ABOUT HACU

Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities

For thirty-three years, the mission of the Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities (HACU) has been to Champion Hispanic Success in Higher Education. HACU fulfills its mission by: promoting the development of member colleges and universities; improving access to and the quality of postsecondary educational opportunities for Hispanic students; and meeting the needs of business, industry and government through the development and sharing of resources, information and expertise.

HACU is the only organization that represents existing and emerging Hispanic-Serving Institutions (HSIs). HSIs today represent 13 percent of all institutions of higher education that enroll 62 percent of Hispanic undergraduates.

HACU serves its membership through advocacy, conferences, partnerships and educational programs, and offers scholarships and internship opportunities for students.

HACU is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) association with a membership of more than 500 colleges and universities in the U.S., Washington, D.C., Puerto Rico, Latin America, Spain, and includes U.S. school districts. HACU's headquarters are located in San Antonio, Texas, with regional offices in Washington, D.C., and Sacramento, California.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT/CEO AND CHAIR OF THE GOVERNING BOARD

The Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities began 2018 with a visit to Puerto Rico, where rebuilding efforts were in progress after the impact of Hurricane Maria. In solidarity with HACU's 29 member colleges and universities on the Island, the Association announced San Juan, Puerto Rico would be the location of its 13th International Conference on May 1-3, 2019.

A HACU on the Road visit hosted by the Universidad Metropolitana in San Juan, Puerto Rico, on February 21, 2018, brought together 20 representatives from school districts, higher education and other organizations across Puerto Rico, to discuss the state of Hispanic higher education.

In Washington, HACU's work included engaging the Congressional Hispanic-Serving Institutions (HSI) Caucus, launched with members of the U.S. House of Representatives, as an effort to keep policy makers and their staff informed on the impact of HSIs in their districts, states and across the nation.

HACU led the Act on the Dream Coalition activities and convened two meetings with its coalition members, which included a wide array of leaders, thinkers and advocates dedicated to advancing the cause of immigration reform and supporting DREAMers attending colleges and universities across the nation. Further work on providing resources available for DREAMers continues.

HACU submitted its Higher Education Act (HEA) priorities to the Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions (HELP) Committee, which included a proposal to create a new Part C under Title V of the HEA for a new grant program to support partnerships and collaboration between Hispanic-Serving Institutions and those school districts that educate the majority of Hispanic students for the purpose of improving their educational attainment. HACU proposed that $150 million be authorized to create the program.

With the support of its members and allies, HACU was successful in preserving and increasing congressional appropriations to HSIs for FY 2019. The two most critical HSI programs at the U.S. Department of Education, HEA Title V-Part A (undergraduate education) was funded at $124.4 million and HEA Title V-Part B (graduate education) was funded at $11.2 million. In addition, funding for the National Science Foundation (NSF) HSI program was increased to $40 million. Funding for HSIs under Title VII of the Farm Bill remained at $9.2 million.

On the state level, HACU's work continued with Assembly members in California in support of HACU's proposal to revise the higher education funding formula to better retain, transfer and graduate underrepresented students. A California HSI Summit was held in October to update membership on our progress.

HACU announced that programs offered by the ¡Adelante! U.S. Education Leadership Fund had merged with the Association's student programs and aligned to maximize opportunities for both students and corporate partners. Accordingly, HACU's student track, offered in conjunction with the annual conference was renamed as the "HACU ¡Adelante! Leadership Institute."

A new partnership with Google created opportunities for students to participate in Hispanic Student Leadership Summits, which brought together Hispanic student leaders from organizations at HSIs and other universities to share innovative and creative best practices with one another, as well as collaborate with Google's Hispanic leadership team.

An executive briefing was held at the corporate headquarters of Apple Inc., in Cupertino, California. HACU staff were joined by presidents and leaders of HSIs from across the country in the briefing with Apple leaders. The educational briefing was part of an HACU initiative designed to bring technology companies and HSI CEOs together to collaborate on workforce issues.

HACU also held its own Emerging Leaders Summit, focused on preparing students for internships and career opportunities in various fields. The Summit held on May 11, 2018, was hosted by York College in partnership with other CUNY campuses: Hostos Community College, La Guardia Community College, Lehman College, Queens College, and Queensborough Community College. HACU/U.S. Army University Tours brought area high school students to their local campuses: California State University Fullerton, University of Texas at Arlington and University of Texas at San Antonio, to introduce them to college bound opportunities available in their communities.

