendixes to this booklet, are intended to be used as reminders to Trustees as they carry out their responsibilities. This material is also recommended for use in Trustee in-service training.

This material was developed by a select "Special Ethics Committee," reviewed by the Chairman of the Community College Presidents Council, adopted by the Trustees Commission of the Florida Association of Community Colleges at their annual meeting and sent to the Governor for his consideration. Appreciation is expressed to all who participated in this effort. Special recognition is given to members of the Ethics Committee who are as follows:

CODE OF ETHICS

I pledge my best efforts as a trustee to

- . evidence good citizenship in community and state affairs;
- . refrain from making any decisions or commitments concerning community college governance, except in Board meetings or when designated by the Board to do so;
- . avoid situations leading to conflicts of interest;
- . bring credit to the college through personal effort, either directly or indirectly, in business, social, professional and personal relationships;
- . make decisions which are responsive to the geographic distribution and social, ethnic, economic and minority make-up of the community;
- . make decisions which give priority to the students;
- . keep well informed on matters pertaining to the community college movement; and
- . fulfill the responsibilities of my commission without regard to prejudice or partisanship.

EXPECTATIONS OF AN EFFECTIVE TRUSTEE

A trustee should have attained prominence and stature in the community, demonstrated constructive community action and achieved success in his or her chosen field.

A trustee must have a sincere desire to provide a public service to others in order to carry out the legal, ethical and moral obligations of the corporate body. This requires

Acceptance of philosophy and concept of the community college movement and the need to keep current on changes and trends in post-secondary education;

Acceptance of the legal and fiscal responsibilities as defined by state statutes and state board of education regulations;

Acceptance of amount of time necessary to devote in order to discharge duties other than regular trustee board meetings--special meetings, functions at the institution, trustee orientation sessions, state, regional and national meetings;

Acceptance of legislative needs and willingness to participate in legislative action; and

Acceptance of the role of the trustee to be a policy maker and not an administrator.

TRUSTEE PERFORMANCE STANDARDS

1. The single most important function of the Board is the selection, evaluation and retention, through contract, of the best available college president.

6. Work toward completing and periodically updating short-range and long-range planning programs.
7. Encourage the use of community advisory committees in assisting the college in recommending new courses and programs and evaluation of ongoing programs.
8. Review, update and evaluate all written policies, the college philosophy, goals and objectives on a yearly basis and measure progress toward achieving those ends.

9. Serve as liaison between the college and its community.
10. Recognize the community college as an important partner with other institutions in post-secondary higher education.
11. Become familiar with and represent the entire college program.
12. Participate in Board meetings with regular and prompt attendance.
13. Review all Board materials received in advance of the Board meeting.

17. Observe appropriate courtesies when visiting on the campus.
18. Evaluate personal effectiveness as a trustee at least once a year.
19. Provide budgetary direction to accomplish maximum efficiency and economy of the college.

A LETTER FROM GOVERNOR REUBEN O'D. ASKEW

STATE OF FLORIDA

Office of the Governor

THE CAPITOL

TALLAHASSEE 32304

REUBEN O'D. ASKEW
GOVERNOR

May 13, 1975

Mr. Tom Knotts
Central Florida Community College
Post Office Box 1388
Ocala, Florida 32670

Dear Mr. Knotts:

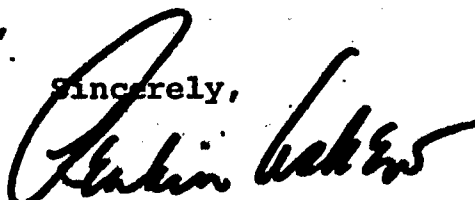

Your efforts as Chairman of the Florida Community College Trustees Commission toward improving the quality of performance of trustees are appreciated. The Commission is in a position to provide information to the trustees and to establish performance standards which will promote the continuation of the dedication and contribution to the goals and objectives of the individual community colleges by the various trustees.

At the suggestion of your Commission, I will be providing information regarding the role of a board of trustees to people whom I consider for appointment. It is my feeling that the local control of community colleges is largely responsible for the success of our system. Efforts to improve the quality of that local control will result in even better educational opportunities for the people of Florida.

If I or my staff may be of assistance to the Commission, please let us know.

With kind regards,

Sincerely,

Governor
