ABSTRACT

The follow-up component of the Youth Opportunities Unlimited (YOU) program tracked the 127 students who graduated from 1988, 1989, and 1990 Henderson State University YOU programs throughout July 1989-June 1991. Students were contacted on a monthly basis through phone calls, school counselor contacts, letters, and newsletters. Findings indicated grades remained very stable and students maintained a stable attendance rate. The Junior-Senior High School Personality Questionnaire (HSPQ) was used to determine self-esteem attitude changes. Students showed a great improvement in their self-esteem scores, which were in the extreme range during the pretest. Scores in the posttest showed students in the normal range. These scores remained in the normal range after two years. The student exit interviews showed a very positive attitude expressed by YOU students. These attitudes remained positive as verified by the spring counselor interviews. Of the 127 total Henderson graduates, 19 graduated, 5 received General Educational Development certificates, 1 died, and 86 were still in school. In comparison with the graduation or stay-in rate of 75 percent for Arkansas students, the statistics suggested an 85-88 percent stay-in rate. (The 11-page report is followed by these appendixes: monthly contact schedule and materials; attendance and grades collection form; profile of HSPQ results; exit and spring interviews; forms used in the retreat; and stay-in statistics.) I. INTRODUCTION

Problem:

The importance of the education of our youth cannot be overly stressed. We live in a complicated and extremely technological society. Our students will need a high school diploma as a minimum criterion for even the most basic job entry requirements. Programs designed to encourage our youth to stay in school rather than dropping out should warrant our highest priority.

The Youth Opportunities Unlimited (Y.O.U.) program is a drop-out prevention program for students who are at-risk of dropping out of high school. Y.O.U. is a comprehensive program which is designed to encourage 14 and 15 year old students to stay in school. It is funded by the Job Training Partnership Act (J.T.P.A.). Y.O.U. provides economically disadvantaged students a university-based work study program with a wide range of support services. These services include health care, counseling, educational classes, and work training. Working with the whole child is an essential part of the Y.O.U. program.

The students live on a college campus for eight and one half weeks during the summer. They work a half-day and attend a variety of classes the other half-day. These classes are usually in English, math, or reading. Students can use this experience for elective credit when they return to school. Recreational activities, tutorial sessions, and enrichment activities take up most of the students' evenings and weekends.

Study:

As part of the Y.O.U. program, a Follow-up component was developed to investigate the status of Y.O.U. graduates after they leave the program. Through the research component of the Carl Perkins Vocational Education Act Grant, the 127 students who graduated from the 1988, 1989, and 1990 Henderson Y.O.U. programs were carefully tracked throughout July 1989 - June 1991.

The intention of the Follow-up was to contact the Y.O.U. graduates on a monthly basis. At the inception of the study, graduate student was hired to accomplish this task. Students were contacted on a monthly basis through phone calls, school counselor contacts, letters, and newsletters (see Appendix A). Various surveys and self-esteem inventories were also administered to add to the data pool available about these students. The information received through the contact was combined with the other universities who were also collecting this data from their schools. The University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff, Arkansas State University, Southern Arkansas University, The University of the Ozarks, and Henderson State University participated in the Arkansas Follow-up Program. The University of Arkansas at Monticello joined the program in the summer of 1991. This collection of data is reported in the Final Report: Arkansas Youth Opportunities Unlimited Follow-up, Steinmiller and Duncan, 1991.

II. METHODOLOGY

Grades:

The grades for the Henderson Y.O.U. graduates were collected from the counselors on a quarterly basis (see Appendix B). The junior high and high school counselors were extremely cooperative in working with the Y.O.U. Follow-up staff to provide grades and attendance materials needed for the study. These grades were averaged for the year prior to the Y.O.U. experience and then each year after.

*Grades are reported in grade point average.

As can be noted in Table 1, the grades have remained very stable. No significant increases or decreases in grade averages were noted.

Data was also collected regarding the students' attendance. As can be noted in Table 2, there were no significant attendance changes. Students maintained a stable attendance rate.

* Absences are reported in average days absent annually. A large number of the students had 0 days absent per report.

Self-Esteem:

To determine self-esteem attitude changes test, we used the Junior-Senior High School Personality Questionnaire (H.S.P.Q.). The areas measured in this questionnaire were cool or warm personalities, concrete or abstract thinking, emotional or emotionally calm, phlegmatic or excitable, submissive or dominant, sober or cheerful, expedient or conforming, shy or bold, tough or tender minded, vigorous or withdrawn, self assured or apprehensive, group-oriented or self-sufficient, undisciplined or self-disciplined, and relaxed or tense.

Students entering the Y.O.U. program filled out the inventory during their first week on campus. They were then given the post-test seven weeks later during the last week of the Y.O.U. program. The results from each graduating group are profiled in Appendix C.

As can be derived from the profiles the pre-test measures show that, upon entering the Y.O.U. program, the students are tested in the extreme ranges for the measured areas. At the completion of the program, the results of the post-test demonstrated scores in the normal range.

During the retreat (see page 8) in 1989 and 1990, the students were again tested using the HSPQ Inventory. As can be noted in Appendix C, the results of the questionnaire illustrate the normal range scores for the Y.O.U. students. Therefore, it highly suggests that the self-esteem of the Y.O.U. graduates remained stable over this two year time span.

Exit Interviews:

At the end of each Y.O.U. program, an exit interview (see Appendix D) was administered to the students. Students were asked questions to determine their attitude about the program and growth from the program. Of primary interest were the answers to question 14 "What changes have occurred for you during the Y.O.U. program?" and question 15 "What final statement would you like to make (about Y.O.U.)?"