HACU's largest student program, the HACU National Internship Program continues to place students in internships nationwide with federal sponsors and corporate partners committed to diversifying their workforce. A total of 535 students had the opportunity to experience the professional world first-hand as interns.

HACU partners provided academic scholarships and leadership awards to students at HACU-member institutions that totaled $198,300. Students programs included a variety of opportunities to further support their education such as: Southwest Airlines Lánzate! Travel awards, Deloitte's Jorge Caballero Student Leadership Award, and HACU ¡Adelante! Leadership Institute scholarships supported by Miller Coors and other student track sponsors.

HACU conferences and events provided organized platforms for sharing Hispanic higher education best practices and resources and opportunities for networking with colleagues across the country and around the world.

HACU's 23rd National Capitol Forum targeted key legislative issues and culminated in state delegations of faculty, staff and students visiting their members of Congress on Capitol Hill.

HACU's 32nd Annual Conference included among its events, a pre-conference Youth Leadership Development focus on STEM at Atlanta Metropolitan State College. The Latino Higher Education Leadership Institute, PreK-12/Higher Education Collaboration Symposium, and Deans' Forum were all part of the line-up of pre-and post-conference events that drew 1,791 participants to our premiere Hispanic higher education conference held for the first time in Atlanta, Georgia.

Among the conference highlights was a welcome from City of Atlanta Mayor Keisha Lance Bottoms, and the induction of the HACU Hall of Champions honoring the late Sister Elizabeth Ann Sueltenfuss, Ph.D., CDP, president emerita, Our Lady of the Lake University, who was instrumental in granting HACU its first home at OLLU, when the Association was founded in 1986. J. Michael, Ortiz, Ph.D., president emeritus of California State Polytechnic University, Pomona was also recognized and inducted. Our annual HACU Awards also recognized member institutions, corporate, federal and legislative supporters of Hispanic education.

The Association ended 2018 with a ground-breaking program in progress, HACU's Presidential Leadership Academy/Academia de Liderazgo. The preliminary announcement of this fellowship program expected to have its first cohort in the fall of 2019 was shared during HACU's Annual Conference. This HACU initiative is a very important step towards filling the need for more Latino leaders to head our Nation's Colleges and Universities.

These are just a few highlights of the Association's work supported by HACU's staff from its national headquarters in San Antonio, Texas, and regional offices in Sacramento, California and Washington, D.C.

We want to recognize the dedication and vision of our college, university and corporate leaders that comprise HACU's Governing Board, including its newly elected officers and members for 2017-18. We thank Franklyn M. Casale, president emeritus of St. Thomas University, who completed his term on the Board.

New Governing Board members include Juan Sánchez Muñoz, president of University of Houston-Downtown and Garnett S. Stokes, president of University of New Mexico. Mike Flores, chancellor of the Alamo Colleges District was re-elected to the board.

Governing Board Officers are: Chair - Félix V. Matos Rodríguez, president of Queens College, CUNY; vice chair - Monte E. Pérez, president of Los Angeles Mission College; secretary - Sue Henderson, president of New Jersey City University; treasurer - Beatriz T. Espinoza, president of Coastal Bend College; and past chair - Tomás D. Morales, president of California State University, San Bernardino.

We also want to recognize HACU's Corporate and Philanthropic Council (C&PC). Jorge Caballero, senior partner of Deloitte Tax LLP, was named as vice-chair of C&PC. New to the Council is Mike Aguilera, director of global diversity for education at Sodexo.

Our sincere thanks to all the individuals and organizations whose support has made it possible for HACU to advance the cause of Hispanic higher education success in 2018 and beyond. There's room for you too in La HACHE de HACU, the Hispanic Alliance to Champion Higher Education, of which you become a part by contributing to our annual appeal. Please help us make Hispanic student access and success a priority by spreading the word on your campuses and throughout your networks. Together we are building the future of America.

ADVOCATING FOR HISPANIC HIGHER EDUCATION

Since the first federal definition of Hispanic-Serving Institutions (HSIs) in 1992, HACU's advocacy efforts have produced over $3.3 billion for HSIs and Hispanic higher education. Advocating for federal funding for Hispanic-Serving Institutions and issues on Hispanic education remains a central focus.

