ABSTRACT

This book contains materials to support the introduction of Early Literacy Support (ELS) in Year 1 schools in England. The 60 sessions outlined in the book are designed to revisit key objectives from the National Literacy Strategy Framework. The ELS program involves comprehension training for Year 1 teachers and teaching assistants. The training is designed to ensure that children receive quality first teaching in the first term, that careful screening and selection processes are employed to identify the children most at risk, and that the selected group of up to six children then receives an effective intervention (including 60 additional literacy lessons in the second term). The appendix contains a pack of materials to support the screening process and some advice on the selection of the intervention group. Contains a 19-item glossary. (RS)

Early Literacy Support Programme*

Introduction

This book contains materials to support the introduction of Early Literacy Support (ELS) in Year 1. The ELS Programme involves comprehensive training for Y1 teachers and teaching assistants. The training is designed to ensure that children receive quality first teaching in the first term, that careful screening and selection processes are employed to identify the children most at risk, and that the selected group of up to six children then receives an effective intervention (including 60 additional literacy sessions in the second term).

The appendix to this book contains a pack of materials to support the screening process and some advice on the selection of the intervention group.

The Early Literacy Support sessions

The 60 sessions outlined in this book are designed to revisit key objectives from the NLS Framework for teaching YR, Y1 term 1 and Y1 term 2. The aim of the intervention is to ensure that by the beginning of Y1 term 3, all children are working at the appropriate objectives and are able to participate fully in the daily Literacy Hour with their peers. Each intervention session:

- includes a daily word level element and provides a balance of reading, writing and speaking and listening across the week;
- focuses on securing key learning objectives, setting targets and reviewing progress;
- includes activities designed for the children to 'take away' to practise and consolidate their learning;
- is closely aligned to the Literacy Hour; the 'teachers' notes' provide guidance to help the class teacher support the children as they transfer their learning from the intervention sessions into the Literacy Hour.

Roles and responsibilities

The successful implementation of ELS requires a whole-school commitment. The headteacher, SENCO, Literacy coordinator and Y1 teacher(s) and teaching assistant(s) all have key roles and responsibilities.

- The implementation team (Y1 teacher(s); teaching assistant(s), SENCO, literacy coordinator and headteacher) support the selection of the target group.
- The teaching assistant delivers the additional literacy sessions in Y1 term 2.
- The class teacher maintains a commitment to deliver weekly Guided Reading and Guided Writing for the children in the group.
- The class teacher uses the Progress Checks and Guided Reading/Writing sessions to monitor progress and ensure that books are selected at the instructional level of difficulty.
- The class teacher uses the weekly teachers' notes to promote the transfer of new learning in the intervention sessions to the Literacy Hour.

When and where

When

The additional sessions should be delivered outside of the Literacy Hour. The twenty-minute sessions can take place at any time during the day. If this involves time being taken from other areas of the curriculum, a careful balance should be sought so that no one area is affected more than another.

Where

An area should be identified which can be used for all of the sessions. If possible, opportunities should be provided for the teaching assistant to personalise and signal the space as the ELS area.

This book includes:

- a guide to the ELS materials;
- a summary of the teaching objectives for the full 12-week programme;
- overviews of the objectives covered each week;
- notes for the class teacher, with suggested links to whole-class teaching;
- summary session plans for each of the 60 sessions;
- examples of some full session scripts (the complete set of scripts is available separately in the ELS File);
- Progress Checks for Weeks 4, 8 and 12;
- an 'exit strategy' chart (Appendix);
- a glossary of terms (Appendix);
- screening materials (Appendix).

Using the materials

A range of materials are available to support teachers and teaching assistants as they run the ELS programme.

- NLS Early Literacy Support Programme: Materials for teachers working in partnership with teaching assistants – this book contains materials for teachers working in partnership with teaching assistants. It is the essential guide for teachers, giving them an overview of what is being covered in the sessions each day and suggestions for links with whole-class teaching.
- NLS Early Literacy Support Programme: Session Materials for Teaching Assistants (File) – this is the essential guide for teaching assistants. It includes a full script for each of the 60 ELS sessions and a sheet for each week listing all the resources needed and details of the preparation for each session. There are notes for parents and carers and weekly activity sheets for children to take home. There is further information on particular text types to support the sessions.
- Art Work / PCMs – an appendix to the file. This includes a full range of photocopiable materials to support the sessions, and a set of picture cards to use for phonics games.
- Top-Up Sessions – an appendix to the file. There are 12 further ELS sessions that can be run in the Summer term to reinforce objectives from Weeks 9–12. These sessions are for children who need some extra support to become secure in their learning.
- ELS Trolley – schools order this separately. The trolley contains a range of equipment to support the running of the sessions.

Running the ELS programme – notes for class teachers and teaching assistants

● Screening and selection

The screening and selection process takes place during the Autumn term. (See Appendix: Screening materials, pages 125–152, for details.) Groups of up to six children are identified and parents and carers are informed.

● 'Getting to know you' sessions

Once children have been selected, it is suggested that teaching assistants have some time with the group before the programme starts. There are notes for three sessions which will last for about 20 minutes each (see File, pages vi–viii). The sessions could be run at the end of the Autumn term or at the beginning of the Spring term. They are designed to help the teaching assistant become familiar with the group and to introduce various activities and ways of working during the programme.

● Guided Reading and Writing

The teacher retains overall responsibility for Guided Reading for the intervention group by:

- planning and teaching Guided Reading sessions with the group at least once a week (there are suggestions in the teacher's notes about texts to choose that fit with the theme of the intervention sessions);
- selecting the Guided Reading text for the teaching assistant to use on alternate weeks of the ELS programme (suggestions included in the teacher's notes);
- using the ELS Progress Checks during a Guided Reading / Writing session at the end of each four-week block of the intervention sessions.

● Independent activities 'Take Away'

Each child has a Take Away pack with a selection of activities for them to do during the independent time in the Literacy Hour. The activities focus on practising and consolidating skills learned in the intervention sessions.

How to use the Take Away pack

- The pack always contains three or four different activities. The teaching assistant adds a new activity, the Take Away, at the end of the intervention session on most days, replacing one from the previous week.
- The teaching assistant explains the new Take Away activity at the end of each session, so the children will be able to do that activity in the Literacy Hour the next day.
- The pack also includes copies of books, previously read by children in Guided Reading sessions, that they can re-read independently.
- The children are expected to work without an adult on these activities to give a chance for them to develop their independence. If they finish one activity, they can go on to do other things from their packs or join in with work planned by the teacher.
- Take Away packs are not designed to be taken home each day. There are weekly activity sheets for children to take home, with ideas for a range of activities to be done with the support of parents or carers (see File pages 161–177). The children will take home any writing completed during the week, and their Guided Reading book on alternate weeks.

Outline of activities added to the Take Away pack each day

The activities each week usually follow the same pattern, although this can vary according to the focus of a particular week.

- Monday: Oral activity linked to the shared text, e.g. re-telling a story using a set of pictures; Guided Reading book – ideally, the teacher reads with this group on a Monday and the book is added to the pack to be re-read independently.
- Tuesday: Word game – either using quick-fire words for the week, or based on the phonics games that week.
- Wednesday: Sentence-making activity – e.g. re-arranging cut-up words to make a complete sentence.
- Thursday: Writing Flap Cards – practising spelling and handwriting using 'flap' cards.
- Friday: No new independent activity – children take home the writing completed during the week, and Guided Reading books on alternate weeks, to read to someone at home.

Quick-fire words

There is a suggested sequence for learning high frequency words each week within the sessions (see the session scripts). The words are drawn from the examples of texts given in the programme, but the activities could be adapted to other high frequency words. The new words should be added to each child's own set every week. It is suggested that they play word games with them, working in pairs, during their independent sessions. Snap and Pairs are the easiest to play. There is also a 'Lotto' game included as a photocopiable example, or 'PCM' (PCM pages 187–188).

● Partnership with parents

Parents and carers play a vital part in their child's learning. A set of 12 activity sheets has been produced to give ideas and advice for parents and carers who want to support their children's learning at home. (See File, pages 161–177.) The introductory sheet gives general information about the activities and should be sent home at the beginning of the programme. The children take home one sheet at the end of each week, and the activities are linked to the theme and objectives for that week.

The emphasis throughout is on adults and children enjoying doing things together, in order to reinforce learning and build confidence, rather than 'homework' to be completed before the next session.

● Progress Checks

Following each four-week block of sessions, it will be productive for the class teacher and teaching assistant to review the progress of individual children. To support this review, a set of three Progress Checks have been included in the intervention materials, each designed to be used by the class teacher during Guided Reading and Guided Writing sessions. The purpose is to check progress, not only in terms of the acquisition of key skills covered in the intervention sessions, but most importantly in the ability of children to apply these skills in context.

Where individual children seem to require particular support or a further 'boost', it may be possible to arrange additional opportunities for Guided Reading or for quick practical sessions on aspects of the key skills with the teaching assistant or other adult support.

Notes for the class teacher

These notes are designed to help the class teacher ask questions and prompt involvement from members of the ELS group. The group will be working on different objectives to the rest of the class during their additional sessions, but should be as fully involved as possible in the whole-class teaching.

When you are working with the whole class you could:

Shared Reading

- ask the children to show you where to start reading, and where to go next when you get to the end of a line. Use a pointer while you are reading;
- ask the children to show you a word, e.g. by drawing a line around it with their finger. Do they know the difference between a letter and a word?
- talk about names, e.g. in stories, on labels around the room. What sort of letter is used at the beginning of a name? Can the children find 'their' capital letter in the book that you are reading?

Shared Writing

- give 'thinking time' before writing, and plan 'talk for writing'. Demonstrate the importance of knowing what you want to say before you start to write;
- use the term sentence;
- involve the children in re-reading the sentence that you have written together, checking that it makes sense;

High frequency words

- draw attention to these words when doing Shared and Guided Reading or Writing: is, my;
- involve the children from the group in recognising the words in texts, and in 'having a go' at writing;

Word level

- involve the group in hearing and saying initial phonemes, particularly s, m and t.
- include words beginning with these phonemes in the whole-class word level work this week, if possible;

Plenary

- plan an opportunity, towards the end of the week, for the group to sing the Name Song to the class. They could choose names for other children in the class;

Guided Reading

- as well as doing your own guided session with the group, please select an appropriate text for the group to use on Friday. The text needs to be from the appropriate Book Band for the group (probably Bands 1–2) and to include the high frequency words my and is.

