ABSTRACT

IDENTIFIERS

A notebook for participants in seminars on enrollment planning is presented. The seminars were sponsored by the National Center for Higher Education Management Systems. Seminar objectives for session I included: to understand the strategic enrollment issues, to review the national and regional demographic trends, and to understand that individual colleges are facing different enrollment situations (decline, stability, and increase). For the participant's college, objectives were to review actual enrollment trends and to determine possible implications of enrollment changes and alternative courses of action. Statistical charts and graphs are included. Session 2 identified key enrollment factors to be watched, including birth rates and high school graduates, regional shifts, student individual characteristics, and enrollment characteristics and shifts, such as trends by class/year, level, field of study, and part- and full-time status. Institutional-specific enrollment factors were also identified, including economic conditions, government policies, population migration, and tuition levels. Session 3 provided a case study for Aguinas College (Michigan) that includes a statement of problems and actions taken. Included are a list of seminar participants and a list of seminar topics and schedules for 1982. (SW)

Enrollment Planning: Strategic Issues and Institutional Implications

Seminar Leader

The seminar will be conducted by Larry L. Leslie, Professor and Director of the Center for the Study of Higher Education at the University of Arizona. Dr. Leslie has experience as administrator, teacher, and researcher at various institutions, including the Pennsylvania State University, the University of Utah, the University of California at Berkeley, and the University of Minnesota. His professional focus has been on college and university business management, and the economics and financing of higher education. Dr. Leslie has served as a Visiting Scholar at NCHEMS for the past two years in the area of student and institutional financing for the Higher-Education Indicators Project. He has also served as consultant to the Management Development Program.

Dr. Leslie has worked extensively with individual colleges and universities in helping them to develop long-range plans for overall institutional purposes as well as for specific operational areas. He has also consulted with various national and federal organizations, including the National Science Foundation, the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education, the U.S. Department of Justice, the President's Ad Hoc Committee on Education for Minority Groups, the Committee for Economic Development, and the National Advisory Council on Extension and Continuing Education.

Dr. Leslie has authored or coauthored approximately 37 monographs and book chapters, and he has written over 30 journal articles and made numerous presentations to professional organizations. Currently he is in the process of writing, with Anthony W. Morgan, a book entitled Financing Higher Education. He can be contacted at his office at (602) 626-2283.

NCHEMS

The National Center for Higher Education Management Systems (NCHEMS) is an independent. non-profit organization located at Boulder, Colorado, and incorporated under state law. NCHEMS mission is the improvement of planning and management in higher education. The Center conducts research and service programs designed to help college and university administrators more effectively discharge their planning and management responsibilities. The annual operating budget exceeds $2 million, provided primarily by the National Institute of Education, but also by other government and private sources. Program directions are determined by the Center's Board of Directors, which is widely representative of the various levels and sectors of postsecondary education with most Board members being institutional executives.

To intensify its capacity as a national resource for higher-education institutions and agencies. NCHEMS has established a Management Development Program. This Program is designed to provide opportunities and resources to administrators in colleges and universities for enhancing their fundamental knowledge about management in the higher-education setting. The scope of the Program assumes a broad and encompassing view of institution-wide management from the executive-level perspective. An integrated set of educational services is being developed to incorporate good management practices, current management issues, and results of R&D activities at NCHEMS and elsewhere. The specific educational services will include one- to three-day seminars conducted nationally, five- to ten-day management institutes, and various self-instructional guides and topical monographs.

NCHEMS seminars are designed to serve the management needs of administrators in higher education. The answers you provide to the following questions will help us to develop future high quality seminars that are responsive to your particular interests in a useful and timely way.

NATIONAL CENTER FOR HIGHER EDUCATION MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS

STRATEGIC PLANNING IN THE HIGHER EDUCATION SETTING. (Seminar Leader: Robert Shirley)

Focuses on the process of planning and deals comprehensively with what strategic planning is, why it is important, who should be involved, and how to organize and carry out a strategic planning effort. Covers concepts and techniques, program offerings and priorities, key issues, and case examples.

STRATEGIC PLANNING FOR TWO-YEAR COMMUNITY AND TECHNICAL COLLEGES. (Seminar Leader: Byron McClenney)

Describes differences and relationships between strategic and operational planning in the two-year setting. Discusses the impact of strategic planning on allocation and reallocation of resources, the importance of ongoing needs assessment, and strategies for involving people at all levels in the organization.

