ABSTRACT

EDRS PRICE

This guide is designed to give the student helpful information about Arizona's Instrument To Measure the Standards (AIMS) for grade 3. The guide provides examples of the type of questions students see on AIMS and explains how items are scored. It does not teach what the student needs to know to do well on AIMS, but it will help the student know what to expect and help parents know how to help their children. AIMS consists of multiple choice, short-answer, and extended writing questions. Some test-taking strategies are outlined, and descriptions are given of the reading, writing, and mathematics tests. Appendixes contain the scoring keys for the sample test items included for each area, the scoring guide for the writing test, and a writer's checklist for preparing the writing tasks. (SLD)

QUESTIONS NOUT AINS

The purpose of this 3rd Grade Student Guide to AIMS is to give you helpful information about the 3rd grade AIMS (Arizona's Instrument to Measure the Standards) which you will take for the first time as a third grader. This guide will show you examples of the types of questions you will see on AIMS and explain how your answers will be scored. It will not TEACH YOU what you need to know to do well on the test, but it will help you to know what to expect.

What is AIMS?

Arizona's Instrument to Measure the Standards (AIMS) measures what you know and are able to do in the Reading, Writing, and Math Standards.

Who has to take AIMS?

All students will take AIMS in grades 3, 5, 8, and high school.

When will I take AIMS?

In the spring of your third grade year.

What if I don't do well on AIMS?

Your teachers and parents will have information about what you know and can do. They can give you the help you may need to do better.

How can I use this guide?

Read what it tells you about the test. Practice the test questions. Ask your teacher about anything you do not understand.

ESPECIALLY FOR PARENTS

The Arizona Academic Standards were adopted by the State Board of Education in 1996. These standards will provide the foundation for all Arizona students to receive a quality, rigorous, world-class education to prepare them for the  $21^{st}$  century. By setting high standards for our children, we ensure that they have the opportunity to make many career choices once they graduate from an Arizona high school. We will also have a clear idea of how well both our students and our schools are doing along the way in order to meet this goal.

Within each of the content standards in math, reading and writing are the concepts and performance objectives that define what students should know and be able to do at various levels of achievement: readiness (kindergarten), foundations (grades 1-3), essentials (4-8), proficiency (9-12) and distinction (honors). The third grade AIMS assesses the knowledge, skills, and abilities learned at the foundations level (grades 1-3). The sample questions in this book are representative of the types of questions that will be found on the third grade assessment. To obtain a copy of the Standards with the concepts and performance objectives, you can contact your local school, district office, or the Arizona Department of Education through the Internet at www.ade.state.az.us or at 602.542.3088.

The Arizona Academic Standards were developed by content committees made up of content education specialists and other education professionals as well as business professionals and community leaders from throughout the state of Arizona. As a foundation, the committees began with the state's Essential Skills already in place and referenced the curriculum standards established by the various national organizations. The Arizona Academic Standards have been nationally recognized as being among the best in the nation.

WHAT PARENTS CAN DO

- Become familiar with the expectations stated in the Arizona Academic Standards in each content area and each level.
- Ask questions at your school. Is the curriculum aligned to the standards? Are teachers teaching the standards? What is available for students who are struggling?
- Make sure your child attends school!
- "H.U.G." your child. The Department of Education distributes a H.U.G. (Help, Understanding, Guidance) brochure that offers specific suggestions to support at home what your child is learning at school. For further information, call 602.542.7429.

- Participate in your child's learning.
- Monitor your child's progress.
- Be supportive (of your child, your child's teacher, and the school)!

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE WITH YOUR CHILD

- REMEMBER: You don't have to be an expert to help your child be successful on AIMS. Just spending a few minutes daily encouraging your child will help her/him.
- Discuss the purpose of the standards, AIMS and this guide with your child.
- Spend time with your child working through the items.
- Be positive and encouraging! Your attitude will affect your child's attitude. Build up his/her confidence and diminish anxiety.
- Note the items (concept and performance objective number, stated, for example, as WF-2.PO1) or types of items that your child seems to have difficulty understanding.
- Talk to your child's teacher and share your observations and concerns.
- Ask your child's teacher how the Guide is being used in the classroom.
- Ask how you might help your child at home in those areas in which he/she is having difficulty.

THE CANADA

 Attend school everyday! You miss out if you are not there.

• Ask your teacher for help if you do not understand your schoolwork. There is no such thing as a silly question!

Pay attention in class and always try your best.

 Do your homework - everyone needs PRACTICE in order to get better.