Ideas for independent work: new activities in the Take Away pack this week

- Monday: Singing the Name Song; re-reading their own sentence, My name is ...
- Tuesday: Writing Flap Cards – writing own names.
- Wednesday: Re-making and reading the sentence My name is ...
- Thursday: Reading the sentence they have written.
- Friday: (to take home) Guided Reading book, and picture frame with label.

Oral Opener	In the previous session the children learned: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● how to use a capital letter at the beginning of their names. In this session the children will learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● how to check the first letters in words so that they can put them in order to re-make a sentence.
Phonics Five <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Hear and say phonemes in initial position: s, m, t. 	Play Croaker using Pip <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The children listen carefully as Pip says the name of objects that are taken out of the bag. ● Each time, Pip gets it wrong by using a different initial phoneme. ● The children repeat the word to help Pip by giving the correct initial phoneme. ● Eventually Pip gets each word right.
Text Ten <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Understand that words in a sentence have a specific order. ● Identify and read individual words: my, name, is. 	Sentence level work <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Re-read the sentence from Monday about Pip. ● Cut up another copy of the sentence into separate words, talking to the children about where to make each cut. ● Give out the words to four of the children, with the other two helping to check. The children re-make the sentence, starting with the first word. Prompt the children to identify the initial phoneme in each word. Read the sentence to check it makes sense. ● Muddle words and redistribute, until each child has carried out part of the task. ● Give each child an envelope with the words from their own sentence cut up. Ask them to sort out the words. Encourage them to say each word slowly, checking the initial phonemes with the first letters. Re-read and make a visual check. ● With the puppet, call out words in a wrong order. The children have to point to the words Pip is saying. Praise correct attempts; help correct any errors.
Fast Finisher	Letter formation: s <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Demonstrate letter formation of s on a whiteboard. The children then write independently. Check for correct formation as they are writing.

WEEK 2 SESSIONS 6-10

Notes for the class teacher

WEEK 2 SESSIONS 6-10

These notes are designed to help the class teacher ask questions and prompt involvement from members of the ELS group. The group will be working on different objectives to the rest of the class during their additional sessions, but should be as fully involved as possible in the whole-class teaching.

When you are working with the whole class you could:

Shared Reading

- involve the children in pointing to the words as you read to emphasise one-to-one correspondence;
- deliberately read the words in a particular sentence in the wrong order. Involve the children in spotting what is wrong and helping to read them correctly;
- demonstrate the difference between reading word by word in a stilted way, and reading more fluently. Talk about which sounds better and why;

Shared Writing

- give 'thinking time' before writing. Demonstrate the importance of knowing what you want to say before you start to write;
- use the term sentence;
- ask the children where to start writing on the page. Emphasise leaving gaps between words;
- involve the children in re-reading the sentence that you have written together, checking that it makes sense;

High frequency words

- draw attention to these words when doing Shared and Guided Reading or Writing: I, went, to, the. The children have been learning them as quick-fire words to build up their sight vocabulary;
- involve the children from the group in recognising the words in texts, and in 'having a go' at writing;

Word level

- involve the group in hearing and saying initial phonemes, particularly c, g and h.
- include words beginning with these phonemes in the whole-class word level work this week, if possible;

Plenary

- plan an opportunity for the group to do the 'Clap Rap' with the class;

Guided Reading

- there is no additional Guided Reading session for the group this week – try to select a simple recount for Guided Reading when you work with the group.

Ideas for independent work: new activities in the Take Away pack this week

- Monday: Ordering pictures and talking about Pip's weekend.
- Tuesday: Sorting pictures by initial phoneme c or h.
- Wednesday: Re-making cut-up sentence I went to the park.
- Thursday: Writing Flap Cards – went, the.
- Friday: (to take home) lift the flap sentence strips.

WEEK 2 SESSION 6

Aims/Objectives	Activities
Oral Opener	In the previous session the children learned: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● how to match phonemes and letters, and to use all the things learned during the week to help read a book. In this session the children will learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● how to hear, say and write phonemes and letter names s, m, t, and how to read one word for every word they point to.
Phonics Five <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Reinforce letter names and sounds for s, m, t. ● Hear and say, read and write phonemes in initial position. 	Teach the game Clap Rap <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Use the letters s, m and t learned last week. ● The children sit on the carpet while Pip teaches each line. Show me a letter and I'll tell you its name. Clap, clap, think and frown. Tell me a letter and I'll write it down. ● Repeat with different letters each time, so that each child has been involved.
Text Ten <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Match spoken word to printed word (one-to-one correspondence). ● Use a variety of cues when reading. ● Expect written text to make sense and check when it does not. ● Recall past experiences and re-tell in order of event. 	Shared Reading: big book related to the children's own experience <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Before reading, talk to the children about their own experiences and their expectations of what the characters in the text will do. ● Ask the children to show you where to start reading. Point to each word as you read the text. ● Get 'stuck' on one page by reading words in the wrong order so that sense is lost. Demonstrate returning to the beginning of the sentence to re-read, and using the initial sound in the word. Cross-check with the picture. Re-read the whole sentence to check it makes sense. ● After reading, talk with the children about their own experience, e.g. weekend activities. Encourage each child to recount ideas and help to put them into sequence.
Fast Finisher	Speaking and Listening <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Use pictures to stimulate talk about the puppet's visit to the park. Model a recount using sequential language to link ideas. ● The children have a go at their own version, one starting and then others taking over the recount.
Take Away	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The children will take away their own copies of the three park pictures. They will make up their own account about what the puppet did at the park and tell someone else.

Resources

Letter cards with s, m, t.
 Individual whiteboards and pens.
 Enlarged text / big book for Shared Reading, e.g. It's the Weekend by Jenny Lachlan, Rigby Red Giant; This Week, All Aboard, Ginn. Alternatively, a book made previously in the class about a class event or school visit.

Notes for the class teacher

These notes are designed to help the class teacher ask questions and prompt involvement from members of the ELS group. The group will be working on different objectives to the rest of the class during their additional sessions, but should be as fully involved as possible in the whole-class teaching.

When you are working with the whole class you could:

Shared Reading

- work out an unfamiliar word based on the pictures and the context of the sentence;
- re-read sentence with suggested word: Does it sound right in this sentence?
- cross-check suggested word by looking at initial letter: Does the word that you suggested start with this letter?

Shared Writing

- use talk for writing: give time for mental rehearsal before writing, e.g. What am I going to write? What do I want to say? Emphasise thinking about the whole sentence before writing;
- re-read what you have written: Does this sentence make sense?

High frequency words

- draw attention to these words when doing Shared Reading and Writing: this, is, a, big;
- involve the children in the group in recognising the words in texts, and in 'having a go' at writing;

Word level

- involve the group in hearing and saying the initial and final sounds in words, especially ch, d, l / ll;
- include words with these endings in the whole-class word level work this week, if possible;

Guided Reading

- as well as doing your own guided session with the group, please select an appropriate text for the group to use for Guided Reading on Friday. This is likely to be from Book Bands 1–2. Ideally it would be based on the story of Goldilocks or use the repeated words This is a...; e.g. Somebody's been Eating My Porridge! by G. Budgell and K. Ruttle, Cambridge Reading, Cambridge University Press.

Ideas for independent work: Weekly Take Away pack contents

1. Several books to re-read (Shared / Guided, from previous sessions).
2. Sentence to re-order and write on whiteboard.
3. Picture sound sorting game.
4. Writing Flap Card with new words to learn to spell.

Ideas for independent work: new activities in the Take Away pack this week

- Monday: Re-telling 'Goldilocks' using picture book, props or series of pictures from story.
- Tuesday: Writing Flap Cards that rehearse this, is, a.
- Wednesday: Re-ordering sentence This is a big bed.
- Thursday: Picture sort of words ending in l or d.
- Friday: Re-reading Guided Reading book.

Text Ten <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Introduce the term traditional story. ● Use context cues and initial sounds, matching with repeated words. ● Use the context of the sentence to guess a word. 	Shared Reading: 'Goldilocks and the Three Bears' <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Introduce the idea of a traditional story; talk about the cover, title and illustration. ● Point to each word as you are reading to reinforce one-to-one correspondence. Read at a brisk pace, stopping only where there is a teaching point. ● Pause at particular points, encouraging the children to use knowledge of context and initial sounds in words in order to attempt the next word. Re-read the whole sentence each time, to check for sense. ● Talk about how particular words are recognised, e.g. bed (using the picture, the initial sound, remembering the word from the previous page). ● Pause at particular points for the children to make predictions about what might happen next, encouraging them to explain their answers. ● Encourage the children to join in, particularly with patterned or repeated text.
Fast Finisher	Quick activity: re-tell the story <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Each child has a turn to re-tell one page of the Goldilocks story for Pip, to help him remember how it goes.

Ask the children questions to help them predict what the book will be about. 'Walk through' the book, preparing the children to read any unfamiliar vocabulary, and looking together at the pictures to predict what is happening. Draw attention to words they know. ● Strategy check: Remind the children to point to each word as they read and use pictures to give information. ● Independent reading: Listen and offer support as each child has a go at reading independently. ● Return to text: Praise the children for their problem-solving, taking examples from the group.

WEEK 4 SESSIONS 16-20

WEEK 4 SESSIONS 16-20

Notes for the class teacher

WEEK 4 SESSIONS 16-20

These notes are designed to help the class teacher ask questions and prompt involvement from members of the ELS group. The group will be working on different objectives to the rest of the class during their additional sessions, but should be as fully involved as possible in the whole-class teaching.