EVALUATING HIGHER EDUCATION: THE INSTITUTION, ITS PROGRAMS, ADMINISTRATORS, AND FACULTY. (Seminar Leader: Richard I. Miller)

Designed to assist those who are concerned with evaluation issues to understand the unique aspects involved in doing evaluation in the higher-education setting. Reviews the four major dimensions of evaluation—institution, program, faculty, and administrator—and describes their interrelationships.

LEGAL PLANNING FOR COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES IN THE 80's. (Seminar Leader: Philip R. Moots)

Provides an overall understanding of current legal problems and issues in the context of the higher-education setting and focuses on ways to take proactive steps to address legal contingencies.

DYNAMICS OF DECISIONMAKING IN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES. (Seminar Leader; J. Victor Baldridge)

Designed to foster a better understanding of the unique decision processes in higher education. Describes organizational characteristics, major decision models, decision strategies, and political factics.

ENROLLMENT PLANNING: STRATEGIC ISSUES AND INSTITUTIONAL IMPLICATIONS. (Seminar Loader: Larry Leslie)

Addresses enrollment as a critical planning function in higher education. Covers strategic enrollment issues, national and regional demographic trends, reviews participants' individual institutional enrollment situations, and presents alternative ways for productive planning in responding to or creating new enrollment patterns et an institution.

THE NATURE AND ROLE OF INFORMATION FOR MANAGEMENT IN HIGHER EDUCATION.

(Seminar Leaders: Paul Brinkman, Dennis Jones, and William Tetlow)

Emphasizes linkage between executive-level needs for information and operational-level perceptions of those needs. Covers the nature of management information to decision making styles. Assesses appropriate management information and ways for improving its availability. Reviews the information specialists' role and evaluates the participants' individual institutional information systems.

PROMOTING ADMINISTRATIVE EFFECTIVENESS. (Seminar Leaders: Kim Cameron and David Whetten)

Addresses issues and techniques designed to assist managers improve and develop critical leadership skills for themselves and their staff, includes discussion of time and stress management, delegation and decisionmaking, interpersonal problem solving, and managing differences between individuals and groups.

NEEDS ASSESSMENT FOR TWO-YEAR COMMUNITY AND TECHNICAL COLLEGES. (Seminar Leader: Jana Matthewa)

Describes why community needs assessments are essential, how to select the appropriate constituencies to be assessed, and describes data collection strategies and questions that are appropriate for various groups. Covers concepts, introduces prototype instruments, time frames, costs, and case examples.

HIGHER EDUCATION FACILITIES MANAGEMENT. (Seminar Leader: Harlan Bareither)

Focuses on the need to understand the physical plant as a major asset of the institution. Provides guidelines about assessing and managing utilization and suggests ways to assess options involved in budgetary issues and consequences.

IDENTIFYING AND MEASURING STUDENT OUTCOMES, (Seminar Leader: Peter Ewelf)

11.5

Develops a conceptual framework for the use of student outcome measures in planning and decisionmaking. Emphasizes key questions to be asked in identifying appropriate student outcomes and discusses ways to classify outcomes, organize related information, and obtain and evaluate various measures.

CONSULTING IN HIGHER EDUCATION. (Seminer Leader: Jana Matthews)

Focuses on the role of those who often function as "internal" conquitents in colleges and universities (e.g., presidential assistants, computer center staff, and institutional researchers); determining what problems they should concentrate on, collecting information to address those problems, working with decision-makers, and helping implement new decisions and changes. Also discusses the management of "external" consultants.

MANAGING DECLINE IN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES. (Seminar Leaders: Kim Cameron and David Wretten)

Addresses the skills and strategies required for managing during periods of decline and retrenchment. Presents preliminary results from investigations conducted by NCHEMS Organizational Studies Program regarding hold initializations and adapting to decline, as well as from other research done on private and public sector organizations. Suggests weys to respond appropriately to managing decline and avoid counterproductive activities.

