Phase III, Year 3 Component A: Summary of Phase III, Year 3

(1) Theory of Action or logic model for the SSIP including the SiMR.

Please refer to WV GRADUATION 20/20 Logic Model. (Appendix A) The logic model has been updated to reflect changes in the “inputs”. Specifically, Regional Education Service Agencies (RESAs), and Regional School Support Specialists (RS³s) have been removed and district level Points of Contact (POCs) and the two Technical Assistant Support (TAS) personnel have been added. Additionally, the State-identified Measurable Result (SiMR) has been updated to align with West Virginia’s Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) Consolidated Plan. The ESSA accountability 2030 trajectory is 95% of all students graduating from high school within four years of enrolling in Grade 9. Therefore, the target for 2018-2019 is 80.8% of students with disabilities (SWD) graduating with a 4-year standard diploma.

(2) The coherent improvement strategies or principle activities employed during the year, including infrastructure improvement strategies.

Please refer to Evidence-Based Frameworks in (Appendices B and C) YEARS 1-2 Dropout Prevention Intervention Framework and YEARS 2-3 CEEDAR Transition Practices Framework and Improvements to State Infrastructure Charts.

The Dropout Prevention Intervention Framework and CEEDAR Transition Practices Framework charts outline the specific activities needed to implement the coherent improvement strategies. WV GRADUATION 20/20 was implemented during the 2015-2016 academic school year beginning with sixty-nine (69) schools in thirty-six (36) counties representing fifty-nine (59) percent of West Virginia’s high schools. During the 2016-2017 academic year the number of high schools grew to seventy-two (72) and the cohort included twenty (20) middle schools bringing the total to ninety-two (92) schools in forty-one (41) counties. The success of the program led to the growth in participation during the 2017-2018 academic school year. The number of participating schools grew to one-hundred three (103) schools in forty-one (41) counties. The Cohort included seventy-four (74) high schools, twenty-three (23) middle schools, six (6) elementary schools, and two (2) alternative centers. The 2018-2019 Cohort totals one-hundred twenty-one (121) schools in forty-four (44) counties and includes seventy-eight (78) high schools, thirty-two (32) middle schools, nine (9) elementary schools, and two (2) alternative schools. Sixty-seven (67) percent of WV high schools are participating in the SSIP. The participation rate of LEAs is 80%. Due to the increase of participating schools, both the original and additional self-referred schools are at different stages of implementation within both frameworks.

The implementation model utilized by West Virginia from 2014-2015 to 2017-2018 was to partner with the eight (8) Regional Education Service Agencies (RESAs) to execute our SSIP—WV GRADUATION 20/20. This model was based on eight (8) Regional School Support Specialists (RS³s) who worked directly with local education agencies (LEAs) and schools to implement the frameworks through coaching and technical support. The 2017 WV Legislative Session resulted in a bill which dismantled the RESAs by June 30, 2018 and established Educational Service Collaboratives (ESCs) if the LEAs were so inclined. Since the enactment of this legislation, the West Virginia Department of Education’s (WVDE’s) Office of Special Education (OSE) developed the West Virginia Results-Driven Priorities (RDP) Program. The RDP’s central goal is to improve results for students with disabilities by providing funding directly to the LEAs for 2018-2019 and transitioning the coaching support from the regional level to the local and state levels. RESAs supported the SSIP from April 1, 2018 to June 30, 2018; Points of Contact, WVDE, and Technical Assistance Support providers supported the SSIP from July 1, 2018 to March 31, 2019. The coaching provided by RESAs was critical to the implementation of the coherent improvement strategies designed for WV GRADUATION 20/20. Infrastructure revisions employed to maintain the SSIP momentum, in addition to funding LEAs directly, were to establish a Point of Contact (POC) in each of the forty-four (44) counties and to employ two (2) part-time Technical Assistance Support (TAS) coordinators each assigned to counties within a regional area.

Phase III, Year 3 of WV’s State Systemic Improvement Plan has been one to revisit, review, reorganize, and revise. These changes have affected all aspects of the SSIP’s infrastructure including governance, quality standards, accountability, fiscal, and professional learning. School Year 2018-2019 has been one of change for both the local education agencies (LEAs) and the state education agency (SEA). West Virginia will continue to adjust its SSIP to increase graduation rates and decrease dropout rates for students with disabilities.

