Topics covered in the main body are: legislation concerned with transition services; appropriate procedures and getting started; transition planning process; questions to guide transition planning meetings, concerning employment, postsecondary education, community living, recreation/leisure, friends/social relationships, income support, student/family support issues, transportation, and medical/health issues; ways to tell if the planning meeting went well; implementation of the plan; work options and experiences for students; activities for staff including specific responsibilities for teachers, vocational staff, occupational therapists, physical therapists, and speech therapists; development of work experience sites; possible sites and possible tasks; job assessment performance areas; and Department of Labor regulations. The main body concludes with a summarizing list of 10 steps for successful transition. A pretest/posttest precedes and follows the manual. Appendices include: a parent inventory form; sample transition plan forms; a parental notification form; a meeting checklist; a non-binding statement of understanding between schools and participating agencies; information from the Social Security Administration regarding work incentives; and information on reauthorization of the Rehabilitation Act. TRANSITION FROM SCHOOL TO WORK: A PLANNING PROCESS

Wehman, Kreege, and Barcus (1985) have described vocational transition in the following way: "Vocational transition is a carefully planned process, which may be initiated either by school personnel or by adult services providers, to establish and implement a plan for either employment or additional vocational training of a handicapped student who will graduate or leave school in three to five years; such a process must involve special educators, parents, and/or the students, an adult service system representative, and possibly an employer."

LEGISLATION

In 1975, a law was passed that enabled children with disabilities to be part of the public school system. This was Public Law 94-142, known as the Education for all Handicapped Children Act. In October, 1990 this was amended and became Public Law 101-476, referred to as the Individuals with Disabilities Act (IDEA). This law mandates transition services for students with disabilities ages fourteen (14) through twenty-one (21). The following section is taken directly from the law:

Section 300.18 Transition Services

"Transition service means a coordinated set of activities for a student, designed within an outcome-oriented process, which promotes movement from school to post school activities, including post secondary education, vocational training, integrated employment (including supported employment) continuing and adult education, independent living, or community participation. The coordinated set of activities shall be based upon the individual student's preferences and interests, and shall include instruction, community experiences, and the development of employment and other post school adult living objectives, and when appropriate, acquisition of daily living skills and functional vocational evaluation."

Section 300.347 Agency Responsibilities for Transition Services

"A statement of needed transition services for students beginning no later than age 16 and annually thereafter (and, when determined appropriate for the individual, beginning at age 14 or younger), including, when appropriate, a statement of the interagency responsibilities or linkages (or both) before the student leaves the school setting"

The law further states that:

"If a participating agency, other than the public agency responsible for the student's education, fails to provide agreed upon transition services contained in the IEP of a student with a disability, the public agency responsible for the student's education shall reconvene a meeting of all participants on the IEP team to identify alternative strategies to be implemented to meet the transition objectives that are included in the student's IEP."

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

Some feel that special education programs do not adequately prepare students with disabilities to meet the transitional demands of obtaining employment and living independently (Seggon and Bakes, 1992). Others feel that providers of special education services and vocational rehabilitation counselors do not sufficiently coordinate vocational and transition activities (Griffith and Lowery, 1989). Still others think that traditional job placement strategies of training, placement, and short term follow up for persons with severe disabilities fail to meet the needs of individuals with severe disabilities for long term supported employment (Apter, 1992). Whatever the reasons, it is clear that all student with severe disabilities, especially those who are deaf-blind, need specific training in career education and basic skills (career options, communication, orientation/mobility, daily living) that are necessary for meaningful, independent employment in their communities. To ensure that transition from school to work is successful, the continuum of services should begin early and continue throughout the duration of the educational program.

These figures are from the Mississippi State Department of Education. They reflected all disabilities statewide.

WHAT ARE THE PROCEDURES.....HOW DO WE GET STARTED?

IDEA states (Section 300.18) that "the coordinated set of activities shall be based upon the individual student preferences and interests." At the beginning of the school year, it is essential that a family inventory be taken so that services can be planned accordingly. It is of the utmost importance to know what the family is looking for, what activities are part of their daily lives and what information the family may need to access so that they can plan for the best possible future. (There are examples of a family inventory from Jackson Public Schools in Appendix A.)

The transition team is composed of those persons responsible for initiating the process and developing the ITP. Parents MUST be invited to any meeting where transition services are to be discussed and they must be informed that transition is the PURPOSE OF THE MEETING. Notice of the meeting must also indicate to the parents that THE STUDENT WILL BE INVITED AND LIST THE OTHER AGENCIES INVITED. Many schools begin when the student reaches the age of 16 and some may start when the student is 14 years of age. The ITP is implemented separately or in conjunction with the Individual Education Plan (IEP), where the ITP meeting is held at the same time as the IEP meeting and updated annually. Planning for the student's needs in advance not only aids the student in attaining necessary skills, but also gives the cooperating agencies sufficient time to know and plan for what types of services will be asked for. The team is the most important aspect of transition planning. The importance of cooperation, coordination and commitment can not be understated. Implementation is going to be impossible without interagency and interdisciplinary team planning. The other important aspect of transition planning is to make sure that the student and the parents are aware of all possible options, the requirements to get into the program, if there is a waiting list and an opportunity to tour these programs and possibly speak with other individuals in the program and/or their families. In order for parents to make informed choices, they need to be given all of the information. (Sample transition plans can be found in Appendix B).

TRANSITION PLANNING.....HOW TO GET STARTED

Although IDEA requires that transitional services be addressed in each student's IEP it offers few guidelines for teachers to start the process. Following is a step by step process that may offer assistance to teachers who are not sure where to begin.

STEP I: Develop a Form/Format

Transition planning is a process, but without a form it can lead to mass confusion by all parties involved. A good, easy-to-use form will guide you through the process and will assist the meeting in moving along in the right direction. The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) does not require a separate form from the IEP. Some districts have chosen to use a separate form or add an addendum to the IEP. Whatever format or form that you and your district choose to use, it should allow you to do the following: 1) identify outcomes in each of the target areas (e.g., vocational, residential, rec/leisure, advocacy, etc.), 2) identify student goals that will assist them in reaching those goals that were determined and set, 3) identify tasks and responsibilities of students, families, schools, and adult service agencies in ensuring that the identified outcomes are met and, 4) most importantly, establish timelines for completion of each goal identified.

STEP II: Schedule a Meeting

The school district is responsible for scheduling and conducting the transition planning meetings, however, school districts may assign different staff this responsibility. It does not matter who is responsible as long as it is clearly established and carried through. The assigned person will need to establish a date for the transition/IEP meeting and send notices to those persons who need to attend. In the written prior notice to the parents, include who will be attending and from what agency.

Participants in the meeting will vary depending on the services the student currently is receiving, the services the student is projected to receive, and the age of the student (e.g., as the student nears graduation, more and more adult representation is necessary). Some of the people who might be involved include: the student, the parents, other family members, friends, advocates, school personnel - teachers, aides, OT, PT, orientation and mobility specialist, regular ed teachers, school counselors, vocational rehabilitation counselors, supported employment staff, case managers, staff from local residential programs and job trainers.

STEP III: Identify Student Needs, Preferences, and Interests

One requirement outlined in the definition of transition services in the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (1990) is that "...the coordinated set of activities shall be based upon the individual student's needs, taking into account the student's preferences and interests, and shall include instruction, community experiences, the development of employment and other post secondary adult living objectives, and, when appropriate, acquisition of daily living skills and functional vocational evaluation."

Many students who are deaf-blind and non-verbal may have great difficulty expressing their preferences and interests, either because of limited communication skills, or limited life experiences. In this case, other available options need to be looked into. One may need to investigate the desires of the family, seek an advocate to speak for this individual, past data collection or a planning process called Personal Futures Planning (Mount, 1988). Personal Futures Planning has proven effective in assisting teams "test out" information on preferences and interests of the student in the use of mapping techniques. The "maps" are used to gather information about the individual with a disability. The maps can assist teams to identify capacities, dreams, and desires that a person has for the future. A profile of the individual is developed, using graphics and color coding to summarize the person's background, relationships, personal preferences, information about how and where the student spends his/her day, choices that the person makes, etc.

STEP IV: Conduct the IEP/Transition Planning Meeting

There is no set agenda for conducting a transition planning meeting, although here are some suggestions that may be helpful.

- A. Introductions and Purpose of the Meeting - Be sure that everyone introduces themselves, especially since adult service providers may be new members to the team. Next describe the purpose of the meeting.

Include why you are gathered here today. Following is an example of how to start a meeting after introductions have been made

Teacher: We are here today to discuss Johnnie's transition from school to the adult world. By meeting here today, we hope to make the process smoother by planning and working on goals that Johnnie will need after graduation. Let's get started.

An outline of the various areas that will be addressed should be visible to all planning team members. A written agenda, an agenda on a flip chart or blackboard, or a copy of the planning form will help keep participants focused and keep the meeting flowing.

