ABSTRACT

The North Carolina Department of Public Education has developed an equal employment/affirmative action policy in accordance with Federal civil rights laws, and directives from the State Board of Education. Rather than merely ensuring anti-biased hiring practices, the policy provides for the recruitment, employment and promotion of qualified members of groups which were formerly excluded. The basic premise is that positive action must be taken to overcome the effects of previous discrimination and exclusion. The terms and goals of the policies are defined. The following policies and plans are described in detail: (1) Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Policy, including approach and implementation; (2) Sexual Harassment Policy/Plan, including approach and implementation; (3) Policy Dissemination, including a manual, staff meetings, memoranda, and public notices; (4) Program Responsibilities, including functions of various staff, the personnel office, and the Affirmative Action Advisory Committee; (5) Goals and Timetables; (6) Affirmative Action Programs, including employee rights and responsibilities; and (7) Program Evaluation, to be conducted by the Personnel Director and Equal Employment Opportunity officers using the goals established as a guide. Statistical descriptions of the female and minority workforce by agency and job classification are provided. Eight appendices provide sample forms, recruitment and employment guidelines, information about equal employment/affirmative action efforts in North Carolina public education, and demographic information about the North Carolina workforce specifically and the State population in general. I. INTRODUCTION

The Department of Public Education is an equal opportunity employer. It is the policy of this department to ensure equal and fair treatment for all persons, regardless of race, color, religion, sex, age, handicap, political affiliation or national origin, in all employment practices.

Equal Employment Opportunity is the Law

It is mandated by Federal and State Legislation, Presidential Executive Orders and definitive court decisions.

Societal barriers have tended to discourage or preclude women and minority group members from participating fully in the opportunities presented by American life. Many discriminatory employment practices of the past remain so deeply embedded in basic institutions of society that these practices continue to have an extremely unequal effect on certain groups in our population, even when the employer has no conscious intent to discriminate.

The Department of Public Education has made considerable progress in removing barriers that tended to preclude women and minority group members from competing for jobs on an equal basis. However, there remains a need for positive, affirmative action to identify and remove those discriminatory practices which may still exist in this department's employment procedures.

Definition of Terms

Equal Employment Opportunity is an employer's posture that all personnel activities will be conducted in a manner as to assure equal opportunity for all. Such activities will be based solely on individual merit and fitness of applicants and employees related to the specific jobs and without regard to race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, physical disability, political affiliation, or other nonmerit factors.

Affirmative Action requires that an agency do more than ensure employment neutrality with regard to race, color, religion, sex, and national origin. As the phrase implies, affirmative action requires the employer to make additional efforts to recruit, employ, and promote qualified members of groups formerly excluded, even if that exclusion cannot be traced to particular discriminatory actions on the part of the employer. The premise of the affirmative action concept of the Executive Order is that unless positive action is undertaken to overcome the effects of systemic institutional forms of exclusion and discrimination, a benign neutrality in employment practices will tend to perpetuate the status quo ante indefinitely.

Annual Goal is an annual analysis target, expressed as both a number and a percentage, for placing minorities, women, and handicapped persons in a job group for which underutilization exists.

Applicant for Employment is a person who files a formal application (Form PD-107) or by some other means (resumé, letter, request, etc.) indicates a specific desire to be considered for employment in an advertised vacant position.

Applicant Flow Data is a statistical compilation of employment applicants showing the specific numbers of each racial, ethnic, and sex group who applied for each job title (or group of job titles requiring similar qualifications) during a specified time period.

Discrimination is illegal treatment of a person or group based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, handicap, or veteran status. The term also includes failure to limit the effects of past discrimination.

Sexual Harassment is a form of sex discrimination prohibited by N.C. General Statute 126.16 and EEOC Guidelines on Discrimination Because of Sex.

Handicapped Individual is any person who (1) has a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more of his or her major life activities; (2) has a record of such impairment, or (3) is regarded as having such an impairment. A handicap is "substantially limiting" if it is likely to cause difficulty in securing, retaining, or advancing in employment.

Life Activities are activities including but not limited to communication, ambulation, self care, socialization, evaluation, vocational training, employment, transportation, or adaptation to housing.

Mandatory Job Listing is the provision under Section 402 of the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act which requires covered employers to list suitable job openings with the local office of the State Employment Service and OFCCP guidelines.

Systemic Discrimination is employment policies or practices which, though often neutral on their face, serve to differentiate or to perpetuate a differentiation in terms of conditions of employment of applicants or employees because of their race, color, religion, sex, national origin, handicap or veteran's status. Systemic discrimination normally relates to a recurring practice rather than to an isolated act of discrimination, and may include failure to remedy the continuing effects of past discrimination. Intent to discriminate may or may not be involved.

Underutilization is employment of members of a race, ethnic, handicapped class, or sex group in a job or job group at a rate below their availability.

Minority is any person identified as Black, Hispanic, Asian, Pacific-Islanders, American-Indian, or Alaskan national.

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY/AFFIRMATIVE ACTION POLICY

The State Department of Public Education is committed to the provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination Act of 1967, the Equal Pay Act of 1963, the Civil Rights Act of 1968, the Civil Rights Acts of 1866 and 1871, directives from the State Personnel Commission, and other applicable State and Federal laws. It is the policy of the Department that equal employment opportunity will be extended to all applicants and employees without regard to race, color, religion, sex, age, handicap, political affiliation or national origin, and that positive efforts will be made by all supervising personnel to prevent discriminatory practices including sexual harassment. Further, it is the policy of the Department that positive efforts will be made by management to prevent adverse effect on protected classes when it becomes necessary to implement the reduction-in-force procedures.

In accordance with directives from the State Board of Education, the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Controller, appropriate action will be taken to ensure that all personnel transactions are handled in a fair and impartial basis. For information concerning these provisions, contact the Personnel Director:

SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY/PLAN

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

I. Policy

It shall be the policy of the Department of Public Education that no employee shall engage in conduct that falls under the definition of sexual harassment indicated below. No personnel decisions shall be made on the basis of granting or denial of sexual favors. All employees in the Department of Public Education are guaranteed the right to work in an environment free from sexual harassment. Sexual harassment shall hereforth be deemed as a form of sexual discrimination which is prohibited by North Carolina General Statutes 126-16.

For the purposes of this policy sexual harassment is defined as deliberate, unsolicited and unwelcomed verbal and/or physical conduct of a sexual nature or with sexual implications by a supervisor or co-worker which: (1) has or may have direct employment consequences resulting from the acceptance or rejection of such conduct; or (2) creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment; or (3) interferes with an individual's work performance. This definition does not include personal compliments welcomed by the recipient or social interaction or relationships freely entered into by state employees or prospective employees.

II. Objectives

A. To establish in the Department a work environment which is free of any conduct which can be determined to be within the realm of the definition of sexual harassment by:

1. disseminating the policy statement for the Department
2. providing information to assist employees in becoming aware of sexual harassment through various means including in-service workshops, training and literature.

B. To establish a procedure to report and to alleviate alleged conduct which has been identified as sexual harassment by:

1. establishing a grievance procedure
2. developing a disciplinary action program.