Results-Driven Priorities

The West Virginia Results-Driven Priorities (WV-RDP) was developed to improve results for all students, including students with disabilities. RDP emphasizes child outcomes such as performance on assessments, graduation rates, and early childhood outcomes. Districts are required to use data to identify gaps in student performance, analyze district systems, and then implement targeted, evidence-based reforms to address the gaps. It is critical for the State and districts to develop an improvement plan in a manner that is aligned with the State’s and district’s existing improvement programs and reform efforts which are focused on supporting College- and Career- Readiness.

Supporting College- and Career-Readiness in West Virginia: Results-Driven Priorities

RESULTS-DRIVEN Priorities (RDP) in West Virginia

WV identified four (4) WV-Results Driven Priorities (RDP) for the development and growth of a comprehensive approach to closing the achievement, engagement, and graduation gaps. These priorities align with the West Virginia Board of Education’s Strategic Plan, West Virginia’s Consolidated State Plan for the Every Student Succeeds Act, and the West Virginia IDEA State Performance Plan.

The WV-RDP has been developed to assist all 55 West Virginia districts in closing the gaps among subgroups. This program, which is funded partially through IDEA Part B and Preschool Discretionary monies from the United States Department of Education Office of Special Education Programs, includes technical assistance activities designed to provide school personnel and families with the knowledge and skills needed to implement educational programs and interventions that have proven to be effective in improving outcomes for toddlers, children, and youth with disabilities. An additional funding source is through the Now is the Time (NITT) Project AWARE West Virginia-Advancing Wellness and Resilience in Education (WV-AWARE) grant monies from the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) and includes technical assistance activities designed to improve educational outcomes by targeting mental health challenges.

The four (4) Results-Driven Priorities are: WV GRADUATION 20/20, ENGAGEMENT, LITERACY ACHIEVEMENT, and NUMERACY ACHIEVEMENT.

WV GRADUATION 20/20 Priority

Need: All states were required by the Office of Special Education Programs at the United States Department of Education to develop a five-year State Systemic Improvement Plan (SSIP) (IDEA State Performance Plan Indicator 17).

Graduation

The WV GRADUATION 20/20 Initiative uses a data driven intervention framework developed by the National Dropout Prevention Center for Students with Disabilities (NDPC-SD) to address issues that have negatively impacted school completion; and the Collaboration for Effective Educator, Development, Accountability, and Reform (CEEDAR) Center’s Transition Practices and Predictors (TPP) Framework to improve transition services. WV GRADUATION 20/20 is a federally required program that was established in 2015 in the State Systemic Improvement Plan (SSIP) and at a minimum is required to continue through 2020.

WV GRADUATION 20/20 was specifically established to assist in building capacity to increase the high school completion rate for ALL students with special emphasis on students with disabilities (SWD) and those of low socio- economic status (low-SES).

The WV GRADUATION 20/20 goals include:

- Improve student literacy and numeracy achievement.
- Increase number of students who graduate with a regular diploma.
- Decrease number of students who drop out.
- Increase attainment of better postsecondary outcomes.

The WV GRADUATION 20/20 delivery of services includes:

- Provide funding to 44 districts per the number of schools involved in the WV GRADUATION 20/20 initiative in 2018-2019 school year at $12,500.00 per school.
- Build capacity in the 121 schools (78 high schools, 32 middle schools, 9 elementary, and 2 alternative schools) to increase graduation, decrease dropout and improve transition services.
- Partner with a community provider to establish a Transition Technical Assistance Center (TTAC).
 - » The Transition Technical Assistance Center serves as an extension of the WVDE Office of Special Education to provide capacity building models of community-based work exploration for districts, transition to successful post school outcomes, and increased utilization of the Division of Rehabilitation Services resources and Pre-Employment Transition Services (Pre- ETS) programs.

Behavior Support Priority

Need: There is a general lack of infrastructure to provide training and technical assistance in the area of behavioral support in West Virginia.

Engagement

The ENGAGEMENT priority is focused on improving attendance, behavior, and access to school-based mental health services and implementing research-based effective models for developing and supporting positive school climate/culture.

The ENGAGEMENT initiative goals include:

- Increase student attendance.
- Decrease chronic absenteeism.
- Decrease out-of-school suspensions.
- Decrease number of bullying incidents.
- Develop positive and supportive school environments by addressing mental health needs of students and families.
- Increase access to school-based mental health.