- B. Target Areas to Be Discussed - The next step is for the facilitator to take the team through, one by one, each goal to be discussed. The question that should be asked is "What outcomes are we looking for in the area of... (employment, living, rec/leisure, community participation, etc.). A discussion should follow each question and will take on different directions depending on the age of the student, the information at hand, the amount of information that is still needed, and those individuals involved. Record the outcomes, student goals, tasks/responsibilities and timelines as you go.
- C. Forms - At this time, you may want to get needed forms signed by the parents. Some districts may want the parents to sign a form letting them know that community work experiences will occur in local businesses. (A sample form can be found in Appendix C.)

QUESTIONS TO GUIDE TRANSITION PLANNING MEETINGS

The following questions are intended to assist facilitators in generating discussions regarding each of the target areas noted below. The facilitator, generally the student's teacher or other school district employee, should not feel that they need to have the "answers" to these questions. They are only to assist in getting a discussion going. It is likely that other participants will know much more about particular topics than education staff (e.g., SSI work incentive programs, eligibility for adult services programs).

The questions should always be posed to the student first, letting other team members expand and provide input later. It may be helpful to provide students and family members information on the areas you will be covering prior to the meeting so that they can come adequately prepared with information and questions.

Employment

What type of work is the student interested in?

What type of support will be needed (e.g. job coach, assistive technology, interpreter services)? How will the student get access to these services?

What type of training in high school will help the student achieve their goals (vocational education courses, community-based work experiences, summer or after school employment)?

What related areas may influence this outcome (e.g., grooming/hygiene, transportation, orientation and mobility, communication)? How can these be addressed in the IEP?

Post-Secondary Education

What institutions offer the training/degree that the student is seeking?

What special student support services may be needed (e.g., interpreters, notetaking, braille materials)? Who is responsible for providing these services?

Will environmental accommodations be needed (e.g., physical accessibility of buildings, special lighting, etc.)

Is financial aid available?

What skills can the student be working on in the last few years of school to be prepared for post-secondary education?

Community Living

Where would the student like to live (house vs. apartment, city vs. country, etc.). Describe important aspects of the housing (e.g., yard, one level, own room).

Who would the student like to live with?

What support will the student need to live in the setting identified? What agencies in the local community provide these services? How does the student apply for these services? Are there entry requirements?

What specific skills will assist the student to live as independently as possible (meal preparation, housekeeping skills, budgeting)? Which are priorities to work on this school year?

What adaptive equipment will assist the student in living as independently as possible? (TDD, vibrating alarm clock, adaptive kitchen tools)?

Recreation/Leisure

What does the student currently enjoy doing in their leisure time?

What new activities does the student want to learn?

Does the student have a balance between activities that they can do at home vs. in the community? Do they have a balance between activities they can do alone vs. those they can do with others?

What are barriers to participating in more recreation activities?

What community resources are available that may provide opportunities and support?

What adaptations are used/can be used to help the student participate in various activities?

What goals should be incorporated into the IEP for the year?

Friends/Social Relationships

Who are the most important people in the student's life (friends, family members, service providers)? Are those people involved in the planning process?

What opportunities does the student have to meet new people/develop new relationships? What issues seem to be barriers?

How does the student communicate with others? Do others need training/information on how to use this communication method?

How will the student maintain relationships with current friends after graduation (letters, TDD, etc.)?

What interests does the student have that could be shared with friends?

Are there particular social skills that the student needs to develop?

Income Support

How much income will the student need to support the lifestyle they desire? Does this have an impact on career decisions?

Is the student currently receiving Supplemental Security Income (SSI)? Will they be eligible in the near future? Does the student and family know how to apply for SSI? Does the student/family understand how assets effect their initial or continued eligibility for SSI/Medicaid?

Does the student and their family understand how wages will impact SSI benefits? Do they need more information on Social Security Administration Work Incentive Programs?

Student/Family Support Issues

Does the student/family understand that the student becomes their own legal guardian at age 18? Are there questions that parents have regarding advocacy and guardianship? Are there resources locally to assist families with these issues? (Note - Frequently this information can be obtained through the local Association for Retarded Citizens, the Governors Planning Council on Developmental Disabilities, parent Advocacy Centers, Protection and Advocacy organizations).

Does the student/family understand how an inheritance would impact the students eligibility for SSI and Medicaid?

Would the student/family benefit from training in advocacy skills?
Where is training available? Should self-advocacy be addressed in the student's IEP?

Transportation

Where will the student need to go as an adult (work, recreation settings, friends/families homes)?

What community travel skills does the student currently have? What skills can be addressed in the IEP?

What transportation options are available in the community?

If the student will require assistance getting to and from community activities (work, leisure, etc.) what options are available (e.g., car pooling, special transportation, etc.)

Medical/Health Issues

Does the student have medical/health issues that would impact employment or other adult outcomes? What are they (allergies, seizures, etc.)?

Does the student currently have health insurance? Will they after graduation? Is health insurance an important benefit that the student would need from their job?

Has the student had vision/hearing assessments complete recently?
What information can be passed on to adult service provider regarding the student vision and hearing?

- C. Summarizing the Meeting - Be sure to review the decisions, commitments, and timelines made prior to closing the meeting. The written plan developed should be copied to the team members following the meeting.

HOW CAN YOU TELL IF THE ITP MEETING WENT WELL

1. Were all of the people included at the meeting?
2. Did everyone look at the student's desires and interests?
3. Did family, advocates, and friends help decide what was written on the ITP?
4. Did the student and family receive information about the type of services that he/she might need after graduation?
5. Did the group discuss the student's interests, likes, dislikes, and future?
6. Are there dates for completing transition goals?

A checklist for ITP meetings is included in Appendix D. The activities are broken down in activities for before, during, and after the meeting.

THE MEETING IS FINISHED...IMPLEMENTATION

Let's start with employment options since that is often one of the main concerns and often times the most difficult challenge to face. One needs to plan activities around employment that not necessarily dictate specific jobs, but rather the general skills and abilities necessary for seeking, securing, and maintaining employment. Some questions for consideration may be:

1. In what type of work is the student interested and/or what aptitude/skills have been demonstrated?
2. Based on the student's ability and interests, is it more appropriate for the student to be involved in competitive employment or some level of supported employment?
3. If the student has chosen a particular occupational field, does he/she have the skills and abilities needed to succeed in that field? What specific skills is the student missing?
4. Does the student know and use good employability skills?
5. What types of vocational training and/or academic, social, and communication skills are needed to help the student acquire relevant work skills and behaviors before he/she exits high school?
6. What types of accommodations/adaptations might the student need on the job?
7. Is that job available in the local community? What is the attitude of the business community?

WORK OPTIONS AND EXPERIENCES FOR STUDENTS

It is important to be able to give students the opportunity to experience work, develop likes and dislikes, start building a resume, develop work skills, and look at needed adaptations. Planning for later work skills should start at the elementary level school years. This is a good time for a multidisciplinary approach to start. Students with severe disabilities will need the team to work and plan together for future outcomes. Listed below are examples of ways that each team member may participate through each level of schooling.

- * Provide input related to positioning as needed

Speech Therapist:

- * Identify and design communication strategies for students to use at work site.
- * If needed, meet with co-workers and supervisors to help them to feel comfortable communicating with the student

During this whole process a history should be kept on all of the work experiences. This can be done in several forms. One is a video resume all of past employments sites. This is a good mechanism to share with the adult agencies and will assist in the vocational evaluation process.

Another form is a hand written process where you keep track of the locations, the dates, the adaptations, and the training methods that were used. When this is completed, it can be turned into a written resume that can be handed to employers during the job search process.

DEVELOPING WORK EXPERIENCE SITES

Certain characteristics exist with work experience sites. Three main examples to keep in mind are:

1. Employers should understand that students will be there primarily to receive training and experience, not to produce work.

There needs to be a mixture of training and production. Production (free labor) does not need to be on the top of the list. Production needs to be there for student to learn to meet these requirements. but there also needs to be time allowed to meet the training needs. In most cases, the work that the students perform should be viewed as supplementary.

2. Sites should offer opportunities to perform a variety of tasks. When a student is placed at a site with multiple tasks, they can learn to perform two or more tasks simultaneously as part of the natural routine.
3. Sites should provide the optimal opportunity for students to work and interact with nondisabled employees. When analyzing a site, staff should note how much the employees interact with each other, assess the extent to which the assigned tasks will require them to actually work with the employees, and judge the receptiveness of the employees to the idea of having students with disabilities at the business.

DEVELOP A WORK EXPERIENCE SITE POOL

Finding and setting up sites requires a significant amount of staff time. A more efficient alternative is to establish a "pool" of sites, composed of a number of employers who have agreed to allow students from the program to rotate through their businesses on an ongoing basis. Some districts, to make sure that there are not any miscommunications or misunderstandings between the school and the business, may want to use a non-binding statement of understanding. This could outline each person's duties and responsibilities. (Example form in Appendix E).

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR REGULATIONS

When embarking on a job site, remember that there are Department of Labor regulations to abide by. These are fairly easy to follow and maintain compliance. Also, make sure that the employers are aware of the regulations, so that there will be not misunderstanding in the training process.

United States Department of Education

Dear Colleague:

The Departments of Education and Labor have collaborated to promote opportunities for educational placements in the community for students with disabilities while assuring that applicable labor standards projections are strictly observed.