When you are working with the whole class you could:

Shared Reading

- if possible, include a rhyming text as part of Shared Reading during the week. Listen for rhymes in the text, especially for pairs of rhyming words;
- use rhyme pattern to help when working out unfamiliar words, checking the suggested word: Does it sound right in this sentence? Check the initial letter;

Shared Writing

- plan 'talk for writing' to give opportunities for the children to discuss ideas before writing: What am I going to write? What do I want to say? Emphasise thinking about the whole sentence before writing;
- emphasise the need to re-read what you have written: Does this sentence make sense?
- use 'words we know' as you are writing, involving the children in remembering the spellings. The children are building up a collection of quick-fire words that they can read and spell: my, is, went, the, this, a, big, day, away, said;

High frequency words

- draw attention to these words during Shared Reading and Writing: day, away, said (revise went);
- involve the children in the group in recognising the words in texts and in 'having a go' at writing;
- use selected mnemonics. Session 19 suggests using a mnemonic to remember how to spell said. If this is a method you use in class, you may need to advise the teaching assistant on an alternative phrase to use. Reinforce this by using the chosen mnemonic with the whole class;

Word level

- involve the group in hearing and saying the final sound in words, especially ck, n, s; involve them in identifying the letter/s used to represent the final phonemes in words;
- if possible, include words with these endings in the whole-class word level work this week;
- give opportunities for the children in the group to play with rhyme and continue a string of words, e.g. play, day, say, may, etc;

Plenary

- plan an opportunity at the end of the week for the group to sing their song to the class and teach them the actions;

Guided Reading

- when you are planning your Guided Reading with this group, select a simple rhyming text, e.g. a counting rhyme or action song. Examples (all from Cambridge Reading, published by Cambridge University Press): One Teddy All Alone by Rosemary Davidson; Five Green Monsters by Julie Partridge; Fishy Numbers by Rosemary Davidson.

WEEK 4 SESSIONS 16-20

Notes for the class teacher (continued)

Ideas for independent work: new activities in the Take Away pack this week

Monday: Sorting the verses of 'Five Little Ducks' and singing it.

Tuesday: Sorting frame for words ending in ck or n.

Wednesday: Sorting out the words in the first line of the song.

Thursday: Writing Flap Cards: day, away, said.

Friday: Re-reading / singing and illustrating song sheet comprising first verse of 'Pip's Song'.

Progress Check (see p. 41)

By the end of the week, the children will be a third of the way through the programme.

There is a Progress Check for you to use during Guided Reading / Writing sessions and to form the basis of a discussion with your teaching assistant. This will provide an opportunity to monitor the progress of individual children and talk through any issues that may have arisen.

WEEK 4 SESSION 16

Summary: Monday

WEEK 4 SESSION 16

Aims/Objectives	Activities
Oral Opener	In the previous session the children learned: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● how to work out words when reading on their own. In this session the children will learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● how to hear the phoneme n at the end of a word, and to find out about words that rhyme.
Phonics Five <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Hear and say n (new phoneme), ch and d (building from last week) in the final position. 	Play Rubbish Or Treasure? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The children each have two objects. Pip is in the centre with a 'treasure chest' and bin. Pip is collecting things that end in n. Practise saying n, checking that the children are not confusing it with m. ● The children take it in turns to say the name of one object and identify the final phoneme. If it ends in n, they put it in the treasure chest, otherwise they throw it in the bin. ● If the children are having difficulties, say the word together and then segment the phonemes. ● Check the contents of the treasure chest and bin.
Text Ten <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Echo rhyme through action songs and listen for rhymes. ● Use knowledge of rhyme to help when reading an unfamiliar word. ● Continue a string of rhyming words. 	Shared Reading: counting / action songs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Sing or say a couple of counting songs that the children know. Ask them whether they can remember any words that rhymed. ● Show a written version of 'Five Little Ducks', with illustrations. Use the picture to help identify which song it is. ● Talk about where to start reading, and sing the first verse, pointing to each word. Identify rhyming words day and away. Think of other words that would rhyme, and try substituting them into the song. ● Cover up the word back in the second verse. Identify the rhyming word and think of alternatives. ● Sing the rest of the song, pointing out the rhyming words.
Fast Finisher <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Use pictures to help read text. 	Quick activity: order the verses of the song <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Give out verses on separate cards. The children look at illustrations to help put the verses in the correct order. ● Sing the song through together.
Take Away	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Each child has a copy of the song. Practise putting verses in the correct order and singing the song all through, with the actions, to somebody else.

Resources

Pip's 'treasure chest' and bin.

Pictures / objects: ten, pin, pan, man, sun, pen, peach, beach, church, bird, bread, cloud.

'Five Little Ducks' – or action song, with illustrations, each verse on a separate A4 card (PCM, pages 198–202).

Repositionable notes (for covering words).

Small version of song for each child (PCM, pages 203–204).

WEEK 5 SESSIONS 21-25

Objective (NLS Framework for teaching, Y1 Term 1 objectives)	Taught through
Text Writing Y1 term 1: 8, 10 8 Through Shared and Guided Writing to apply phonological, graphic knowledge and sight vocabulary to spell words accurately. 10 To use rhymes and patterned stories as models for their own writing.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● being modelled in Session 22; being applied in Shared Writing of sentences in Session 24. ● being modelled in Session 22; being applied in Shared Writing of sentences in Session 24.
Speaking and Listening <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Explore patterns of rhyme in word strings. ● Encourage 'why' and 'where' questions. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● discussion arising from Shared Reading in Session 21. ● using question and answer format from big book throughout the week.

Notes for the class teacher

These notes are designed to help the class teacher ask questions and prompt involvement from members of the ELS group. The group will be working on different objectives to the rest of the class during their additional sessions, but should be as fully involved as possible in the whole-class teaching.

When you are working with the whole class you could:

Shared Reading

- if possible, use a patterned language text (e.g. with repeated phrases) as part of Shared Reading this week;
- identify patterned language, e.g. repeated words and phrases;
- cover up some high frequency words in sentences in the big book. The children read the whole sentence, try to guess the word using context, and cross-check with the initial / final phoneme;
- draw attention to punctuation, and talk about effect on expression when reading;

Shared Writing

- if appropriate, innovate on text, e.g. make up new lines using the children's names;
- if appropriate, model the writing of a question and answer, and talk about the use of the question mark;
- re-read what you have written together. Does it make sense?

High frequency words

- draw attention to these words when doing Shared Reading and Writing: my, you, what;
- involve the children in the group in recognising the words in texts and 'having a go' at writing;
- refer to the other quick-fire high frequency words that the group have been learning: my, is, went, to, the, this, a, big, day, away, said;

Word level

- involve the group in hearing and saying the medial phoneme in words, especially o and a;
- include CVC words with o and a in whole-class word level work this week, if possible;

Guided Reading

- select a patterned language text when you read with the group this week;
- select an appropriate text for the group to use for Guided Reading on Friday. This is likely to be from Book Bands 3–4. Ideally this book would have patterned language, such as a rhyming text or a repeated refrain. Examples include: Each Peach, Pear, Plum by A. Ahlberg, Picture Puffin (Band 3); What's the time Mr Wolf by C. Hawkins, Little Mammoth (Band 3); Dear Zoo by Rod Campbell, Macmillan (Band 4).

Ideas for independent work: new activities in the Take Away pack this week

- Monday: Re-reading big book.
- Tuesday: Quick-fire word games (new words you, what).
- Wednesday: Missing words (cloze): putting three words in the right place in sentences.
- Thursday: Writing Flap Cards: my, you, what.
- Friday: Re-reading Guided Reading book / Question and Answer card.

Summary: Monday

WEEK 5 SESSION 21

Aims/Objectives	Activities
Oral Opener	In the previous session the children learned: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● how to write phonemes at the end of words, and how to use known words when writing independently. In this session the children will learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● how to listen out for the medial phoneme, and how to read patterned text together.
Phonics Five <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Hear and identify all phonemes in CVC words (medial a). ● Segment phonemes to spell CVC words. 	Play Phoneme Frame <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Start with a three-box phoneme frame drawn onto the board. ● Talk through with the children how to segment words into phonemes to help with spelling. ● Pip says each phoneme. The letter is identified and written into the correct box on the phoneme frame. ● Pip blends phonemes to read the whole word. The children join in. ● Repeat with map, bag, hat, can, sack, back. ● Remind the children about when two letters have one sound.
Text Ten <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Reinforce correspondence between words read and said. ● Draw attention to punctuation and how you use it to read with expression. ● Use recognition of repeated words and context cues. ● Recognise and read high frequency words in context. 	Shared Reading <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Select a patterned language text with a simple repeated phrase throughout. ● Look at the cover of the book together, and talk about the title and illustration. ● Ask the children to show the correct place to start reading (using Pip to make a mistake for the children to correct). ● Read all the way through, drawing attention to the punctuation. For example, model the use of correct intonation when asking a question. The children join in with this. ● Go back to the beginning. Talk about the repeated refrain. Ask the children to point to examples of repeated words on one page. ● Emphasise that patterned text has repeated language. ● Draw attention to context cues, e.g. pictures. ● Encourage the children to look out for any word that they already know how to read.
Fast Finisher <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Innovate on patterned text using language play. 	Quick activity: changing text <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Explain that you are going to play with the words in the book by putting in the children's own names. ● If using 'Polar Bear' text, say something with the same language pattern, e.g. Sarah, Sarah, what do you hear? The child thinks of an answer. ● Adapt this idea if using another text.
Take Away	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The children re-read the big book together, taking turns with Pip's pointer to point to the words as they are reading.

Notes for the class teacher

These notes are designed to help the class teacher ask questions and prompt involvement from members of the ELS group. The group will be working on different objectives to the rest of the class during their additional sessions, but should be as fully involved as possible in the whole-class teaching.

When you are working with the whole class you could:

Shared Reading

- mask a word within a sentence. Read the whole sentence and encourage the children to guess the word from the meaning of the sentence as a whole;
- cross-check by looking at the initial sound, final sound and then the whole word;

Shared Writing

- use 'talk for writing', encouraging the children to discuss ideas and say the sentence out loud. Emphasise thinking about the whole sentence before starting to write;
- use phonic knowledge to help spell particular words: initial sounds, final sounds, medial vowels o, e, a;
- use sight vocabulary already learned from previous weeks; refer to quick-fire words that the children have learned;

High frequency words

- draw attention to make, put, on, the (revised) in Shared Reading and Writing – encourage the children to recognise them in texts and 'have a go' at writing them;
- encourage the children to read and spell the quick-fire words they have been learning;

Word level

- involve the group in hearing, saying and identifying the medial vowels o, e, a (short vowel sounds);

Guided Reading

- try to select an instructional text at the appropriate level when you do Guided Reading with this group.

