ABSTRACT

This document presents a report on domestic violence and sexual assault in Alaska. An introduction includes vignettes and a review of the problems of domestic violence and sexual assault. National and state statistics are provided and it is noted that Alaska has the highest incidence of rape in the country. The next section describes major initiatives by the Council on Domestic Violence. The initiatives included funding for prison batterers' programs; a videotape for training law enforcement officials on the appropriate response to and investigation of domestic violence situations; and training for mid-level managers of the Alaska State Troopers on domestic violence and sexual assault. The next section describes programs on domestic violence and sexual assault funded by the Council on Domestic Violence. Two legislative issues are described: confidentiality of victim counseling and extension of the statute of limitations on child sexual abuse. Alaska laws on domestic violence and sexual assault are summarized. The appendix contains: (1) definitions of terms; (2) a list of programs that provide emergency shelter in safe homes and number of nights of safety provided by each program; (3) a chart of number of clients by program and client type; (4) statistics on number of clients by gender, age and race; and (5) service statistics indicating number of services received by clients in fiscal year 1991. INTRODUCTION

"He gave me a kitten as a gift. I got to where I really liked it. Then one day he started to touch me in private places. When I asked him to stop he picked up the kitten and twisted it's head off. He told me he would do that to my mom and dad if I told anyone what he was doing. I let him do what he wanted after that ... "

Quote from a 17 - year - old female who was sexually abused by an adult neighbor over a period of several years. From the Alaska State Troopers Report on Sexual Abuse & Sexual Exploitation, February, 1992.

"It is when my head makes contact with the wall that I freeze. Even with the fist coming at me again, I cannot move. I have not yet taken the behavioral psychology course and do not know that some animals flee when attacked. But I have my journal, which I write in feverishly, as though spilling my anger onto paper will stop the abuse. Planning to leave is a continuous source of strength, as each detail is gone over for the eightieth time in my mind. The problem is where can I go with my son that he will not find me? Who can I tell? The police just tell him to calm down. The judge says we must keep the family together. The family won't be together if he kills me, I want to scream. But the words get strangled in my throat, and again, I feel like it's all my fault; that I need to figure out the secret to make him stop."

A victim's journal ... From the National Conference on Domestic Violence/ National College of District Attorney's, Las Vegas, Nevada, October, 1991

"Violence has reached epidemic proportions as a public health problem in America. In fact, the Center for Disease Control has designated interpersonal violence as a major public health problem with the same kind of tolls in loss of life and cost to society as cancer and heart disease.

It permeates every corner of our land. It destroys our cities. It destroys our communities and it destroys our families.

And when I talk about violence, I am not just talking about street-crime or other intentionally criminal activities. I am also talking about the half of all homicide victims who are killed by people they know.

I am talking about the more than two million cases of child abuse and neglect reported each year.

I am talking about the fact that the home is actually a more dangerous place for American women than the city streets!

In other words, I am talking about family violence, violence that occurs between people who are intimate with each other."

Antonia C. Novello, M.D. M.P.H., Surgeon General, October 16, 1991

Domestic violence and sexual assault continue to be major problems in our country and our state. People continue to be killed, beaten and raped in record numbers. Violent crime in general is increasing, including violent crimes against women. Since 1974, the rate of assaults against young women (ages 20 - 24) has risen almost 50%; for young men it has decreased. Data from the National Crime Survey shows that women are the victims of violent crime committed by family members at a rate three times that for men. Also, according to the Survey, spouses or ex-spouses commit more than half of all violent crimes committed by relatives against women.

A woman is beaten every 18 seconds and 4,000 battered women are killed every year in the United States. Nationwide, more than one million abused women each year seek medical assistance for injuries caused by battering. In Alaska, 26% of adult women have been physically abused by a spouse sometime during their lives and most of the battered women were abused at least once a month. It is estimated that a minimum of 13,200 women living in Alaska have required medical treatment by a doctor or hospital for injuries sustained by abuse at some time in their life. In 1990, fifty percent of female murder victims in Alaska were killed by their husbands or boyfriends. More than half of all homeless women are on the street because they are fleeing domestic violence. There are nearly three times as many animal shelters in the United States as there are battered women shelters.

Children raised in violent homes suffer the effects of living in this environment and are at higher risk for physical and sexual abuse. Children raised in violent homes are 1500% more likely to be physically abused or seriously neglected. Nearly fifty percent of abusive husbands batter their wives when they are pregnant, making these battered women four times more likely to bear infants of low birth weight. These women also have twice as many miscarriages as non-battered women.

Responses to sexual assault have been improved, but sexual violence against women continues to rise. The most serious crimes against women are rising at a significantly faster rate than total crime. During the past 10 years rape rates have risen nearly four times as fast as the total crime rate. According to a study compiled by staff of the Alaska Senate Judiciary Committee (August 29, 1990) 25 million of all of the American women alive today either have been or will be raped at least once during their lives. More than 40% of college women who have been raped say that they expect to be raped again. There were more women "wounded" by rapists last year than Marines wounded by the enemy in all of World War II. Of all those arrested for major crimes (murder, rape, robbery, assault, burglary, larceny theft, motor vehicle theft, and arson) rapists are the most likely to escape conviction. In 1950, police caught 83% of all rapists; in 1988, they caught only 53% of them.

According to "Crime Reported in Alaska, 1990, Uniform Crime Reporting, Department of Public Safety," Alaska continues to have one of the highest incidences of rape in the country. In 1990 in Alaska, there were 413 reported cases of rape, a 49.1% increase over 1989. Of the 413 reported cases, 86% were forcible rape and 14% were attempts to rape. Rapes accounted for 14.5% of all violent crimes and 1.5% of the total crime index. The month of June showed the highest frequency of rapes with 42, and February had the lowest frequency with 22. The 1990 Alaska rate for reported forcible sexual assault against adult women was 73 per 100,000 compared to a national rate of 41 per 100,000. The age group of 30-34 accounted for the highest percentage (21%) of persons arrested for forcible rape.

Violence against young women has also increased. Young women aged 16 - 19 are the most likely to be raped. The average age of a rape victim is 18½ years old. Girls who are raped before age 18 are least likely to report their victimization to police. According to data provided by a criminological study conducted in 1990, rape remains the most under-reported of all major crimes; it is estimated that only 7% of all rapes are reported to police.