Pursuant to the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), individualized education programs are developed to provide students with disabilities an opportunity to learn about work in realistic settings and thereby help such students in the transition from school to life in the community. Since the affirmation of students's rights to an appropriate free public education in 1975, many students with disabilities have benefited from participation in vocational education programs in their public schools. Students with more severe disabilities, however, have experienced fewer benefits from participation in such programs. Alternative, community-based, and individualized education and training programs have emerged to meet their needs.

Our Departments share an interest in promoting education experience that can enhance success in school-to-work transition and the prospects that these students become effective, productive workforce participants and contributors to their community. At the same time, these students must be afforded the full protection of the national labor laws and not be subject to potential abuse as they start this transition through community-based educational experiences.

Existing Department of Labor guidelines which define "employees" for purposes of applying the requirements of the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) do not specifically address community-based education programs for students with disabilities. To assist program administrators in developing programs or making placements that do not create questions about the establishment of an employment relationship between the students and participating businesses in the community, the Employment Standards Administration (Department of Labor, and the Offices of Vocational and Adult Education, and Special Education and Rehabilitative Services, Department of Education) have developed the following guidance.

Statement of Principle

The U.S. Departments of Labor and Education are committed to the continued development and implementation of individual education programs, in accordance with the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), that will facilitate the transition of students with disabilities from school to employment within their communities. This transition must take place under conditions that will not jeopardize the projections afforded by the Fair Labor Standards Act to program participants, employees, employers, or programs providing rehabilitation services to individuals with disabilities.

Guidelines

Where ALL of the following criteria are met, the U.S. Department of Labor will NOT assert an employment relationship for purposes of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

- o Participants will be youth with physical and/or mental disabilities for whom competitive employment at or above the minimum wage level is not immediately obtainable and who because of their disability, will need intensive on-going support to perform in a work setting.*
- o Participation will be for vocational exploration, assessment, or training in a community-based placement work site under the general supervision of public school personnel.*
- o Community-based placements will be clearly defined components of individual education program developed and designed for the benefit of each student. The statement of needed transition services established for the exploration, assessment, training, or cooperative vocational education components will be included in the student's Individualized Education Program (IEP).*
- o Information contained in a student's IEP will not have to be made available; however, documentation as to the student's enrollment in the community-based placement program will be made available to the Departments of Labor and Education. The student and the parent or guardian of each student must be fully informed of the IEP and the community-based placement component and have indicated voluntary participation with the understanding that participation in such a component does not entitle the student-participant to wages.*

- o The activities of the students at the community-based placement site do not result in an immediate advantage to the business. The Department of Labor will look at several factors.
 1. There has been no displacement of employees, vacant positions have not been filled, employees have not be relieved of assigned duties, and the students are not performing services that, although not ordinarily performed by employees, clearly are of benefit to the business.
 2. The students are under continued and direct supervision by either representatives of the school or by employees of the business.
 3. Such placements are made according to the requirements of the student's IEP and not to meet the labor needs of the business.
 4. The periods of time spent by the students at any one site or in any clearly distinguishable job classification are specifically limited by the IEP.
 - o While the existence of an employment relationship will not be determined exclusively on the basis of the number of hours, as a general rule, each component will not exceed the following limitation during any one school year:

Vocational exploration	5 hours per job experienced
Vocational assessment	90 hours per job experienced
Vocational training	120 hours per job experienced
- o Students are not entitled to employment at the business at the conclusion of their IEP. However, once a student has become an employee, the student cannot be considered a trainee at the particular community-based placement unless in a clearly distinguishable occupation.

It is important to understand that an employment relationship will exist unless all of the criteria described in this policy guidance are met. Should an employment relationship be determined to exist, participating businesses can be held responsible for full compliance with FLSA, including the child labor provisions.

Businesses and school systems may at any time consider participants to be employees and may structure the program to that the participants are compensated in accordance with the requirements of the Fair Labor Standards Act. When ever an employment relationship is established, the business may make use of the special minimum wage provisions provided pursuant to section 14(c) of the Act.

We hope that this guidance will help you achieve success in the development of individualized education programs.

Family Inventory

Family input is a critical component of the IEP. To insure that the learning process is a success, the family must be willing to practice skills at home and in the community. In order to do this, the family must be aware of what's being taught at school. therefore, a partnership needs to be developed between the student's family and the school system. The IEP forms the framework of this partnership because it details the student's individualized program. It is important that the family and teachers of the students with disabilities have the same goals; and the IEP serves to specify these goals.

So often, tests administered to persons with severe handicaps do not give a true picture of the individual's ability. Having family input will give the teacher a better understanding of the child and of the family situation. therefore, a family should complete a brief history of their child explaining his handicap, his present level of functioning and his capabilities.

INDIVIDUAL, TRANSITION PLAN - FUTURE PLANNING FOR THE STUDENT

INSTRUCTIONS

The purpose of the Individual Transition Plan is to make the high school experience meaningful for now and for the future. Transition planning is about helping the student to prepare now for goals after graduation. Your help is needed to assist in this planning and this form is designed to help you understand this process and to record your suggestions. At a school meeting your suggestions will be combined with the suggestions of other persons working with the student to form a single plan. REMEMBER TO TAKE THIS FORM WITH YOU TO THE STUDENT'S IEP OR TRANSITION MEETING! The following five pages can be quickly filled out once you understand what they are designed to do. Please take the time to read the following brief instructions before you move to the next page.

FORM 1 - THE INDIVIDUAL, TRANSITION PLAN

This form is the most important. It sets the goals that you hope the student will achieve after graduation for work and education, residential living, and community participation. You can either choose suggested goals in fine print or write in a goal. Definitions of the suggested goals are on the preceding page for your information. Space is available to write in school activities that have been set up to help the student reach each goal. These activities can be pulled from the worksheets once they have been finalized. Don't be afraid to set high goals for the student!

FORM 2, 3, and 4 - WORK AND EDUCATION, RESIDENTIAL, LIVING, AND COMMUNITY PARTICIPATION WORKSHEETS

These forms suggest some school activities that can assist the student in making the transition toward each goal chosen on Form 1. If you believe the student could benefit from one of the suggested activities, simply check the box or write in the name of the school program in the first column. Definitions of suggested activities are on the preceding page for your information. You may also write in other activities, as needed. It is suggested that you use the second, third, and fourth columns to plan ahead up to four years, or to the student's graduation.

FORM 5 - ASSESSMENTS AND REFERRALS FORM

This form suggests some assessments or referrals that may be needed prior to the student's graduation. Assessments can be very helpful in setting goals and planning activities for the student, and referrals are very important in obtaining eligibility for services that the student may need after graduation. Plan ahead, since vocational and residential services frequently have waiting lists of two years or more. As before, definitions of suggested assessments and referrals are on the preceding page for your information.

APPENDIX F
INFORMATION FROM SOCIAL SECURITY
REGARDING WORK INCENTIVES

SSI/SSDI Work Incentives

Program Overview

Administering Agency: Social Security Administration

Mission of Program

The Mission of this program is to help persons who are disabled or blind to return to work and protect their status and their entitlement to cash payments and/or Medicaid or Medicare protection until they can reasonably be expected to pay their own way and buy their own health insurance protection.

Eligibility for Services

Persons who qualify to receive SSI/SSDI work incentives must be eligible to receive SSI or SSDI benefits. Specific eligibility criteria are required for each program.

Scope of Services

SSI/SSDI work incentives provide or continue eligibility for cash payments and/or Medicare/Medicaid coverage. The work incentives available to qualified persons include Section 1619a and 1619b, impairment-related work expenses, continued payment to individuals under a vocational rehabilitation plan, trial work period, extended period of eligibility, continuation of Medicare coverage, and Plan for Achieving Self-Support.

Effectiveness of Services

SSI/SSDI work incentives have reduced the risks of losing income of medical coverage for many persons who return to work. Disincentives still exist for some individuals who would like to work.

Section 1619a and 1619b

Program Overview

Administering Agency: Social Security Administration

Enabling Legislation: Employment Opportunities for Disabled Americans Act (P.L. 99-643), July 1, 1987

Mission of the Program

The mission of the program is to assist SSI recipients with returning to work by easing the transition between being on disability payments and Medicaid and being self-supporting.

Eligibility for Services

Section 1619a provides cash benefits to SSI recipients engaged in substantial gainful activity (SGA) if they continue to have the original disabling condition and currently meet the income and resource requirements. Qualified persons continue to receive cash benefits unless the mental or physical impairment improves or the benefits are terminated for a reason other than the disability. SSI is reinstated if income levels fall below SGA and eligibility criteria for SSI are met.

Section 1619b provides Medicaid coverage for SSI recipients under age 65 who are disabled or blind if their earnings are too high to receive SSI cash payments. To be eligible for Medicaid, a person must (1) have a disabling condition or continue to be blind, (2) need Medicaid in order to work, (3) not be able to afford benefits equivalent to SSI and Medicaid coverage, and (4) meet all nondisability-related requirements for SSI other than earnings. Qualified persons continue to receive Medicaid coverage until their earnings reach a substantially higher level which takes into account their ability to afford medical care and normal living expenses.