The ENGAGEMENT delivery of services includes:

- Provide formula funding for all 55 districts.
- Leverage the district Steering Committee to identify local needs and implementation plan.
- Continue to partner with The West Virginia Autism Training Center at Marshall University to expand the Behavior/Mental Health Technical Assistance Center. This partnership has existed since 2012 to focus on Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS) for both school-age and early childhood students.
- The Behavior/Mental Health Technical Assistance Center provides training to schools to improve the climate through positive behavior strategies.
- The Behavior/Mental Health Technical Assistance Center serves as an extension of the WVDE Office of Special Education (OSE) to provide capacity-building models of coaching and support to schools.

Literacy/Numeracy Achievement

Need: There is a general lack of infrastructure to provide training and technical assistance in the areas of improving literacy and numeracy achievement for students with disabilities.

The LITERACY/NUMERACY ACHIEVEMENT priorities are focused on closing the achievement gap and ensuring ALL students are on target for grade-level expectations in literacy and numeracy with special emphasis on students with disabilities (SWDs), English language learners (ELLs), students with low socio-economic status (low SES), and race/ethnicity.

The LITERACY/NUMERACY ACHIEVEMENT goals include:

- Support high quality schools and workforce prepared to address literacy and numeracy standards.
- Support identification of interventions and implementation of a system of support for students not reaching grade level proficiency in literacy and numeracy.
- Ensure West Virginia remains on track in closing the literacy and numeracy achievement gap in Grades 3-8.
- Increase the percentage of students in Grades 3-8 demonstrating grade-level proficiency equivalent Lexile and Quantile scores.

The LITERACY/NUMERACY ACHIEVEMENT delivery of services includes:

- Provide formula funding for all 55 districts for literacy and/or numeracy.
- District Steering Committee identifies local needs and implementation plan utilizing framework:
 - » Utilize district Steering Committee
 - » Analyze data
 - » Identify target areas for intervention
 - » Develop goals for district Results Improvement Plan
 - » Implement district Results Improvement Plan
 - » Monitor the implementation of the district Results Improvement Plan
 - » Evaluate the effectiveness of the district Results Improvement Plan
- Add two (2) coordinators, Numeracy and Literacy, to the Office of Special Education. These staff members will work directly with districts directly to improve achievement.

Supporting College and Career Readiness in West Virginia: Results-Driven Priorities

The mission of Results-Driven Priorities is to develop a comprehensive improvement plan focused on analyzing current systems and redesigning as necessary to improve results. Increasing student achievement and ensuring college- and career-readiness for all learners through the promotion of evidence-based instruction and interventions to prepare students for post-secondary opportunities is the core principle guiding this work.

- All students will be on target for grade-level proficiency in Mathematics.
- All students will be on target for grade-level proficiency-equivalent Quantile scores in Mathematics.
- Students with disabilities will meet the 3.4% annual Measures of Interim Progress for Academic Performance Rates in Mathematics.

- All students will be on target for grade-level proficiency in English language arts.
- All students will be on target for grade-level proficiency-equivalent Lexile scores in English language arts.
- Students with disabilities will meet the 3.3% annual Measures of Interim Progress for Academic Performance Rates in English language arts.

- All students will attend school everyday.
- All students will demonstrate responsibility and positive behavior (measured by decreased suspensions and bullying incidents).
- Students will be connected with appropriate and timely referrals for their mental health/behavioral supports.

- All students will graduate high school prepared for college and careers.
- Students with disabilities will meet the 1.3% annual Measures of Interim Progress for 4-year Cohort Graduation Rate.

The Improvements to the State Infrastructure Chart (Appendix C) provides an update to the Phase II Chart and Phase III Year 2 Chart reflecting activities completed, and a Phase III, Year 3 Chart reflecting activities initiated in 2018-2019.

(3) The specific evidence-based practices that have been implemented to date.

Please refer to the Years 1-2 Dropout Prevention Intervention Framework and Years 2-3 CEDAR Transition Practices Framework Charts under the Implementation Improvement Strategies and EBPs. These charts depict the evidence-based practices implemented to date. (Appendix B)

(4) Brief overview of the year's evaluation activities, measures and outcomes.

Evaluation activities over the past year have been implemented according to the WV GRADUATION 20/20 Evaluation Measurement Table (Appendix D). Implementation and fidelity checks in the form of document content reviews were completed as planned for the 2017-2018 school year. Further, we continue to collect these program artifacts for the 2018-2019 school year, see Appendix E, WV GRADUATION 20/20 Evaluation Status Measurement Table: 2017-2018.