Each objective will be evaluated quarterly to determine the success rate of implementation.

IV. RESPONSIBILITY FOR IMPLEMENTATION

The primary responsibility and accountability for implementing this Sexual Harassment Plan lies with the State Superintendent and the Controller.

This responsibility has been delegated to the Personnel Office, the EEO Officer, supervisory personnel and finally to all employees. The Affirmative Action Committee will assist each of the above in carrying out the necessary requirements of the plan and also serve as the coordinator of program activities. Listed below are some of the responsibilities of each group:

Personnel Office

- assisting in the development of the policy statement for the Department
- assisting in communicating the policy and plan to all employees

EEO Officer

- serving as a resource person to all employees
- advising where necessary all parties involved in cases alleging sexual harassment
- investigating as appropriate cases of alleged sexual harassment

Supervisory Personnel

- administering and implementing the Department policy and plan
- counseling employees when appropriate to eliminate sexual harassment
- creating a work environment which is free of sexual harassment
- preventing and correcting any sexual harassment activities

Employees

- following the policy of the Department
- reporting sexual harassment activities or behavior
- assisting in the maintenance of a work environment free of sexual harassment

Affirmative Action Committee

- coordinating the designing of in-service activities on sexual harassment
- evaluating program activities
- monitoring the procedure and disciplinary action of all alleged cases of sexual harassment
- coordinating related activities

V. APPROACH/ACTION STEPS

A. Training

The in-service program will be a part of the affirmative action training activities. It will include awareness, sensitivity to, identification and definition of, disciplinary programs, state and federal laws, corrective steps and other pertinent information relative to sexual harassment. This training will be offered to all supervisory personnel on a semi-annual basis.

B. Counseling

Where appropriate, those victims of sexual harassment who need professional counseling will be referred to those persons in state government or the local community service agencies which can provide this service.

C. Grievance Procedure

In the event that a complainant does not feel comfortable discussing his/her case with the immediate supervisor for the initial complaint, he/she can by-pass the immediate supervisor and discuss his/her case with the chairperson of the Affirmative Action Committee or his/her designee.

D. Discipline

All cases alleging sexual harassment will be reviewed on an individual basis on the facts presented for the case. Any interference, coercion, restraint or reprisal against any person alleging sexual harassment is prohibited and will not be tolerated by the Department. All individuals will be given a fair and impartial hearing. Disciplinary action will be handled by the appropriate assistant superintendent/controller with approval of the Department head.

E. Dissemination

The policy/plan will be communicated to all employees through the same vehicle as the Affirmative Action Plan, and will be posted in buildings where Public Education employees are housed.

F. Evaluation

The evaluation of this sexual harassment policy/plan will be done as a part of the Affirmative Action Plan evaluation.

- I. Interpreting the application of complex state and federal laws, regulations and guidelines on equal employment opportunity.
- J. Provide or arrange for training of division/supervisory personnel and employees in the areas of EEO laws and regulations, grievance procedure and related areas.

Section F
FEMALE AND MINORITY WORKFORCE ANALYSIS
BY
EEO JOB CLASSIFICATION

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

The October 7, 1987 Survey of Employment Distribution by race and sex reflects the underutilization of personnel in the following Federal Equal Employment categories:

EEO CATEGORY	WOMEN			MEN
	White	Minorities	%	Minorities	%
Officials/Administrators	10	8	36.0	--	--
Professional Specialty	--	-	--	15	40.2
Admin. Support/Clerical	--	-	--	26	89.7
Management Related Occ.	--	1	25.0	2	15.4

The total workforce equals 699 permanent full-time employees as of October 7, 1987. Of this total 149 (22.0%) are minorities. This represents an underutilization of minorities in the total workforce of the Department of 3.1% or 21 persons.

Women are underutilized in the Officials/Administrators category by a total of 18 (36.0%) persons, 10 white and 8 minority, and in Management Related Occupations category by a total of 1 (25.0%) minority.

Women are overutilized in the Administrative Support/Clerical category by a total of 109 (89.3%) persons because of the historical and traditional attitude society and management have had concerning clerical work being assigned to women. Women are also overutilized in the Professional Specialty category by a total of 26 (16.6%) persons, and Management Related Occupations by a total of 3 (21.4%) persons.

Minority men are underutilized in three categories, Professional Specialty, Administrative Support/Clerical and Management Related Occupations. They are underutilized in the Professional Specialty category by 15 (40.2%) persons.

Minority men are significantly underutilized in the Administrative Support/ Clerical category 26 (89.7%) due to the tradition which reflects that this category is reserved for women. They are also underutilized in the Management Related Occupations by 2 (15.4%).

The June 30, 1987 Work Force/Labor Force Analyses, PM 863, indicates that permanent full-time handicapped employees are underutilized in the following categories:

STANDARD OCCUPATIONAL CLASSES	NUMBER
Officials/Administrators	2
Professional Specialty	2
Administrative Support/Cl	7

The above listed numbers are an average of the Occupation Specific and Labor Force Criteria.

The following percentages are used in determining under/over utilization for the available State workforce.

MINORITIES 25.1%

During the past year progress has been made by the Department of Public Instruction in the Professional Specialty EEO category. A significant increase in the number of women in this category has been realized from 154 on September 4, 1986 to 185 on October 7, 1987, an increase of 16.8%. In this same category, minority employment has had a small decrease from 21.7% to 21.4%, a decrease of .3% during the same time period. In the Management Related Occupations category women, overall, have been overutilized by 21.4%. Yet in this same category, minority women have been underutilized by 25.0% during the period September 4, 1986 to October 7, 1987. There has been an increase in the total number of persons employed in the Officials and Administrators category from 88 to 97 this past year. The percentage of women in this category has been increased from 31.7% to 33.0%. Minority employment in this category increased by 3 or 20%. Based on the population distribution of women according to the 1980 census, women are overutilized in the total workforce of the Department of Public Instruction by 17.9%. The percentage on October 7, 1987 has increased by 2.4% as to what it was on September 4, 1986 - 66.8%.

Minority employment decreased from 22.9% on December 31, 1979, to 20.0% on August 2, 1984, to 18.4% on June 30, 1985, and to 17.0% on September 4, 1986 in the Officials/Administrators category. As of October 7, 1987 this category has increased to 18.6% for minorities. Minority employment in the total Department workforce has shown a steady increase over the last several years. On December 13, 1980, the percentage of minorities employed was 18.1%. As of October 7, 1987, the percentage of minorities employed in the Department was 22.0%, an increase of 3.9%. The Department is now 3.1% short of its goal of 25.1% minority employment. The agency head and all personnel involved in the employment process are committed to attaining the agency goal within the next few years.

CONTROLLER'S OFFICE

The total workforce equals 241 permanent full-time employees. Of this total, 58 (24.1%) are minorities. This represents an underutilization of minorities in the Department of 2.5 persons (10%).