The report from the U.S. Attorney General's Task Force on Family Violence states that "Shelters are an important resource for a diverse group of victims of family violence who must leave home to escape life-threatening abuse and have nowhere else to go." Among the most important services shelters offer for battered women and their children are immediate safety, counseling, referrals to alcohol and drug treatment programs and assistance in seeking employment and permanent housing. Services for victims of domestic violence and their children are crucial in order to save lives and reduce the pain and suffering caused by these crimes. Victims of sexual assault must receive crisis intervention services so they can overcome the trauma. Without assistance, they may continue to relive the event and live in fear for their life and safety.

Services for child victims must be available to help them cope with the horrors they have encountered. Children from violent homes suffer emotional and physical disorders as a result of their family situations. Many of these children are victims of physical and sexual abuse, who need to be protected and helped. Helping these children will not only ease the pain, but also prevent future problems. Alcohol and other drug abuse, suicide and criminal behavior are often caused by abuse suffered in childhood. Services for children are important to stop the cycle of abuse.

Treatment for batterers, by trained providers, is essential to protect the victim. Gondolf and Russell, noted authorities in the field of domestic violence, describe wife abuse as a husband's actions to destroy his wife's self esteem. Men batter to control. Experience has shown that most battered women return to the violent relationships. Lack of financial resources to live independently is one of the many reasons they return. The number of programs that provide services for batterers are increasing. Without counseling, violence in these relationships generally becomes more frequent and severe, often resulting in death.

Alaska is fortunate to have a comprehensive, coordinated system for addressing the pain and suffering caused by family violence. In FY92, the Council on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault is funding 24 community-based programs to provide services to victims of domestic violence and their families. These programs also provide important educational services to their communities as well as outlying communities. Without an all-out effort by community members, family violence will not be stopped.

In FY91, Council-funded programs served 11,009 clients. 8,373 of these clients were victims of domestic violence and their children. These victims and their children were provided 50,918 nights of safety in shelters or safe homes. The urgent need for these services can be seen in the numbers of clients as well as the tremendous increases in demand for services. Since FY87, the number of nights of safety provided to program clients has increased by 39%.

The mission of the Council on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault is to provide immediate safety and support to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault in life-threatening situations and to reduce the incidence of domestic violence and sexual assault in Alaska. The Council accomplishes this through serving as a funding agency for community-based programs. The Council processes applications for funding and monitors programs that receive grants and provides technical assistance to programs and other community groups. It also serves as a planning and coordinating agency for domestic violence and sexual assault services provided by various agencies. This report presents major Council initiatives in 1991, describes programs funded by the Council, presents statistical data gathered from programs in FY91, and identifies issues of concern and possible solutions.

MAJOR COUNCIL INITIATIVES IN 1991

1. Coordination

Coordination of services with local, state and national agencies is one of the Council's major roles. The Council has four State members representing the Departments of Law, Education, Public Safety, and Health and Social Services. In addition, there are three public members who bring their unique backgrounds and talents from diverse areas of the state. The makeup of the Council encourages coordination by combining the knowledge, experience and programmatic resources of its members so that issues of domestic violence and sexual assault can be addressed in a comprehensive and effective manner.

In 1991, the Council continued to be involved in coordination activities. An Injury Prevention Coalition was established in 1990 by the Department of Health and Social Services, Division of Public Health. The purpose of the Coalition is to develop strategies to reduce injuries in Alaska. The former Executive Director of the Council served as Chair of the Intentional Injuries Committee, which met to develop strategies to prevent intentional injuries such as domestic violence, homicides, sexual assaults, physical assaults, self-destructive behavior and suicides.

Through a Reimbursable Services Agreement with the Department of Corrections (DOC), the Council funded and monitored prison batterers' programs in Juneau, Fairbanks and Nome in 1991. The focus of these programs is to offer inmates, especially those convicted of violent crimes or who were victimized themselves, alternatives to aggression. The Council also provided training for prison batterers' program staff as well as DOC staff. Following are the amounts of funding provided to each prison batterers' program in FY92:

| Facility | Program Name | Amount Funded |
| Fairbanks Correctional Center Anvil Mountain Correctional Center (Nome) | Women In Crisis - Counseling & Assistance Bering Sea Women's Group | $28,300 36,800 |
| Lemon Creek Correctional Center (Juneau) | Tongass Community Counseling Center | 43,600 |

In addition to routine coordination activities, the Council and its staff:

- * Participated in coordination meetings for the Alcohol/Mental Health/Interpersonal Violence Conference held in Anchorage in May, 1991.
- * Coordinated with the Departments of Health & Social Services and Education to assist school districts in complying with legislative requirements to develop curricula and provide training to employees in identifying and responding to cases of child abuse, neglect and mental injury. Reviewed and commented on curricula sent to the Council by school districts as required by AS 47.17.020.

- * Sponsored a training session on sexual assault services and prevention services. The training was coordinated by the Alaska Network on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault and was held in Anchorage in June, 1991. Council members and the Executive Director participated in panel discussions and made presentations at the training sessions. Staff from programs throughout the state attended the training.
- * Worked with the Alaska Network on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault on program training, coordination and legislation.
- * Assisted in funding a videotape for training of law enforcement officials on the appropriate response to and investigation of domestic violence situations. The video is being produced by the Anchorage Police Department and will be available for use statewide.
- * Provided training on domestic violence and sexual assault for mid-level managers of the Alaska State Troopers and by teleconference to the North Pacific Rim Native Corporation.
- 2. Planning of Services for Victims of Domestic Violence or Sexual Assault, Their Families, and Perpetrators of Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault

The Council has established regulations that require funded programs to establish local plans. The Council provides technical assistance, as requested, in developing local plans.

3. Public Meetings and Hearings

The Council held seven meetings in 1991. All Council meetings are advertised and open to the public.

4. Staffing and Budget

The Council maintained a full-time Executive Director, Program Coordinator, Statistical Technician and Secretary for all of FY91. The former Executive Director resigned effective September 1, 1991, and the position remained vacant for the rest of the year. During this time the Program Coordinator served as Acting Executive Director. The new Executive Director was selected in late November, 1991, and began work in mid-January, 1992.