WV GRADUATION 20/20 Reflection Rubric data were collected in the spring/summer of 2018. The rubric (Appendix F), a retrospective pre/post survey, captures a school's implementation stage near the beginning of the school year and then again at the end of the school year for each step and core activity of WV GRADUATION 20/20. School Leadership Teams completed the rubric as a team, and School Support Specialists completed a rubric for each of the schools they supported. Analysis of rubric data revealed statistically significant increases in implementation stages for every core activity. Additionally, when the core activities are combined to create the five (5) implementation steps of the program, each step revealed significant increases; this held true for responses from school teams and from the School Support Specialists. Effect sizes were calculated for each core activity and implementation step as well. All items yielded a medium to very large effect size. (see rubric analysis results in Appendix G).

In the summer of 2018, we conducted two focus groups with School Leadership Team members (one at the North Summit and one at the South Summit). See Section C2 for Focus Group results. It was not possible to conduct a focus group with the School Support Specialists during the summer due to the closure of our eight (8) Regional Education Service Agencies (RESAs). While the RESAs were not completely phased out until June 30, 2018, we did experience a turnover in nearly half of our School Support Specialists for the remainder of the 2017-2018 school year. However, moving forward, we plan to conduct focus groups with district level Points of Contact (POCs) and in-depth interviews with the Technical Assistant Support (TAS) coordinators, all of whom will assist the Office of Special Education in supporting the WV GRADUATION 20/20 schools.

The 2017-2018 state graduation rate among students with disabilities experienced an increase as compared to the 2016-2017 rate (76.86% and 75.69% respectively). The 2017-2018 dropout rate among students with disabilities saw a slight decrease from 0.99 to 0.87. Additionally, participation in the One-year Follow-up Survey (tracking post school outcomes for Indicator 14) has improved. At 67.7% the follow-up survey participation in 2018 surpassed the state goal of 60.00%. More importantly, we exceeded our Indicator 14 goal of 68.00% with 69.31% of those surveyed reporting they are currently engaged in higher education (2 or 4 year degrees), are competitively employed (working 20+ hours per week at or above minimum wage) or are engaged in other types of post-secondary education/training or employment. (See: One-year Follow-Up Survey Results, 2017-2018 in Appendix H).

Phase III, Year 3 Component B: Progress in Implementing the SSIP

(1) Description of the State’s SSIP implementation progress.

Description of extent to which the State has carried out its planned activities with fidelity. Intended outputs that have been accomplished as a result of the implementation activities.

Outlined in the WV GRADUATION 20/20 Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) are the expectations of all parties involved in the program. The table below represents the implementation progress and the extent to which the State has carried out its planned activities with fidelity. This is also represented in the WV GRADUATION 20/20 Logic Model (Appendix A) in the outputs column.

| IMPLEMENTATION PROGRESS PHASE III, Year 3 2017-2018 | |
| IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES | OUTPUTS ACCOMPLISHED |
| Provide ongoing technical assistance to include, but not limited to, listserv, print resources and materials, assistance with the development of dropout prevention and transition initiatives, assistance with reviewing and analyzing data relevant to school retention and predictors of positive post school outcomes and capacity building forums. | ✓ |
| Provide six days of professional learning in years one through five. | ✓ |
| Set aside financial resources to support substitutes, travel activities, and stipends. | ✓ |
| Assist with the utilization of the data collection system as described in the WV GRADUATION 20/20 measurement table (Appendix D) to measure and monitor progress on WV GRADUATION 20/20 including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • lead collaborative conversations quarterly • monitor and make recommendations for adjustments as needed | ✓ |
| Review progress annually and develop an annual report submitted to USDE’s Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP). | ✓ |

(2) Stakeholder involvement in SSIP implementation.

How stakeholders have been informed of the ongoing implementation of the SSIP.

How stakeholders have had a voice and been involved in decision making regarding the ongoing implementation of the SSIP.

Stakeholder Involvement

The Office of Special Education (OSE) engaged with stakeholder groups to collect input on implementation strategies and the evaluation plan. OSE sought the input of educators, parents, West Virginia Department of Education (WVDE) staff, and other State Agencies. OSE staff traveled to local (including all participating counties and the cities of Beckley, Huntington, Dunbar, Summersville, Parkersburg, Wheeling, Clarksburg, Martinsburg, Logan, Charleston, Morgantown, and Fairmont) and out-of-state meetings (Denver, Milwaukee, Washington, D.C., and Keystone) for a total of 133 meetings where information on WV GRADUATION 20/20 was presented and input sought. Stakeholders attending these meetings held various roles: parents of students with disabilities, general education administrators, general education teachers, special education administrators, special education teachers, US Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP) Technical Assistance Centers, outside agency service providers, and representatives from institutions of higher education. In addition to these stakeholders, OSE also gathered input from the Special Education Advisory Panel, local special education directors, RESA personnel, the internal WVDE WV GRADUATION 20/20 State Leadership Team, and the Division of Teaching and Learning Offices of Assessment, Middle/ Secondary Learning, and Early Elementary Learning. Various formats of input from stakeholders were sought, including presentations with question and answer opportunities, table discussions, focus groups, small group meetings, one-on-one interviews, survey questions (Reflection Rubric), and others.