Scope of Services

Section 1619a provides special SSI cash benefits to individuals with disabilities "who lose eligibility for SSI payments under the regular rules because they have earnings at the level that ordinarily is considered to represent SGA ($300). Section 1619b provides special SSI recipient status for Medicaid purposes to working disabled or blind individuals when their earnings make them ineligible for further cash payments."

Effectiveness of Services

Section 1619 was established to help persons with disabilities become self-supporting. Previously, SSI recipients who earned SGA faced the risk of losing cash benefits and Medicaid coverage even if their total income and resources were within the SSI need criteria. The increased numbers of persons participating in Section 1619a and 1619b benefits reflects the program's success in helping persons with disabilities work and become self-supporting.

One measure of program effectiveness is a positive correlation between Section 1619 participation and employment initiatives for persons with severe disabilities.

Persons receiving Medicaid benefits under Section 1619b are reviewed periodically for redetermination of eligibility. Those claims which fit a criteria for screening due to their

Scope of Services

Persons under a vocational rehabilitation plan can continue receiving Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or Social Security Disability Income (SSDI) payments after they are no longer disabled on the basis of medical recovery if they are participating in an approved State vocational rehabilitation plan at the time that the disability ceases.

Extent of Services

No data available.

Effectiveness of Services

Program effectiveness data needs to be collected on the percentage of total SSI/SSDI recipients who return to work and receive continued payment while participating in a vocation rehabilitation plan.

Impairment-Related Work Expenses

Program Overview

Administering Agency: Social Security Administration

Mission of Program

The mission of the program is to assist SSI/SSDI recipients with returning to work by easing the transition between being on disability payments and being self-supporting.

Eligibility for Services

Persons receiving SSI and SSDI benefits are eligible to deduct impairment-related work expenses. SSI recipients must first establish Federal SSI eligibility without the impairment-related work expense deductions. After eligibility is determined, persons receiving SSI benefits can exclude their work-related expenses to compute the amount of cash payment.

The person must pay for the items and services and not receive a reimbursement for the expenses by another source. Costs for items or services can only be deducted if they are needed by the individual in order to return to work.

Scope of Services

Persons who need impairment-related items and services in order to work can deduct these expenses from their earnings when determining substantial gainful activity (SGA) under Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and Social Security Disability Income (SSDI). Impairment-related expenses can also be excluded from earned income in determining the SSI monthly payment amount.

Expenses that are likely to be deducted include attendant care services, transportation costs, medical devices, prosthesis, work-related equipment and assistants, residential modifications, routine drugs and medical services, diagnostic procedures, nonmedical appliances and devices, expendable medical supplies, and costs for a seeing-eye dog. Specific types of services and items under each category are described.

Extent of Services

No data available.

Effectiveness of Services

Program effectiveness data needs to be collected on the percentage of total SSI/SSDI recipients who return to work and participate in the impairment-related work expense incentive program.

Trial Work Period

Program Overview

Administering Agency: Social Security Administration

Mission of Program

The mission of the program is to assist SSDI recipients with returning to work by easing the transition between being on disability payments and being self-supporting.

Eligibility for Services

Persons who are receiving SSDI benefits are entitled to a trial work period beginning the date that a claim is filed or the month of entitlement, whichever comes first.

Scope of Services

Persons receiving Supplemental Security Disability Income (SSDI) can work for a period of nine months and continue receiving full disability benefits. The purpose of the program is to allow SSDI recipients the opportunity to test their ability to work without losing their medical and financial benefits.

SSDI recipients receive a month of work credit for every month that the individual's earnings are over $75.00 a month. A person who is self-employed receives one work credit for every month of fifteen hours of work. The trial work period is completed when nine work credits are accumulated. The nine months do not have to be consecutive. At the end of the trial work period, determination is made as to whether the individual can do substantial gainful activity as defined by earnings over $300.00 a month. Determination decisions are made by the Social Security Administration. Benefits are paid for three months following a decision that the individual is no longer disabled and is ineligible to receive SSDI cash payments.

Extent of Services

No data available.

Effectiveness of Services

Program effectiveness data needs to be collected on the percentage of total SSDI recipients who return to work and participate in the trial work period incentive program.

Documentation

Social Security Administration. (1988). A Summary Guide to Social Security and Supplemental Security Income Work Incentives for the Disabled and Blind. (SSA Publication No. 64-0303). Baltimore, MD: Social Security Administration, Office of Disability.

Extended Period of Eligibility

Program Overview

Administer Agency: Social Security Administration

Mission of Program

The mission of the program is to assist SSDI recipients with returning to work by easing the transition between being on disability payments and being self-supporting.

Eligibility for Services

SSDI recipients who have completed a nine-month trial work period and are determined by the Social Security Administration to no longer be disabled because their earnings exceed SGA level are eligible for an extended period of eligibility. The extended period of eligibility begins the month after the trial work period needs.

Scope of Services

Social Security Disability Income (SSDI) recipients who have completed a nine-month trial work period are provided with a thirty-six-month period in which benefits can be reinstated should earnings fall below the substantial gainful activity (SGA) level. Benefits are reinstated during this time without need for a new application, disability determination, or any waiting period. A new application for SSDI benefits would have to be completed during any month that the individual's earnings fall below SGA level after the thirty-six months are up.

Extent of Services

No data available.

Effectiveness of Services

Program effectiveness data needs to be collected on the percentage of total SSDI recipients who return to work and participate in the extended period of eligibility incentive program.

Documentation

Social Security Administration. (1988). A Summary Guide to Social Security and Supplemental Security Income Work Incentives for the Disabled and Blind. (SSA Publication No. 64-030). Baltimore, MD: Social Security Administration, Office of Disability.

Continuation of Medicare Coverage

Program Overview

Administering Agency: Social Security Administration

Mission of Program

The mission of the program is to assist SSDI recipients with returning to work by easing the transition between receiving disability benefits and being self-supporting.

Eligibility for Services

SSDI recipients who are engaging in SGA and have not medically recovered are eligible to receive continued Medicare coverage.

Scope of Services

Persons qualifying for SSDI benefits who are engaging in substantial gainful activity (SGA) and who have not medically recovered can continue to receive Medicare benefits for thirty-nine months after completing a trial work period.

Medicare coverage is provided for qualified persons during the thirty-six month benefit reinstatement period after a trial work period is completed and for an additional three months after that. Medicare coverage may continue for a longer period of time if earnings fall below SGA for any of the thirty-nine months. Medicare coverage is terminated if a person's disability entitlement ends due to reasons other than engaging in SGA.

Extent of Services

No data available.

Effectiveness of Services

Program effectiveness data needs to be collected on the percentage of total SSDI recipients who return to work and participate in the continued Medicare coverage incentive program.

Documentation

Social Security Administration. (1988). A Summary Guide to Social Security and Supplemental Security Income Work Incentives for the Disabled and Blind (SSA Publication No. 64-030). Baltimore, MD: Social Security Administration, Office of Disability.

Plans for Achieving Self-Support

Program Overview

Administering Agency: Social Security Administration

Mission of Program

The mission of the program is to assist SSI and SSDI recipients with returning to work by easing the transition between receiving disability benefits and being self-supporting.

Eligibility for Services

Persons who are blind or disabled can have a plan. "The individual must have a feasible work goal, a specific savings/spending plan, and must provide a clearly identifiable accounting for the funds which are set aside. The plan must be in writing and have a specific time frame. The individual must then follow the plan and negotiate revisions as necessary" (Social Security Administration, 1988). Social Security representatives, vocational rehabilitation counselors, social workers, or employers can assist an individual with developing a plan.

Scope of Services

Plans for Achieving Self-Support (PASS) allow persons to set aside income or resources for a specific period of time for the purpose of establishing or maintaining Supplemental Security Income (SSI) eligibility, accomplishing a work goal, or increasing SSI payments.

The purpose of the program is to assist qualified persons with becoming self-supporting by allowing them to save money towards work without risking the loss of medical or financial benefits under the income or resource restrictions.

Qualified persons can set aside income and resources for a period of time for a specific work goal such as education, vocational training, starting a business, or to purchase work equipment. The income that is set aside is not included in SSI income and resource tests and does not affect substantial gainful activity determination (SGA). SSI eligibility can be maintained or established and SSI payments can be increased with the use of PASS.

Persons receiving Supplemental Security Disability Income (SSDI) can set aside SSDI money under a PASS plan which may make them eligible for SSI benefits.

Extent of Services

No data available. An informal, verbal survey suggests that roughly 1,000 persons nationwide have an active PASS plan.

Effectiveness of Services

Program effectiveness data needs to be collected on the percentage of total SSI recipients who return to work and participate in the PASS incentive program.

§ 527.1 Applicability of the regulations contained in this part.

The regulations contained in this part are issued under section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, to provide for the employment under special certificates of student-workers at wages lower than the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the act. Such certificates shall be subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

§ 527.2 Definitions.

As used in the regulations contained in this part: A "student-worker" is a student who is receiving instruction in an educational institution and who is employed on a part-time basis in shops owned by the educational institution, for the purpose of enabling the student to defray part of his school expenses.

§ 527.3 Application for a student-worker certificate.

