Subsidiary schools have been established in civilian communities since the war as follows: University of Minnesota, Medical and Dental Schools; Columbia University, New York, N. Y.; Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, Philadelphia, Pa.

By the act of Congress approved January 28, 1915, the Revenue-Cutter Service and the Life-Saving Service were combined into the Coast Guard, and the titles of the former services then became obsolete. All duties previously performed by the Revenue-Cutter Service and the Life-Saving Service are now performed by the Coast Guard. Former revenue cutters and former life-saving stations are now called Coast Guard cutters and Coast Guard stations, respectively. The officers and men of the two services were transferred to corresponding positions in the Coast Guard by the terms of the act.

The Federal Board for Vocational Education has been charged with the responsibility of reeducating disabled soldiers and sailors. It is the intention of the board to use the resources of existing institutions and, so far as practicable, to train men in institutions as near as possible to their homes. The board is limited in its work of vocational education to beneficiaries of the War Risk Insurance act. Men are received for training after they are discharged from the hospitals and from the Army. As rapidly as the War Risk Insurance Bureau furnishes names, the board endeavors to secure training arrangements for those who need education and can profit by it.

¹ A Training Department is maintained by a shipyard for the teaching of shipyard crafts to green workmen. The teaching staff of a Training Department is trained under the supervision of the Educational and Training Section, but is paid by the shipyard.

² Instructor training centers are maintained for the purpose of teaching skilled workmen how to impart their knowledge to others, and upon completion of their work they become instructors in the training departments at their respective yards. The teaching staff of a training center is composed of the regular staff instructors of the Education and Training Section.

³ Names of local directors in parentheses indicate the men formerly in charge of centers which have now completed their work.

3. DIRECTORS OF SCHOOLS IN WHICH TRADES ARE TAUGHT.

It is intended to include in this list those schools, public and private, which offer one or more day courses which prepare students, male or female, for the mechanical trades and industries, by teaching the technic of the occupation in whole or in part, with the expectation that the training given in such course shall serve to shorten the usual period of learning or apprenticeship in the occupation.

This expectation should be justified by the provision of conditions which look definitely toward this end, and should include at least the following: (a) The students should spend not less than 10 hours (60 minutes each) per week in the practical shopwork or other technical processes of the occupation; and (b) the instructor should have had practical experience as a wage earner in the occupation for which he is giving instruction.