Ideas for independent work: new activities in the Take Away pack this week

- Monday: Pictures to sequence (jam sandwich) (PCM, pages 209–210).
Tuesday: Quick-fire word games.
Wednesday: Cut-up poster to sequence.
Thursday: Writing Flap Cards.
Friday: Finished poster.

WEEK 7 SESSIONS 31–35

WEEK 7 SESSIONS 31-35Notes for the class teacher

WEEK 7 SESSIONS 31-35

These notes are designed to help the class teacher ask questions and prompt involvement from members of the ELS group. The group will be working on different objectives to the rest of the class during their additional sessions, but should be as fully involved as possible in the whole-class teaching.

When you are working with the whole class you could:

Shared Reading

- draw attention to print around the class on labels, signs and notices. Look for examples of captions around the class where one or more sentences are used to give information about something. There may be examples in your shared text (e.g. a caption for a photo);

Shared Writing

- demonstrate writing more than one sentence, and emphasise the difference between a line of writing and a sentence;
- reinforce the concept of each sentence having one idea. Play the game where children close their eyes and listen as you read the text. They put up their hands at the end of each sentence;

High frequency words

- draw attention to examples of high frequency words being used in the print that the children can see around the class, e.g. here, is, at, our;

Word level

- practise recognising and using all vowels (short vowel sounds);
- ask the group to say the Vowel Rap to the class on Friday, e.g. in the plenary;
- involve the group in segmenting and spelling CVC words;

Guided Reading

- as well as doing your own Guided Reading session with the group, please select an appropriate text for the group to use for Guided Reading on Friday. This is likely to be from Book Bands 3-4. Ideally it would be a non-fiction text that includes examples of captions.

Ideas for independent work: new activities in the Take Away pack this week

- Monday: Making list of captions.
Tuesday: Quick-fire word games.
Wednesday: Re-making two sentences (cut-up caption).
Thursday: Vowel Rap sheet.
Friday: Guided Reading book.

Note on selecting texts

The focus in the ELS sessions this week is on print in the environment and writing captions. The teaching assistant will be looking with the children at examples around the school. It would be useful if you could find an example of a caption from a display in your classroom for the group to read together.

There is a sheet on 'Understanding environmental print and captions' in the ELS File (p. 80) to help with the features of this text type.

Aims/Objectives	Activities
Oral Opener	In the previous week the children learned: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> to identify phonemes a, o and e in the middle of words, and to read and follow instructions. In this session the children will learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> to know the difference between u and e in the middle of words, and to read the print that they see around them.
Phonics Five <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify phonemes u and e in medial position. 	Sliding In Game <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Remind the children that they have played this game before. This time they will be listening for the phonemes e or u in the middle of words. Help the children identify u by saying the word mug, segmenting it, identifying middle u, and sliding the magnetic letter u into the middle box of the phoneme frame. Say these words: duck, sun, plug, leg, bed, shell, peg, drum. The children listen, identify the middle phoneme and slide the correct letter into the middle box. Help the children segment the phonemes if necessary.
Text Ten <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Read and use print around the school. 	Shared Reading: Print Walk <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Before the session, look around the classroom and school to find examples of print on labels, signs and notices. Plan where to take the children on a 'Print Walk' around the building. Choose one label that the children know well to borrow from the classroom. Explain to the group that there is print all around us. Show the example from the classroom and read it together, e.g. We put our coats here. Go for a walk around the school to find and read examples of print. Help the children to think about the location of the label, sign or notice, to read the words, and to recognise any high frequency words that have been used.

Resources

- Three-box phoneme frame – one for each child.
- One set of magnetic letters a and e for each child.
- An example of a label from the classroom that the children will recognise.
- Print around the room and school.
- Worksheet for each child with list format: 'Print I can see around me.' (PCM, p. 212)

Model the writing for the children, involving them in attempting spellings using phonic knowledge and known vocabulary. At the end of the first sentence, emphasise that you have finished writing the first idea and will now start a new sentence for the second idea. Make sure that this sentence continues on the same line as the first. Re-read the whole caption together and draw attention to the difference between a line of writing and a sentence.

WEEK 8 SESSIONS 36-40

Notes for the class teacher

These notes are designed to help the class teacher ask questions and prompt involvement from members of the ELS group. The group will be working on different objectives to the rest of the class during their additional sessions, but should be as fully involved as possible in the whole-class teaching.

When you are working with the whole class you could:

Shared Reading

- draw attention to the settings of stories (if you are reading fiction this week);
- talk about examples of patterned language (if you are reading fiction this week);
- cover a word in the text, and use the pictures and context of the sentence to predict the word. Then cross-check using phonic strategies (initial and final sound);

Please note: the example text for the ELS sessions this week is Suddenly! by Colin McNaughton. It would help if the children were already familiar with this book. If it is not one that you have read to the children before, please consider using it at storytime, or giving the teaching assistant some time to read it with the group before the session on Monday;

Shared Writing

- if possible, talk about how children's personal experience links with examples in a story (e.g. similarities and differences);
- use 'talk for writing' to reinforce the idea of discussing and rehearsing ideas before writing;
- demonstrate use of the capital letter for personal pronoun I;
- when writing, ensure that sentences run on rather than always finish at the end of a line, to emphasise the difference between a sentence and a line;

High frequency words

- the class teacher needs to liaise with the teaching assistant to choose these with reference to the Shared Reading text. If Suddenly! is being used, the high frequency words are: was, school, then, saw;
- draw attention to these words in Shared Reading and Writing. Encourage the children to read and spell them independently;

Word level

- involve the group in segmenting and blending CVC words. Encourage them to recognise and name the vowels;

Guided Reading

- please read with the group this week as usual. If possible, select another story with a familiar setting and talk with the children about where the story takes place, to reinforce the teaching objectives. There is no additional Guided Reading as part of the ELS Programme this week.

Ideas for independent work: new activities in the Take Away pack this week

- Monday: Four pictures copied from the story, for re-telling.
Tuesday: Letter cards to make CVC words.
Wednesday: Cut-up sentences and sentence boards.
Thursday: Writing Flap Cards.
Friday: Finished Zig-zag books (to take home).

WEEK 8 SESSIONS 36-40

Progress Check (see p. 81)

By the end of the week, the children will be two-thirds of the way through the programme. There is a Progress Check for you to use during Guided Reading / Writing sessions and to form the basis of a discussion with the teaching assistant. This will provide an opportunity to monitor the progress of individual children and talk through any issues that may have arisen.

Summary: Monday (Example of full session script included)

Aims/Objectives	Activities
Oral Opener	In the previous week the children learned: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● how to segment and spell CVC words, and how to work out words when reading on their own. In this session the children will learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● how to hear the medial phoneme and know its letter name, and to be able to talk about where a story takes place and to re-tell it.

Pip's forgotten it. We'll say it together to remind him. Say the Vowel Rap together. Show the children a bag filled with various pictures / objects. Look at this bag of things. Pip wants to look inside. He's going to get the things out and tell you what they are. But listen carefully to see if he gets the words right. You might have to help him. Take out the first object (a peg). Pip says pig. The children correct: peg. Ask: Which sound did he get wrong? The children reply: The middle 'e'. Ask: What's the letter name? The children reply: e. Repeat for each object, with Pip making a mistake with the medial vowel each time: peg / pig sun / san bin / bun bag / bog lid / lad box / bix

Say them together. ● Write the first sentence, talking about what you are doing and asking the children to help with spellings. Emphasise the use of the capital I at the beginning of the first sentence. ● Read through. Talk about the full stop. ● Write the second sentence.  Big book from yesterday.
 Shared Writing materials.

Resources

- Individual three-box phoneme frames and pens.
- Shared Writing sentences from yesterday.

- Large piece of paper.
- Six individual sentence boards.
- Cut-up sentences, one set for each child.

WEEK 9 SESSIONS 41-45

Notes for the class teachers

These notes are designed to help the class teacher ask questions and prompt involvement from members of the ELS group. The group will be working on different objectives to the rest of the class during their additional sessions, but should be as fully involved as possible in the whole-class teaching.

When you are working with the whole class you could:

Shared Reading

- predict the contents from the cover, title, etc;
- reinforce the difference between fiction and non-fiction;
- if reading non-fiction, find examples of headings, pictures and facts;
- involve the group in circling a sentence (e.g. with an acetate sheet over the page);

Shared Writing

- write more than one sentence;
- use simple sentences to describe;
- involve the children in using phonological, graphic knowledge and sight vocabulary to spell words;

High frequency words

- draw attention to these words when doing Shared Reading and Writing: has, can, got, this;
- involve the children in recognising the words in texts and in 'having a go' at writing them. Refer to the quick-fire words that the group have been learning week by week;

Word level

- draw attention to initial consonant clusters;
- involve the group in counting phonemes;

Guided Reading

- As well as doing your own guided session with the group, please select an appropriate text for the group to use for Guided Reading on Friday. This should be a non-fiction book, ideally a non-chronological report from the appropriate Book Band for the group.

Ideas for independent work: new activities in the Take Away pack this week

- Monday: Looking for features of information texts.
- Tuesday: Quick-fire word games.
- Wednesday: Rearranging parts of a non-chronological report.
- Thursday: Writing Flap Cards: this, has, can, got.
- Friday: Guided Reading book and new page of non-chronological report.

Note on selecting texts

The focus in the ELS sessions this week is on non-chronological reports. The teaching assistant will need an example of this type of text to use for Shared Reading on Monday. If the example title is not available in school, please help the teaching assistant find a suitable text. This could be one that you have read with the class at another time. There is a sheet on 'Understanding non-chronological reports' in the teaching assistant's folder to help with the features of this text type.