In FY91, the Council expended the following:

PERSONNEL:

$238,900

Council Office

TRAVEL:

58,200

Program evaluations, Council meetings (7 Council members and staff), and limited training travel for staff of Council-funded programs

| CONTRACTUAL SERVICES: Telephone, printing, word processing, copying, etc. | 36,400 |
| SUPPLIES AND MATERIALS: Council office supplies, films and domestic violence and sexual assault pamphlets for distribution | 4,200 |
| MACHINERY/EOUIPMENT: | 3,900 |
| GRANTS: Grants to community-based programs | 5,465,900 |
| TOTAL | $5,807,500 |

The Council's administrative costs are extremely low. In FY91, 94% of the Council's total funding went to community-based grantees. The Council's operational costs for FY92 will remain at 6%, which is much less than other comparable State agencies. Lack of administrative resources meant that not all programs could be evaluated in 1991 (See Evaluations, pg. 8), and there were limited resources for printing and technical assistance materials.

The Council's FY91 expenditures included $309,400 in federal funds ($259,400 from the Victims of Crime Act and $50,000 from the Family Violence Prevention Services Act). In addition, the Council received $119,349 from a Reimbursable Services Agreement from the Department of Corrections to fund and administer batterers' programs in prisons, and $7,349 from a Reimbursable Services Agreement from the Department of Health and Social Services to provide rape prevention training.

5. Capital and Special Grants

Several programs received capital appropriations in 1991 totalling $276,200. By program and location, these capital projects are as follows:

| Abused Women Aid In Crisis (AWAIC) - Anchorage | $ 50,000 |
| for shelter repairs/health safety improvements Aiding Women from Abuse & Rape Emergencies (AWARE) - Juneau | 27,000 |
| for shelter equipment | ŕ |
| Kodiak Women's Resource & Crisis Center (KWRCC) - Kodiak | 15,000 |
| for building upgrade Valley Women's Resource Center (VWRC) - Palmer | 44,000 |
| for remodeling | 44,000 |
| Women In Crisis-Counseling & Assistance (WIC-CA) - Fairbanks | 65,000 |
| for repairs and deferred maintenance | 55.000 |
| Women In Safe Homes (WISH) - Ketchikan | 75,200 |
| for building improvements | • |

6. Development of Educational Materials on the Cause, Prevention and Treatment of Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault

The Council makes its film library available and distributes pamphlets, upon request, to any agency in Alaska. Materials that are routinely distributed are the Council's Sexual Assault Curriculum and companion videotapes for grades K-6 and 7-12 and the booklet "Village to Village" and its accompanying videotape.

The Council finalized a technical assistance manual for mental health professionals funded by the Division of Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities in the Department of Health and Social Services. The manual provides general information and suggested assessment and treatment procedures for clients with the issues of domestic violence, sexual assault and child sexual abuse. Because the manual serves as a basic reference text, it was also distributed to all Council-funded programs.

7. Data System

The Council developed and implemented a standardized data collection system for its funded programs in July, 1982. In FY91, current data was entered for all programs. Computer reports were distributed to programs and anyone else requesting the information. The data system was improved and modified to take advantage of software upgrades, as well as changes in reporting requirements from other agencies. Prior to 1990, demographic data could only be provided for clients who began to receive services in the current year. In 1990, a program was developed so that the Council can describe race, age and sex of all clients receiving services, not just new clients. The Council office provided statistical information to State, federal and local agencies as requested.

8. Regulations

The Council has adopted regulations for grant administration and for program standards. At the February, 1991 meeting, the Council adopted amendments to the regulations to require Council-funded programs to provide staff with training in the reporting of child abuse and neglect, and to make them consistent with other changes in State law.

9. Evaluations and Audits

The Council staff monitored all funded programs through written fiscal and narrative reports. Due to limited travel and personnel funds, it is not possible to conduct yearly evaluations for all programs. For those programs that have been in existence for three years and received good evaluations, have no known problems and have maintained the same director for at least a year, an on-site evaluation is not done annually. Most on-site evaluations are conducted in the late summer and fall. With the absence of an Executive Director for the last four months of the year, on-site program evaluations were conducted for only 9 programs in 1991.

The on-site evaluations of programs funded by the Council were conducted by the Program Coordinator or the Executive Director; these visits averaged $2\frac{1}{2}$ days per program. Each evaluation included interviews with program staff and volunteers, relevant community agencies, clients and the governing board. Each program's policy and procedure manuals, client files, and other materials pertinent to compliance with State regulations and grant award conditions were reviewed. After each on-site visit, a report outlining findings and making recommendations for change was completed.

10. Technical Assistance

The Council provides domestic violence and sexual assault information to any group or individual requesting it. The Council and its staff understand the importance of assisting community groups and programs, particularly in rural areas, to improve services to meet local needs. Technical assistance is provided through telephone calls, by written materials, and through on-site visits as travel resources permit.

COUNCIL-FUNDED PROGRAMS

The Council on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault awarded grants to twenty-four community programs for FY92 for a total of $5,422,600. This includes $376,100 in federal funds ($326,100 from the Victims of Crime Act and $50,000 from the Family Violence Prevention Services Act).

Domestic violence and sexual assault programs funded by the Council provide many services to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault, their families, batterers, and the communities they serve. These programs and the comprehensive range of services they provide are crucial in helping victims and their families survive the trauma caused by domestic violence and sexual assault. Shelters and safe homes provide safety for victims and their children in life-threatening situations. Crisis lines and crisis counseling assist them in dealing with the immediate trauma caused by violence.

However, these safety and crisis services do not sufficiently address the problems of domestic violence and sexual assault. Victims of domestic violence and sexual assault also need support when they go to the hospital or when they interact with the criminal justice system. These experiences are often overwhelming, particularly for people who have recently suffered a major trauma. Many victims, particularly those living in isolated communities, do not have resources available to assist them in reshaping their lives. Victims in rural areas of the state often have difficulty learning about services and getting to them when needed. They need information about, referrals to, and often advocacy in seeking financial and other support. They also need emotional support to assist them to gain self-esteem and strength.

