ABSTRACT

Presented are duplications of the responses given by Avocational Counseling for the Elderly (Milwaukee, Wisconsin) as part of a project to collect, share, and compile information about, and techniques in the operation of 18 community action models for recreation services to the disabled. Model programs are categorized as consumer, client competency, recreation and leisure services, parks and recreation, rehabilitation, and voluntary health agency models. Reported are program services in the following areas: the population served (men and women 55 years and older); primary activities (retirement leisure planning, leisure counseling, avocational information, and referral); primary facilities used (public and private facilities throughout the area); staffing (a project director, an avocational counselor, a research assistant, a follow-up interviewer, and five college students); total budget ($74,201) and primary sources of support (federal funds from the Administration of Aging); and values and goals achieved through the program (to demonstrate the impact of avocational counseling with the elderly). A copy of the completed survey form is also provided. (SBH)

(319) 353-4989

Dear Colleague:

The project, "National Institute on Models for Community Based Recreation for Handicapped Children and Youth," is entering its second year. During the first year, a survey and identification of existing programs was undertaken, as well as the convening of the National Institute at the University of Iowa.

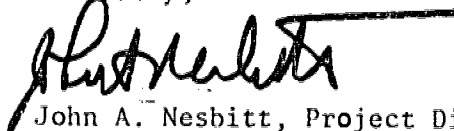

The National Institute, held July 7-9, endeavored to collect, share, and compile information about, and techniques in, the operation of the most feasible and effective methods of community action models for recreation service to the disabled.

As an outgrowth of these efforts, training materials are being developed and plans are being made for the replication of the National Institute in all regions of the United States.

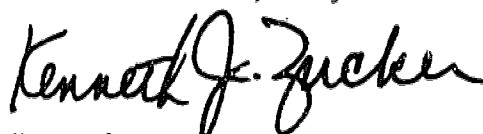

A number of successful models were identified and have transmitted data to the project staff with permission for us to distribute the information.

Enclosed are duplications of the responses from eighteen of the identified models. Additional training materials will be distributed based upon completion of response forms.

Sincerely,

John A. Nesbitt, Project Director

I. Program Overview

The respondent reports their service in the following areas:

- Who served, how many people served, and the geography or political area served
- Primary activities provided
- Primary facilities used
- Staffing (number and titles)
- Total budget and primary sources of support
- Values and goals achieved through your program

Who served, how many and geographic area: Men and women 55 years old and older. Served 72 people in a seven month period. Services were available to residents in a four county metropolitan area.

Primary activities provided: Retirement leisure planning, leisure (avocational) counseling, avocational information and referral.

Primary facilities used: Referrals are made to a network of public and private facilities providing opportunities for avocational activities throughout the metropolitan area. Offices are located in a senior citizens' recreation center.

Staffing (number and titles): Project director (1), avocational counselor (1), research assistant (1), follow-up interviewer (1 part time), college student support staff (5 part time).

Total budget and primary sources of support: Federal funds from the Administration on Aging $74,201.

Values and goals achieved through your program: To demonstrate the impact of avocational counseling with the elderly (55+), how counseling is done and to attempt to measure the results.

II. Number of Handicapped Served

General Category: The model respondent indicated the scope of disabilities served and their numbers, when available.

IV. Philosophy

The circled response indicates the agency's level of agreement with each of the following statements.

Statements	Agree ←————→ Disagree
	5	4	3	2	1
1. Recreation programs for the handicapped should be considered basic to a total recreation program.	(5)	4	3	2	1
2. Evaluation procedures of a recreation program should include input in the process handicapped representations.	5	4	(3)	2	1
3. Recreation programs for the handicapped require professionally trained staff personnel.	(5)	4	3	2	1
4. Our recreation agency recognizes a need for a statewide Therapeutic Recreation Specialist for consultation with community recreation agencies.	(5)	4	3	2	1
5. The handicapped citizenry of a community have the right to consistent availability of recreation and leisure services.	(5)	4	3	2	1
6. Recreation programs for the handicapped are more costly than "normal" recreation program activities.	I do not know - this is outside my range of competencies
	5	4	(3)	2	1
7. Insurance is a "barrier" to the initiation of recreation programming for the handicapped.	I suspect this is a false barrier supported by myth and rumor
	5	4	(3)	2	1
8. It is important that recreation and park professionals take action to remove architectural barriers from their present facilities and require future facilities to be barrier-free.	(5)	4	3	2	1
9. There exist some direct values to having consumer input thru handicapped people in recreation planning and design.	5	(4)	3	2	1
10. At this time, there are no specific federally funded programs for the provision of actual recreation services to the handicapped.	I do not know
	5	4	3	2	1

11. In many instances, existing municipal recreation and park personnel can adequately conduct and supervise recreation programs for the handicapped.	(5)	4	3	2	1
12. Recreation programs for the handicapped are best provided in a segregated manner--that is separate activities and facilities for the handicapped.	5	4	3	2	(1)
13. Recreation has the potential to promote positive change--that is it has the potential to be "therapeutic."	(5)	4	3	2	1
14. At the present time, local, state and federal funding assistance is sufficient to meet handicapped programming needs.	5	4	3	2	(1)
15. When designing recreation programs for the handicapped, integrated programs are best--those that combine handicapped and non-handicapped participation.	(5)	4	3	2	1
16. The involvement of municipal recreation agencies to research activity is important.			There are problems - service organizations are not well adapted to sponsor or sometimes even tolerate research
		4	(3)	2	1
17. The present city government recognizes fully the importance of recreation and leisure fulfillment for its citizens and the community at large.	5	4	3	2	(1)
18. Recreation programs for the handicapped should be considered supplemental to the total recreation program.	5	4	3	2	(1)
19. Activity programs for the handicapped often require expenditure outlays for special recreational equipment.	5	4	(3)	2	1
20. Overcoming mis-perceptions and attitude barriers is often needed when initiating a recreation program for the handicapped.	(5)	4	3	2	1

Additional issues, problems and their level of concern.

21. Recreation organizations are apt to start an activity and then look around for enough bodies to fill up the activity rather than starting with counseling and determining what the individual wants and needs and then supplying it. 5 4 3 2 1
- "Free" choice of activity is limited under this system.

Efforts and success in eliminating any of the above problems or other special problems.

Note 1 Getting the idea of avocational (leisure) counseling accepted by both professionals and lay people has been difficult. You may wish to define this as an attitudinal barrier.

Note 2 Our greatest problem has been recruiting clients. We have had to carry on a very vigorous publicity and public relations campaign. We have some clients coming in but not at the rate anticipated.

XIV. Program: The following is related to the activity structure of the program/service.

We do not offer any recreational programs; only avocational counseling.

XV. Facilities: The major facilities utilized by the special populations recreation program.

We refer to any facility depending on the choice(s) which emerges after counseling.