(a) Whenever the employment of student-workers as learners at wages lower than the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, is believed necessary to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment in a specified educational institution, an application for a special certificate authorizing the employment of such student-workers as learners at subminimum wage rates may be filed by an appropriate official of the educational institution with the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, Washington, D.C. 20210. A copy of such application shall be filed simultaneously with the appropriate Regional Office of the Division.

(b) Application must be made on the official form furnished by the Division and must contain all information required by such form, including among other things, the industries and occupations within each industry in which the student-workers are to be employed as learners, the number of student-workers requested, their proposed hourly rates and learning periods in number of hours, the number of full-time experienced workers in such occupations and their straight-time average hourly earnings during the past year, and a description of the products being manufactured in the school-operated industry. Any applicant may also submit such additional information as may be pertinent.

(c) Any application which fails to present the information required by the forms may be returned to the applicant with a notation of deficiencies and without prejudice against submission of a new or revised application.

§ 527.4 Procedure for action upon an application.

(a) Upon receipt of an application for the employment of student workers as learners, the Administrator or his authorized representative shall issue or deny a special certificate. To the extent he deems appropriate, the Administrator or his authorized representative may provide an opportunity to other interested persons to present data and views on the application prior to granting or denying a student-worker certificate.

(b) If a student-worker certificate issued, it shall be mailed to the educational institution. If a student-worker certificate is denied, notice of such denial shall be sent to the educational institution and such denial shall be without prejudice to the filing of a subsequent application.

necessary by reason of the amendment of the regulations in this part, or may withdraw a student-worker certificate and issue a replacement certificate when necessary to correct omissions or apparent defects in the original certificate.

§ 527.9 Amendment to the regulations in this part.

AUTHORITY: Sec. 14, 52 Stat. 1068, as amended; 29 U.S.C. 214.

§ 528.1 Applicability of the regulations in this part.

The regulations in this part shall govern the annulment or withdrawal of any certificate except a temporary certificate issued pending final action on an application, issued pursuant to Parts 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 524, and 527 of this chapter, and having effect under section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938.

(27 FR 3994, Apr. 26, 1962)

§ 528.2 Definition of terms.

As used in the regulations contained in this part, the term:

(a) "Withdrawal" shall mean termination of validity of a certificate with prospective effect from the time of the action of withdrawal.

(b) "Annulment" shall mean withdrawal of a certificate with retroactive effect to the date of issuance.

(c) "Authorized representative" shall mean:

- (1) The Assistant Regional Administrators for the Wage and Hour Division (who are authorized to redelegate this authority) within their respective regions, and (2) the Caribbean Director of the Wage and Hour Division for the area covered by the Caribbean office.

(d) "Area director" shall include any area director of the Wage and Hour Division.

(21 FR 5316, July 17, 1956, as amended at 28 FR 11231, Oct. 19, 1963; 33 FR 4535, Apr. 30, 1968; 43 FR 28469, June 30, 1978)

§ 528.3 Withdrawal and annulment of certificates.

(a) An authorized representative may withdraw a certificate from any employer within that representative's region who, acting under color of any certificate or application for the employment of learners, handicapped workers, student-workers, student-learners, apprentices, messengers, or full-time students in agriculture, retail, or service establishments, or in institutions of higher education at subminimum wages under section 14 of the act, fails to comply with the limitations in such certificate or otherwise violates the act.

(b) An authorized representative may annul a certificate affected by mistake in its issuance if the employer knowingly induced or knowingly took advantage of the mistake. Where the employer did not knowingly induce the mistake but knowingly took advantage of it, a new certificate shall be issued by the authorized representative if, and on such terms as, such certificate would have been issued had there been no mistake limited in its term from the date of issuance to the date of annulment of the annulled certificate.

(c) A certificate may be withdrawn in the public interest by a representative authorized to issue such type of certificate whenever any part of the exemption it provides is no longer necessary to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment. If appropriate, a more limited replacement certificate may be issued by the authorized representative.

(33 FR 4535, Apr. 30, 1968, as amended at 43 FR 28469, June 30, 1978)

§ 528.4 According opportunity to demonstrate or achieve compliance.

Prior to instituting procedures for withdrawal of a certificate under paragraph (a) of § 528.3, except in cases of willfulness, an area director shall mail a letter to the employer setting forth alleged facts or conduct which may warrant withdrawal of the certificate, and fixing a time and a place for a conference at which the employer shall be accorded an opportunity to show that no cause for withdrawal under § 528.3(a) exists or that compliance has been achieved by paying wages improperly withheld and by taking steps adequate to insure that new cause for annulment or withdrawal will not occur. By written report to the appropriate authorized representative, a copy of which shall be mailed to the employer, the area director shall concisely summarize the conference and shall include conclusions as to whether the employer demonstrated or achieved compliance. If the authorized representative is satisfied that the employer either demonstrated or achieved such compliance, no proceedings shall be instituted under § 528.3(a) for the withdrawal of the certificate.

[33 FR 5535, Apr. 30, 1968, as amended at 43 FR 28469, June 30, 1978]

§ 528.5 Proceedings for withdrawal or annulment.

The representative authorized to withdraw or annul a certificate under § 528.3 shall institute proceedings by a letter mailed to the employer and, where appropriate, to the apprenticeship agency (in the case of apprentice certificates) or the responsible school official (in the case of student-learner certificates), setting forth alleged facts which may warrant such annulment or withdrawal and advising the employer that such an annulment or withdrawal of the scope provided in § 528.7 will take effect at a time specified unless facts are presented which convince the authorized representative that such action should not be taken. The letter shall advise such person, agency, or official of the right to respond by mail or to appear by or with counsel or by other duly qualified representative at a specified time and place. If there is no timely objection to the withdrawal or annulment thus proposed, it shall be deemed effective according to the terms of the letter instituting the annulment or withdrawal proceeding without the necessity of any further action. If objection to the annulment or withdrawal as proposed is made within the specified time the further proceedings shall be as informal as practicable commensurate with orderly dispatch and fairness. Department of Labor investigation files or reports or portions thereof may be considered in such proceedings to the extent they are made available for examination during the proceedings. If objection to the proposed annulment or withdrawal is made by such specified time, the authorized representative shall, after considering all pertinent matters presented, mail a letter to the employer and, where appropriate, to the apprenticeship agency or the responsible school official, setting out that representative's findings of specific pertinent facts and conclusions and that representative's order concerning the proposed annulment or withdrawal. In proceedings instituted for annulment, the order may provide for withdrawal instead of annulment if the proof warrants such withdrawal but fails to support adequately the annulment. Such an order shall be deemed issued and effective according to its terms when mailed.

[22 FR 5683, July 13, 1957, as amended at 43 FR 28469, June 30, 1978]

§ 528.6 Review.

Any employer and, when appropriate, any apprenticeship agency or responsible school official, who expressed timely objection to the proposed action prior to issuance of an order of annulment or withdrawal may obtain review, limited to the question of whether the findings of fact support the order under the regulations in this part. Application for such review shall be in writing addressed to the Administrator and mailed within 15 days after the order is issued. The Administrator may affirm, modify, or reverse the order, or may remand it for further proceedings. The order under review shall not be stayed in effect pending such review. Any aggrieved person may obtain such review of an order entered in proceedings instituted under paragraph (c) of § 528.3.

[21 FR 5316, July 17, 1956, as amended at 22 FR 5683, July 13, 1957]

§ 528.7 Effect of order of annulment or withdrawal.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in such order, any order of annulment or withdrawal under paragraph (a) or (b) of § 528.3 shall be effective to terminate all certifications to which the regulations in this part apply in effect at the establishment where the cause for withdrawal arose or where the annulled certificate had effect. After such annulment or withdrawal, such employer shall be ineligible to obtain or exercise the privileges granted in such a certificate until that employer satisfies the issuing representative that that employer will not again give cause for annulment or withdrawal if a certificate is issued.

Subpart A—Retail or Service Establishments, and Agriculture

- § 519.1 Applicability of the regulations in this subpart.

(a) Statutory provisions. Under section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, and the authority and responsibility delegated to him, her by the Secretary of Labor (36 FR 8755) and by the Assistant Secretary for Employment Standards (39 FR 33841) the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division is authorized and directed, to the extent necessary in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment, to provide by regulation or order for the employment, under certificates, of full-time students in retail or service establishments, or in agriculture. That section contains provisions requiring a wage rate in such certificates of not less than 85 percent of the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the Act, limiting weekly hours of employment, stipulating compliance with the applicable child-labor standards, and safeguarding against the reduction of the full-time employment opportunities of employees other than full-time students employed under certificates.

(b) Source of limitations. Some of the limitations in this subpart are specifically required in section 14(b) of the Act. The other limitations implement the provisions in that section relating to employment opportunities, i.e., the "extent necessary to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment" and the avoidance of a "substantial probability of reducing the full-time employment opportunities of persons other than those to whom the minimum wage rate authorized" under section 14(b) is applicable.

[40 FR 6329, Feb. 11, 1975; 40 FR 22546, May 23, 1975]

§ 519.2 Definitions.