Strategic alliances with other minority organizations continue to be significant in promoting a legislative agenda for higher education. Through alliances with minority, higher education and other national Hispanic organizations, there has been increased awareness of HSIs in Congress and with the Administration.

HACU's online Advocacy Center has been instrumental for education advocates to make their voices heard on public policy issues affecting HSIs and our member colleges and universities. With over 1,240 individuals registered at hacuadvocates.net, this online tool has facilitated communication with lawmakers and their staff. The Advocacy Center holds important policy information, makes periodic policy updates about HACU's advocacy efforts and hosts webinars.

As part of the advocacy work with the Act on the Dream Coalition, HACU launched the "Community Resource Center" (CRC) for DREAMers and HSIs, as a centralized registry of information for DACA/DREAMers and their families. The CRC is available on hacu.net, as well as a mobile app version for download in the Apple Store and Google Play.

HACU remains an active partner with the Washington Higher Education Secretariat, the National Hispanic Leadership Agenda, the Hispanic Education Coalition, the Alliance for Equity in Higher Education, the Committee for Education Funding, the Coalition for Teaching Quality, the National English Learner Roundtable, the Higher Education Task Force and other national organizations with a focus on education.

Advocacy efforts addressed key pieces of legislation, reaching all levels of Hispanic education and workforce development. In the ongoing reauthorization conversations for the Higher Education Act (HEA), HACU called for the creation of a Part C to be included under Title V of the HEA for a new grant program to support collaboration between HSIs, Emerging HSIs, Hispanic-Serving School Districts (HSSDs) and emerging HSSDs for greater student success. HACU continues to work with several Congressional offices to introduce a Part C bill in the 116th Congress. HACU, along with allies organizations, successfully advocated against House of Representatives passage of the PROSPER Act, Rep. Virginia Foxx's HEA re-authorization bill, and the President's FY 2019 budget because of the negative impact it would have on HSIs and limit access and support for Hispanic students in higher education.

With the support of members and allies, HACU was successful in preserving and increasing congressional appropriations to Hispanic-Serving Institutions for FY 2019. The two most critical HSI programs at the U.S. Department of Education, HEA Title V-Part A (undergraduate education) was funded at $124.4 million (a high mark for the program), and HEA Title V-Part B (graduate education) was funded at $11.2 million. In addition, funding for the National Science Foundation (NSF) HSI program was increased to $40 million. Funding for HSIs under Title VII of the Farm Bill remained at $9.2 million.

HACU monitored and responded to legislative proposals introduced in the Senate and the House of Representatives by promoting specific legislative language favorable to HSIs and the Hispanic community, such as language in the Educator Preparation Reform Act. The Association is working to re-establish the Leadership Group consisting of key agency officials and HSI presidents for the U.S. Departments of Agriculture. HACU also serves on committees advising the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, the U.S. Department of State, and the Office of Personnel Management.

State Advocacy

HACU's Western Regional advocacy efforts for member institutions in Arizona, California, Nevada, Oregon and Washington continue to focus on increasing state level investments in higher education. The Association also supported higher education legislation in the region's state legislatures, including their respective DREAM Acts, student financial aid bills and other college access legislation. HACU continued policy meetings with its California membership to develop policy proposals.

OPENING DOORS TO A DIVERSE WORKFORCE

HACU is dedicated to increasing Hispanic employment in the federal workforce and corporate America, a demographic which remains underrepresented in these sectors.

For more than 25 years, the HACU National Internship Program has provided college students the opportunity to gain career experience while completing their undergraduate and graduate education.

In 2018, HACU placed 535 students in paid internship assignments in the federal and corporate sectors. The interns placed by semester were: 116 interns for the spring; 254 interns in the summer and 165 interns in the Fall.

Approximately 255 of the total interns were Hispanic students. Women made up more than half of participants with a total of 310. The average grade point of all interns was 3.4 and the average age was 25.