WEEK 9 SESSION 41

Summary: Monday

WEEK 9 SESSION 41

Aims/Objectives	Activities
Oral Opener	In the previous week the children learned: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • how to blend phonemes to read CVC words, and to write about things that have happened using ideas from stories. In this session the children will learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to hear and say phonemes in CCVC words, and to find out what is in a report.
Phonics Five <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hear and say phonemes in CCVC words. 	Sound Buttons <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tell the children that the game today involves some careful listening. Explain that you will say a word, the children then need to segment the phonemes and count them. • Say the word stop. Pip segments s-t-o-p and places down four counters, one for each phoneme. • Give each child six counters. • Say these words: skip, sit, clap, fat, swim, leg, frog. • The children segment and count the phonemes, putting a counter down for each phoneme. Check that they are right. • Point out that there are two consonants before the vowel in some of these words.
Text Ten <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Predict what a book will be about by looking at cover, title, blurb, etc. • Give a reason to back up a point of view. • Identify the features of a non-chronological report. 	Shared Reading <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Choose a non-chronological report that has headings and simple information on each page. • Look together at the cover, title and blurb, and ask the children to predict the contents. Ask them to explain their prediction. • Choose a page to read. Read through the whole page, then go back and identify the heading, the picture, and the information by sticking labels on them. • Look at the type of information included in the text. Explain to the children that this type of book is factual and does not talk about feelings. • Look at other pages to reinforce the main features.
Take Away	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The children each take another information book. They have a checklist and magnifying glass, and need to find the heading, picture and information.

Resources

Counters (six for each child).
 Big book – non-chronological report, e.g. Whose Baby? by Jason Amber, Rigby Red Giant.
 Repositionable notes for labelling: heading, picture, information.
 Page from big book (reduced), copied for each child.
 Selection of six or more simple information books from the class or school library (non-chronological reports if possible). These could be linked to the class topic theme.
 Copies of checklist (PCM, p. 216), one for each child.
 Six magnifying glasses.

WEEK 10 SESSIONS 46-50

Notes for the class teacher

WEEK 10 SESSIONS 46-50

These notes are designed to help the class teacher ask questions and prompt involvement from members of the ELS group. The group will be working on different objectives to the rest of the class during their additional sessions, but should be as fully involved as possible in the whole-class teaching.

When you are working with the whole class you could:

Shared Reading

- identify patterns in text;
- read fluently with attention to punctuation;
- demonstrate how to use phonological, contextual and grammatical knowledge to work out words;

Shared Writing

- use 'talk for writing' to discuss and refine ideas, and to rehearse orally the structure of complete sentences before writing;
- demonstrate how to use patterns from reading for own writing;
- involve the children in working out spellings using a range of strategies, particularly: remembering quick-fire words and segmenting the phonemes in phonetically regular words;

High frequency words

- draw attention to these words when doing Shared Reading and Writing: who, came, our, school;
- involve the children in the group in recognising the words in texts, and in 'having a go' at writing;

Word level

- draw attention to initial consonant clusters;
- involve the group in identifying, segmenting and blending CCVC words;

Guided Reading

- please read with the group this week as usual. If possible, select another story that uses patterned language to reinforce the teaching objectives.

Ideas for independent work: new activities in the Take Away pack this week

- Monday: Talking about a teddy's adventures and drawing pictures.
- Tuesday: Quick-fire word games.
- Wednesday: Rearranging cut-up rhyming sentences.
- Thursday: Writing Flap Cards.
- Friday: Reading own 'luggage label'.

Start reading and carry on until you get to the word that is covered. ● Work out the word together. Draw attention to the rhyming pattern, and get the children to suggest words that sound right and would make sense. Cross-check by looking at the initial and final phonemes. ● Finish reading the book. ● Encourage the children to give examples of rhyming words, looking back at the text to check if necessary. ● Look together for repeated words and phrases (this, is, the, who, in This is the Bear). ● Put an acetate sheet over a page. Ask individual children to come up and draw a circle around one of the repeated words. Repeat this on the next page if you have time. ● Summarise learning by explaining that the book has patterned language because it uses rhyming words and some words are repeated on every page.
Fast Finisher <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Use 'talk for writing', discussing own ideas based on the theme of the story. 	Quick activity <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Bring in a teddy bear to start discussion about things that have happened to it. ● Give time for the children to talk about their own ideas for something that can happen to a bear. Phonics Five <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Manipulate phonemes to make CCVC words. 	Play Full Circle <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Give out one of these letters to each child (and one for Pip): s, l, i, a, p, c, f. ● Say the first word: slip. Children with the correct cards come out and make the word. ● Segment the phonemes, then blend to read the whole word. Write this word on the board. ● Go through the list of words, the children changing places as needed to make the words. Segment and blend the phonemes each time. ● The children shout Full circle! when you return to the first word. ● Words: slip, clip, flip, flap, clap, slap, slip.
Text Ten <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Use a range of strategies to spell words correctly. ● Learn high frequency words, e.g. this, went, who. ● Use phonic knowledge and segment phonemes to spell, e.g. man, back, smell. 	High frequency words and spelling <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Before the session, look back at the text you used for Shared Reading on Monday. Select about six words to cover up; they need to be quick-fire words, or words the children can segment and spell. For example, in This is the Bear: p.1: This, p.3: man, p.4: back, p.5: went, p.7: who, p.11: smell. ● The children each have a whiteboard so that they can attempt to spell the covered words as you read through the book. ● Read through the book, stopping each time you find a covered word. Talk to the children about what the word should be, and then give them a chance to write it on their whiteboards. ● Prompt them to use appropriate strategies, e.g. remembering the spellings of high frequency words; segmenting the phonemes in phonetically regular words; remembering the spelling of digraphs. ● Praise the children for using what they have learned about spelling when trying to spell words on their own.
Fast Finisher	Quick activity: Writing Flap Cards <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Look together at four new words under the flaps: who, came, our, school. ● Choose one spelling to practise. Try to remember the spelling. Cover it up. Write it. Check to see if it is correct.

WEEK 10 SESSION 50

Aims/Objectives	Activities
Oral Opener	In the previous session the children learned: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● how to change the phonemes to make new words, and to use different ways to spell words. In this session the children will learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● how to hear the difference between consonant clusters, and to write their rhyming sentence.
Phonics Five <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Distinguish between initial consonant cluster. 	Play Pip's Party <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Each child (and Pip) has a paper plate with a different consonant cluster written on it: cl, fl, sl, sn, fr, cr, sw. ● Read out the words without showing them to the children. ● Tell the children to listen to the consonants at the beginning of words to decide whether they should go on their plates. ● The child with the correct cluster claims the word. They check by looking at the word card and making sure the initial letters are the same as the ones on their plate. ● Words: slip, slap, slick, clip, clap, clock, flip, flap, flick, snow, snap, snip, frock, frog, friend, cry, crisps, crunch, swing, sweet, swap.
Text Ten <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Use 'talk for writing' to collect and refine ideas, and to rehearse complete sentences orally before writing. ● Use patterns from reading for own writing. ● Substitute patterns in simple rhymes. ● Use phonological, graphic knowledge and high frequency words for spelling. 	Guided Writing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Remind the children about the 'luggage label' written on Tuesday. Introduce the idea that they will write their own label today, using their own ideas. ● Give time for discussion, to collect and rehearse ideas. Prompt by giving examples of first sentences, for the children to complete with rhyming second sentences, if needed. For example, This is the bear who fell out of bed. This is the bear who bumped his head. Or This is the bear I like to cuddle. This is the bear who fell in a puddle. ● Encourage each child to say the whole rhyme out loud before they write, and to keep repeating it as they re-read their own writing, to help them remember what they want to write next. ● Support the children as they write independently, reminding them to use the spelling strategies practised yesterday. Prompt them to punctuate sentences correctly. ● The children write on the 'luggage label' sheet (PCM, p. 219). Further support can be given by letting them write on a sheet that has the sentence stems already filled in (PCM, p. 220).
Fast Finisher <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Review and reinforce learning. 	Review of the week <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Each child has a turn to sing through their new verse. ● Talk about what they have learned this week, e.g. how to segment and blend phonemes to spell and read CCVC words; how to write their own verse for a song.
Take Away	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Song sheet to take home and sing to their family.

WEEK 11 SESSIONS 51-55

Notes for the class teacher

SESSIONS 51-55

WEEK 11

These notes are designed to help the class teacher ask questions and prompt involvement from members of the ELS group. The group will be working on different objectives to the rest of the class during their ELS sessions, but should be as fully involved as possible in the whole-class teaching.

When you are working with the whole class you could:

Shared Reading

- predict contents from cover, title, blurb;
- if appropriate, involve the children in finding words in dictionaries;
- involve the group in circling a sentence in the text;

Shared Writing

- involve the children in applying phonological and graphic knowledge and their sight vocabulary in order to spell words. Remind the children to use their knowledge of quick-fire words when spelling;
- if possible, model the writing of an extended caption, using because;

High frequency words

- draw attention to these words: like, because;
- use mnemonics. The group are learning to spell because this week. One of the strategies suggested is to use a mnemonic to help remember the letter order. If this is an approach that you use in class, you could ask the group to teach the rest of the class the mnemonic for because;

Word level

- draw attention to final consonant clusters;
- involve the group in segmenting phonemes to spell CVCC words;

Plenary

- on Friday, the group could show their dictionary (the whole class could add their pictures and captions at a later date);

Guided Reading

- as well as doing your own guided session with the group this week, please select an appropriate text for the group to use for Guided Reading on Friday. Ideally this would be a simple dictionary from the appropriate Book Band for the group.

Ideas for independent work: new activities in the Take Away pack this week

Monday: Ordering name cards into alphabetical order.

Tuesday: Finding words in a dictionary.

Wednesday: Reassembling cut-up sentences.

Thursday: Writing Flap Cards: like, because.

Friday: Guided Reading book – dictionary.