(a) Full-time students. A "full-time student" for the purpose of this subpart is defined as a student who receives primarily daytime instruction at the physical location of a bona fide educational institution, in accordance with the institution's accepted definition of a full-time student. A full-time student retains that status during the student's Christmas, summer and other vacations. An individual who was such a student immediately prior to vacation will be presumed not to have discontinued such status during vacation if local law requires his/her attendance at the end of the vacation. In the absence of such requirement his/her status during vacation will be governed by his/her intention as last communicated to his/her employer. The phrase in section 14(b) of the statute "regardless of age but in compliance with applicable child-labor laws," among other things, restricts the employment in a retail or service establishment to full-time students who are at least 14 years of age because of the application of section 3(1) of the Act. There is a minimum age requirement of 16 years in agriculture for employment during school hours and in any occupation declared hazardous by the Secretary of Labor (Subpart E-1 of Part 570 of this Title.) In addition, there is a minimum age restriction of 14 years generally for employment in agriculture of a full-time student outside school hours for the school district where such employee is living while so employed, except (1) minors 12 or 13 years of age may be employed with written parental or guardian consent or they may work on farms where their parents or guardians are employed, and (2) minors under 12 may work on farms owned or operated by their parents or with parental or guardian consent on farms whose employees are exempt from section 6 by section 13 (a)(6)(A) of the Act.

(b) Bona fide educational institution. A "bona fide educational institution" is ordinarily an accredited institution. However, a school which accredited may be considered a bona fide educational institution in exceptional circumstances, such as where a school is too recently established to have received accreditation.

(c) Retail or service establishment. "Retail or service establishment" means a retail or service establishment as defined in section 13(a)(2) of the Fair Labor Standards Act. The statutory definition is interpreted in § 779 of this chapter.

(d) Agriculture. "Agriculture" means agriculture as defined in section 3 of the Fair Labor Standards Act; the statutory definition is interpreted in Part 780 of this chapter.

(e) Student hours of employment. "Student hours of employment" means hours during which students are employed under full-time student certificates issued under this part, distinguished from "hours of employment of students".

(f) Employer. Section 519.4 defines an agricultural or retail or service establishment employer to employ more than six full-time students at subminimum wages on forward application but before certification. For this purpose, the term "employer" looks to the highest structure of ownership or control, and hence more than a single retail or service establishment or farm, e.g., the holding conglomerate or enterprise, be the "employer". With respect to public employers who operate in service establishments (see § 779 of Part 779), the "employer" means the highest structure of control of the State, municipality, county or other political subdivision.

[40 FR 6329, Feb. 11, 1975, as amended; FR 58745, Nov. 11, 1977; 43 FR 255, 1978]

§ 519.3 Application for a full-time student certificate.

(a) Whenever the employment of full-time students working outside school hours in agriculture, retail or service establishments at wages lower than the minimum wage under section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act is believed to be necessary to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment and the extent of them will not create a substantial probability of reducing full-time employment opportunities of other workers, an application for a full-time student certificate may be filed by the employer with the appropriate Office of the Wage and Hour Administrator, Denver, Colorado; or the Denver, Colorado Area Office for the Denver, Colorado, North Dakota, South Dakota, the Salt Lake City, Utah area Office for Montana.

and Wyoming; and the Caribbean Office for the area it covers). Such application shall be signed by an authorized representative of the employer.

(b) The application must be filed in duplicate on official forms or exact copies thereof. The forms are available at the offices mentioned in paragraph (a) of this section. The application must contain the information as to the type of products sold or services rendered by the establishment, hours of employment during the preceding twelve-month period or data from previous certificates (or applications) as pertinent to the application, and other information for which request is made on the form.

(c) Separate application must be made for each farm or establishment in which authority to employ full-time students at subminimum wage rates is sought.

(d) Application for renewal of a certificate shall be made either on the same type of form as is used for a new application or on an alternate official form. No certificate in effect shall expire until action on such an application shall have been finally determined, provided that such application has been properly executed, and is received by the office specified in paragraph (a) of this section not less than 15 nor more than 30 days prior to the expiration date. A properly executed application is one which fully and accurately contains the information required on the form, and the required certification by an authorized representative of the employer.

§ 519.4 Procedure for action upon an application.

(a) Under certain conditions, an agricultural or retail or service establishment employer may obtain temporary authorization to employ full-time students at subminimum wages. These conditions are: (1) Attestation by the employer that he/she will employ no more than six full-time students at subminimum wages on any workday and that the employment of such students will not reduce the full-time employment opportunities of other persons, and (2) forwarding a properly completed application to the Wage and Hour Division not later than the start of such employment, and (3) posting a notice of such filing at the place(s) specified in paragraph (a) of § 519.6 of this subpart, and (4) compliance during the temporary authorization period with the requirements set forth in paragraphs (b) and (j) through (o) of § 519.6 of this subpart.

(b) Temporary authorization under the conditions set forth in paragraph (a) of this section is effective from the date the application is forwarded to the Wage and Hour Division in conformance with § 519.3 of this subpart. This authorization shall continue in effect for one year from the date of forwarding of the application unless, within 30 days the Administrator or his/her authorized representative denies the application, issues a certificate with modified terms and conditions, or expressly extends the 30-day period of review.

(c) Upon receipt of an application for a certificate, the officer authorized to act upon such application shall issue a certificate if the terms and conditions specified in this subpart are satisfied. To the extent he/she deems appropriate, the authorized officer may provide an opportunity to other interested persons to present data, views, or argument on the application prior to granting or denying a certificate.

(d) Until April 30, 1976, if a certificate is issued, there shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER a general statement of the terms of such certificate together with a notice that, pursuant to § 519.9, for 45 days following such publication any interested person may file a written request for reconsideration or review. Thereafter, applications and certificates will be available for examination in accordance with applicable regulations in Washington, D. C., and in the appropriate Regional Office of the Wage and Hour Division (or the Denver, Colorado Area Office for Colorado, North Dakota, and South Dakota; the Salt Lake City, Utah Area Office for Montana, Utah, and Wyoming; and the Caribbean Office for the area it covers) for establishments in its area. A period of 60 days will be provided after certificate issuance during which any interested person may file a written request for reconsideration or review.

(e) If a certificate is denied, notice of such denial shall be sent to the employer, stating the reason or reasons for the denial. Such denial shall be without prejudice to the filing of any subsequent application.

(40 FR 6329, Feb. 11, 1975, as amended at 42 FR 58745, Nov. 11, 1977)

§ 519.5 Conditions governing issuance of full-time student certificates.

Certificates authorizing the employment of full-time students at subminimum wage rates shall not be issued unless the following conditions are met:

(a) Full-time students are available for employment at subminimum rates; the granting of a certificate is necessary in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment.

(b) The employment of more than six full-time students by an employer will not create a substantial probability of reducing the full-time employment opportunities for persons other than those employed under such certificates.

(c) Abnormal labor conditions as a strike or lockout do not excuse the farm or establishment for which full-time student certificate is refused.

(d) The data given on the application are accurate and based on available records.

(e) The farms or establishments whose experience the applicant meet the requirements of paragraph (h) of § 519.6.

(f) There are no serious outstanding violations of the provisions of a full-time student certificate previously issued to the employer, nor have been any serious violations of the Labor Standards Act (including Labor Regulation No. 3 and the arduous Occupations Orders put in Part 570 of this Chapter) provide reasonable grounds to conclude that the terms of a certificate may not be compiled with, if issued.

(g) The subminimum wage proposed to be paid full-time student under temporary authorization under certificate is not less than 85 percent of the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the Act.

(h) Certificates will not be issued where such issuance will result in a reduction of the wage rate paid to a dependent employee, including current dependent employees.

(40 FR 6329, Feb. 11, 1975, as amended at 42 FR 58745, Nov. 11, 1977)

§ 519.6 Terms and conditions of authorization under full-time student certificates and under temporary authorization.

(a) A full-time student certificate will not be issued for a period of more than 1 year, nor will it be issued retroactively. It shall specify its effective and expiration dates. A copy of the certificate shall be posted in conspicuous places in the establishment, the farm readily visible to all employees, for example, adjacent to the clock or on the bulletin board, and notices to the employees. If temporary authorization is in effect under paragraph (a) of § 519.4 of this subpart notice thereof shall be similar during the effective period of authorization.

(b) Full-time students may be employed under a certificate for not more than 85 percent of the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the Act.

(c) For retail or service establishment employers or agricultural employers, the allowable extension of full-time student employment varies depending on:

- (1) The employer proposes to employ no more than six full-time students at subminimum wages on any workday;
- (2) the applicant requests authorization for not more than 10 percent of the total hours of all employees employed in any month; or
- (3) the applicant requests authorization for not more than 10 percent of the total hours of all employees employed in any month.

quests authority for more than 10 percent of the total hours during any month. (For agricultural employers, the month of full-time student certificated employment may vary somewhat from the month in a previous year on which the certificate is based, depending on seasonal factors.)

(d) Retail or service establishment employers or agricultural employers requesting authorization to employ not more than six full-time students at subminimum wages on any workday. An application from such an applicant provides temporary authorization for the employment of full-time students at subminimum wages: Provided, The conditions set forth in paragraph (a) of § 519.4 of this subpart are met. Upon review of the application by the Administration or his/her authorized representative, the extent of the temporary authority may be modified.

