STATISTICS OF STATE UNIVERSITIES AND STATE COLLEGES

For the Year Ended June 30, 1917.

This annual bulletin, formerly prepared and published by the National Association of State Universities, has been published by the Bureau of Education for the past nine years. The data given are taken from reports received from the offices of the presidents of the various institutions, and the figures printed are substantially as given in those reports.

CHANGES IN COURSES AND METHODS OF INSTRUCTION.

University of Arkansas.—In September, 1918, entrance requirements will be 15 units.

University of California.—A school of military aeronautics, under the auspices of the U. S. Signal Corps, has been established. Special short courses preparatory for various services in connection with the war are given.

University of Colorado.—A new department in steam and gas engineering is in course of establishment. A course in household science and art, leading to the degree of B. S. in the school of social and home service, is being organized. A chair of American history has been established.

Colorado Agricultural College.—The institution was designated as a senior and junior division of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, in January, 1917.

Colorado School of Mines.—One free scholarship to each Latin-American country and one free scholarship to each State in the Union are now offered.

Colorado State Teachers College.—Beginning with the academic year 1917-18, the four-quarter system will be inaugurated. A conservatory of music has been added to the college departments.

Delaware College.—A department of education, as a part of the school of arts and science, has been established.

University of Florida.—The curriculum of the college of law has been raised from a two-year course to a three-year course. A course in chemical engineering has been added to the chemistry department.

Florida State College for Women.—Manual training has been added to the curriculum. Special research work in home economics has been established.

Georgia School of Technology.—A four-year course in commerce leading to the degree of bachelor of science in commerce has been established.

University of Idaho.—Beginning with September, 1917, no foreign language will be required for admission to the college of agriculture. A new department of commerce was organized in September, 1916.

Purdue University (Indiana).—An engineering experiment station has been organized.

State University of Iowa.—Third semester algebra has been eliminated from the requirements for admission to the college of liberal arts.

Kansas State Agricultural College.—Beginning September, 1917, the school year will be divided into semesters instead of terms.

University of Kentucky.—The college of home economics has been placed in the college of agriculture.

Massachusetts Agricultural College.—The college year is now divided into three terms of 12 weeks each, with summer work offered in certain departments.

University of Michigan.—Beginning with the session 1917-18, the regular curriculum in the college of dental surgery will be extended to four years.

Michigan Agricultural College.—Physics, solid geometry, and advanced algebra are not required for entrance to any but the engineering course.

Mississippi Industrial Institute and College.—Beginning with the session 1917-18, no student will be admitted except on the 14-unit basis.

Montana State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts.—In October, 1917, a change will be made from the two semesters of 18 weeks each to four quarters of 12 weeks each.

New Hampshire College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts.—The two-year course in industrial engineering has been discontinued.

University of New Mexico.—Beginning with the academic year 1917-18, the four-quarter system will be inaugurated.

University of North Carolina.—In 1918 entrance requirements will be raised to 15 units.

North Carolina State College of Agriculture and Engineering.—A department of vocational education has been established, effective in 1917-18 session.

North Dakota Agricultural College.—The following departments have been reorganized and changed to schools: Agricultural chemistry and pharmacy, education, home economics, mechanic arts, and veterinary science. Deanships have been established in education and in veterinary science.

University of North Dakota.—The courses in engineering have been reorganized and a single college of engineering established. A course in commerce is now offered. The nurse-training course has been suspended.

Oklahoma College for Women.—A department of education has been established.

University of Oklahoma.—The school of commerce and industry has been discontinued, and in its place a school of business and a school of social service have been established.

University of Oregon.—New features: Adoption of the four-quarter system; organization of the college of literature, science, and the arts into upper and lower divisions; establishment of a department of military art and of a department of household art.

Pennsylvania State College.—In September, 1917, entrance requirements will be 15 units.

Clemson Agricultural College (South Carolina).—Entrance requirements have been raised to 12 units. A course in chemical engineering has been established; also a course in general science.

University of Tennessee.—The one-year preliminary medical course has been discontinued.

Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas.—The course in military engineering has been combined with civil engineering. All preparatory work has been abolished.

College of Industrial Arts (Texas).—Nonsectarian courses in Bible study have been established, some of which courses count toward the bachelor's degree.

University of Utah.—A school of commerce and finance has been established.

University of Virginia.—In September, 1917, entrance requirements will be raised to 15 units.

University of Washington.—New features: Adoption of the four-quarter system; organization of the college of liberal arts and college of science on the junior-senior college plan; establishment of a school of business administration and of a library school.

University of Wisconsin.—Foreign language is no longer required for either entrance or graduation in the colleges of agriculture and engineering. In the college of agriculture a minimum of 10 credits must be taken in other colleges before graduation.

University of Wyoming.—A four-year course in music, leading to the degree of bachelor of music, has been inaugurated. The courses in home economics have been rearranged, and a two-year special vocational course has been added.