POTENTIAL ENROLLMENT ISSUES

- A. Gaining New Resources Usually Means Money
 - 1. What is the optimum tuition level?
 - 2. How can external student aid be maximized?
 - 3. What if student aid is disbursed through block grants?
- B. New Markets: The fundamental question of mission must be addressed.
 - 1. What student groups are targeted for recruitment?
 - 2. What successes in attracting these groups can be found in present or past enrollment data?
 - 3. Where do these present and "targeted" students come from? **
 Why did they come here (this college)?
 - 4. What special services do these students require?
 - 5. What changes in faculty will be required? What are the implications for retraining or hiring?
 - 6. What can be done to retain students?
- C. New Ventures: Issues here could include both the ideas of recommitment to mission and expansion into new ventures.
 - Should the institution pursue new ventures (e.g., new programs, majors, services, etc.).
 - 2. What are the implications of new ventures to the institutional mission?
 - 3. What does present and projected internal curriculum mix, (i.e., enrollment by curriculum) suggest for new ventures?

POTENTIAL ENROLLMENT ISSUES (Cont'd)

- 4. What facilities changes (new, remodeled, refurbished) will be required?
- 5. How can a distinctive institutional environment be created?
- 6. What new or improved services (placement, vocational counseling, social counseling, etc.) are needed?

. D. Efficiency (Productivity)

- 1. What resource reallocation decisions (such as personnel, student scholarships, etc.) are suggested?
- 2. What is the "excess capacity" of growing areas? Is there under-capacity?
- 3. What is the excess capacity of declining units? What will it be?
- 4. How can quality be maintained? To what extent is quality the institution's product?
- 5. What new instructional arrangements are possible?

E. Reorganizing and Restructuring the Enterprise

- 1. Do the new resources and markets suggest new academic organizations?
- 2. Should some internal units be merged or dissolved?

NOTE TO SEMINAR PARTICIPANTS

This seminar notebook has been designed to be of maximum use to you during the seminar. Copies of overheads have been included in the same sequence as used by the instructor in order to facilitate your taking notes during the instructor's presentation. Other materials included in the notebook will be referred to as appropriate during the seminar.

In addition to its use during the seminar, we also hope that the notebook will be helpful as a reference document following the seminar.

SEMINAR OBJECTIVES

N GENERAL

- Understand The Strategic Enrollment Issues That Need To Be Considered.
- REVIEW AND ASSESS THE NATIONAL AND REGIONAL DEMOGRAPHIC TRENDS BEING PREDICTED.
- Understand That Individual Institutions Are Facing Different Enrollment Situations: Decline, Stability, and Increase.

N SPECIFIC FOR YOUR INSTITUTION

- . REVIEW ACTUAL ENROLLMENT TRENDS.
 - Assess The Possible Implications Associated With These Enrollment Changes.
- . DETERMINE ALTERNATIVES FOR RESPONDING TO OR PLANNING FOR THESE ENROLLMENT CHANGES.

CHANGES IN BIRTHRATES AND HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

APPLICABILITY AT A GIVEN INSTITUTION

- ARE THE INSTITUTION'S ENROLLMENTS DIRECTLY RELATED TO A LOCAL/REGIONAL MARKET?
- IF So,
 - WHAT IS TREND IN LOCAL/REGIONAL BIRTHRATES AND HIGH School GRADUATES?
 - CAN INSTITUTION'S ENROLLMENT MARKET BE BROADENED OR CHANGED?
- IF NOT,
 - WILL NATIONAL TRENDS AFFECT THIS INSTITUTION'S ENROLLMENT?
 - CAN CHANGES IN MARKETING OR OTHER STRATEGIES OVERCOME NATIONAL TRENDS?

SHIFTS IN ENROLLMENTS BY REGION

APPLICABILITY AT A GIVEN INSTITUTION

- Does This Institution Draw On Local Or Regional Markets? If So, Are Increasing Numbers Of Students In This Region Going To Institutions In Other Regions?
- Does This Institution Draw On Students From Other Regions? If So, Are The Numbers Of Out-Of-State Students Increasing? Is The Institution Still Capable Of Serving Local Students?

CHANGES IN ENROLLMENT BY AGE

GENERAL TRENDS

More Students Beyond The Traditional 18 - 21 Year
 OLD AGE BRACKET ARE ENROLLING.