(e) Applicants requesting authorization for more than 10 percent of the total hours of all employees during any month. For such an applicant, certificates may authorize the employment of full-time student at subminimum wages for up to 10 percent of the total hours of all employees during any month, regardless of past practice of employing students. (Note: An establishment which has not previously held a certificate may be authorized 10 percent of the total hours of all employees during any month. Applicants requesting authority under this paragraph need not refer to paragraphs (f), (g), or (h) of this section.)

(f) Applicants requesting authorization for more than 10 percent of the total monthly hours of all employees during any month with records of hours of employment of students and coverage by the Act prior to May 1974. For such an applicant, certificates may not authorize full-time student employment at subminimum wages in excess of the highest ratio under any of these three formulas: (1) The proportion of student hours of employment (i.e., of full-time students under certificates) to total hours of all employees for the corresponding month of the preceding twelve-month period; (2) the maximum proportion of student hours of employment to total hours of all employees (in any corresponding month), applicable to the issuance of full-time student certificates before May 1974; or (3) 10 percent of the total hours of all employees, during any month. (Note: An establishment which is entitled to monthly allowances ranging from 5 to 20 percent may be authorized 10 percent for those months which were less than 10 percent and retain the higher allowances for those months above 10 percent.)

(g) Applicants requesting authorization for more than 10 percent of the total hours of all employees during any month with records of hours of employment of students and new cover- age under the 1974 Amendments. For such an applicant, the highest permissible allowance under a certificate during any month is the highest ratio under any of these three formulas: (1) The proportion of hours of employment of full-time students to total hours of all employees during the corresponding month from May 1973 through April 1974; (2) the proportion of student hours of employment (i.e., of hours of full-time students under certificates) to total hours of all employees during the corresponding month of the preceding twelve-month period (an alternative which is not applicable to all months of the year until 12 months after May 1, 1974); or (3) 10 percent of the total hours of all employees, during any month. (See notes under paragraphs (e) and (f) of this section.)

(h) Applicants requesting authorization for more than 10 percent of the total hours of all employees during any month without records of student hours worked. For such an applicant, the permissible proportion under certificate of full-time student hours at subminimum wages to total hours of all employees is based on the "practice" during the preceding twelve-month period of: (1) Similar establishments of the same employer in the same general metropolitan areas in which such establishment is located; (2) similar establishments in the same or nearby communities if such establishment is not in a metropolitan area; or (3) other establishments of the same general character operating in the community or the nearest comparable community. ("Practice" means either the certificate allowances or the proportion between the actual student hours of employment to the total hours of all employees.)

(i) An overestimate of total hours of employment of all employees for a current month resulting in the employment of the full-time students in excess of the hours authorized in paragraph (e), (f), (g), or (h) of this section may be corrected by compensating them for the difference between the subminimum wages actually paid and the applicable minimum under section 6 of the Act for the excess hours. Similarly, if an agricultural employer or a retail or service establishment employer has authorization to employ no more than six full-time students at subminimum wages on any workday but exceeds that number, the excess may be corrected by compensating the additional full-time students for the difference between the subminimum wages actually paid and the applicable minimum under section 6 of the Act. This additional compensation shall be paid on the regular payday next after the end of the period.

(j) Full-time students shall not be permitted to work at subminimum wages for more than 8 hours a day, nor for more than 40 hours a week when school is not in session, nor more than 20 hours a week when school is in session (apart from a full-time student's summer vacation), except when a full-day school holiday occurs on a day when the establishment is open for business, the weekly limitation on the maximum number of hours which may be worked shall be increased by 8 hours for each school holiday but in no event shall the hour limitation be exceeded. (No school is considered to be in session for a student attending summer school.) Whenever a full-time student is employed for more than 20 hours any workweek in conformance with this paragraph, the employer's note in his/her payroll records shall state that school was not in session during a part of that workweek or the student was in his/her summer vacation.

(k) Neither oppressive child labor defined in section 3(1) of the Act nor regulations issued under the Act which prohibit any other employment in violation of a Federal, State or local child labor law or ordinance shall come within the terms of any certificate issued under this subpart.

(l) Full-time students shall be employed at subminimum wages under this subpart only outside of school hours, i.e., only outside of scheduled hours of instruction of individual student, or, in the case of agriculture, only outside of school hours for the school district where the employee is living while so employed if the employee is under 16 years of age.

(m) No full-time student shall be hired under a full-time student certificate while abnormal labor conditions such as a strike or lockout, exist at the establishment or farm.

(n) No provision of any full-time student certificate shall excuse noncompliance with higher standards applicable to full-time students which are established under the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act or any other Federal law, State law, local ordinance or other agreement. Thus, certificates issued under this law have no application to employment under the Service Contract Act.

(o) No full-time student certificate shall apply to any employee to whom a certificate issued under section 6 or (c) of the Act has application.

(d) A request for review shall be granted where reasonable grounds for the review are set forth in the request.

§ 519.10 Amendment or revocation of the regulations in this subpart.

Subpart B—Institutions of Higher Education

§ 519.11 Applicability of the regulations in this subpart.

(a) Statutory provisions. Under section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, and the authority and responsibility delegated to him/her by the Secretary of Labor (36 FR 8755) and by the Assistant Secretary for Employment Standards (39 FR 3384), the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division is authorized and directed, to the extent necessary in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment, to provide by regulation or order for the employment, under certificates, of full-time students in institutions of higher education. That section contains provisions requiring a wage rate in such certificates of not less than 85 percent of the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the Act, limiting weekly hours of employment, stipulating compliance with the applicable child-labor standards, and safeguarding against the reduction of the full-time employment opportunities of employees other than full-time students employed under certificates.

(b) Source of limitations. Some of the limitations expressed in this subpart are specifically required in section 14(b) of the Act. The other limitations implement the provisions relating to employment opportunities, i.e., the "extent necessary in order to prevent curtailment of opportunity for employment" and the requirement that the regulations shall "preclude standards and requirements to the extent that this paragraph will not create a substantial probability of reducing full-time employment opportunities for persons other than those to whom minimum wage rate authorization section 14(b) of the Act is applicable."

[40 FR 6329, Feb. 11, 1975; 40 FR 22546, May 23, 1975]

§ 519.12 Definitions.

(a) Full-time students. A "full-time student" for the purpose of this part is defined as one who meets the accepted definition of a full-time student of the institution of higher education which employs him/her. A student retains that status during the student's Christmas, summer, and other vacations, even when a student is taking one or more courses during his/her summer or other vacation. The phrase in section 14(b) of the Act "regardless of age but in compliance with applicable child labor laws" among other things means the employment in an institution of higher education to full-time status who are at least 14 years of age at the time of the application of section 14 of the Act.

(b) Institution of higher education. An "institution of higher education" is an institution above the secondary level, such as a college or university, junior college, or a professional school of engineering, law, library science, social work, etc. It is one that is recognized by a national accrediting organization or association as determined by the U.S. Commissioner of Education. An institution of higher education: (1) Admits as regular students only individuals having a certificate of graduation from a high school which is recognized as equivalent of such a certificate; and (2) is legally authorized within a State to provide a program of education beyond high school; provides an educational program which it normally awards a baccalaureate degree, or provides not less than a two-year program which is accepted toward such a degree in engineering, mathematics, or the physical, biological, or chemical sciences which is designed to prepare the student to work as a technician and at a semi-professional level in engineering, scientific, or technological fields which require a deep understanding and application of engineering, scientific, or mathematical principles of knowledge.

§ 519.13 Application for a full-time student certificate.

(a) Whenever the employment of full-time students working in an institution at wages lower than the minimum wage applicable under of the Fair Labor Standards Act is believed to be necessary to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment and employment of them will not create a substantial probability of reducing the full-time employment opportunities of other workers, an application for a certificate may be filed by their employer with the appropriate Regional Office of the Wage and Hour Division (or the Denver, Colorado Area Office for Colorado, North Dakota and South Dakota; the Salt Lake City, Utah Area Office for Montana, Utah and Wyoming; and the Caribbean Office for the area it covers). Such an application shall be signed by an authorized representative of the employer.

(b) The application provided for under § 519.14 must be filed in duplicate on official forms or exact copies thereof. The forms are available at the offices mentioned in paragraph (a) of this section. The application must contain the information on numbers of full-time students and full-time employees (other than full-time students), minimum full-time student wages, and other information for which request is made on the form.

(c) Separate application must be made for each campus of an institution of higher education for which authority to employ full-time students at subminimum wage rates is sought.

(d) Application for renewal of a certificate shall be made on the same type of form as is used for a new application. No certificate in effect shall expire until action on such an application shall have been finally determined, provided that such application has been properly executed, and is received by the office specified in paragraph (a) of this section not less than 15 nor more than 30 days prior to the expiration date. A properly executed application is one which fully and accurately contains the information required on the form, and the required certification by an authorized representative of the employer.

§ 519.11 Procedure for action upon an application.