Play Croaker using Pip <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Remind the children that they were looking at consonants at the beginnings of words last week. Explain that they will be looking at final consonant clusters this week. ● Take the first picture / object out of the bag. Pip says the word correctly. Segment the phonemes and identify the final consonant cluster. ● Next picture / object: Pip says the word and gets the final consonant cluster wrong. The children help identify the part of the word that was wrong, and say it correctly. ● Pictures / objects: hand, rubber band (rubber band), list (lint), belt (bent), milk (mink), pond (pod).
Text Ten <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Predict what the book will be about by looking at cover, blurb, etc. ● Understand the alphabetical organisation of dictionaries. ● Use simple dictionaries. Explain that dictionaries not only list words, but also explain them. ● Use the children's knowledge of the alphabet to find another word, helping them to judge whereabouts in the dictionary the word might be, depending on the position of the word in the alphabet. ● Look at further pages if you have time.
Fast Finisher <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Reinforce understanding of alphabetical order. 	Quick activity: sort names into alphabetical order <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Give out one set of name cards to each child in the group. ● The children sort themselves into alphabetical order.

 Pip's pointer.
 Group's name cards – set of six for each child.
 Alphabet strips for each child.

Notes for the class teacher

These notes are designed to help the class teacher ask questions and prompt involvement from members of the ELS group. The group will be working on different objectives to the rest of the class during their additional sessions, but should be as fully involved as possible in the whole-class teaching.

When you are working with the whole class you could:

Shared Reading

- identify the beginning, middle and end of a story;
- read fluently, running pointer under whole lines rather than pointing word by word.
- demonstrate the use of phonological, contextual and grammatical knowledge to work out unfamiliar words;
- re-tell stories giving main points in sequence;
- identify key features of story language in text (fairy story if possible) you are reading.

Shared Writing

- use 'talk for writing', providing opportunities for the children to discuss their ideas, to refine them, and to rehearse complete sentences orally before writing;
- demonstrate how to use storybook language in own writing;
- use phonological and graphic knowledge and high frequency words to help spell words;

High frequency words

- draw attention to these words when doing Shared Reading and Writing: once, time, lived, after;
- involve the children in the group in recognising the words in texts and 'having a go' at writing;
- refer to these and other quick-fire words that the children have learned. Expect them to recognise these words when reading and spell them correctly when writing;

Word level

- draw attention to final consonant clusters;
- involve the group in identifying, segmenting and blending CVCC words;

Plenary

- Invite the group to re-tell the story of Cinderella (as late in the week as possible – use picture cards as prompts). As this is the final session, you could plan an opportunity for the group to tell the class about some of the things they have done and things they have learned;

Guided Reading

- When reading with the group this week, aim to select a re-telling of a traditional tale at an appropriate level to reinforce the teaching objectives.

Ideas for independent work: new activities in the Take Away pack this week

- Monday: Re-tell the story of Cinderella with picture cards as prompts, using storybook language at the beginning and end of the story.
- Tuesday: Quick-fire word games.
- Wednesday: Re-order sentences.
- Thursday: Writing Flap Cards, and finish writing middle of story if necessary.
- Friday: Zig-zag book to take home to read.

WEEK 12 SESSIONS 56-60Notes for the class teacher (continued)

(The main emphasis this week is on the children writing their own version of the 'Cinderella' story. They may well need extra time to complete this, particularly after Thursday's session when they are writing the 'middle'.)

Progress Check / Exit Strategy (see pages 122- 23 and 156)

At the end of the week the group will have completed the 12-week ELS Programme. You need to use the third Progress Check during Guided Reading and Writing sessions. Then meet with the teaching assistant and members of the school implementation team to review individual progress and decide upon the most appropriate action to take.

- Children who have made good progress should not need any further support.
- Children who have made some progress but need an extra boost to help them secure skills and gain confidence could be given the 'top-up' ELS sessions as part of a small group.
- Children who have not made significant progress should be considered for further assessment, probably involving local SEN and learning support services. This may lead to specialised one-to-one support through SEN resources.

EARLY LITERACY SUPPORT

Screening and Selection

Screening Pack

SECTION A	Background notes for teachers	126
SECTION B	Notes on screening	127
SECTION C	Screening tasks	130
	1. Word level screen	130
	2. Reading screen	134
	3. Writing screen	142
	4. Speaking and Listening screen	146

SECTION A

Background notes for teachers

Teachers throughout the first year of school closely monitor the progress of children. It is important that misunderstandings, confusion and difficulties are quickly identified and children are supported to stay on track with the teaching objectives. The screening checklists included in these materials are designed to complement your ongoing assessments and confirm the organisation of children prior to the selection of the ELO group.

All of the checklists can be completed within the Literacy Hour structure, using whole-class time or guided group work. The completion of the screening will require class teachers and teaching assistants to work in partnership. The checklist will provide useful information as you monitor progress towards the objectives in Y1 term 1. In addition to the key objectives from the NLS Framework for teaching, aspects of Speaking and Listening are included in the screening.

Notes on screeningSelection of children

Children making expected levels of progress at the end of Y1 term 1 will be achieving the appropriate objectives. They can do the following things.

Word level

- Generate rhyming strings.
- Demonstrate secure alphabetic letter knowledge and understand letter order.
- Discriminate and segment all three phonemes in CVC words and blend phonemes in CVC words for reading.
- Read on sight a number (approximately 30) of high frequency words and other familiar words.
- Spell a range of common irregular words.
- Gather new words from shared experiences and a range of reading to use in speech and writing.
- Read books in Reading Recovery Book Bands 3/4.

Reading

- Read familiar simple stories and poems independently.
- Describe settings and incidents from stories they have read and relate them to personal experience.
- Use their enthusiasm for books and reading to improve their performance.
- Access and use information from the four 'searchlights' to check their reading and problem-solve new words on the run.

Writing

- Converse about a variety of incidents, ideas and personal experiences.
- Compose and scribe several sentences about one subject, applying phonic and orthographic knowledge to spell simple words.
- Read back their own work and notice some errors.

Speaking and Listening

- Demonstrate growing confidence when speaking.
- Explain and justify what they say.
- Speak clearly and audibly.
- Answer questions, holding to the point.
- Listen to the contributions of others with concentration and attention.

SECTION B

Notes on screening

Children working at these levels do not require additional support through this programme. Support for these pupils will continue to focus on the appropriate termly objectives from the NLS Framework for teaching.

Children not achieving the expected levels may need to be considered for selection for the programme. The screening can be delivered in whole-class teaching sessions and in groups during shared, guided and independent work.

The group (maximum six) will be tracked through shared whole-class work, closely observed in guided work, and their independent work will be evaluated during the plenary. Children identified through ongoing observation and assessment as not operating at the appropriate objectives should be priorities for the screening.

Planning and delivery of screening during the Literacy Hour

The assessment materials are designed to support your teaching through the Literacy Hour. A full class screening could be completed in one week. Focused Literacy Hours are planned against the Y1 term 1 objectives and include many opportunities to assess the target group.

- Shared Reading could be the context for the Speaking and Listening screen.
- Word level work could be the context for the Word level screen.
- Guided Reading could be the context for the Reading screen.
- Guided Writing could be the context for the Writing screen.
- Independent working time could be the context for the sight vocabulary screening, which can be carried out with the children by the teaching assistant.
- Plenary sessions could be the context for the phonological awareness screening.

The observations completed during whole-class teaching will be supported by the teaching assistant. The class teacher is expected to complete the Guided Reading and Writing checklists.

Children with Special Educational Needs (SEN)

The Intervention Programme is designed to support accelerated learning back to the appropriate NLS Framework for teaching objectives. The inclusion of children with specific learning needs requires careful consideration. The professional judgement of teachers, SENCOs and LEA SEN support services should be used to consider how appropriate the materials are to the needs and learning targets of these children. It may be appropriate to include all children identified and review progress after ten lessons. Where teaching assistants or support teachers for SEN are available, their involvement in ELS may prove beneficial. There should also be consideration of specific learning needs during the screening process: for example, children with emotional or behavioural difficulties may demonstrate their learning more effectively in a one-to-one situation.

Provision beyond the Early Literacy Support Programme will focus on individual needs identified through the IEP.

Children learning English as an Additional Language (EAL)

It is important to distinguish between literacy difficulties and proficiency in English. Where an assessment of a child's English suggests that he or she may have an underlying difficulty with language, it is vital to cross-check with specialist bilingual teachers and teachers of children with special needs.

ELS is likely to benefit many children learning EAL. The professional judgement of teachers and LEA Ethnic Minority Achievement Services should be used to consider how appropriate the materials are to the learning needs of children and whether any modification is required. Where bilingual teachers or support staff are available, their involvement in ELS is likely to prove beneficial. It is important to consider the impact of a child's learning of EAL during the screening process: for example, a newer arrival may be reticent in whole-class or group sessions, and conceptual understanding may well be ahead of the ability to express ideas in English. Further guidance can be found in A Language in Common: Assessing English as an Additional Language (QCA, 2000).

Conclusion

Screening provides additional information to complement the teacher's assessment profile. It is important to use all information from a broad range of sources and over time to support your judgements.

SECTION C

Screening tasks (1–4)

1. Word level screen

The aim of the screen is to look at different aspects of Word level knowledge and understanding:

- to check phonic skills and knowledge;
- to check whether children can segment and blend phonemes to spell and read CVC words (i.e. Progression in Phonics – Step 4);
- to see how many words children can read on sight from a selection of 30 taken from the high frequency list for YR;
- to check children's understanding of rhyme.

There are three parts to the screening, which can be carried out by the teacher and teaching assistant during the Literacy Hour:

1. Segmenting and blending CVC words as part of games played in the whole-class Word level session.
2. Reading high frequency words when working individually with the teaching assistant during independent time.
3. Generating rhyming strings as part of the whole-class plenary session.

These three parts are looked at in more detail below.

1.1. Phonic knowledge

- Select two games from Step 4 of Progression in Phonics to play during the Word level session with the whole class.
- Teaching assistant focuses attention on the group being screened that day.
- Games will involve the children in segmenting to spell CVC words and blending phonemes to read CVC words.
- Children should be sitting close to the teaching assistant so he or she can listen to what they are saying and observe their attempts, e.g. when using Fans.

Suggested games:

For segmenting:

Fans (PiP p. 28 and PCMs 53–55)

- Rotate the three possible word lists for this game over five days.
- Target group have their own fans, the rest of the class can work in pairs.
- Teacher reads out words.
- Children identify the phonemes and segment them to spell the word.
- Teaching assistant checks the group being screened and records what the children have done.