Providing safety and crisis services and assisting and supporting victims is crucial, but is not itself enough to stop the cycle of violence. Children's programs are needed, so children can learn that aggression is not an appropriate pattern of behavior. Children from violent homes often experience emotional, psychological and physical problems. They need support, advocacy and counseling so they may grow up to be healthy, happy adults. Victims of child sexual assault and non-offending family members need intervention services to help them through the crisis when abuse has been disclosed. They also need ongoing support during an investigation or trial as well as long term treatment to reduce the trauma of abuse.

Programs for batterers are also needed. Experience shows that battered women return to violent relationships for several reasons, including the lack of sufficient financial resources to live independently. Without counseling for batterers, violence in these relationships becomes more frequent and severe, often resulting in death. Even if the victim leaves a violent relationship, the offender will carry the pattern of violence to the next relationship unless new behaviors are learned.

Communities as a whole must be educated to realize that domestic violence and sexual assault are totally unacceptable. People in all situations should understand the underlying causes of domestic violence and sexual assault and work toward eradicating behaviors that contribute to these problems. Helping agencies and law enforcement entities need to be informed of the dynamics and causes of domestic violence and sexual assault and be aware of appropriate techniques for intervention and prevention.

Following is a list of programs funded by the Council in FY92, grant amounts, a comparison with FY91 funding, and a synopsis of the services provided by each program.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND SEXUAL ASSAULT LEGISLATIVE ISSUES

The Council on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault continues to support the revision of statutes so that victims of domestic violence will be further protected. Areas of specific interest to the Council in 1991 were:

1. Confidentiality of Victim Counseling

Domestic violence and sexual assault programs have identified the need to develop legislation that makes victim counseling legally privileged and not subject to defense discovery or subpoena. This type of legislation is important because it protects victims from further abuse by the system. If the confidential communications exchanged between victims and counselors during treatment can be used as evidence in criminal proceedings, counseling may not benefit victims, and, in fact, may add to their trauma. Victims often speak to their counselors about fears and feelings arising from the crime. Those who are under the impression that they are revealing such information solely for therapeutic purposes often feel betrayed when their counselors are compelled to disclose their communication before the public at an open trial. Victims who realize in advance that their communications may be subject to disclosure may avoid counseling altogether. The President's Task Force on Victims of Crime recommended that legislation be enacted making designated victim counseling legally privileged.

2. Extension of the Statute of Limitations on Child Sexual Abuse.

The Council's attention was drawn to this particular issue with the revelation that several victims of child sexual abuse in the village of Tununak who are now adults were unable to face what had happened to them prior to the expiration of the statute of limitations. Current law requires that child sexual abuse be reported no later than five years after the occurrence or before the victim's seventeenth birthday. For a child of twelve years of age or younger, the shame and hurt of victimization may be overwhelming and they may be unable to report the assaults immediately.

For the majority of child sexual abuse victims, the crime perpetrated against them is such that as a child or teenager, they are not able to deal with what has occurred. The nature of the crime is one of shame and embarrassment for the victim, who is often bound to secrecy by the perpetrator. It is not until the victim becomes an adult that he or she may realize that what happened to them was not their fault and in fact was a criminal offense. Many victims will suppress the memory of the abuse until they have reached adulthood and can fully appreciate the fact that they were victims of a criminal act. Unfortunately, child sexual abuse is usually not a one-time occurrence for the perpetrator. The victim must sometimes endure feelings of anger, sadness or even guilt that results from seeing others victimized by their perpetrator because the statute of limitations expired and they could not bring the offender to justice.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND SEXUAL ASSAULT ALASKA LAWS

Through the years, the Legislature and Executive Branch have enacted innovative legislation and policies to address domestic violence and sexual assault in Alaska. Following is a summary of many of the laws enacted in Alaska that are related to domestic violence and sexual assault.

AS 18.66.010-18.66.900. DOMESTIC VIOLENCE/SEXUAL ASSAULT PROGRAMS. The Council on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault was established in the Department of Public Safety to provide for planning and coordination of services to victims of domestic violence or sexual assault, their families and the perpetrators and to provide for crisis intervention and prevention programs. The Council was established through the efforts of many dedicated parties, particularly the Alaska Network on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault, which is a professional organization of domestic violence/ sexual assault program directors.

The Council's mandates are to:

- develop, implement, maintain and monitor domestic violence, sexual assault and crisis intervention and prevention programs, including educational films and school curricula on the cause, prevention and treatment of domestic violence and sexual assault;
- coordinate domestic violence/sexual assault services among the Departments of Law, Education, Public Safety, Health and Social Services and other State and community agencies and provide technical assistance as requested;
- develop and implement a standardized data collection system;
- conduct public hearings and studies on issues relating to violence and crisis intervention and prevention;
- receive and dispense State and federal money to qualified local community entities for domestic violence, sexual assault and crisis intervention and prevention programs;
- oversee and audit domestic violence, sexual assault and crisis intervention and prevention programs; and
- adopt regulations to carry out the purposes of the law.

AS 09.10.060 and AS 09.10.140. RECOVERY OF DAMAGES FOR SEXUAL ABUSE. A victim of sexual abuse must commence an action for recovery of damages for an injury or condition suffered as a result of the sexual abuse against the perpetrator within three years after the injury. If the victim is under the age of majority or incompetent by reason of mental illness, the time of disability or minority is not part of the time limit. If a disability exists, the time period an action may be brought is not extended longer than two years after the disability ceases. An action may be brought more than three years after the victim reaches the age of majority if the action is brought within three years after the victim discovered that one act of sexual abuse or the series of acts caused the injury or condition.

AS 11.41.100. MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE. One of the ways a person commits the crime of murder in the first degree is if a person knowingly engages, under circumstances manifesting extreme indifference to the value of human life, in a pattern or practice of assault or torture of a child under the age of 16, and one of the acts of assault or torture results in the death of the child. A person "engages in a pattern or practice of assault or torture" if the person inflicts serious physical injury to the child by at least two separate acts, and one of the acts results in the death of the child. Murder in the first degree is an unclassified felony.

AS 11.41.410. SEXUAL ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE. Sexual assault in the first degree can be committed in one of three ways: 1) engaging in sexual penetration without consent of the victim (commonly referred to as rape); 2) attempting to engage in sexual penetration without consent of the victim and causing serious physical injury; or, 3) engaging in sexual penetration with someone the defendant knows is mentally incapable and is entrusted to the defendant's care by authority of law or in a facility licensed by the Department of Health and Social Services. First-degree sexual assault is an unclassified felony.