MORE ABOUT THE TEST... TYPES OF QUESTIONS

There are three types of questions on AIMS:

Nultiple Choice

In these types of questions, you will be given four answer choices. You will need to choose the BEST answer of the four and mark the answer by filling in the matching bubble. These questions are on the Reading, Writing, and Math tests. They are worth one point each.

Short Inswer

In these types of questions, you will be given space to write your own answer to the question. It may be a few words, a sentence, or a paragraph. You will need to show your work for the math questions. These types of questions are on the Reading, Writing, and Math tests and are worth 2 or 3 points each.

Extended Writing

In this type of question, you will be asked to write a long (one to two pages) response to a writing task. For example, you may be asked to write a story, or tell about something you know. Your final copy will be scored using a six trait scoring guide, called a rubric. It will look for certain traits or qualities in your writing. These are ideas, organization, voice, word choice, sentence fluency, and conventions. This type of question is on the Writing test only. It is worth twelve points on the test.

Tips when you are asked to write.....

- Be sure you understand the question.
- Answer the question as completely as you can.
- Explain your ideas clearly.
- Use your best handwriting.
- Read what you have written to be sure it says what you want it to say.

Test-taking Strategies

Here are some helpful hints for test taking. Read and talk about them with your teacher and parents. They can make a difference!

• Be physically prepared. Get plenty of rest the night before. On the day of the test, eat a healthy breakfast.

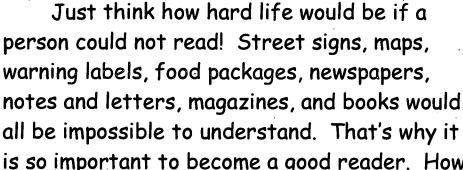

- Be mentally prepared. Try to relax and do your best. It is not unusual to feel nervous about tests. The key is being well-prepared. Then you can view the test as an opportunity to truly show what you know and are able to do.
- Listen to directions as the teacher explains them. Ask about any directions you do not understand.
- Read the directions carefully.
- Look for key words that will help you identify what the question is asking you to do.
- Take your time and work at your own pace. AIMS is not a timed test, but you do want to use your time well.
- If you really get stuck on a problem, move on to the next question. Don't forget to go back to the ones you skipped! Sometimes you'll get a fresh idea about those problems after a short break.
- Make educated guesses if you are unsure of an answer. First eliminate choices that are obviously incorrect, then logically select from the remaining choices.
- 35/5
- Review your answers when you are finished. Re-read written responses to check that they are clear.

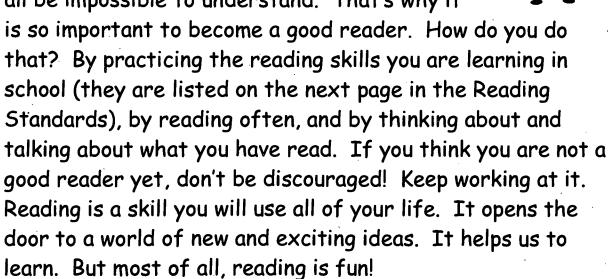

The Reading test will have about six passages, both fiction, such as a story or a poem, and nonfiction, such as a map, a set of directions or an informational article. You will be asked to read each passage and then answer the questions about what you just read. Some of the questions are multiple choice, and some will ask you to write a short response, which may be a few words or a few sentences. There are about 40 questions on the Reading test and it should take about 1-2 hours to complete. It is NOT A TIMED TEST which means your teacher will give you as much time as you need to complete the test. Take your time and do your best, but use your time well.

READING STANDARDS: FOUNDATIONS LEVEL

Students learn and effectively apply a variety of reading strategies for comprehending, interpreting, and evaluating a wide range of texts including fiction, nonfiction, classic, and contemporary works.

R.F1: Use phonetic skills to decode words

R.F2: Use word recognition and decoding strategies such as phonetic skills, context clues, picture clues, word order, prefixes and suffixes to comprehend written selections

R.F3: Use reading comprehension strategies such as drawing conclusions, summarizing, making predictions, identifying cause and effect, and differentiating fiction from nonfiction

R.F4: Identify facts and the main idea, sequence events, define and differentiate characters, and determine an author's purpose in a range of traditional and contemporary literature

R.F5: Analyze selections of fiction, nonfiction and poetry for their literary elements such as character, setting, plot, sequence of events and organization of text

R.F6: Read and comprehend consumer information such as forms, newspaper ads, warning bels and safety pamphlets

F7: Follow a list of directions and evaluate those directions for clarity

R8: Recognize the historical and cultural perspectives of literary selections

HINTS FOR IMPROVING YOUR

AIMS - READING

- You will be asked to read different types of fiction and nonfiction. Each reading will have a different purpose.
   Read each passage and the questions carefully.
- Try to get the "big picture" or overall point of the story, poem, or article.
  Pay attention to the important details that support the main idea.
- Use the strategies you have learned to identify a word you may not know.
- In multiple choice questions, choose the best response to the question.
- In short answers, be sure to answer the question clearly and completely.
   Think about each question before you write. Organize your thoughts before you begin writing. Read what you have written to be sure it makes sense.
- Manage your time so that you won't feel rushed answering questions that ask for a written response. Again, this is not a timed test, but you do want to use your time well.