Screening tasks (1-4)

Each day the whole class will be involved in playing the game in pairs, as usual, but the focus group for screening will have one fan each. As the teacher reads out the words, each individual will try to identify the phonemes and segment them to spell the words. They will show the teaching assistant their fan. The teaching assistant will complete the appropriate column in the screening checklist, recording the phonemes that were correctly identified.

For blending:

Bingo (PiP p. 33 and PCMs 108–109)

Silly Questions (PiP p. 31 Step 4 and PCMs 63–91).

- Children being screened are each given a Bingo card.
- Teaching assistant sits with the group to observe if children can blend the phonemes, and records their attempts on the Word level screening checklist (p. 132).

1.2. High frequency words

- Carried out during independent time.
- Teaching assistant works with individual children.
- A set of 30 word cards are supplied on page 133.
- Spread word cards face down on the table.
- Ask child to turn over the cards and read the words he or she knows.
- The activity needs to have a fast pace.
- Teaching assistant collects the words and checks them off on the screening checklist.

1.3. Rhyme

- Check children's understanding of rhyme during the plenary session.
- Read simple rhymes for the children to join in with.
- Point out pairs of rhyming words.
- Ask the children to think of other words that would rhyme to make a rhyming string.
- Record accuracy and suggestions on the screening checklist.
- Ideas for rhymes: 'Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star' (star / are; high / sky);
'Worms Wiggle' (wiggle / giggle; hop / clop; slide / glide; creep / leap; bounce / pounce; stalk / walk);
'Five Little Monkeys' (shore / four; three / tree; glue / two; bun / one).

2. Reading screen

The Reading screen should be completed during Guided Reading on a new text from the group's current Book Band. It is important that children are reading books at their instructional level and are supported to read independently. Guided Reading provides an important time for teachers to focus on small groups; observations made when pupils are reading in a broad range of other situations should be used to supplement the screening process.

The screening checklist is designed to support the chronology and organisation of Guided Reading:

- Book introduction
- Knowledge about reading (strategy check)
- Independent reading
- Response

Screening tasks (1-4)

Key aspects of the reading process are included in the screening checklist. It is important to remember that specific questions will be determined by the text and the screening materials provide a minimum of information. You may want to complete a more detailed diagnostic assessment including a miscue analysis, or Running Record (see p. 139), and a detailed check of early reading behaviours and strategies (see p. 138).

SECTION C

Screening tasks (1-4)

Early Reading checklist

Book introduction

- Knows how to hold a book.
- Knows front and back cover.
- Looks through book without being prompted to do so.
- Knows when to start reading.
- Left page is read before right page.

Strategy check

- Matches a spoken word to a written word.
- Uses pictures to access meaning.
- Reads the print from left to right on two lines of text.
- Can find known words within the text.
- Searches for information cues.
- Cross-checks on information cues.

Independent reading

- Reads using expression.
- Reads using phrasing.
- Notices if something does not make sense.
- Attempts to self-correct.
- Uses initial letter sounds when reading words.
- Is able to segment and blend CVC words.
- Recognises high frequency words.
- Has a second try when stuck on a word.

Response

- Can tell a story using the pictures.
- Understands that the print contains a message.
- Can re-tell with reasonable accuracy.
- Relates story to own experience.
- Notices patterns in a repetitive story.
- Initiates talk about the book.

Screening tasks (1-4)

Running Records

Running Records are individual reading records that can be taken as a check on able readers or used more regularly with struggling readers.

They are valuable for:

- recording how a child reads independently;
- analysing a child's reading in order to identify strengths / weaknesses;
- assessing the level of text difficulty for a particular child.

Record a correct response with a tick.
Write the child's miscue above a line and the word from the text underneath.	pool pond
Record self-correction with 'sc'.	pool / sc pond
If a child inserts a word, write it in above the line.	the
Record omissions in this way.	— the
Mark repetitions with an 'R' and an arrow showing the point at which the repetition began and the point to which it goes back.	← R I went to the shops
If the child repeats more than once, write in a number for the number of times the repetition has occurred.	← R2 I went to the shops

SECTION C

Screening tasks (1-4)

The teacher should not interact with the child, merely record the child's reading.

It is acceptable to:

- give the child the word after thinking time has been allowed and record this with a 'T.'
- ask the child to 'Try that again' and record it as 'TTA'.

If you prompt the child in any other way, this should also be recorded.

Administering Running Records

- After the Running Record has been taken, look at the child's errors and ask yourself the question, what has led the child to make this error?
 - Was the child using a contextual cue (m), a grammatical cue (s) or a grapho/phonic cue (v)?
 - Was the child over-reliant on any one of these?
- Analyse self-corrections in the same way. Ask what has led the child to self-correct.
- Look for patterns in a child's Running Record, e.g. making errors by guessing a word from initial letter sound. (A correct response is recorded with a tick.)

Assessing text difficulty

A Running Record can be taken on any text the child is reading and should have a total word count of approximately 100 words. If the child is reading caption books, two or three may be read consecutively. It is important to note on the Running Record sheet the category of text:

- Easy text: Over 95% of the text is read accurately (fewer than 5 errors in every 100 words).
- Instructional text: 90-95% of the text is read accurately (between 5 and 10 errors).
- Hard text: Less than 90% of the text is read accurately (more than 10 errors).

Also note how much the child is self-correcting. Although self-correcting is a positive behaviour, it could get in the way of phrased and fluent reading.

Screening tasks (1-4)

Running Record			Date
Level of difficulty			Easy (over 95% acc.)
Running words	error rate	accuracy	Inst. (90-95% acc.)
Errors	1:	%	Hard (below 90% acc.)

3. Writing screen

The Writing screen should be completed within the context of a meaningful writing activity. Guided Writing provides an ideal opportunity for the teacher to structure the writing task, talk to children about their writing and observe as they independently write. Some elements of the screening can be completed outside the focused Guided Writing session, using prior observations and the ongoing assessment of work.

The Writing screen includes three important aspects of the writing process. The structure of the checklist is well supported by the chronology of Guided Writing:

- Gathering ideas and composition
- Pen to paper
- Response to writing

Gathering ideas / composition	Pen to paper	Response to writing
Generates ideas for writing: We all went to the zoo and I saw a lion and a giraffe.	Uses convention of sentence demarcation: sentences include use of capital letters and full stops.	Checking for meaning: child re-reads sentence.
Selects appropriate vocabulary: After we saw the stripy zebra we had our dinner in the café and then we went home on the bus.	Applies phonic knowledge for writing: sentences show evidence of accurate spelling of CVC words.	Expects writing to make sense – makes changes to establish meaning: child makes changes or adds to sentence.
Composes a sentence for writing: I liked it best when the big lion roared at us.	Writes correctly high frequency words: sentences provide evidence of accurate writing of some high frequency words.

An example of a writing task, and a writing checklist listing some early writing markers for pupils not working at expected levels, are included on pages 144 and 145 respectively.

SECTION C

Screening tasks (1-4)

Example of a writing task to support the screening process

The aim of the task is to assess writing. The assessment has two parts.

1. To see how children compose a sentence before writing.
2. To see how much children know about scribing.

Administering the task

By the end of this task you should know the level of competence in writing of each of the six children in the group.

- Set context. Initiate a general discussion about what the children like doing in the playground. Prompt: We're going to write a sentence about what you like doing in the playground.
- After a few minutes' discussion, ask each child in turn to give you a sentence. Prompt: Think carefully about one thing you've said that you're going to write about.
- Be prepared to support the children through the assessment, so that each child feels they have written their own sentence. The children should listen to each other's contributions before starting to write. This will enable you to listen to and record what they say as well as to observe their behaviour.
- You may wish to make a note of what each child says, and to help prompt the children, if they forget their sentence when they begin to write.
- Fill in the Writing screen checklist as you work through the material.

Before they begin writing, give the children these reminders:

Remember to:

- have a go at all the words in your sentence;
- think about where to put capital letters and full stops;
- check your sentence when you have finished.

Screening tasks (1-4)

Early Writing checklistGathering ideas and composition

- Can give a sentence without extra prompting.
- Can give a sentence with a little prompting, e.g. Do you remember when you said you liked running? Can you write a sentence about it?
- Can construct a sentence with adult's support, e.g. You said you liked running, how can you write this in a sentence? How will you begin your sentence?
- Adult provides the structure, e.g. What about if you said "I like ... " – child completes sentence by saying running.
- Adult gives a sentence to the child with child's agreement, e.g. Do you like running? (child nods); Shall I write "I like running"? (child nods).

Pen to paper

- Makes marks on paper.
- Attempts to write letters.
- Writes from left to right.
- Writes strings of recognisable letters.
- Writes letters which correspond to phonemes in the sentence.
- Writes some known words.
- Starts to write clusters of letters.
- Leaves spaces.
- Leaves spaces between words.
- Begins to use capital letters appropriately.
- Begins to use full stops appropriately.
- Reads their story / sentence back accurately.

Writing control

- Is right-handed / left-handed.
- Has a conventional pencil grip.
- Starts to write in the correct place.

Response to writing

- Reads writing back, attempting to use 1-1.
- When reading back writing, maintains sense and meaning.
- Adds to writing to develop, extend and clarify the meaning.

4. Speaking and Listening screen

The checklist for Speaking and Listening is designed to support Shared Reading. This screening will only include limited aspects of speaking and listening; it must be considered against observations made as pupils engage in a range of speaking and listening opportunities in all areas of learning and play.

Name of child	Observation	Answering Voluntary (V) Asked (A)	Speaking clearly		Speaking with confidence
			Audible?	With expression?	Able to explain / add detail?	Is answer relevant?
	Brief comment on child using observation prompts.	Is the response volunteered or does the teacher need to prompt?	Can the adults and other children hear the response?	Does the child use appropriate information in their response?	Does the child elaborate beyond simple and limited contributions?	Has the child taken account of other contributions?

Shared Reading provides an ideal opportunity for focused and targeted observation of speaking and listening skills as children engage in a meaningful and well-supported activity. The checklist is designed for completion by teaching assistants during teacher-led Shared Reading sessions. In the following pages a sample completed checklist (p. 151) and list of further observations and indications of progression (p. 152) are included.

The table above explains the headings of the Speaking and Listening screen.