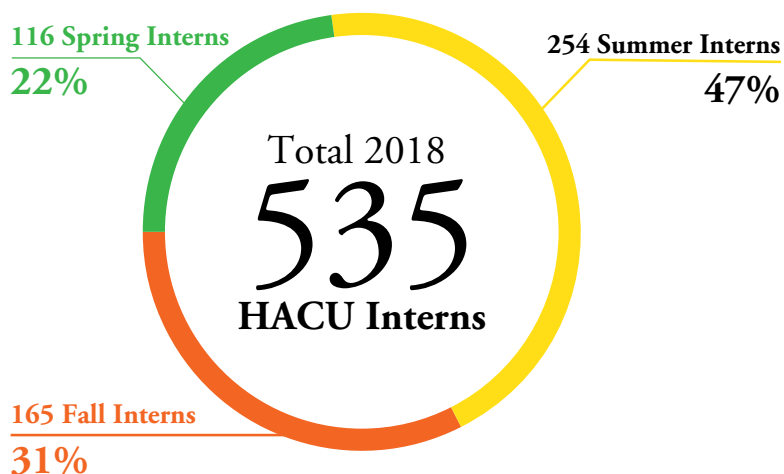

Students participating in the program represented colleges and universities from 32 states, Puerto Rico and the District of Columbia. The locations with the highest concentration of students participating were from California (68), Puerto Rico (68), Texas (85) and Maryland (97).

Students served in 321 federal internships in the Washington, D.C., area, 192 federal field offices throughout the United States, 18 corporate internships nationwide with 3 corporate direct hires.

To date, the HACU National Internship Program has provided more than 12,000 internship opportunities to students and has served as a pipeline for Hispanics to careers in the federal government and private sector.

Many students who have benefited from the internship program and other HACU educational programs are now giving back by serving as a resource for student development and alumni advancement through the HACU Alumni Association.

Programs such as the HACU Alumni Ambassadors Program provide support and information to prospective HACU National Internship Program applicants.

INVESTING IN COLLEGE STUDENTS

Restoring America as the first in the world in college graduation rates begins with working with students from high school to college to ensure they have the educational and financial resources needed to pursue and complete their higher education goals.

HACU Scholarship Program

HACU partnerships with corporations have made it possible to award deserving students with the Denny's Hungry for Education Scholarship, Big Red ¡Avance! Scholarship, Oracle Scholarship, Kia Motors America, Inc. Scholarship, InGenesis Scholarship, Miller Lite Brewed to be Bright Scholarship, Coors Light Climb On Scholarship and Café Bustelo El Café del Futuro Scholarship. As a result, HACU awarded 68 scholarships totaling $188,300 to students at HACU-member institutions. Deloitte awarded the Jorge Caballero Student Leadership Award, totaling $10,000. This brought the total of scholarships and leadership awards to $198,300. These companies continue to make a difference by investing in today's college students to ensure an educated workforce for the future of our country.

HACU Emerging Leaders Summit

A HACU Emerging Leaders Summit was hosted to provide workshops to prepare Latino students for corporate internships and jobs in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) finance, accounting, business, communications and marketing fields. The Summit offered 98 university students the opportunity to meet with business professionals and corporate representatives and was held at York College, CUNY on May 11, 2018.

Hispanic Student Leadership Summit

HACU and partnered with Google to co-host two Hispanic Student Leadership Summits in the California area. A Summit was held at the Google Venice Beach Office on April 27, and the second at Google's new Cloud Campus in Sunnyvale on May 11, 2018. Each event brought approximately 100 student participants.

HACU ¡Adelante! Leadership Institute Scholarships

Approximately 194 students received a Student Track Scholarship to attend HACU's ¡Adelante! Leadership Institute held in conjunction with the Annual Conference. Thirty four of the students were sponsored by HACU and are now part of the Leaders-In-Residence program and 160 were made possible through 32nd Annual Conference sponsorships. The HACU ¡Adelante! Leadership Institute scholar sponsors are listed on page 17.

Hispanic College Quiz

A re-airing of the Hispanic College Quiz show featured students from nine HACU-member institutions as contestants in the show that aired during Hispanic Heritage Month. A PSA on the HACU National Internship program aired nationally with the show in 82 Markets and in 91 stations. The quiz show is produced by Central City Productions in partnership with HACU and sponsored by State Farm.

HACU/U.S. Army University Tour Program

The HACU/U.S. Army University Tour visited three university campuses in 2018 to offer workshops about the college admissions process and financial aid options for students. The University Tour on Feb. 5-9 at California State University, Fullerton included: 706 high school students, 75 counselors and 50 parents. On Sept. 11-13 at The University of Texas at Arlington participants included: 620 high school students and 47 counselors. On Oct. 16-18 at The University of Texas at San Antonio participants included: 550 high school students and 47 counselors.

