ABSTRACT

An annotated listing of literacy materials from Saskatchewan includes items for use by new readers, tutors, and instructors. The annotations summarize the content and give the reading level of materials suitable for new readers. The bibliography consists of two sections. One covers Saskatchewan-produced titles and includes availability information; the other lists addresses of the producers or publishers of the materials. Examples of topics covered in the bibliography include the following: literacy manual; new writers' stories; Cree language activities; essay writing; teacher's guides; literacy tutor workshop manuals; picture dictionary; and a Cree language resource handbook with medical terminology. INTRODUCTION

This annotated bibliography is a listing of literacy materials produced in Saskatchewan. It includes literacy materials for use by new readers, tutors and instructors. The annotations summarize the content, and give the reading level of materials suitable for new readers.

The bibliography is divided into two sections. The first section is a list of Saskatchewan produced titles. Where possible we have listed their availability for purchase, loan, or duplication. Prices listed are subject to change. An asterisk (*) indicates the materials are available from Saskatchewan Provincial Library on interlibrary loan. The second section lists the addresses of the producers/publishers of these titles. Telephone and fax numbers are also included.

This publication was a cooperative project between the Saskatchewan Literacy Network and the Provincial Library. The project was made possible through funding by the National Literacy Secretariat.

We would like to thank the producers/publishers for their cooperation and donations of titles for the Library's collection.

The Library and the Network are interested in receiving information on any other Saskatchewan produced literacy publications.

This publication may be reproduced for other than resale purposes.