EEO CATEGORY	WHITE		WOMEN		MEN
		%	MINORITIES	%	MINORITIES	%
Officials/Administrators	3	13.6	-	-	-	-

Technicians	-	-	-	-	-	-
		5.3

The following percentages are used in determining under/over utilization for the available State workforce.

WOMEN 51.5%

MINORITIES 25.1%

According to the October 7, 1987 Survey of Employment Distribution by Race and Sex, women are underutilized in the Officials/Administrators category by a total of 3. Utilization of women in Professional Specialty category, Administrative Support/Clerical and Technician match the workforce percentages.

Underutilizing white females in management related occupations by 3 (5.9%) and in Precision/Craft category by 1 (20%).

Men are overutilized by 3 persons in the Officials/Administrators category.

Because of hiring traditions in the Mechanics and Inspectors category, women are underutilized by 1 (20%) person. Minority men are underutilized by 1 (20%) person. Stronger recruitment efforts will be utilized in this area to meet our departmental goals.

The Controller's Office has worked diligently to either maintain category percentages or enhance them.

Management is aware of the underutilization of women in the Officials/Administrators, Management Related Occupations and Precision Production Crafts and is committed to reaching the agency goals in these categories.

According to the June 30, 1987 Work Force/Labor Force Analyses, PM863, permanent full-time handicapped employees are underutilized in the following areas:

STANDARD OCCUPATIONAL CLASSES	NUMBER
Management Related Occupations	1
Administrative Support/Clerical	4

The above listed number is an average of the Occupation Specific and Labor Force Criteria.

The Controller's Office is committed to achieving full parity with the labor force in this area and will consider all qualified handicapped people in all job categories.

GOALS AND TIMETABLES

Many have confused the term quotas with goals. A quota implies a fixed numerical requirement, whereas, a goal represents a commitment to an effort for a reasonable period of time to remediate the effects of past discrimination. The goals of the Department of Public Education represent reasonable, significant measurable and attainable steps toward equal employment with an affirmative action objective which states that:

The primary equal employment objective for the State Board of Education is to achieve, within a reasonable period of time, an employee race and sex profile for each position category which is an appropriate reflection of proper utilization as compared with the population statistics of North Carolina.

Nothing in this objective requires the hiring of unqualified minorities, women, or whites. Determination of who is qualified must be made in accordance with the job-related criteria. Secondly, this objective does not require firing or displacing present employees in order to hire new employees for affirmative action purposes. Thirdly, the primary objective does not foreclose opportunities for those not previously excluded.

Approximate Reflection of Proper Utilization

At this time, there is no precise measure as to what figures constitute truly proper utilization. The Supreme Court said in the Teamsters vs. the United States in 1977 that ...

absent explanation, it is ordinarily to be expected that nondiscriminatory hiring practices will in time result in a workforce more or less representative of the racial and ethnic composition of the population in the community from which employees are being hired.

This does not require a rigid statistical balance between the Department's workforce and North Carolina population distribution. However, where representation of racial groups and females differs substantially from the population in any department, agency, or division, there is a strong presumption that discriminatory practices may be responsible. Therefore, the State Board of Education is obligated to seek an employee profile of males and females of all ethnic categories in each job category that reflects the race and sex mix of people in the population who have the skills, training, and experience needed to do the job. Hence, an ultimate goal is established and defined as a percentage which reflects the proper utilization of a specific race/sex profile in each job category. Stated differently, goals should reflect what our workforce would look like if individual and institutional discrimination did not exist.

Reasonable Time

Reasonable time is used in the context of such length of time as may be allowed or required, depending upon such factors as anticipated turnover, expansion or contraction, availability of person with required skills, realistic appraisal of extent of skill necessary for particular jobs, time necessary to acquire such skill, and similar considerations. Reasonable time is defined in this document as a five-year period. This is contingent upon the above conditions being conducive for meeting our goals.

Immediate steps will be taken to assure that race, color, age, sex, national origin, handicaps or other non-merit reasons are not factors in compensation for employees or determination of opportunities for advancement. The need for such actions usually becomes apparent through careful examination of salary levels as they are delineated in the workforce utilization analysis.

The following affirmative action goals with concomitant objectives are identified to help the Department of Public Education meet its Equal Employment Opportunity obligations.

GOAL I: The workforce of the Department of Public Education will be reflective of the ethnic categories, both male and female, of the State of North Carolina.

Affirmative Action Need:

As vacancies for all positions with the Department become available the recommending administrator will recommend employees of various ethnic categories, both male and female, for all vacancies. In those position categories in which protected group members are underutilized, an inordinate search will be made to find and employ those individuals to alleviate underutilization.

GOAL II: All personnel transactions will conform to relevant equal employment assurances and guarantees (Uniform Selection Procedures Guidelines).

Affirmative Action Need:

1. Maintain personnel records in a manner consistent with applicable employment practices and laws and regulations and with the requirements of this plan.
2. The Division of Personnel will develop specific steps to be taken to assure the appropriate representation of males and females of various ethnic categories in its applicant pool to include an active affirmative action file.
3. The Division of Personnel will develop search strategies for identifying qualified males and females of various ethnic categories for jobs in those categories in which minorities and women qualify.

4. The Division of Personnel will maintain at least the following records in support of this Affirmative Action Plan:

- (a) Applicant flow by race, sex, national origin, and source of applicants.
- (b) Hires by race, sex, and national origin.
- (c) Initial placement after hired, department or school to which assigned, and position by race, sex, and national origin.
- (d) Transfers, demotions, and promotions by race, sex, national origin; position and school or department from which transferred or promoted, and position and school or department to which transferred or demoted.
- (e) Voluntary and involuntary terminations by race, sex, national origin, type of termination and reason thereof.
- (f) A record of all employees receiving training by race and sex will be maintained.

Affirmative Action Need:

1. All personnel involved in the hiring process will be carefully selected and trained in matters relating to job demands and the capabilities of persons with certain handicaps to ensure equal access is provided.
2. The Division of Personnel will seek assistance from recruiting sources, including state employment agencies, state vocational rehabilitation agencies or facilities, sheltered workshops, college placement officers, state education agencies, labor organizations of, or for, handicapped individuals to meet this goal.

3. The Department of Public Education invites all applicants and employees who have handicaps to identify themselves. The identification process will be handled in a discretionary manner. This information is to be used to reasonably meet the federal and state reporting requirements for:

- a. accommodation
- b. accessibility of the handicapped.

Section G

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PROGRAMS

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PROGRAMS

Benefits and Conditions of Employment

All benefits and conditions of employment will be available to all employees of the Department of Public Education without regard to race, religion, sex, national origin, handicap, or age. Each employee will be informed of employee benefits in orientation sessions and will have equal opportunity to take advantage of such benefits.

Departmental Grievance Procedure

Any permanent State employee having a grievance arising out of or due to their employment and who does not allege discrimination because of age, sex, race, color, national origin, religion, creed, physical disability, or political affiliation will first discuss their problem or grievance with their supervisor and follow the grievance procedure established by the Department.

The employee has the right to present a problem or appeal free from interference, restraint, coercion, or reprisal. Such time off will be provided from regular duties as may be necessary and reasonable for the presentation and processing of grievances or appeals without loss of pay, vacation, or other "time credits."

