ABSTRACT

The books in this selected bibliography about American Indians have been chosen for their authenticity of content and their nonstereotyped portrayal of Indians. Intended to serve as a guide for teachers of children in grades four through eight, selections have been divided into three groups: nonfiction--primarily history and art; legends, poetry, and songs; and fiction. Brief annotations are provided for approximately half the citations.

The following is a selected bibliography of Indian literature. The books have been chosen for their authenticity of content and non-stereotyped portrayal of the American Indian. The bibliography has been divided into three parts: non-fiction--primarily history and art; legends, poetry, and songs; and fiction. The literature has been selected to be read by students in grades four through eight, and as a guide for teachers.
