ABSTRACT

This document, which is intended for vocational educators, contains the materials needed for an individual learning project designed to help students prepare for successful employment. The document begins with a scenario for the project, which is designed to help students develop the skills required to find employment and requires them to complete the following tasks: (1) write personal and career goals; (2) conduct a job search; (3) prepare a resume; (4) complete a job application; (5) write a letter of application; and (6) prepare for the employment interview process. The next section of the document is a detailed project plan that lists the steps entailed in each of the six tasks students are expected to perform, and also includes lists of print and Internet resources to assist students in completing the individual tasks. Concluding the guide are descriptions of the project tools and learning environment. Appendixes constituting nearly 50% of the document contain the following items: goal setting form; job search form; resume format; practice job application form; example letter of application; a list of frequently asked interview questions; and project evaluation form for teachers. Job Readiness Individual Project

Project Scenario

Job readiness skills are those skills that will assist you in preparing for successful employment. These skills include goal setting, job search, resume writing, job application, letter of application, and interviewing. This project will help you develop these job readiness skills that you must have to secure employment in your chosen career field.

You will be given a sequence of instructions and examples to assist you in completing this project. There are a variety of resources available to you in developing your job readiness skills. Your instructor will give you a time frame for beginning and completing this project.

Objectives

Project Objective:

At the completion of this project, you will complete the job readiness process by performing the following:

- 1. Write personal and career goals.
- 2. Conduct a job search.
- 3. Prepare a resume.
- 4. Complete a job application.
- 5. Write a letter of application.
- 6. Prepare for the interview process.

Job Readiness Individual Project

Tasks

The student will complete the following parts of the project:

6. Prepare for the interview process.

Participate in a mock interview for a position related to your field. Your instructor will schedule you for a mock interview after you have received training in the interview process. The following are some tips for interviewing:

- Gather information about the company.
- Make sure you can pronounce the interviewer's name correctly.
- Be prepared to answer questions about your resume and/or application.
- Practice answers to questions most frequently asked during interviews.
- Write down two or three questions that you would like to ask the interviewer.
- Go to the interview alone.
- Dress in moderation.
- Give the interviewer a firm handshake if the interviewer's hand is offered.
- Make eye contact during the interview.
- Use proper grammar.
- Maintain good posture.
- Thank the interviewer.

Mr. Donald Hyatt The Money Store 4321 Office Street, N.W. Oklahoma City, OK 73119

Dear Mr. Hyatt

The position you describe in today's Daily Oklahoman for a secretary with The Money Store is intriguing to me. My education and experience make me the perfect candidate.

During my last two years at Metro Tech, I was enrolled in the Administrative Services program. Transcription and proofreading are two of the skill areas I completed which would qualify me for this position.

My education and experience relevant to the secretarial position are included in my enclosed resume.

I would appreciate an interview with you for this opening. I can be reached at 848-5627at home after 3:00 p.m.

Sincerely

Ashley Wright

Appendix F: Frequently Asked Interview Questions

Job Readiness Individual Project

The following are questions that are frequently asked by employers during interviews. Possible answers are listed below each question. Think about these questions and decide how you would answer them in an interview situation.

1.	Tell	me	about	yourself.

"My background to date has been centered around preparing myself to become the very best _____ I can become. Let me tell you specifically how I've prepared myself...."

2. What do you see yourself doing five years from now?

Figure the promotions you should get if you work hard for this company over the next five years. Tell the manager you plan to be working for him or her in that position.

3. What are your long range career objectives?

"Although it's certainly difficult to predict things far into the future, I know the goals I have set. Within five years, I would like to become the very best _____ your company has. I would like to become the expert that others rely upon. In doing so, I feel I will be fully prepared to take on any greater responsibilities that might be presented in the long term."

4. What are the most important rewards you expect in your business career?

Money is not a good answer. A good answer is something like, "having responsibilities and being acknowledged when the job is done right."

5. What do you consider to be your greatest strengths and weaknesses?

For strengths, stress the positives about yourself. For weaknesses, focus on work, not character weaknesses. Turn it into a positive, "I'm accused of being a workaholic. I like to stay and get caught up on the odds and ends before I go home."

Appendix F: Frequently Asked Interview Questions

Job Readiness Individual Project

6. How do you plan to achieve your career goals?

If additional training is required to reach your career goals, indicate that you plan to continue your education. Continuing education courses suggest growth, ambition, promotability – and may qualify for tuition assistance. Think about other steps you may need to follow to reach your career goals.

7. Why did you choose the career for which you are preparing?

Talk about the interesting details of the job and why they fascinate you.

8. How do you think a friend or teacher would describe you?

Concentrate on the positive qualities related to your friendships or educational experiences. Regarding school, talk about your favorite subjects, school activities, and strongest areas of study.

9. How has your educational experience prepared you for a business career?

Explain your education or training and tell how it helped prepare you for this job.

10. Why should I hire you?

Give an answer such as, "Because I sincerely believe that I'm the best person for the job. I realize that there are many other individuals that have the ability to do this job. I also have that ability. I bring an additional quality that makes me the very best person for the job — my attitude for excellence. Not just giving lip service to excellence, but putting every part of myself into achieving it."

11. What do you think it takes to be successful in a company like ours?

You may need to call the Chamber of Commerce. Get information on the company size and its key products or services, the markets where it competes, and its overall reputation. Then relate positive work habits to the specific mission of the company.

Revised 3/22/99

Appendix F: Frequently Asked Interview Questions

Job Readiness Individual Project

12.In what ways do you think you can make a contribution to our company?

List the specific job-related skills that you will bring to the company; stress your areas of strength. Also talk about the soft skills that you will contribute to the company's team: "I am a strong team player and believe in doing my part to contribute to the success of the company. I am a responsible and reliable worker...."