The policy is specifically written in the Department of Public Education's Personnel Policies and Procedures Manual, Pages 6-8 through 6-11. Basically, the steps in the Grievance Procedure are as follows:

- STEP 1 -- DISCUSSIONS BETWEEN EMPLOYEE AND IMMEDIATE SUPERVISOR
- STEP 2 -- DISCUSSIONS BETWEEN EMPLOYEE AND DEPARTMENT PERSONNEL DIRECTOR
- STEP 3 -- APPEAL TO THE GRIEVANCE AND APPEAL COMMITTEE
- STEP 4 -- APPEAL TO STATE PERSONNEL COMMISSION (For employees who have a minimum of 5 years of continuous service only.)

Any employee who alleges discrimination should follow the steps listed on page 7.1 of this plan.

Disciplinary Actions, Demotions, Terminations

All disciplinary actions, demotions, and terminations of employees of the Department of Public Education will be handled according to the policy adopted by the State Personnel Commission under authority of the State Personnel Act without regard to race, religion, sex, national origin, handicap, or age.

Termination or reduction in force can be caused by dismissal or layoff due to cutback in funding of federal programs or deletion of programs or positions by the State Legislature.

It is and will be the policy of the Department of Public Education, in the event terminations are required for the reasons stated above, that these will be made in accordance with established procedures and without regard to race, religion, sex, national origin, handicap, or age. All terminations or reduction in force (whether voluntary or involuntary) will be monitored and analyzed to insure that no protective group is adversely affected.

Exit Interview Program

The Department of Public Education has established an Exit Interview Program in which each permanent employee separating from the Department is requested to participate. At that time, the employee completes the Exit Interview Report and reviews the responses with a staff member from the Division of Personnel during a confidential interview session. The written report is treated confidentially and is not available for review. In the event trends in terminations, allegations of discrimination, or other personnel matters become a concern for management, they will be brought to the attention of the Department Head. A copy of the Exit Interview Report is located in Appendix II-B.

Internal Reporting Procedures

It is the responsibility of the Personnel Director for the Department of Public Education to make an annual progress report to the Office of State Personnel. This report will be made in accordance with the guidelines set forth by the Office of State Personnel and will be compiled with the assistance of members of the Office of Personnel Services' staff. This report will be used to ensure that our Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Plan is being followed and that equal employment opportunity does exist for all applicants and employees without regard to race, religion, sex, national origin, handicap, or age. Copies of all reports will be maintained in the Division of Personnel and will be made available upon request.

Personnel Policies and Procedures Manual

The Personnel Policies and Procedures Manual developed for use by the Department of Public Education and the State Personnel Department and Personnel Manual developed by the Office of State Personnel provide management with detailed specifics of personnel administration. It is recommended that reference be made to these sources for clarification as needed.

Recruitment

1. Each division will coordinate all recruitment efforts with the Division of Personnel which will develop a coordinated recruitment program with the Office of State Personnel and other sources.
2. The Division of Personnel will establish and maintain continuing relations with schools -- secondary, technical institutes, colleges, universities, and business and specialized schools which may have large numbers of minority, women, and handicapped students.

3. Referrals will be requested from governmental agencies and programs such as the State Employment Security Commission, community action organizations, vocational rehabilitation agencies, and others. (A listing of referral agencies can be found in the Appendix E.)
4. An interviewing program which will include at least three applicants representative of the ethnic, the sex, and the handicapped composition of available applicants.

Selection

The Department of Public Education's selection process for employment will be reevaluated quarterly by the Department Head and the Director of the Division of Personnel to determine if changes, revisions, and/or new procedures are needed. At this time, the job requirements, job descriptions, standards and procedures, pre-employment inquiries, application forms, interviewing processes, training requirements, the referral procedures, and the final approval process will be examined. A copy of the Department's Selection Procedure can be found in Appendix F.

Training

The Department of Public Education has not provided a formal, structured training program for Supervisors/Directors during the past years relative to its Affirmative Action Plan.

Substantive information has been shared with Supervisors/Directors and others by the EEO officers through memos, conferences and regularly scheduled staff meetings. This vehicle has worked well for the Department in the past but a structured training program will be developed and implemented this year. The Department's affirmative action committee will assist the Personnel Office with the planning and implementation of a training program.

Section H
PROGRAM EVALUATION

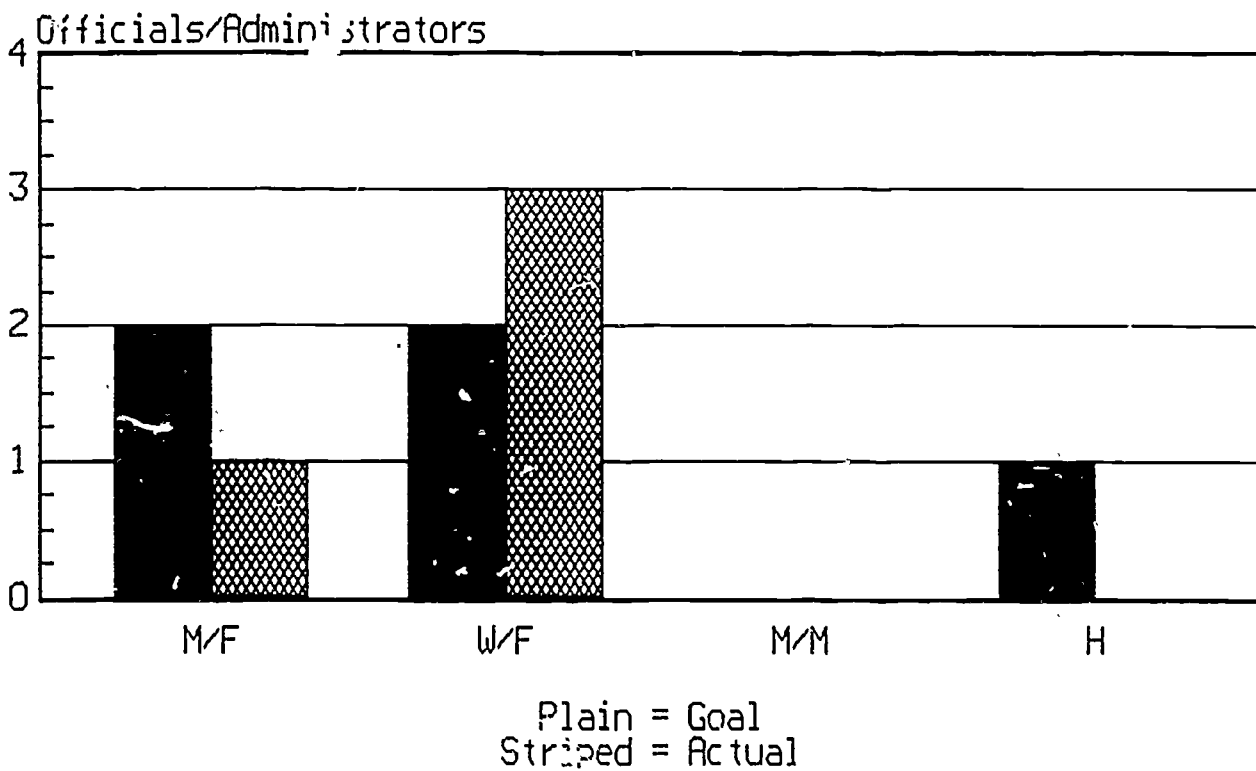

PROGRAM EVALUATION

The Personnel Director and the EEO Officers have the assigned responsibility to provide operational direction of the Plan and its evaluation. Records of minorities and females will be monitored and reported on for program evaluation purposes. These records will include applications, placements, transfers, promotions, and terminations. Personnel functions which may be responsible for discrimination will be identified and evaluated.