- Policies And Procedures Applicable To Traditional
 18 21 Year Olds Need To Be Reviewed For Applicability
 To Older Students.
- New Services, Particularly In Counseling, May Be Needed For Older Students.
- INSTRUCTIONAL CHANGES MAY BE NEEDED TO RELATE TO OLDER INDIVIDUALS WITH MORE PRACTICAL AND PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE.
- AGE DISCRIMINATION RULES AND ACTIVITIES MUST BE AVOIDED.

CHANGES IN ENROLLMENT BY SEX

GENERAL TRENDS

- Higher Numbers of Women are enrolling
- Women tend to be older and more part time
- Women are seeking new professional opportunities and are enrolling in nontraditional programs

- Need to be aware of courses and programs affected by increasing women's enrollments
- Need to evaluate specific women's needs:
 - day care centers
 - counseling services
 - women's studies
 - additional faculty and administrators to serve as mentors and role models
- Need to evaluate availability of evening and weekend classes
- Need to evaluate flexible enrollment opportunities
- Need to evaluate student loan opportunities

CHANGES IN ENROLLMENT BY RACE/ETHNICITY

GENERAL TRENDS

• LARGER NUMBERS OF MINORITIES ARE ENROLLING.

- NEED TO REVIEW SPECIAL NEEDS OF MINORITY STUDENTS: COUNSELING, REMEDIAL COURSES, FINANCIAL AID.
- NEED TO REVIEW SOCIAL SETTING AND ITS AMENABILITY TO MINORITY STUDENTS.
- NEED TO ASSESS AVAILABILITY OF MINORITY FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATORS TO SERVE AS MENTORS AND ROLE MODELS.

CHANGES IN INCOME LEVEL OF STUDENTS

APPLICABILITY AT A GIVEN INSTITUTION

- IF THE INCOME LEVELS OF STUDENTS ARE DECREASING, INSTITUTION NEEDS TO EVALUATE,
 - ADEQUACY OF FINANCIAL AID PROGRAMS
 - FINANCIAL CAPABILITY OF STUDENTS TO COMPLETE DESIRED LEVEL OF COURSE
 - POTENTIAL WORK/STUDY PROGRAMS

II-11

CHANGE IN IN-STATE VS OUT-OF-STATE ENROLLMENTS

GENERAL TRENDS

- Due To Increasing Out-Of-State Fees, Many Students Are Choosing Home State Institutions.
- Many Students In East and Midwest Are Choosing Institutions In The Sun Belt

- IF Numbers OF Out-OF-State Students Are Decreasing,
 - ARE MARKETING STRATEGY CHANGES NEEDED TO ATTRACT More In-State Students?
 - Is Total Tuition Income Affected To The Point Fees Will Need To Be Increased?
- IF Numbers Of Out-Of-State Students Are Increasing,
 - CAN INSTITUTIONS EFFECTIVELY CONTINUE TO SERVE LOCAL/REGIONAL STUDENT NEEDS?
 - CAN IN-STATE FEES BE HELD CONSTANT OR REDUCED?

CHANGES IN NUMBERS OF COMMUTERS VS RESIDENTS

GENERAL TRENDS

• INCREASING NUMBERS OF NON-TRADITIONAL STUDENTS INDICATES INCREASING NUMBERS OF COMMUTERS

- RESIDENCE FACILITIES ARE NOT FULLY OCCUPIED.
- THERE IS LESS OF A STUDENT BODY PRESENCE.
- THERE ARE DRAMATIC SHIFTS AWAY FROM THE TRADITIONAL IN LOCO PARENTIS CONCEPTS.
- Commuters Have Unique Needs Necessitating Specific Needs Assessments.

CHANGES IN ENROLLMENT IN TOTAL

GENERAL TRENDS

- Head Counts Are Declining Somewhat Or, At Best, Holding Constant. Some Institutions Do Have Increasing Enrollments, Though.
- FULL TIME EQUIVALENT (FTE) COUNTS ARE DECLINING DRAMATICALLY (I.E. PART TIME ENROLLMENTS ARE INCREASING).

- Even If Head Count Enrollments Are Holding Constant Or Increasing, Need To Review Internal Shifts and Changes In FTE.
- IF HEADCOUNT AND/OR FTE ENROLLMENTS ARE DECREASING, NEED TO ASSESS WHERE, WHY, AND HOW TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF CHANGES.