(a) Under certain conditions, an institution of higher education has temporary authorization to employ full-time students at subminimum wages. These conditions are: (1) Absence of an effective finding by the Secretary that the institution has been employing full-time students under certificates in violation of the requirements of section 14(b)(3) of the Act or of these regulations; and (2) forwarding of a properly completed application to the Wage and Hour Division not later than the start of employment of full-time students at subminimum wages:

and (3) posting a notice of such filing at the place(s) specified in paragraph (a) of § 519.16 of this subpart; and (4) compliance during the temporary authorization period with the requirements set forth in paragraphs (b) and (e) through (j) of § 519.16 of this subpart.

(b) Temporary authorization under the conditions set forth in paragraph (a) of this section is effective from the date the application is forwarded to the Wage and Hour Division in conformance with § 519.13 of this subpart. This authorization shall continue in effect for one year from the date of forwarding of the application unless, within 30 days, the Administrator or his/her authorized representative denies the application, issues a certificate with modified terms and conditions, or expressly extends the 30-day period of review.

(c) Upon receipt of an application for a certificate, the officer authorized to act upon such application shall issue a certificate if the terms and conditions specified in this subpart are satisfied. To the extent he/she deems appropriate, the authorized officer may provide an opportunity to other interested persons to present data, views, or argument on the application prior to granting or denying a certificate.

(d) Until April 30, 1976, if a certificate is issued there shall be published in the Federal Register a general statement of the terms of such certificate together with a notice that, pursuant to § 519.19, for 45 days following such publication any interested person may file a written request for reconsideration or review. Thereafter, applications and certificates will be available for examination in accordance with applicable regulations in Washington, D.C., and in the appropriate Regional Office of the Wage and Hour Division (or the Denver, Colorado Area Office for Colorado, North Dakota, and South Dakota; the Salt Lake City, Utah Area Office for Montana, Utah, and Wyoming; and the Caribbean Office for the area it covers) for institutions of higher education in its area. A period of 60 days will be provided after certificate issuance during which any interested person may file a written request for reconsideration or review.

(e) If a certificate is denied, notice of such denial shall be sent to the employer, stating the reason or reasons for the denial. Such denial shall be without prejudice to the filing of any subsequent application.

§ 519.15 Conditions governing issuance of full-time student certificates.

Certificates authorizing the employment of full-time students at subminimum wage rates shall not be issued unless the following conditions are met:

(a) Full-time students are available for employment at subminimum rate the granting of a certificate is necessary in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment.

(b) The employment of full-time students will not create a substantial probability of reducing the full-time employment opportunities for persons other than those employed under such certificates.

(c) Abnormal labor conditions such as a strike or lockout do not exist in the units of the campus for which full-time student certificate is requested.

(d) The data given on the application are accurate and based on available records.

(e) There are no serious outstanding violations of the provisions of a full-time student certificate previously issued to the employer, nor have there been any serious violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act (including Child Labor Regulation No. 3 and the Hazardous Occupations Orders published in Part 570 of this chapter) which provide reasonable grounds to conclude that the terms of a certificate may be complied with, if issued.

(f) The subminimum wage rate proposed to be paid full-time student under temporary authorization under certificate is not less than a percent of the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the Act.

(g) Full-time students are not employed by an institution of higher education at subminimum wages under this subpart in unrelated trade or businesses as defined and applied under sections 511 through 515 of the Internal Revenue Code, such as apartment houses, stores, or other businesses not primarily catering to the students of the institution.

(h) Certificates will not be issued where such issuance will result in a reduction of the wage rate paid to a current employee, including current student employees.

§ 519.16 Terms and conditions of employment under full-time student certificates and under temporary authorization.

(a) A full-time student certificate will not be issued for a period of more than 1 year, nor will it be issued actively. It shall specify its effective and expiration dates. A copy of the certificate shall be posted during the effective period in a conspicuous place in the institution of higher education readily visible to all employees, for example, adjacent to the clock or on the bulletin board used for notices to the employees. If temporary authorization is in effect under paragraph (a) of § 519.14, a notice shall be similarly posted during the effective period of such authorization.

(b) Full-time students may be employed under a certificate at a wage rate of not less than 85 percent of the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the

(c) An institution of higher education shall not employ full-time students at subminimum wages under this subpart in unrelated trades or businesses as defined and applied under sections 511 through 515 of the Internal Revenue Code, such as apartment houses, stores, or other businesses not primarily catering to the students of the institution.

(d) An institution of higher education subject to a finding by the Secretary that it is in violation of the requirements of section 14(b)(3) of the Act or of this subpart must be issued a full-time student certificate before it can employ full-time students at wages below those required by section 6 of the Act. The Administrator or his/her authorized representative will not issue a full-time student certificate to such an institution without adequate assurances and safeguards to insure that the violations found by the Secretary will not continue.

(e) Full-time students shall not be permitted to work at subminimum wages for more than 8 hours a day, nor for more than 40 hours a week when school is not in session, nor more than 20 hours a week when school is in session (apart from a full-time student's summer vacation), except that when a full-day school holiday occurs the weekly limitation on the maximum hours which may be worked shall be increased by 8 hours for each such holiday but in no event shall the 40-hour limitation be exceeded. (Note: School is considered to be in session for a student taking one or more courses during a summer or other vacation.)

Whenever a full-time student is employed for more than 20 hours in any workweek in conformance with this paragraph, the employer shall note in his/her payroll that school was not in session during all or part of that workweek or the student was in his/her summer vacation.

(f) Neither oppressive child labor as defined in section 3(1) of the Act and regulations issued under the Act nor any other employment in violation of a Federal, State or local child labor law or ordinance shall come within the terms of any certificate issued under this subpart.

(g) Full-time students shall be employed at subminimum wages under this subpart only outside of their school hours, i.e., only outside of the scheduled hours of instruction of the individual full-time student.

(h) No full-time student shall be hired under a full-time student certificate for work in a unit or units of the campus where abnormal labor conditions, such as a strike or lockout, exist.

(i) No provision of any full-time student certificate shall excuse noncompliance with higher standards applicable to full-time students which may be established under the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act or any other Federal law, State law, local ordinance, or union or other agreement. Thus, certificates issued under this subpart have no application to employment under the Service Contract Act.

(j) No full-time student certificate shall apply to any employee to whom a certificate issued under section 14(a) or (c) of the Act has application.

(2) The institution shall obtain at the time of hiring and keep in its records information that the employee is its full-time student at the physical location of the institution in accordance with its accepted definition of a full-time student. (c) The records required in this section, including a copy of any full-time student certificate issued, shall be kept for a period of 3 years at the place and made available for inspection, both as provided in Part 516 of this chapter.

§ 519.19 Reconsideration and review.

APPENDIX G
REHABILITATION ACT

REAUTHORIZATION OF THE REHABILITATION ACT

REHABILITATION ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1992

The amendments include changes throughout to incorporate the values and philosophy of the Americans with Disabilities Act. There is an overall declaration of the purpose that includes the principles of equality of opportunity, full inclusion and integration in society, employment, independent living, and economic and social self-sufficiency of individual's with disabilities.

Terminology

The terminology used is updated throughout the act. All references to "individuals with handicaps" are changed to "individuals with disabilities". In addition, the term "rehabilitation facility" is replaced by "community rehabilitation program" and the term "rehabilitation engineering" is replaced by "rehabilitation technology" and it is clarified that the term includes rehabilitation engineering, assistive technology devices, and assistive technology services.

State Plan

The state must assure that it is using Title VI-C funds as a supplement to Title I funds, explain how it is serving all eligible individuals; make appropriate use of existing information from other agencies in assessment for eligibility and rehabilitation needs; outreach to minorities and individuals who are underserved; have interagency cooperation; review extended employment and integrated placements; assure smooth transition services from school to work; demonstrate increased consumer choice and control; and assure assistive technology devices and services and worksite assessment of eligibility and rehabilitation needs.

Individualized Written Rehabilitation Plan

There are several changes to the IWRP to ensure that the desires of the client are taken into account during the rehabilitation process. It will now be required that the client and the rehabilitation counselor jointly develop, agree and sign the IWRP. The plan must be consistent with the strengths, priorities, concerns and abilities of the individual and include a statement by the individual, in his or her own words, on how she or he was involved in the process of choosing among the alternative goals, objectives, services, providers, and methods used to provide or procure such services.

The amendments clarify that vocational rehabilitation services available under the basic state grant include personal assistance services, transition services and supported employment services.

Elicibility

There are provisions to streamline the eligibility process by requiring greater use of existing data and information provided by other agencies and by the individual with disabilities and their families. The eligibility determinations must be made within 60 days from the date of application.

The amendments clarify that an individual is eligible for services under the basic state grant program if he or she is an individual with a disability and requires vocational rehabilitation services to prepare for, enter, engage in, or retain gainful employment. The definition of an individual with a disability is an individual who (i) has a physical or mental impairment which for the individual constitutes or results in a substantial impediment to employment and (ii) can benefit in terms of employment outcome from vocational rehabilitation services.

The amendments specify that an individual with a disability is presumed to be capable of benefitting from vocational rehabilitation services unless the state agency can demonstrate by clear and convincing evidence that the individual cannot benefit. Further, if the severity of the disability is the reason for a determination of ineligibility, the State must first undertake an extended evaluation.