Areas of underutilization will be identified and goals/timetables will be established to correct utilization problems. These goals will be based on the percentage of minorities and females in the population of North Carolina. Progress toward achieving the set goals will be monitored by the Personnel Director and the EEO Officers for each department and reported to each agency head for action.

The Department of Public Instruction set as one of its one-year targets for 1986-87 the employment of 4 females, 2 white and 2 minority, plus 1 handicapped person, a total of 5 in the Officials and Administrators category. This goal was exceeded by 1 (50%) due to there being 3 white females employed. It was met partially (50%) by 1 minority female being hired during this period. The goal was not met in the area of handicapped personnel in this category. In the Management Related Occupations category, the goal was set at the addition of 1 minority female and 1 minority male. Although the Department exceeded its goal in relation to females by 1 (100%), it did not reach its goal of the addition of 1 minority male in this category. The goal set for Professional Speciality category was an increase of 1 minority male, 2 minority females and 1 handicapped person. There was a significant increase and the goal was exceeded for minority females in this by 8 (800%).

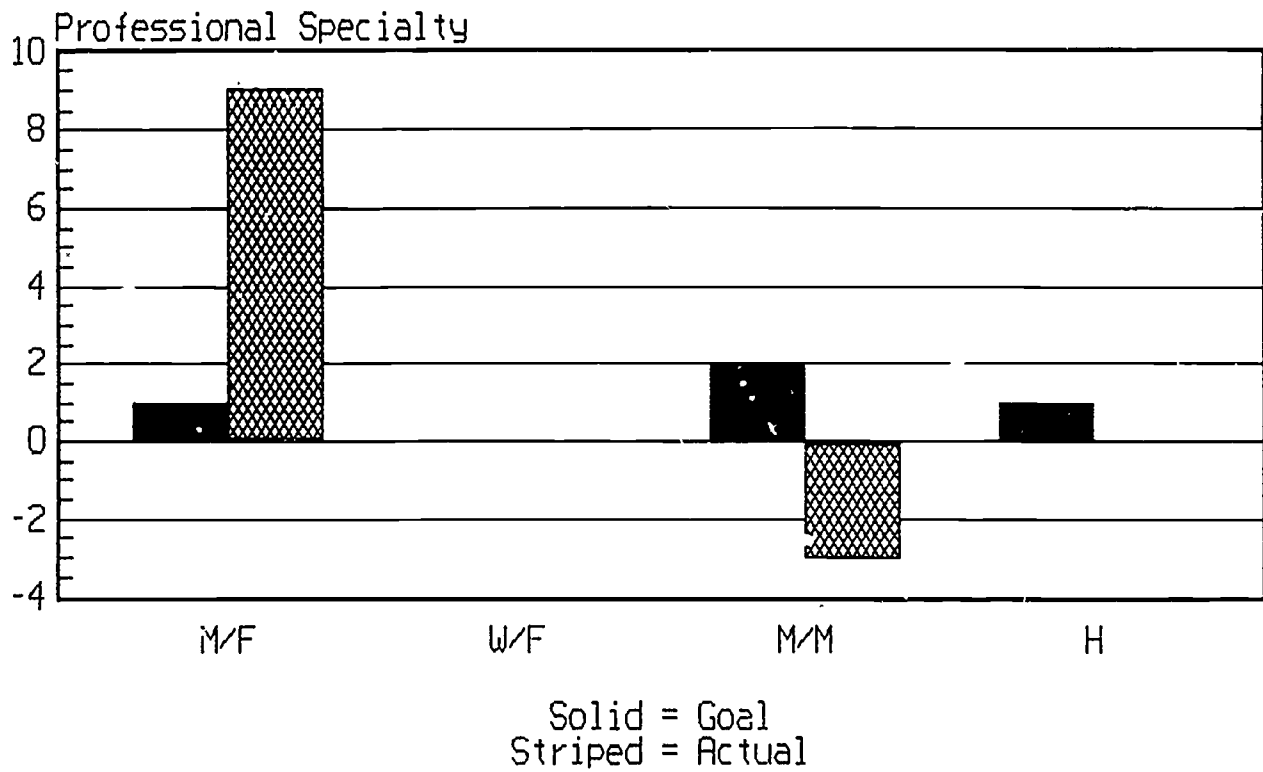

PUBLIC INSTRUCTION
Placement Goals - 1987

The goal was not met for handicapped persons and was partially met (50%) for minority males. In the Technicians and Technologists category a five-year goal of 1 minority female was set. This goal was reached during the 1986-87 year. None of the goals were met in the Administrative Support category which includes clerical personnel

There was a small decrease in minority employment in the Department of Public Instruction of .2% since September 4, 1986 for a total minority percentage in the workforce of 22.0% on October 7, 1987.

The Controller's Office used established sound procedures for monitoring and assessing affirmative action data within the Department during the fiscal year 1986-87. The one-year target to hire one white female was met in the Professional Speciality category. In the Administrative Support/Clerical category, the number of minority males increased from one to six. This exceeded the one-year target by five. Much effort was devoted in this area since it is a nontraditional category for men. According to the Work Force/Labor Force Population Standard Analysis, the Controller's Office has increased in its percentage of minorities from 48 (20.3%) to 58(24.1%). This represents an increase of 10 (3.8%) persons over last year.

One year targets for minority females were met or exceeded in the areas of Official/Administrators/Management-Related Occupations and Professional Specialty.