CHANGES IN ENROLLMENTS AT GRADUATE VS UNDERGRADUATE LEVELS

GENERAL TRENDS

- AT COMPREHENSIVE INSTITUTIONS GRADUATE/PROFESSIONAL ENROLLMENTS ARE OFTEN INCREASING WHILE UNDERGRADUATE ENROLLMENTS ARE DECLINING OR HOLDING CONSTANT.
- More Interest In Occupation-Oriented Education (Including Community College Instruction) Than General Education.

- WILL MISSION AND MARKETING STRATEGIES NEED TO BE CHANGED?
- WILL SOME PROGRAMS NEED TO BE CUT BACK (ELIMINATED?
- Are Some New Programs Needed?
- WHAT CHANGES IN RESOURCES (MONEY, PERSONN L (ACILITIES)
 Does This Require?

SHIFTS IN ENROLLMENTS AMONG PROGRAMS AND MAJORS

GENERAL TRENDS

- EVEN WHEN TOTAL ENROLLMENTS ARE INCREASING OR HOLDING CONSTANT, ENROLLMENTS BY PROGRAM OR MAJOR ARE CHANGING.
- Non-Traditional Students Are Enrolling In Non-Traditional Programs.

- NEED TO CAREFULLY ANALYSE TREND CHANGES IN ENROLLMENTS BY PROGRAM, COLLEGE, AND MAJOR. (ICLM MATRIX HELPFUL IN THIS REGARD.)
- NEED TO DETERMINE WHAT SHIFTS HAVE OCCURRED AND IF TRENDS WILL CONTINUE.

CHANGES IN DAY VS EVENING ENROLLMENTS

GENERAL TRENDS

 Due To Work Commitments, Non Traditional Students Are Enrolling More In Evening (And Even Weekend) Classes.

- NEED TO EVALUATE WHICH COURSES AND PROGRAMS ARE MOST AFFECTED BY INCREASING EVENING ENROLLMENTS.
- NEED TO EVALUATE CHANGES REQUIRED IN COURSE AND TIME OFFERINGS TO ACCOMODATE INCREASING EVENING ENROLLMENTS.
- NEED TO EVALUATE SOCIAL AND COUNSELING CHANGES NEEDED TO HELP INCREASING NUMBERS OF EVENING STUDENTS.

CHANGES IN FULL-TIME VS PART-TIME ENROLLMENTS

GENERAL TRENDS

- INCREASING ENROLLMENTS OF MORE TRADITIONAL TYPES OF STUDENTS HAVE RESULTED IN INCREASED PART-TIME ENROLLMENTS.
- Total Enrollments May Increase or Hold Constant While Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) Enrollments Are Decreasing.

POTENTIAL INSTITUTIONAL IMPLICATIONS

- NEED TO EVALUATE WHICH COURSES AND PROGRAMS ARE MOST AFFECTED BY INCREASING PART-TIME ENROLLMENTS.
- Need To Evaluate Changes Required In Course And Time
 Offerings To Accompdate Increasing Part-Time Enrollments.
- Need To Evaluate Social And Counseling Changes To Help Increasing Numbers Of Part-Time Students.

CASE STUDY: AQUINAS COLLEGE

GENERAL DESCRIPTION:

- FOUR-YEAR, PRIVATE LIBERAL ARTS COLLEGE
- SERVING A METROPOLITAN AREA OF 400,000
- ENROLLMENT APPROXIMATELY 1,400 (FTE) STUDENTS

PROBLEMS:

- COMPETITION FROM
 - CALVIN COLLEGE AND SEMINARY
 - GRAND RAPIDS JUNIOR COLLEGE
 - GRAND VALLEY STATE COLLEGE
 - DAVENPORT COLLEGE
 - KENDALL SCHOOL OF DESIGN
 - EXTENSION PROGRAMS FROM

University of Michigan Michigan State University Western Michigan University

- DECLINE IN ENROLLMENT OF HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS (18 to 22 YEAR OLDS)
- CONSTANTLY RAISING TUITION NECESSITATED BY INFLATION
- Competition on Tuition (Community College Tuition was Cheaper by $1,000 to $1,400 per Year)

CASE STUDY: AQUINAS COLLEGE (CONTINUED)

POTENTIAL SOLUTIONS:

- FIND WAYS OF SAVING MONEY
- SEEK BETTER MANAGEMENT OF EXISTING RESOURCES
- Assess Existing Programs and Resources
- Recognize Responsibilities to Other Potential Student Clienteles