Comments such as " its going to help me have a better attitude about things," "I study better than before," "I'd like to return," and "I get along better with others" were very common responses. Included in Appendix D is a random sampling of the students' responses to question 14 and question 15.

Spring Interviews:

During the spring of each year, the school counselors were asked to interview the parents, siblings, and students who graduated from the Y.O.U. programs (see Appendix E). They also completed a self-interview. The counselors were offered a $10.00 stipend for their time and efforts in conducting the interviews.

The responses to the questions are similar to those in the exit interviews. The students maintained a very positive attitude about the program and expressed in statements their intention to complete high school.

Retreat:

As part of the Follow-up, the graduates from the Henderson Y.O.U. programs were invited back for a two-day retreat at the campus. Included are some of the forms used in this process (see Appendix F).

The Y.O.U. staff transported the students to and from their hometowns and the Henderson State University campus. During the retreats, activities included dances, breakfasts, cookouts, and "rap" sessions in the dorms.

During the first retreat year, 1989, twenty-five students returned for the retreat. During the 1990 year, fifty students attended the retreat, and in 1991, forty-three students attended.

We also took this opportunity to retest the students using the H.S.P.Q. inventory. As noted on the page 5, the positive self-esteem measures have been maintained throughout the school years. (see Appendix C).

Stay-In Statistics:

As mentioned earlier, the primary objective of the Y.O.U. Follow-up Program was to determine how many of the students who graduated from the Y.O.U. program stayed in school and graduated from high school. Of the 42 students who graduated from the 1988 program, 19 graduated from high school, 4 received General Education Diplomas (GEDs), 12 are in high school, 1 has died, 6 are not in school at this time, and the Follow-up has not lost contact with any 1988 students.

Of the 41 students who graduated from the 1989 program, 1 has received a General Education Diploma (GED), 34 are in high school, 6 are not in school at this time, and the Follow-up has not lost contact with any 1989 students.

Of the 44 students who graduated from the 1990 program, 40 are in high school, 4 are not in school at this time, and the Follow-up has not lost contact with any 1990 students (see Appendix G). The statistics are reported as of October 31, 1991.

Of the 127 total Henderson graduates, 19 have graduated, 5 have received G.E.D.s, 1 is deceased, and 86 are still in school. Only 16 are currently not enrolled in school. This shows an 86% success rate at this time. The Henderson State University has not lost contact with any Y.O.U. student as of this report.

III. CONCLUSION

The Henderson Youth Opportunities Unlimited Follow-up is a very important part of the dropout prevention effort in Arkansas. The results of the study affirm the positive impact the Y.O.U. program makes on the lives of its participants.

Although there were no significant grades nor attendance increases, we must also note there were no significant decreases either. Students who consider dropping out of school will often let their grades slide. As can be noted by the stable nature of both grades and attendance, this is not the case.

The students showed a great improvement in their self-esteem scores. The scores during the pre-test were in the extreme ranges where scores in the post-test showed students in the normal range. These scores continued to remain in the normal range after a two-year time span.

The student exit interviews showed a very positive attitude expressed by the Y.O.U. graduates. Again, these attitudes continued to remain positive as verified by the spring counselor interviews.

The spring retreat was a wonderful opportunity for the Y.O.U. staff. It allowed an opportunity to reacquaint with students, as well as retest them. Again, attitudes and self-esteem remained positively stable.

Of most importance though, are the stay-in statistics.

The dropout rate for students in Arkansas is approximately 25%, thus leaving a graduation or stay-in rate of 75%.

So far, the statistics suggest a stay-in rate ranging from 85% to 88%. It is important to remember that these statistics are of a very high risk population. We are pleased with these results.

For a more complete review of the statewide Y.O.U. programs over the past three years, please refer to the Final Report: Arkansas Y.O.U. Follow-up, Steinmiller and Duncan, 1991.

A Pageant at Thanksgiving

John Moring

The Pilgrims were first—first out of the classroom and first on stage.
 Laughing, giggling, looking for a parent in the auditorium;
 Maybe a little nervous.
 Miles Standish said some words,
 though they weren't loud
 or even memorable.
 But the words came from the heart of a seven-
 year-old:
 A redhead with a Pilgrim hat over one eye
 and a cardboard musket held upside down.
 The Indians came later,

looking fierce in brown paper-mâché.
 They brought corn and plastic fish,
 and the Pilgrims invited them to the feast.
 Orange and black and red and green.
 Flashbulbs and smiles all about.
 It was Plymouth as it should have been,
 full of excitement and thanksgiving.
 Tiny Pilgrims, fierce Indians,
 giggling in costume,
 a resplendent paper turkey,
 And a lesson in how it all began—
 and why.

Have learned to tolerate more.

Get along with others.

Can relate to people (I think).

Take responsibility, better person, swimmer.

Gained some weight.

I get up early now and can do some work at home.

Met more friends and been able to be with older people.

Better social skills.

I hold my tongue more and don't blow up.

Learned more about people, more mature.

Easier to do school work, learned to hold my temper because I live with so many people. Don't let others hurt my feelings.

Learned responsibility.

Get along with people better.

Question 15: "What final statement would you like to make (about Y.O.U.)?"

Thank you to HSU and Y.O.U. staff for making it a lot of fun.
I really hate to leave.

Glad to be chosen for Y.O.U. program, hope there will be more people next year.

I was student body President, planning activities.

Got homesick; It's an experience.

The Y.O.U. program is a great idea because it helps students who need to get extra credits and gives them a summer job also.

I wish it lasted longer--good teachers.

It's been fun sometimes.

Good program.

Get Y.O.U. something, keep on with the program.

We're all good people.

I love it.

That everybody try the Y.O.U. program.