Sample Reading Article

Directions: Read the sample article and answer Reading questions 1-12.

The story below is from a book called The Josefina Story Quilt. The book is about a girl named Faith and her family who are moving to California in 1850. Josefina is Faith's pet hen. Faith's father did not want to bring Josefina on the family's wagon, but Faith promised that the hen would not cause any problems.

Trouble

At night the wagons made a circle around the animals. Women cooked the meals over campfire. Afterward, there was singing and banjo music. Faith let Josefina out for a stretch.

Suddenly, "WOOOOF!" A dog ran up to Josefina and barked fierce at her. Josefina squawked and ran.

"Come back!" yelled Faith. But it was too late. Josefina was in the middle of the animals. Horses snorted and reared. Cows kicked and mooed. Oxen bellowed.

"That pesky hen!" Pa shouted and ran after her. "She almost started a stampede," Pa said angrily. "OUT SHE GOES!"

"Please Pa," begged Faith,
"give her one more chance. It was the dog's fault."

"Faith is right," said Ma. "I saw the whole thing."

Pa put Josefina back in her cage. "Just one more chance," he said.

That night Faith whispered, "Josefina, please try to be good."

"Cluck!...Cluck!...Cluck!" said the hen. They understood one another as true friends do.

Writing is a skill that is not only important but is also fun. It is a way to share our ideas with others. We will use this skill all of our lives. It takes practice and hard work to become a good writer. We need to look at our own writing as a reader does and be sure that our writing says what we want it to say. On the next page is a list of writing skills that you should know and be able to do by the end of your third grade year. Talk with your teacher and your parents to be sure you understand what they mean. And practice your writing - notes, lists, directions, invitations, letters, reports, and stories. That's the best way to become a better writer

Questions in AIMS - Writing will be multiple choice and short answer. You will also be asked to write one longer piece of writing (one to two pages), for example, a story. You will be given time to plan, draft, revise, edit, and write a final copy. AIMS is NOT A TIMED TEST, so your teacher will give you as much time as you need to finish the test. But you do need to use your time well! The test has about 35 questions. There are sample questions on the next pages. There are also examples of student writing that help you see what this type of writing task will look like and what a strong and a weak response might be. This will help you understand the expectations for the writing part of this test.

HOW TO USE THE WRITING SAMPLES IN THIS SECTION

At the bottom of this page is an example of an extended (longer) writing task you will be given on the AIMS - Writing. On the next few pages are sample papers that third grade students wrote in response to this writing task, with the scores they were given. Follow the steps below to help you use these samples.

- 1. Be sure you understand the task: what is it the question is asking you to write about?
- 2. Read the papers these third graders wrote.
- 3. Think about the writing. Are the writer's ideas clear? Is the paper organized with a beginning, middle and end? Can you hear the writer's voice? Did the writer choose words carefully? Do the sentences make sense? Did the writer edit the paper carefully for mistakes?
- 4. Talk about these papers with your teacher and other students. What did you see in these papers that helped you understand the writer's message? Where does the paper need work?
- 5. Read the scores with your teacher or a parent to see if you understand and agree with the comments made about each score.
- 6. Write your own paper for practice.
- 7. Ask your teacher to score your paper (or score it yourself!) and pay attention to what you did well and what you can do to make your paper better.

Sample writing task:

Most people have at least one thing that means a lot to them. Think of something you have that you would like to keep forever. Tell about it so that your readers can picture it in their minds and understand why it is special.

About the Test

Questions in AIMS - Mathematics will require both multiple choice responses worth 1 point each and a few (about 9) short answer responses worth up to 2 points each. There are about 50 questions and it should take about 2 to 3 hours to complete. But remember that this test is a power test, NOT a timed test. That means you can take as much time as you need to do your best. Although calculators are not allowed, you can do the arithmetic problems with pencil and paper. Most of the questions will be general understanding of mathematics and problem-solving skills. But it won't hurt to practice your addition, subtraction, multiplication and division tables!

