ABSTRACT

The writing performance standard descriptors in this paper support the sections of the English/Language Arts Content Standards adopted by the Alaska State Board of Education. It begins with listing competencies associated with speaking and writing well for a variety of purposes and audiences; and thinking logically and reflectively. It then presents, in chart form, proficient level descriptors for writing performance assessed in third, sixth, and eighth grades, and in the High School Qualifying Exam. (RS)

WRITING PERFORMANCE STANDARDS PROFICIENT LEVEL DESCRIPTORS
RELATIONSHIP TO ALASKA CONTENT STANDARDS FOR ENGLISH / LANGUAGE ARTS

The CONTENT STANDARDS FOR ALASKA STUDENTS were adopted by the Alaska State Board of Education in 1994 and 1995. These performance standard proficient level descriptors for writing support the sections of the English/Language Arts Content Standards noted below. The Benchmark Assessments and High School Qualifying Examination will assess students' competencies on the performance standards.

A: A student should be able to speak and write well for a variety of purposes and audiences. A student who meets the content standard should:

- 1) Apply elements of effective writing and speaking: these elements include ideas, organization, vocabulary, sentence structure, and personal style.
- 2) In writing demonstrate skills in sentence and paragraph structure, including grammar, spelling, capitalization, and punctuation.
- 4) Write and speak well to inform, to describe, to entertain, to persuade, and to clarify thinking in a variety of formats, including technical communication.
- 5) Revise, edit, and publish the student's own writing as appropriate.
- 8) Evaluate the student's own speaking and writing and that of others using high standards.

D. A student should be able to think logically and reflectively in order to present and explain positions based on relevant and reliable information. A student who meets the content standard should:

- 1) develop a position by
 - A) reflecting on personal experiences, prior knowledge, and new information;
 - B) formulating and refining questions;
 - C) identifying a variety of pertinent sources of information;
 - D) analyzing and synthesizing information; and
 - E) determining an author's purpose.
- 2) evaluate the validity, objectivity, reliability, and quality of information read, heard and seen.
- 3) give credit and cite references as appropriate.
- 4) explain and defend a position orally, in writing, and with visual aids as appropriate.