AS 11.41.420. SEXUAL ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE. Sexual assault in the second degree can be committed in one of three ways: 1) engaging in sexual contact without consent; or 2) engaging in sexual contact with someone who the offender knows is mentally incapable and is entrusted to the offender's care by authority of law or in a facility licensed by the Department of Health and Social Services; or 3) engaging in sexual penetration with a person who the offender knows is mentally incapable or incapacitated. Second-degree sexual assault is a class B felony.

AS 11.41.425. SEXUAL ASSAULT IN THE THIRD DEGREE. A person commits sexual assault in the third degree by engaging in sexual contact with a person the offender knows is mentally incapable or incapacitated. Sexual assault in the third degree is a class C felony.

AS 11.41.432. DEFENSES. In a prosecution under AS 11.41.410 or AS 11.41.420, it is not generally a defense that the victim was, at the time of the alleged offense, the legal spouse of the defendant.

AS 11.41.434-440. SEXUAL ABUSE OF A MINOR. There are four degrees of sexual abuse of a minor. Sexual abuse of a minor in the first degree can be committed in one of three ways: 1) a person who is 16 years of age or older engages in sexual penetration with someone under 13 years of age or aids, induces, causes or encourages a person under 13 to engage in sexual penetration with another person; 2) a person 18 years of age or older engages in sexual penetration with a a person under 18 years of age and the offender is the victim's natural parent, step-parent, adopted parent or legal guardian; or, 3) a person 18 years of age or older, engages in sexual penetration with a person who is under 16 years of age and who is residing in the same household as the offender and the offender has authority over the victim or the offender occupies a position of authority in relation to the victim. Position of authority is defined in AS 11.41.470. Sexual abuse of a minor in the first degree is an unclassified felony.

Sexual abuse of a minor in the second degree can be committed in one of five ways: 1) when a person who is 16 or older engages in sexual penetration with a person who is 13, 14, or 15 and at least 3 years younger than the offender, or aids, induces or causes such a person to engage in sexual penetration with another; 2) sexual contact between a person 16 or older and a person under 13 or a person 16 or older induces a person under 13 years of age to engage in sexual contact with another; 3) sexual contact between a person 18 or older and a person under 18 and the offender is the victim's natural parent, step-parent, adopted parent or legal guardian; 4) a person 16 or older aids, induces or causes a person under 16 to engage in prohibited sexual acts to produce child pornography; or 5) being 18 years of age or older, the offender engages in sexual cortact with a person who is under 16 years of age and the victim is residing in the same household as the offender and the offender has authority over the victim or the offender occupies a position of authority in relation to the victim. Sexual abuse of a minor in the second degree is a Class B felony.

Sexual abuse of a minor in the third degree is sexual contact between an offender 16 or older and a victim 13, 14, or 15 who is at least 3 years younger than the offender or sexual penetration between an offender who is at least 18 years old and occupies a position of authority in relation to the victim who is at least three years younger than the offender and is 16 or 17 years old. Sexual abuse of a minor in the third degree is a class C felony.

Sexual abuse of a minor in the fourth degree is sexual penetration or contact between an offender under 16 and victim under 13 who is at least 3 years younger than the offender or sexual contact between an offender who occupies a position of authority in relation to the victim and is at least 18 years of age with a person 16 or 17 who is at least three years younger than the offender. Sexual abuse of a minor in the fourth degree is a class A misdemeanor.

AS 11.41.445. GENERAL PROVISIONS. In a prosecution under AS 11.41.434-440 it is an affirmative defense that, at the time of the alleged offense, the victim was the legal spouse of the defendant, unless the offense was committed without the consent of the victim.

AS 11.41.450. INCEST. A person commits incest if, being 18 or older, the person engages in sexual penetration with a person who is related. Incest is a class C felony.

AS 11.41.455. UNLAWFUL EXPLOITATION OF A MINOR. Exploitation includes using a child under 18 as the subject of pornographic material. Unlawful exploitation of a minor is a class B felony.

AS 11.41.460. INDECENT EXPOSURE. If the offender intentionally exposes his or her genitals to another with reckless disregard for the effect that act has on others, it is considered indecent exposure. Indecent exposure before a person under 16 years of age is a class A misdemeanor. Indecent exposure before a person 16 years of age or older is a class B misdemeanor.

AS 11.46.320-330 and AS 11.46.350. CRIMINAL TRESPASS. A person commits the crime of criminal trespass by entering or remaining upon premises or in a propelled vehicle in violation of a domestic violence restraining order issued under AS 25.35.010(b) or AS 25.35.020.

AS 11.56.740. VIOLATING A DOMESTIC VIOLENCE RESTRAINING ORDER. The crime of violating a restraining order can be committed by knowingly violating a domestic violence injunctive relief order that restrains the person from communicating directly or indirectly with another and the contact is made by someone who had subjected another to domestic violence as found by the court at the time the restraining order was issued. Violating a domestic violence restraining order is a class A misdemeanor.

AS 11.61.200. MISCONDUCT INVOLVING WEAPONS IN THE FIRST DEGREE. Among other things, a person commits the crime of misconduct involving weapons in the first degree if the person trespasses by entering or remaining unlawfully on premises or in a propelled vehicle in violation of a domestic violence restraining order and during the violation possesses on the person a deadly weapon other than an ordinary pocketknife; or communicates with another person in knowing violation of a domestic violence restraining order after a court has found that the defendant had subjected another to domestic violence and during the communication possesses on the person a deadly weapon other than an ordinary pocketknife. The crime of misconduct involving a weapon in the first degree is a Class C felony.

AS 12.10.020(c). TIME LIMITATIONS ON PROSECUTION. Even if the general time limitation (five years) has expired, a prosecution under AS 11.41.410 - 11.41.460, AS 11.66.110-130, former AS 11.41.430 or former AS 11.51.130 (a)(4) of an offense committed against a person under 16 may be commenced one year after the crime is reported to a peace officer or the person reaches the age of 16, whichever occurs first. However, the period of limitation is not extended by more than five years.