Screening tasks (1-4)

IDENTIFICATION OF ELS GROUP

Frequently Asked Questions

Q Half my class are likely to be in the target group – why is this?

- A1 Feedback from the pilot schools has shown that when teachers considered the reasons for this, it was sometimes felt that this was because the school had not really got a structured phonics programme (Progression in Phonics or its equivalent) in place. Hence the great emphasis on this as part of the preparation for ELS.
- A2 Are children coming through from YR secure at least at Step 4 in Progression in Phonics?
- A3 The work you are doing in the Literacy Hour will help to ensure that this becomes less of a problem over time.

Q Should we include pupils in the early stages of learning EAL in ELS?

- A It is important to distinguish between literacy difficulties and proficiency in English. Reference should be made to the QCA publication A Language in Common: Assessing English as an Additional Language (2000) and specialist advice sought from your LEA Ethnic Minority Achievement Service. Many pupils learning EAL are likely to benefit from ELS, especially where no other support is available. Where bilingual support teachers or teaching assistants are available, their involvement in ELS is likely to prove most beneficial.

Q Should we include children on the SEN Code of Practice in ELS?

- A1 ELS may well be beneficial. You should consider the following:
- The nature of the child's special educational needs and the relevance of the targets in IEPs.
 - Whether or not additional support / intervention is in place.
- Specialist advice should be sought from your LEA SEN / Learning Support teams.
- A2 A teaching assistant assigned to a child with special educational needs could deliver the programme on an individual basis or support the child in the ELS group.

Q Should we include children who have summer birthdays or who have had limited Reception experience?

- A You may feel that these children will make good progress without additional support. Several schools in the pilot scheme have provided further groups in the Summer term and included these children at this stage where necessary.

Q Several children likely to need ELS have disruptive behaviour – should we include them?

- A Children with severe behavioural difficulties should not be included – they should be receiving other support. (If there is a teaching assistant assigned to an individual pupil, he or she could deliver the programme on an individual basis or support the child in the group.)
- You could prioritise no more than one pupil with disruptive behaviour who you feel is likely to benefit from ELS and respond positively within the small group. In this case, the situation must be monitored closely and the child withdrawn if necessary.

- Q Is it worth including children with poor attendance or children who are transient?
- A Both the pilot of ELS and the ALS programme for Y3 have found that inclusion in an intervention group can act as an incentive to improve attendance and is supportive to children who move between schools.
- Q Will there be problems with ELS if parents/carers do not give support at home?
- A The ELS programme has Take Away activities that are designed for independent working time. Schools may send these home, but it is not necessary. Supplementary notes for parents are provided that suggest optional, linked activities, which could be done at home.
- Q What can we do about parents/carers who may object to their children being placed on this programme?
- A It is very important that schools inform parents before the child begins the programme. Feedback from the pilot schools has shown that it works best when parents / carers are informed on a personal, one-to-one basis rather than in a meeting or by letter.

Exit Strategy

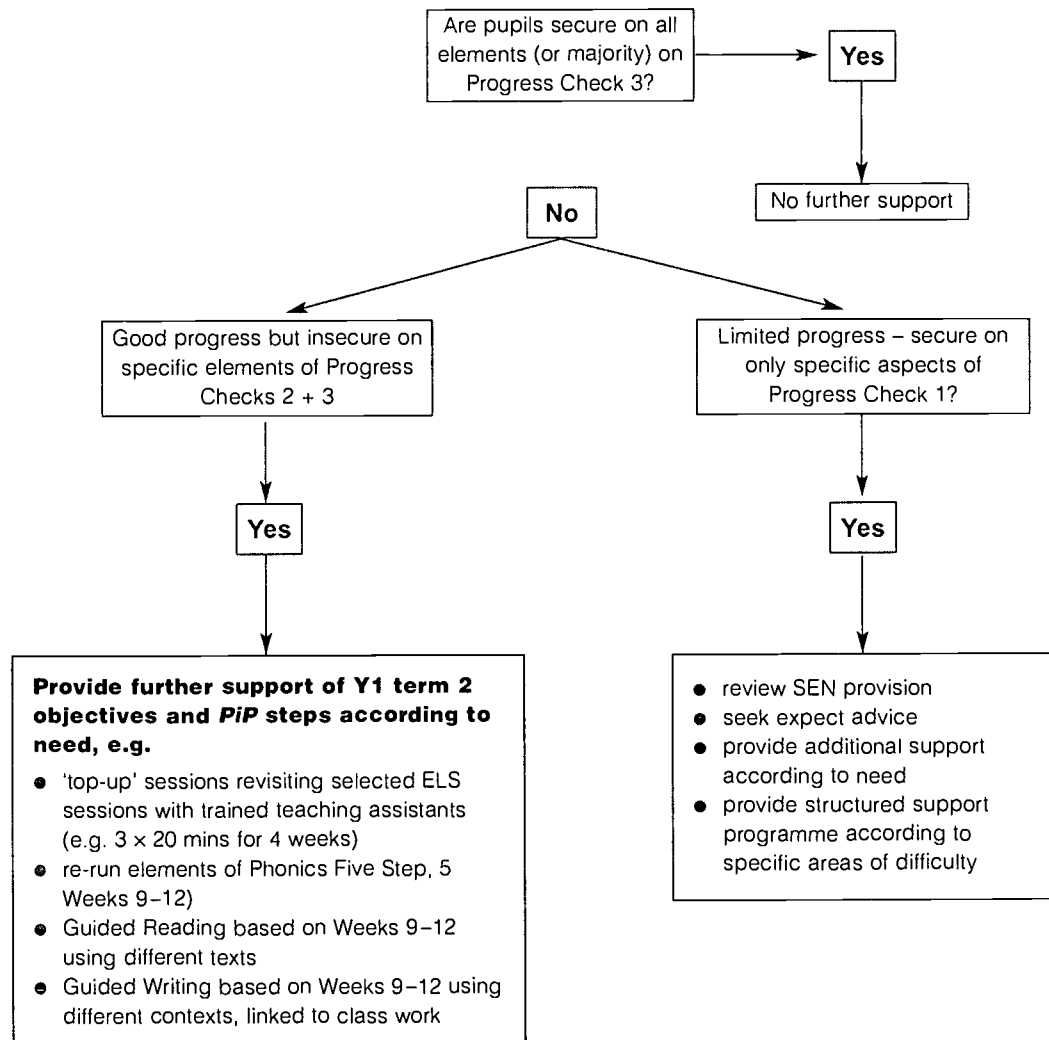

Establishing an exit strategy at the end of the group intervention: Notes for the class teacher.

When the group have completed the intervention sessions, you will wish to consider next steps for each child. The use of the ELS Progress Checks, together with your professional judgement and the views of the teaching assistant, will inform your overall view. The flowchart to establish an exit strategy at the end of the group intervention is designed to support the process of deciding the way in which individual children need to move on.

The following points should be borne in mind when working through the exit strategy:

- the exit strategy for each child should be established in consultation with the school ELS implementation group;
- exit strategies will vary and need to be tailored to meet individual needs;
- the exit strategy flowchart describes the three broad groups of children and possible exit paths;
- where children have not made expected progress, it may be necessary to seek further advice and to implement procedures in keeping with the SEN Code of Practice.

GLOSSARY

Intervention sessions: Glossary of terms

alphabet strip	a strip of card on which is written each letter of the alphabet (in the case of ELS, in lower-case script).
blending	the process of combining phonemes into larger elements such as clusters, syllables and words. This also refers to the process of combining two or more phonemes, particularly at the beginning and end of words, e.g. st, str, nt, pl, nd .
digraph	two letters representing one phoneme: bath; train; ch/ur/ch .
environmental print	print displayed in 'everyday' settings in order to give information in a very direct and concise manner. The ELS Programme for Week 7 includes notes on environmental print.
grapheme	the written representation of a sound, which may consist of one or more letters; for example, the phoneme s can be represented by the graphemes s, se, c, sc and ce as in sun, mouse, city, science .
Guided Reading	the adult works with the group on a text carefully selected to offer an appropriate level of challenge. The ELS programme offers guidance for text selection based on Bookbands for Guided Reading , and the detailed session notes describe the structure of the session.
Guided Writing	the adult works with the group on a task carefully selected to offer an appropriate level of challenge. The ELS Programme offers guidance on the content and structure of sessions for the selected group.
high frequency words	words occurring in common usage for children at various stages. The NLS Framework for teaching provides guidance on the words relevant to the ELS Programme (YR and Y1).
human sentence	an activity in which the individual words and punctuation of a sentence are written on cards and held by children, who can then arrange themselves in the correct order.
instructional text	a text that tells you how to do something, using a series of sequenced steps. The ELS Programme for Week 6 includes notes on instructional text.

mnemonic	a device to aid memory, for instance to learn particular spelling patterns or spellings (e.g. big elephants can always upset small elephants – the initial letter of each word supports the memorising of the spelling of because).
non-chronological report	writing organised without reference to a time sequence. The purpose is to describe the way things are. The ELS Programme for Week 9 includes notes on this text type.
phoneme	the smallest unit of sound in a word. A phoneme may be represented by one, two, three or four letters and may occur in initial, medial or final position in a word – e.g. bat , ship ; dog , mouse ; man , match , through .
phoneme frame	a pre-printed card that supports children in discriminating the number of phonemes in a word. Examples are included in the ELS resources trolley and can also be found in the books for the ALS programme.
Progression in Phonics (PiP)	NLS publication for the teaching of phonics in Key Stage 1. The ELS Programme is aligned to the 'Steps' for progression described in the book.
segmentation	the process of breaking a word or part of a word into its component phonemes, e.g. c-a-t , ch-a-t , s-k-i-n .
Shared Reading	the adult, as an expert reader, models the reading process by reading the text to and with the children. This includes demonstrating the use of reading strategies and giving the children opportunities to join in the reading.
talk for writing	discussion that helps children to capture and rehearse the content, sequence and style of what they are going to write before they attempt to write it. It is particularly helpful to young children if the adult models this process by 'thinking out loud' about their own writing.
text at instructional level	a text selected for Guided Reading which a child will be able to read and readily comprehend at or above 90% accuracy (for further information, see Book Bands for Guided Reading).