LIABILITIES:

- FACULTY CONSERVATISM (RESISTANCE TO CHANGE)
- GENERAL UNAWARENESS OF OPPORTUNITIES OUTSIDE THE ESTABLISHED TRADITION
- Lack of Key Staff Personnel with Awareness of Opportunities for Growth
- GENERAL LOSS OF HEART; DEFEATIST ATTITUDE

ASSETS:

- A FACULTY DEDICATED TO THE INSTITUTION AND ITS STUDENTS; WILLINGNESS TO SUFFER SMALLER COMPENSATION AND HARDER LABOR TO SUPPORT THE INSTITUTION
- A Sense of Jeopardy and Motivation to Do Something
- FREEDOM TO ACT (NOT ANSWERABLE TO A BUREAUCRACY)
- A 12 TO 1 STUDENT-FACULTY RATIO (UNDER-UTILIZED FACULTY RESOURCES)

STRATEGIC DECISION AREAS AND ENROLLMENT PLANNING ISSUES

| | DECISION AREAS | Issues Directly Related To Enrollment Planning |
|-----|-----------------------------|--|
| 1. | Basic Philosophy and Values | GIVEN ENROLLMENT CHANGES, DOES THE INSTITUTIONAL MISSION NEED TO BE REVIEWED HANGED? |
| 2. | GOALS & OBJECTIVES | GIVEN ENROLLMENT CHANGES, DO THE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES OF ANY COLLEGES/PROGRAMS NEED TO BE REVIEWED/CHANGED? |
| 3. | CLIENTELE | Who are the students being served now? What students have been served? What students do we want to be serving? |
| 4. | Program/Service Mix | ARE EXISTING PROGRAMS AND SERVICES APPROPRIATELY SERVING OUR CURRENT OR INTENDED STUDENT BODY? |

ISSUE: STUDENT CLIENTELE NEEDS TO BE BROADENED

DECISION:

AN ANALYSIS OF THE CHARACTERISTICS OF INDIVIDUALS

IN THE GEOGRAPHIC SERVICE AREA INDICATES THE

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE CURRENT STUDENT BODY MUST BE CHANGED TO MATCH THIS MIX.

QUESTIONS AND OPTIONS RELATING TO DECISION:

- WHAT TYPES OF STUDENTS MUST BE ACTIVELY SOUGHT? 1.
- 2. WHO WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ANALYZING HOW TO ATTRACT THESE STUDENTS?
- 3. WHAT INTERNAL PROCESS AND AREAS WILL BE INVOLVED IN DIFFERENT MARKETING STRATEGIES?
- 4. WHAT CONSIDERATIONS NEED TO BE GIVEN TO RETAINING DIFFERENT TYPES OF STUDENTS?

RELATING GENERAL ISSUES TO SPECIFIC INSTITUTIONAL SITUATIONS

EXAMPLE

ISSUE: RESOURCES NEED TO BE INCREASED

DECISION: TUITION WILL BE INCREASED

QUESTIONS AND OPTIONS RELATING TO DECISION:

- 1. SHALL FEES AT ALL LEVELS AND FOR ALL PROGRAMS BE INCREASED?
 - SAME AMOUNT OR PERCENT?
 - DIFFERING AMOUNTS OR PERCENTS?
- 2. SHALL FEES FOR STUDENT SERVICES BE INCREASED?
- 3. SHALL SOME FEES BE INCREASED NOW AND OTHERS AT LATER OR STAGGERED TIMES?

SEMINAR OBJECTIVES

IN GENERAL

- 1. Understand The Strategic Enrollment Issues That Need To Be Considered.
- 2. REVIEW AND ASSESS THE NATIONAL AND REGIONAL DEMOGRAPHIC TRENDS BEING PREDICTED.
- 3. Understand That Individual Institutions Are Facing Different Enrollment Situations:

 Decline, Stability, and Increase.

IN SPECIFIC FOR YOUR INSTITUTION

- 4. REVIEW ACTUAL ENROLLMENT TRENDS.
- 5. Assess The Possible Implications Associated With These Enrollment Changes.
- 6. DETERMINE ALTERNATIVES FOR RESPONDING TO OR PLANNING FOR THESE ENROLLMENT CHANGES.