AS 12.25.030(b). GROUNDS FOR ARREST BY PRIVATE PERSON OR PEACE OFFICER WITHOUT A WARRANT. A peace officer without a warrant may arrest a person when the officer has reasonable cause to believe that the person has committed a crime under AS 11.41 (offenses against the person), 11.46.330 (criminal trespass in the second degree), or 11.61.120 (harassment), or has violated an ordinance with elements substantially similar to the elements of a crime under the above-mentioned statutes, against a member of the person's household, someone who lives or previously lived in a spousal relationship with the person who committed the crime, or a parent, grandparent, child or grandchild of the person who committed the crime.

AS 12.30.025. RELEASE BEFORE TRIAL IN CASES INVOLVING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE. In determining conditions of release before trial in cases involving domestic violence, the court shall consider and impose one or more of the following conditions it considers necessary to protect the victim, including ordering the defendant not to subject the victim to further violence; to vacate the home of the victim; not to contact the victim other than through counsel; to engage in counseling (if the court directs the defendant to engage in personal counseling, the court shall provide in the order that the counseling must propose alternatives to aggression if that type of counseling is available; if the court directs the defendant to participate in family counseling, it shall make a finding that family counseling will not result in additional domestic violence) and to refrain from the consumption of alcohol and other drugs.

AS 12.30.040. RELEASE AFTER CONVICTION. A person may not be released on bail after conviction of an unclassified or Class A felony, pending an appeal or sentencing.

AS 12.40.110. HEARSAY EVIDENCE IN PROSECUTIONS FOR SEXUAL OFFENSES. In a prosecution for an offense under AS 11.41.410-440 or AS 11.41.455, hearsay evidence of a statement related to the offense, not otherwise admissible, made by a child who is the victim of the offense may be admitted into evidence before the grand jury if: 1) circumstances indicate its reliability; 2) the child is under 10; 3) additional evidence is introduced to corroborate the statement; 4) the child testifies at the grand jury proceedings or will be available to testify at the trial.

AS 12.45.045. EVIDENCE OF PAST SEXUAL CONDUCT. In trials of sexual assault in any degree, sexual abuse of a minor in any degree, unlawful exploitation of a minor, or an attempt to commit any of these crimes, evidence of the alleged victim's previous sexual conduct is not admissible nor shall reference be made to it except when a defendant applies for an order of the court. The court shall conduct a hearing in camera to determine if value of evidence outweighs undue prejudice, confusion of the issues or invasion of the victim's privacy.

AS 12.45.046. TESTIMONY OF CHILDREN IN CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS. In a criminal proceeding under AS 11.41 that involves the prosecution of an offense committed against a child under the age of 13 or witnessed by a child under the age of 13, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem for the child and/or may order that the child's testimony be taken by closed circuit TV or through one-way mirrors if the court determines that the testimony by the child would result in the child's inability to effectively communicate. The law lists the factors to be considered in determining whether to use closed circuit TV or one-way mirrors, who may be in the room with the child testifying and who may question the child. The law also discusses other ways to safeguard the child testifying in a court room from emotional harm or stress.

AS 12.45.120. AUTHORITY TO COMPROMISE MISDEMEANORS FOR WHICH A VICTIM HAS CIVIL ACTION. Although compromising a misdemeanor by civil remedy is allowed in certain instances, it is prohibited when the crime was committed against a spouse, former spouse, certain relatives, a member of the social unit or someone who previously lived in a spousal relationship with the defendant.

AS 12.55.045. PAYMENT OF CRIMINAL FINES AND RESTITUTION. Restitution may be paid to a victim or a public, private or non-profit organization that has provided counseling, medical or shelter services to the victim, or as otherwise authorized by law.

AS 12.55.155(d). MITIGATING FACTORS. In a conviction for assault or attempted assault or for homicide or attempted homicide, if the defendant acted in response to domestic violence perpetrated by the victim against the defendant and the domestic violence consisted of aggravated or repeated instances of assaultive behavior, the court may consider this in sentencing and may mitigate the presumptive term set out in AS 12.55.125.

AS 12.61.010-030. CRIME VICTIMS' RIGHTS. (Also see AS 09.05.050, AS 09.38.030(c), AS 09.38.065(a), AS 09.55.601, AS 12.47.095, AS 12.55.023, AS 12.55.088, AS 12.55.172, AS 12.55.185, AS 12.61.900, AS 33.16.110-120, AS 33.16.150, AS 33.16.260, AS 33.20.080, AS 33.30.013, AS 33.30.111, AS 33.30.292, AS 33.30.901, AS 47.10.070, AS 47.10.072, AS 47.10.081, AS 47.10.990 and Alaska Rules of Criminal Procedure.) These sections delineate victims' rights regarding trials, notices of pending hearings and actions, presentence reports, sentencing, compensation, medical assistance, notification and comment upon prisoner parole and release, notification to victim of prisoner's escape, and sets out duties of prosecuting attorneys to victims.

AS 12.61.100-150. CONFIDENTIALITY OF VICTIM AND WITNESS INFORMATION. These sections prohibit the unnecessary disclosure of the identities, addresses and telephone numbers of victims of or witnesses to crimes. Documents related to a crime in the custody of a public official may not be made available unless the residence, business address and telephone numbers of victims and witnesses have been deleted. When a defendant is represented by counsel, a victim's or witnesses' telephone number and address may be released to counsel, but the court shall order the defendant's counsel not to disclose the information to the defendant. If the defendant is proceeding without counsel, and the court finds the defendant may pose a continuing threat to the victim, the court shall specify a person to receive the information about the address and phone number of a victim or witness. This person shall be ordered not to disclose the information to the defendant and the defendant shall meet or speak with the victim or witness in the presence of that person. If a person representing the defendant contacts the victim, the person shall clearly inform the victim of the person's identity and association with the defendant, that the victim does not have to talk to the person unless the victim wishes and that the victim may have a prosecuting attorney or other person present during an interview. Unless the court determines the information is relevant, a victim or witness may not be required to provide addresses or telephone numbers in response to questioning in open court. This law also provides for other protections of a victim's identity, address or phone numbers during and after the court process.