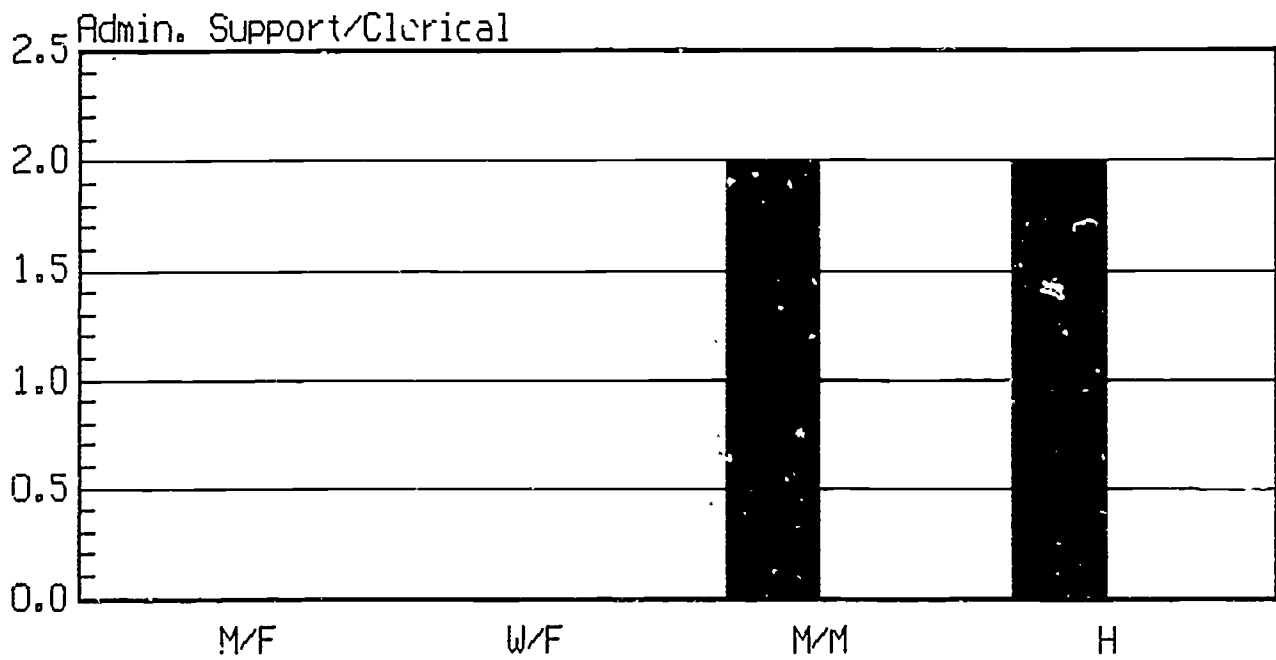

Supervisors/Directors are provided with information on a quarterly basis relative to their efforts towards meeting agency goals. This information is reviewed and evaluated with the assistance of the EEO Officer. Plans and strategies are then developed to assist each supervisor/director in the implementation of the Plan towards the goals and timetables which has been identified and set. As part of the annual evaluation system, managers/supervisors will be held accountable through the WPPR process at all levels for the progress of the Department's Affirmative Action Plan.

2. Carefully complete parts I and/or II, Overall Performance Appraisal Rating, Overall Performance Appraisal Summary, Employee and Supervisor Comments, and Plan for Improvement.
3. Be sure the form is signed by all respective parties.
4. Forward original to the Division of Personnel. Copies may be retained for employees and supervisors.

GOALS:

- Manage Performance.
 - increase and improve communication regarding work
 - clarify goals, priorities, and expectations
 - monitor and assess performance
 - provide feedback regarding results and observed performance
 - correct performance problems
- Develop Employees:
 - Evaluate performance, assessment of strengths and weaknesses, developmental planning and developmental activities
- Provide a sound basis for making personnel management decisions.
- Clarify the relationship between an employee's work assignment and the goals of the work unit and the agency; and
- Improve both supervisor and employee performance through more effective two-way communication.

DEFINITIONS OF LEVELS OF PERFORMANCE:

LEVEL OF PERFORMANCE	DEFINITION
Exceeds Expectations	5 Performance is consistently outstanding. Tasks activities are being accomplished at the highest level of performance. Employee seeks to expand scope of tasks activities and assumes additional responsibilities
Above Meets Expectations	4 Performance on tasks activities is occasionally outstanding. Some aspects of performance are at the highest level, while other aspects of performance are at the normal level expected.
Meets Expectations	3 Employee performs all tasks activities in a comprehensive manner and needs only general supervision. Performance is at the expected level. Employee's work is usually independent.
Below "Meets Expectations"	2 Some aspects of performance are at the normal level expected, while other aspects of performance are at a minimum level and need improvement. Employee's work is occasionally independent; more than expected amount of supervision is required.
Does Not Meet Expectations	1 Few aspects of performance are at the level expected, and many improvements are needed. Close and frequent supervision is necessary. Actual performance does not meet expectations of the position.

OVERALL PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL RATING:

APPENDIX E

STATE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC EDUCATION

RECRUITMENT AND EMPLOYMENT GUIDELINES

I. ESTABLISHING RECRUITING PROCEDURES

When a vacancy occurs or a new position is established and a replacement employee is needed, the following procedures are required:

- . Approval to fill the vacant position must be secured from the State Superintendent or from the Controller. This approval is usually initiated by the appropriate Assistant State Superintendent, Special Assistant, or Regional Director for the Department of Public Instruction or Deputy/Associate Controller for the Controller's Office. This release of the position can be secured through the use of Personnel Form 200. These forms are available in the Division of Personnel or on the IBM 5520.
- . The Division Director or designated supervisor should verify the official classification of the position, education and experience requirements, salary grade, budgeted amount and availability of salary reserve if needed before beginning with official recruiting efforts.
- . For positions that require advertising, the Division Director should submit a draft of the employment authorization/vacancy announcement (Personnel Form 200) to the Division of Personnel. This vacancy announcement will be edited as needed and typed in final copy, reproduced and disseminated by the Division of Personnel. If special instructions are required for this dissemination, they should be clearly stated.
- . For the purpose of clarification, all positions at Salary Grade 70 and above shall be considered professional and will be advertised in accordance with the State Board of Education policy which requires that a vacancy announcement be distributed to each of the 140 Local Education Agencies and posted in designated areas in the Department's locations. To ensure that opportunity is provided for clerical, technical, and administrative support employees to apply for promotional opportunities, it is now required that all clerical/administrative support positions be advertised at least within the Department. The Division of Personnel will provide more comprehensive internal advertising as requested. Also, it is required that all positions at Salary Grade 63 and above be advertised by the use of a separate numbered vacancy announcement.

- .. All numbered vacancy announcements must have a ten-workday "open for applications" period.
- .. All clerical/technical vacancies must be posted until a suitable candidate can be identified through reviewing an appropriate mix of applications. These positions must be kept open at least seven (7) working days.
- . When employees of the Department have been affected by a Reduction-in-Force, the Department will follow the procedures outlined in the Reduction-in-Force policy approved by the State Board of Education and the Office of State Personnel. The Reduction-in-Force policy has been distributed to employees and copies are available in each division, including the Division of Personnel.
- . Media Advertising -- If it is determined that a specific position requires an aggressive recruiting program, the Division where the vacancy exists will prepare a suitable classified advertisement, subject to the approval of the appropriate supervisor.

II. RECRUITING PROCEDURES

In compliance with the State Personnel Commission's recruiting and referral system, the Division of Personnel will list each vacancy with the Employment Security Commission if external recruitment for that position is intended by the Department. If recruiting is extended beyond the Department of Public Education and the local school administrative units, the Employment Security Commission will be requested to make referrals of qualified applicants. A copy of each vacancy announcement will be sent to the Reduction-in-Force Assistance Plan, Office of State Personnel, for a certified listing of qualified applicants on file for that class.