¡Lánzate! Travel Awards

The Dándole Alas a Tu Éxito/Giving Flight to Your Success™ ¡Lánzate! Travel Award Program, sponsored by HACU and Southwest Airlines, was established thirteen years ago for college students living away from home to be able to return to their hometown to visit with families. Southwest Airlines ticket vouchers were awarded to 150 college students.

INCREASING THE UNDERSTANDING OF HISPANIC HIGHER EDUCATION

HACU National Capitol Forum

HACU's 23rd National Capitol Forum on Hispanic Higher Education registered 170 individuals for the event, which took place in Washington, D.C., April 9-10, 2018. The Forum served as an opportunity to advocate for federal legislation and support for Hispanic higher education. Approximately 74 representatives from HACU-member institutions had the opportunity to meet with key members of the House and Senate from during visits to Capitol Hill.

Act on the Dream Coalition

HACU convened "Act on the Dream" Coalition meetings on June 4 and Nov. 27, 2018, in Washington, D.C., to provide an update on the status on the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) and the DREAM Act.

The Association presented an Act on the DREAM Summit Report and Summary. A national online resource center to better serve DACA/ DREAMers and their families was launched on HACU's website and as a mobile app "HACU CRC" available for download in the Apple Store and Google Play.

More than 35 national higher education organizations and immigration stakeholders are part of the Coalition.

HACU'S PREMIER CONFERENCE ON HISPANIC HIGHER EDUCATION

HACU Annual Conference

HACU's 32nd Annual Conference, under the theme "Championing Hispanic Higher Education Success: Building America's Future," brought a total of 1,791 registrants on Oct. 6-8, 2018, to Atlanta, Georgia.

Attendees included representatives from colleges and universities, school districts, public policy organizations, and government, corporate and philanthropic sectors. Of those registered, 507 were undergraduate students participating in the Student Track, which takes place in conjunction with the Annual Conference and offers career and leadership development opportunities.

The Annual Conference featured 54 workshops in a wide range of issues related to the conference theme, with many on topics related to Hispanic-Serving Institutions. A HACU Town Hall with discussed "Immigration, Today's Civil Rights Struggle," The International Plenary, "The Role of Presidents/CEOs in Internationalizing their Campuses" was among the topics presented during the conference plenaries.

Attendees also made connections with 127 exhibitors that included national and international colleges and universities, federal agencies, major corporations and nonprofit agencies. A College and Career Fair was part of the Exhibitors Hall that was free and open to the public. The fair also offered workshops for college-bound students and their families.

2018 Conference Attendee Breakdown

Youth Leadership Development Forum

HACU's "Students in STEM" Youth Leadership Development Forum on Oct. 5, 2018, was hosted at Atlanta Metropolitan State College, in coordination with the Zion Group. The event brought 150 middle and high school students to the AMSC campus to learn more about careers in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) by participating in workshops and a college fair. Hands-on-learning activities included cellphone repair, building and coding drones, coding basics, and radio broadcasting.

HACU PreK-12/ Higher Education Collaboration Symposium

The Pre-K-12 Symposium drew 57 participants to the one-day gathering featuring a panel discussion led by educators that showcased policies and programs with successful outcomes for students leading into college. The event was offered as a pre-conference event of HACU's Annual Conference.

HACU Latino Higher Education Leadership Institute

The annual Latino Higher Education Leadership Institute drew 94 registered participants. The Institute, designed to provide a forum for emerging higher education leaders, included presentations and workshops to discuss challenges and explore strategies for making higher education institutions more responsive to the educational needs of Latinos and other underrepresented groups. The institute was offered as a pre-conference event of HACU's Annual Conference.

HACU Deans' Forum

The Deans' Forum on Hispanic Higher Education, "The Future of U.S. Education: Best Practices for Recruiting and Retaining Hispanic Students," focused on recruiting and retaining Hispanic teachers through institutional support. Registrants in attendance included 66 participants. The event was offered as a post-conference event of HACU's Annual Conference.

California HSI Summit

More than 80 higher education representatives participated in a California Hispanic-Serving Institutions (HSIs) Summit convened by HACU to discuss the implementation of the California Community College Student Centered Funding Formula, a funding proposal HACU initially introduced in the California state legislature, after several years of conversations with California HACU members about ways the Association can best impact funding for HSIs in the state.