AS 12.62.035. ACCESS TO CERTAIN CRIME INFORMATION. An employer may request from the Department of Public Safety records of all felony convictions, convictions for contributing to the delinquency of a minor and convictions involving any sex crimes of a person who holds or applies for a position in which the person has or would have supervisory or disciplinary power over a minor or dependent adult. The Department of Public Safety shall disclose the information to the requesting person and to the person who is subject to the request.

AS 14.30.360. PERSONAL SAFETY CURRICULUM. Each school district in the state shall be encouraged to conduct a program in health education for kindergarten through grade 12. Among other things, the program should include instruction in personal safety, including the identification and prevention of child abuse, abduction, neglect, sexual abuse and domestic violence. The State Board shall establish guidelines for a health and personal safety education program. Personal safety guidelines shall be developed in consultation with the Council on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault.

AS 18.05.037. FETAL HEALTH EFFECTS. The Department of Health and Social Services shall make information about fetal alcohol effects and the fetal health effects of chemical abuse and battering during pregnancy available to public hospitals, clinics and other health facilities for distribution to their patients. Written information about these effects, including the effects of battering during pregnancy, shall also be given with marriage licenses.

AS 18.65.510. DOMESTIC VIOLENCE TRAINING. Each established police training program in the state is required to provide training that acquaints police officers with: 1) laws and rules of criminal procedure relating to domestic violence; 2) techniques for handling domestic violence incidents to promote the safety of the victim and the officer and reduce the likelihood of recurrence; 3) organizations in the state that offer aid or shelter to victims; 4) injunctive relief orders; and 5) the notification to be given to victims under AS 18.65.520.

AS 18.65.520. NOTIFICATION TO VICTIMS. Police officers responding to a domestic violence offense are required to inform the victim of services and the victim's rights as listed in this statute. Services include shelter programs, temporary restraining orders, and victim/ witness programs.

AS 18.67.010-180. VIOLENT CRIMES COMPENSATION BOARD. This statute permits payment of compensation to victims of crimes that caused personal injury or death. Among other requirements, the applicant must have cooperated with law enforcement to further prosecution in order to receive compensation. Sections disallowing compensation if the victim was a relative of the offender or living or maintaining a sexual relationship with the offender were repealed in 1983. Changes in 1989 permitted compensation for injuries resulting from assault in any degree, rather than only assault in the first or second degree.

AS 18.68.010-030. SEXUAL ASSAULT EXAMINATION KITS, INVESTIGATION PROTOCOLS AND TRAINING. The Departments of Public Safety and Law shall develop and distribute uniform sexual assault examination kits, develop a manual of protocols governing the distribution and use of the examination kits, and develop and implement training in the use of protocols and kits.

AS 22.15.10°. FUNCTIONS AND POWERS OF DISTRICT JUDGE AND MAGISTRATE. Each district judge and magistrate has the power to issue a temporary restraining order (TRO) for injunctive relief in cases involving domestic violence as provided in AS 25.35.010 and AS 25.35.020.

AS 25.20.090 and AS 25.24.150. FACTORS TO BE CONSIDERED IN MAKING CHILD CUSTODY DETERMINATIONS. Evidence of domestic violence, child abuse, or child neglect in the proposed custodial household or a history of violence between the parents are factors that the court must consider in making child custody determinations.

AS 25.23.180. TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS OF PERPETRATORS OF CERTAIN SEXUAL OFFENSES. The relationship of parent and child may be terminated by a court order on grounds that the parent committed an act constituting sexual assault or sexual abuse of a minor and the act resulted in conception of the child.

AS 25.24.140. RESTRAINING ORDERS DURING A DIVORCE ACTION. During the pendency of a divorce action, a spouse may apply for and is entitled to necessary protective orders, including orders providing for freedom of each spouse from the control of the other spouse, restraining each spouse from subjecting the other spouse or another person living in the household to domestic violence, directing one spouse to vacate the residence, restraining a spouse from communicating directly or indirectly with the other spouse, restraining a spouse from entering a propelled vehicle in the possession of or occupied by the other spouse and prohibiting a spouse from disposing of the property of either spouse or mutual property without the permission of the other spouse or a court order.

AS 25.24.210 and AS 25.24.220. HEIGHTENED JUDICIAL SCRUTINY IN DISSOLUTIONS WHEN THERE IS DOMESTIC VIOLENCE. A petition for dissolution of a marriage must state whether a domestic violence complaint has been filed during the marriage by a member of the household. If a domestic violence complaint has been filed during the marriage by a member of the family or there is evidence of domestic violence during the marriage, a heightened level of judicial scrutiny is required in petitions for dissolution. If the court finds a higher level of scrutiny is required, the court shall examine the written agreements between the spouses to determine that they are just, that they constitute the entire agreement between the parties, and that the agreements concerning child custody, child support, and visitation are in the best interest of the children of the marriage, if any. The court shall require the presence of both spouses at a hearing for this purpose unless the court finds on the record that it would constitute a significant hardship on one of the spouses to appear and that a just agreement has been reached.

AS 25.35.010. INJUNCTIVE RELIEF IN CASES INVOLVING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE. A person who is subjected to domestic violence may petition a superior or district court for injunctive relief to restrain the infliction of further domestic violence. This order may include additional provisions that direct the respondent to leave the petitioner's home, provide support for the petitioner and minor children in the petitioner's care, pay medical expenses of the respondent and engage in counseling (if the court directs the respondent to engage in personal counseling, the court shall provide in the order that the counseling must propose alternatives to aggression if that type of counseling is available; if the court directs the respondent to participate in family counseling, it shall make a finding that family counseling will not result in additional domestic violence). An order remains in effect for 90 days, but may be extended by petition to the court. The court may appoint a guardian ad litem or attorney to represent a minor who is subject to this chapter.

Except for a restraining order that prohibits the petitioner from communicating directly or indirectly with the respondent, the court may not issue an order restraining a petitioner under this section unless the court finds that the respondent has been subjected to domestic violence by the petitioner. The court may not issue a restraining order that prohibits the petitioner from communicating directly or indirectly with the respondent unless the court finds that the respondent has been subjected to domestic violence by the petitioner, or there is other good cause based on extraordinary circumstances of the case as supported by specific findings of fact by the court.