MATHEMATICS STANDARDS: FOUNDATIONS LEVEL

M.F1: Number Sense. Students develop number sense and use numbers and number relationships to acquire basic facts, to solve a wide variety of real-world problems, and to determine the reasonableness of results.

M.F2: Data Analysis and Probability. Students use data collection and analysis, statistics, and probability to make valid inferences, decisions and arguments, and to solve a variety of real-world problems.

M.F3: Patterns, Algebra and Functions. Students use algebraic methods to explore, model and describe patterns, relationships and functions involving numbers, shapes, data, and graphs within a variety of real-world problem-solving situations.

M.F4: Geometry. Students use geometric methods, properties and relationships as a means to recognize, draw, describe, connect, and analyze shapes and representations in the physical world.

M.F5: Measurement and Discrete Mathematics. Students make and use direct and indirect measurement, metric and U.S. customary, to describe and compare the real world and to prepare for the study of discrete functions, fractals and chaos that have evolved out of the age of technology.

M.F6: Mathematical Structure/Logic. Students use both inductive and deductive reasoning as they make conjectures and test the validity of arguments.

HINTS FOR IMPROVING YOUR AIMS - MATHEMATICS

- Remember! This is NOT a timed test! Take as much time
- as you need and do your best work.
- Estimate an answer first so you can check if your answer is reasonable.
- Calculators are not allowed in this test, so be careful with your calculations and double-check your work.
- Multiple choice questions look at ALL the choices and choose the BEST one.
- Short answer problems show ALL your work always, even if you think you can do the steps in your head without writing them out!
- Write your answer as though the person reading it knows nothing about this problem.
   You might think a problem is so simple you shouldn't have to write out any steps. But you will not get all the points if you do not show how you arrived at the answer.
- On the short answer problems, be sure your explanation is clear to the readers and that your written answer says what you mean.

Sample Questions- Mathematics

What to Expect from this Section

This 3rd Grade Student Guide for AIMS - Mathematics gives examples of the types of questions that will appear on the test. All six Standards are presented with some general concepts listed for each section. Keep in mind that these lists do not include every performance objective. See the publication Arizona Academic Standards to find a complete listing of the concepts for each Standard in the "Foundations" section. If you don't have one of these at home, see your teacher.

Every question in this Guide lists the standard and the concept it is assessing. There is a wide sampling of the types of questions that might be asked, but there is not a sample question in this Guide for every item on the test. An answer key for all mathematics sample questions is in Appendix A (page 51), including acceptable answers for short answer questions.

Just as a reminder...students taking the  $3^{rd}$  grade test will be writing in their test booklets, not on a separate answer sheet. Therefore, there is no practice sheet as there is in each Guide for  $5^{th}$ ,  $8^{th}$ , and High School.

The writer has an exceptional ability to speak to the reader.  The writer communicates effectively according to purpose and audience (writing is either close or distant, as appropriate).  The writing shows originality, liveliness, honesty, humor, suspense and/or use of outside resources, as appropriate.	The writer shows strong involvement with the topic. The reader can picture the writer behind the words. The writer effectively matches the way the message sounds with the purpose and audience.  It is clear the writer is speaking directly to the reader.  The writing effectively matches the role of the writer; depending on the purpose and audience, the writing is either close or distant.  The paper shows originality, liveliness, honesty, humor, suspense and/or use of outside resources, as appropriate.	The writer is involved with the topic. The reader can tell who the writer is behind the words. The message sounds like it matches the purpose and the audience.  The writer speaks to the reader in ways that connect the writer with the reader.  The writing sounds like the role the writer is playing; it matches the purpose and audience.  The paper shows some characteristics such as originality, liveliness, honesty, humor, suspense and/or use of outside resources, but their use may not be appropriate.
The writer is not always very involved with the topic. The reader gets hints of who the writer is behind the words. The writer begins to match the way the message sounds with the purpose and the audience.  The reader often feels out of touch with the topic and the writer.  The writer's connection between how the message sounds and the purpose or audience is unclear (voice is too close or too distant to be effective).  The writer gets the message across, but only in a routine sort of way.	<ul> <li>The writer shows little involvement with the topic, purpose or audience.</li> <li>The writing lacks a purpose and an interaction between writer and reader.</li> <li>The writing is likely to be overly informal and personal.</li> <li>The writing is largely flat, lifeless and uninteresting.</li> </ul>	The writer seems to make no effort to deal with the topic, purpose or audience in an interesting way.  The writer does not seem to be writing to anyone in particular or to care whether the words or ideas will make sense to anyone else. Perhaps the writer misunderstood the assignment or may not have cared about saying anything serious, important or interesting.  The writing is flat, lifeless and uninteresting.