Special note: AFFIRMATIVE ACTION RECRUITING

With regard to the Agency's commitment to affirmative action/equal employment opportunity, the positive efforts of all agency administrators to achieve this objective will be closely monitored. In this concerted effort to implement our adopted affirmative action plan, the Controller has named an Affirmative Action Officer and the State Superintendent has named an Affirmative Action Officer. These employees have the delegated responsibility and authority to assist agency management in ensuring compliance in all employment related activities. They are available to offer guidance to Division Directors and other administrators on all aspects of affirmative action. Further, they will work in close cooperation with the Division of Personnel in developing policies, planning workshops, and other activities relevant to affirmative action. The two agencies have specified forms for use in reporting to agency management the affirmative action efforts used in recruiting/promoting for this position. A copy of this form will be completed in your procedure for recommending an employment action.

- The vacancy announcement instructions advise applicants to return applications to the Division of Personnel within established time limitations. At the point of collection of the applications, the Personnel Division records basic data on all applications received including date of receipt, race, sex, position applied for, and supervisor's name who will process the application. Any supervisor receiving applications for a specific vacancy should route the application to the Division of Personnel for the same processing. Applicants must submit an application (Form 107) to the Division of Personnel in order for it to become an "official application" in this employment process.
- The Personnel Division will acknowledge receipt of applications from applicants pursuing a position that has been advertised by a vacancy announcement or by a newspaper advertisement.

COMMUNICATING WITH APPLICANTS

- The Division of Personnel will serve as coordinator of screening committees as needed in the recruiting process. The screening committees will determine the applicants to be interviewed in the event the total number of applications received exceeds a reasonable number for the appointing authority to interview for the vacant position. The appropriate supervisor shall be primarily involved in the selection/appointment of a screening committee who will in turn select the applicants to be interviewed for the position. Consideration should be given to an appropriate representation of minorities, females, handicapped, and representation of other concerned groups on some of the screening committees.

III. INTERVIEWING PROCEDURES

When conducting employment interviews, the functions of the position should be kept in mind and not the image of the employee being replaced. The interviewing supervisor should evaluate the minimum education and experience required to allow someone to function in the position after completing a customary training period. The supervisor should keep in mind that the new employee will be subject to the provisions of the probationary employment policy. A new employee is not granted permanent status until the ability to function in the position is demonstrated. This period of probationary employment may last from three to nine months.

While different positions require different interviewing techniques in order to effectively match the best person with the position, all interviews should be conducted in a similar manner. To ensure that all applicants are given equal treatment, it is recommended that all applicants are consistently asked the same questions. This planned interview method will permit the supervisor to evaluate the applicant's responses objectively.

In the event the applicant is likely to be recommended for employment in a specific position, three letters of reference should be requested. These references should primarily include information on job performance, intellectual ability, quality of relationships with people, and career goals. The Personnel Division has the facility and expertise to investigate the references through telephone contacts if an immediate reference check is needed.

IV. EMPLOYMENT PROCEDURES

Final selection and employment recommendations are to be made at the Division level with appropriate input from higher authorities. In coordination with other interviewing supervisors or section heads, the Division Director should submit the employment request to the Deputy/Associate Controller or the Assistant State Superintendent for approval. This level of management will consult with the appropriate Affirmative Action Officer to ensure that positive affirmative action recruiting efforts have been conducted and that equal employment opportunity practices have been observed.

Special Note: For Regional based personnel within the Department of Public Instruction, the Regional Center Director should submit the employment recommendations on assigned staff to the Deputy State Superintendent for review. If approval is granted, that office will discuss the aspects of employment with the Department of Public Instruction's Affirmative Action Officer and will forward employment documents to the Personnel Director.

When the Deputy/Associate Controller or Deputy State Superintendent, or other official, and Affirmative Action Officer have officially approved the employment action, the employment request will be submitted to the Department head for final review. The employment request will then be routed to the Personnel Director. The Personnel Director will notify the Deputy State Superintendent, Region Director, Deputy/Associate Controller, or other authority designated when hiring may proceed. If modifications are made in the effective date, salary rate, etc. - the Division Director will be appropriately advised. The Division Director should contact the potential employee and confirm the employment commitment. In all employment actions, at least ten working days must be allowed between the time the written recommendation is made and the date for the employee to report for work. The hiring authority must keep in mind the necessary approval by the State Board of Education on employment actions involving positions at Salary Grade 70 and above.

Special Note: With regard to the Reduction-in-Force with the two agencies of the Department of Public Education and throughout State Government, that aspect must be considered before any employment action can occur. The Department has an obligation to give priority consideration to employees included in the Reduction-in-Force.

The Division Director, or authorized supervisor, should prepare the employment request directed to the Personnel Director with the understanding that approval is required at all levels of management before it can be officially acted on by the Personnel Division. The Department head or designee shall approve all employment requests for the respective department. Supervisors should avoid any commitment of employment to applicants until approval is given by levels.

Special Note: The letter to the Personnel Director requesting the employment of the individual recommended should provide the following information:

- . Employee's name
- . Effective date of employment
- . Salary recommendation
- . Justification of salary if above the hiring rate for position
- . If applicable to the State Board of Education agenda, a brief description of the general duties and responsibilities of this position must be included in the letter.

These items should be attached to the letter of employment recommendation:

- . Employment application (original and one copy)
- . Three references
- . Copy of new employee's Social Security card on 8½" x 11" paper
- . The completed Affirmative Action/Equal Employment form with appropriate signature indicating approval
- . Signature indicating approval by all levels of departmental management (these may be on the "letter of employment" if preferred).
- . Signature of the Departmental Budget Officer if salary reserve funds are required in processing this request.
- . Credentials verification
- . Wage and Hour Agreement, if applicable

Space should be provided on the letter for signatures indicating approval of appropriate authority;

- . Associate Controller, Deputy Controller, Assistant Superintendent, Deputy State Superintendent,
- . Affirmative Action Officer
- . Controller or State Superintendent or his designee
- . Division Directors should contact the departmental Personnel Director before making a final salary commitment for new employees.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR PROMOTIONS

- . The same routing procedure is required when promotions are recommended. The letter recommending the promotion of an employee should provide the specifics of effective date, salary recommendation, justification for promotion including how many employees were considered and the basis for this recommendation.
- . The Division of Personnel may request an updated employment application with the promotions if needed in justifying qualifications for the new position through the review of the employee's combined education and experience.

V. NOTIFICATION TO APPLICANTS

When a decision to fill a position has been finalized, all applicants shall be officially informed as early as possible. The Division Director shall correspond with or telephone the other applicants and advise them accordingly. The Division of Personnel will offer suggestions or samples for content or format with this correspondence if so requested. All applications should be immediately returned to the Division of Personnel for future reference and for inclusion in the official "personnel application" files. Please return all applications to the Division of Personnel within ten workdays after the "closing date" on the vacancy announcement.

NOTE: State Board of Education Agenda for the Controller's Office only --
It should be noted that all professional employees in positions at Salary Grade 70 and above are subject to approval by the State Board of Education. When negotiating employment, the Division Director should discuss this requirement with the individual selected and the first day of employment should be scheduled accordingly.