Domestic violence in this statute, as well as under AS 25.35.020, means a crime under AS 11.41 when the victim is a spouse or former spouse of the respondent; a parent, grandparent, child, or grandchild of the respondent; a member of the social unit comprised of those living together in the same dwelling as the respondent; or a person who is not a spouse or former spouse of the respondent but who previously lived in a spousal relationship with the respondent or is in or has been in a dating, courtship or engagement relationship with the defendant.

AS 25.35.020. EMERGENCY INJUNCTIVE RELIEF. If it appears that there is a substantial likelihood of immediate danger from the respondent, an emergency injunctive relief order may be issued. An emergency injunctive relief order may be issued without notice to the respondent. The order is in effect for 20 days unless extended by the court for good cause. As in the regular restraining order, the situations when a mutual restraining order may be issued are limited.

AS 25.35.040. SERVICE OF PROCESS. Injunctive relief orders shall be promptly served and executed. These orders are to be served by the peace officer who has jurisdiction within the area of service. A state trooper shall serve the order in any area that is not within the jurisdiction of a peace officer of a municipality or unincorporated community.

AS 25.35.050. NOTIFICATION TO LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES. The court shall send a copy of the injunctive relief order to the appropriate law enforcement agency. Each law enforcement agency shall establish procedures to inform peace officers of copies of the orders received. Police officers shall use every reasonable means to enforce an order issued.

AS 33.30.161. ELIGIBILITY TO SERVE TIME IN A CORRECTIONAL RESTITUTION CENTER. Correctional restitutional centers are established to provide certain offenders with rehabilitation through community services and employment. Prisoners are not eligible if they have been convicted of a felony involving violence or the use of force or are serving a sentence for any crime involving violence or the use of force or under AS 11.41.320 (custodial interference in the first degree), AS 11.41.330 (custodial interference in the second degree) or AS 11.56.740 (violating a domestic violence restraining order).

AS 47.17.020. PERSONS REQUIRED TO REPORT CHILD ABUSE. The following persons are immediately required to report suspected harm, by other than accidental means, through physical injury or neglect, mental injury, sexual abuse, sexual exploitation or maltreatment of children to the nearest office of the Department of Health and Social Services if, in the performance of their occupational duties, they have reasonable cause to suspect a child has suffered harm:

- (1) practitioners of the healing arts, including mental health counselors,
- (2) school teachers and school administrative staff members of public and private schools,
- (3) social workers,
- (4) peace officers, and officers of the Department of Corrections,
- (5) administrative officers of institutions,
- (6) child care providers,
- paid employees of domestic violence and sexual assault programs and crisis intervention programs as defined in AS 18.66.900.
- (8) paid employees of an organization that provides counseling or treatment to individuals seeking to control their use of drugs and alcohol.

However, if it is not possible to report harm to the Department of Health and Social Services and immediate action is necessary for the well-being of the child, the report of harm shall be made to a peace officer.

AS 47.17.022. TRAINING. A person employed by the State or by a school district who is required under AS 47.17 to report abuse or neglect of children shall receive training on the recognition and reporting of child abuse and neglect. Each department of the State and school district that employs persons required to report abuse or neglect of children shall provide initial training and appropriate in-service training. These departments and school districts shall develop a training curriculum that acquaints their employees with laws relating to child abuse and neglect; techniques for recognition and detection of child abuse and neglect; agencies and organizations within the state that offer aid or shelter to victims and their families; procedures for required notification of suspected abuse or neglect; the role of a person required to report child abuse or neglect as well as the role of the employing agency after the report has been made; and a brief description of the manner in which cases of child abuse and neglect are investigated by the department and law enforcement agencies after a report of suspected abuse or neglect.

AS 47.17.023. REPORTING CHILD PORNOGRAPHY. A person who, in the course of processing or producing visual or printed matter, suspects that the matter depicts a child engaged in prohibited sexual acts to produce child pornography shall immediately report this to the nearest law enforcement agency.

AS 47.24.110. PERSONS REQUIRED TO REPORT PHYSICAL OR SEXUAL ASSAULT AGAINST A DISABLED PERSON. The following persons are required to report physical or sexual assault against a disabled adult to the nearest law enforcement agency if, in the performance of their duties, they have reasonable cause to believe a disabled person is a victim of assault and that the disabled adult is unable to report the crime:

- a. licensed health care provider
- b. mental health professional
- c. pharmacist
- d. employee of a nursing home, residential care or health care facility
- e. caretaker, guardian or conservator of the disabled adult
- f. police officer
- g. village public safety officer
- h. health aide
- i. social worker
- j. member of the clergy
- k. staff of a program serving disabled adults
- 1. licensed foster care provider
- m. worker in a domestic violence, sexual assault or a crisis intervention prevention program
- n. EMT or paramedic in a mobile intensive care program
- o. an employee of a homemaker program or home health aide program.

APPENDIX A

PROGRAM DATA

The data presented in this section encompass the time period July 1, 1991 to June 30, 1992. These data reflect the varied and comprehensive services provided by Council-funded programs. The following charts describe clients of community-based and prison programs and the services provided to clients. Information in this appendix is presented in the following order. First is a list of programs that provide emergency shelter in safe homes and shelters, and the number of nights of safety provided by each program. This chart is followed by the number of clients served by Council-funded programs which is presented, by client type. Information on the gender, age and race of clients is presented on the next two pages. Lastly, the service statistics indicate the number of services received by clients in FY91.

Some definitions to help in interpreting the charts:

Advocacy - a program working on behalf of or with a client; directed support of a client to another agency.

Client - a person who receives direct services from a program and is expected to receive services on more than a one-time, brief basis.

Client Adult - a person 18 years of age and over admitted into the program for treatment and/or intervention as a result of a domestic violence and/or sexual assault incident directed towards another person, usually a relative, neighbor, friend, etc.

Client Services Provided - the numbers signify the number of staff contacts with clients for a particular kind of service.

Counseling - providing information and personal support, which may include assistance in clarifying options and determining future goals.

Perpetrator - a person admitted into the program for treatment and/or intervention due to domestic violence and/or a sexual assault the individual directed towards another person.

Victim - a person admitted into the program for treatment and/or intervention as a result of a domestic violence and/or sexual assault incident directed towards that individual and a child from a violent home whether or not the abuse was directed towards the child.
