ABSTRACT

This document provides a State by State overview of the child count and grant awards under the Indochina Refugee Children Assistance Program for fiscal years 1978 and 1980. The Indochina Refugee Children Assistance Program provides Federal financial assistance to States for educational services to Indochinese refugee children aged 5 through 17 years, admitted into the United States on or after January 1, 1977, and receiving public educational services under the supervision of a local educational agency in one of the 50 States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Guam, or the outlying territories. The children are enrolled in elementary and secondary schools. Children entering U.S. public schools for the first time during the 1979-80 school year are provided priority in services under this program. National totals show that there are 66,300 Vietnamese, Cambodian, and Laotian children in 2,500 school districts that are participating in the program during fiscal year 1981. The total grant award for fiscal year 1980 was $11,999,663.

-INTRODUCTION-

Indochina Refugee Children Assistance Program
(Public Law 94-405, Title II, as amended by P.L. 95-561, Title XIII)

This document provides a State by State overview of the child count and grant awards under the Indochina Refugee Children Assistance Program for FY 1978 and FY 1980.

The Indochina Refugee Children Assistance Program provides Federal financial assistance to States for educational services to Indochinese refugee children aged 5 through 17 years, admitted into the United States on or after January 1, 1977, and receiving public educational services under the supervision of an LEA in one of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Guam and the outlying territories. The program serves more than three-fourths of all of the Indochinese refugee children enrolled in elementary and secondary schools in the United States. Children entering U. S. schools for the first time during the 1979-80 school year are provided priority in services under this program. As you will note from the National totals, there are 66,300 children in 2,500 school districts throughout the United States that are participating in the program during fiscal year 1981.

I wish to thank the following persons for their invaluable contributions in gathering the data and compiling this information which enabled the funding process to successfully proceed within a very tight time-frame: Jonathan Chang, Dave Maginnes, Frederick W. Taylor, Jr. and Arthur Koga; Secretaries, Francine Luckey and Victoria Parker, and thanks also to Dr. Thomas Minter, Deputy Commissioner, BESE and Dr. John Rodriguez, Associate Commissioner, Compensatory Education Programs for their support. Thanks is also given to Dr. Richard Fairley, Director, Compensatory Education Programs and Dr. Herman Goldberg, Associate Commissioner, State and Local Educational Programs, for lending very competent members of their staffs during the extremely busy period of application review and processing.

As the former dream of a U. S. Department of Education has now become a reality, it is our earnest desire that the dream of a successfully resettled, well-educated populace of Indochinese refugees will also soon become a reality.