The Division Director should submit a "reported to work" letter to the Personnel Director on the new employee's first day of employment. If this date differs from the originally requested date, this should be brought to the attention of the Personnel Director to ensure proper salary payment.

On the first day of employment, the Division Director should contact the Division of Personnel to arrange an appointment for the new employee orientation program (about one-half hour).

VI. REDUCTION-IN-FORCE

Purpose

The purpose of the reduction-in-force policy is to provide equitable procedures and fair treatment for the separation and recall of employees because of shortage of funds or work, abolishment of a position, or other material change in duties or organization.

Policy

Retention of employees in classes affected shall be based on systematic consideration of all the following factors: type of appointment, relative efficiency, actual and/or potential adverse impact on protected group individuals, and length of service. Temporary, probationary, and trainee employees in their initial six months of training shall not be retained in classes where permanent employees (those who have completed a probationary or equivalent trial period) must be separated in the same or related class.

The Agency Head or his/her designee shall provide the following information in writing to the employee as soon as possible regarding the affects of the reduction-in-force and priority consideration rights.

- (1) the reason for the reduction-in-force.
- (2) the effective date of separation.
- (3) priority consideration and the process of recall if applicable.

The Division of Personnel shall provide technical assistance to management and employces in the event a reduction-in-force is necessary. The following resources will be provided:

- (1) the effect upon benefits.
- (2) the employee's priority status and re-employment consideration.
- (3) the availability of assistance in seeking other employment through the dissemination of vacancy announcements and establishing a cooperative effort with the Office of State Personnel for facilitating referral to other State Government placement opportunities.
- (4) the right of appeal to the State level for a review to assure that systematic procedures were applied.

Affirmative Action Statement

In accordance with federal guidelines affecting equal employment opportunity and affirmative action, any applications of the Reduction-In-Force Policy will be analyzed to determine its impact in this area. A goal of the Department of Public Education is to achieve full parity with the racial distribution of the population; therefore, all decisions concerning a reduction-in-force will be examined by management to ensure that they do not cause underutilization by race and sex or adversely impact any protected groups.

Alternatives to Layoffs to Minimize Damage to EEO Gain

To the extent that the agency can implement measures to avoid a Reduction-In-Force, alternatives will be considered and evaluated. These alternative include but are not limited to:

- agency wide hiring freeze.
- transfer of employees to an area where they may retrain or already possess the minimum skills to perform the job.

--- work sharing (to the extent that positions affected are conducive for such).

If after thorough consideration and evaluation, alternatives are not feasible or do not meet the department's needs, layoffs will be planned.

Balancing Relative Efficiency and Length of Service

When reduction-in-force are being accomplished through separation of an employee where funds have been deleted for that specific position, a relative efficiency evaluation is not necessary. If an employee is separated as part of a reduction in the number of employees within a unit or program, a thorough evaluation must be done. In doing the evaluation, the department will strive to strike a reasonable balance between employees relative efficiency and length of service considering all of the following:

- employee's work record (performance).
- employee's skills (capability of being transferred and/or retrained).
- length of service. This will not be used alone since there is no direct correlation between length of service and the ability to perform other tasks. Consequently, the agency's long range manpower needs will not be met in addition to a decrease in protected group representation or recent gains since minorities are usually the last hired. Length of service may be taken into consideration if a tie exists between two employees having comparable qualifications .

Reporting Procedures

The appointing authority (supervisor) will prepare a preliminary report to the appropriate management level and EEO Officer which identifies the protected group(s) where representation would be adversely affected by the lay off. This report will include an impact analysis of the reduction-in-force on the protected groups.

The report will include a description of the relevant divisions' status with regard to Affirmative Action goals including the area(s) in which reasonable representation has been achieved and additional areas in which particular difficulty in meeting Affirmative Action goals has been encountered. The report will include a list of documented attempts and alternatives actually utilized before effecting the layoff.

The preliminary report will be routed through the appropriate associate/assistant superintendent or deputy/associate/controller and the EEO Officer for their review and signature of approval. The report at this time will automatically become the Final Report and Final List for layoffs. A failure to obtain approval of the individuals listed above would indicate damage to EEO gains and signal the preparation of a new preliminary report and preliminary list with less damaging effects.

Procedures for Internal Dissemination of the Reduction-In-Force Policy

The Reduction-In-Force Policy will be disseminated to all Department of Public Education managers. The Policy will be included in the Agency Affirmative Action Plan and the Personnel Manual where it is accessible to all employees.

Other Reduction-In-Force Issues

Other policy and procedure items regarding reduction-in-force, not specifically addressed in the Department of Public Education's policy, will be implemented according to the State policy found in Section 5 of the State Personnel Manual.

Form 200

(Suggested Guidelines for Completing Personnel Form 200 for Employment Authorization)

This attached form is to be completed with each vacancy and routed to the Director, Division of Personnel.

It is the intent of the Division of Personnel to provide each area, division, or section with the kind of advertising that reaches the most applicants with the kinds of education, experience, and vocational interests that would make them interested in the employment opportunities with the Department of Public Education. In order to initiate this advertising, we feel that it is important that we provide the "General Duties" and the "Recruitment Standards" sufficiently clear to encourage the quality of applicant to apply for our vacant positions. These general suggestions and this attached "Request for Advertising" form are intended to make it easier for the assigned supervisor to put together the basic for a vacancy announcement. Upon request, the Division of Personnel will provide guidance and suggestions for developing any aspect of vacancy announcement. For the purpose of offering suggestions, we have provided the following suggestions for developing the two primary sections of a vacancy announcement:

General Duties: This section must provide a general statement and then by more detailed statements of the type of work and responsibilities which characterize the job. Distinguishing characteristics of the position such as variety and difficulty of work, relative independence of action, supervision received and exercised, travel requirements, etc. should be outlined. This can be followed with a listing of examples of duties performed which illustrate a more specific picture of the duties assigned to the position. This area is not intended to limit the duties which may be assigned to an employee in the position but is intended to give an employee a general outline of the responsibilities and functions of the position.

Recruitment Standards -- Qualifications: This section specifically addresses (a) knowledge, skills, and abilities -- qualifications established in terms of what is required of a new employee at the time of employment into the position. They represent the most desirable combinations of education and experience that have been determined essential to success in the classification and for this specific position; (b) minimum education and experience -- translates knowledge, skills, and abilities into specific education and experience standards necessary for the position. Again, these standards are intended for entry level with the understanding that on-the-job training will develop the new employee to the desired level; (c) special requirements -- address specific licensure, certifications, graduate degrees, minimum coursework requirements, etc. necessary for the particular position that will allow an employee to function at entry level. These special requirements must be justifiable and acceptable to the Office of State Personnel if this represents a major departure from the established recruitment standards for the classification.

This form should be reviewed by the levels of management who are responsible for recruitment and selection of employees. This signed form signifies that the Department Head has authorized this position for the advertising process.

If you need assistance in completing these forms, please call the Division of Personnel at 3-4300.