The Technical Assistance Support (TAS) coordinators meet with each of their WV GRADUATION 20/20 counties throughout the year. These meetings provided a forum for the LEAs to discuss common barriers, successes, and make suggestions for changes to the implementation of WV GRADUATION 20/20.

Phase III, Year 3 Component C: Data on Implementation and Outcomes

(1) How the State monitored and measured outputs to assess the effectiveness of the implementation plan.

How evaluation measures align with the theory of action.

Described in Phase III, and depicted below in a continuous improvement cycle, there is a progressive relationship between the major components of WV GRADUATION 20/20. Once graduation was chosen for the SSIP, the WVDE leveraged existing relationships with the National Dropout Prevention Center for Students with Disabilities (NDPC-SD) and the Collaboration for Effective Educator, Development, Accountability, and Reform (CEEDAR) Center to utilize their evidence-based frameworks: the Dropout Prevention Intervention Framework (DPIF) and the Transition Practices and Predictors (TPP) Framework.

These Evidence-Based-Practices (EBPs) Frameworks informed the theory of action and provided the foundation for the implementation manual and timeline/benchmarks. Further, the timeline/benchmarks informed the logic model and evaluation questions. The evaluation questions were the basis of the measurement table. Results from the evaluation activities carried out in the measurement table were used to further improve implementation of the EBPs chosen for WV GRADUATION 20/20.

Data sources for each key measure.

Please refer to the WV GRADUATION 20/20 Evaluation Measurement Status Table: School Year 2017-2018 for a full list of performance indicators, measures, collection schedule, and current status (Appendix E). Key measures for school year 2018-2019 will follow the same schedule as the prior school year with the exception of the noted change in focus groups. With the closure of the RESAs in June 2018, district and SEA level supports are replacing those previously supplied by the RESAs.

Description of baseline data for key measures.

Baseline for West Virginia’s SiMR is the graduation rate for students with disabilities prior to WV GRADUATION 20/20 implementation, 67.08% for school year 2013-2014. While not part of the formal evaluation, schools track baseline and longitudinal data using tools such as the Core Data Tool and the School Action Plan.

Data collection procedures and associated timelines.

Please refer to the WV GRADUATION 20/20 Evaluation Measurement Table: School Year 2017-2018 (Appendix D) and the WV GRADUATION 20/20 Evaluation Measurement Status Table. (Appendix E)

Sampling procedures (if appropriate).

Sampling was not appropriate in this evaluation for multiple reasons. First, during the initial implementation year, school year 2015-2016, all high schools across the state who had a graduation rate among students with disabilities of 70% or below were invited to participate in WV GRADUATION 20/20. This resulted in nearly 67% of all high schools in the state participating in the program; currently almost 70% of the high schools are participating. Therefore, finding fitting comparison groups as control groups was not possible. Second, participating high schools are in different stages of implementation; some schools have progressed faster than others, and some schools joined the program later. Third, each school examines their data in order to make data-driven decision making when choosing their areas of intervention and the students targeted for the intervention. This strategy is best suited to the Evidence-Based-Practices WV GRADUATION 20/20 implements; however, with such variance in each school's approach it is not possible to identify control groups. Finally, as part of the scale-up and sustainability efforts, feeder middle and elementary schools have joined the initiative over the past three (3) years. It is reasonable to expect more schools to join, also making selection of control groups not possible.

Planned data comparisons (if appropriate).

Two data comparisons are part of the evaluation plan. First, state level graduation rates among students with disabilities will be monitored annually across the span of the program. Second, results of the Reflection Rubric will be examined, aggregated, and reported each year. Further, individual rubric results will be available to the School Support Specialists, Points of Contact, and the schools they support. These data will allow School Support Specialists, Points of Contact and participating schools to better see and understand the stages of implementation, areas of strength, and areas where additional support is needed.

How data management and data analysis procedures allow for assessment of progress toward achieving intended improvements.

The evaluator is embedded within the Office of Special Education and is a member of the SEA WV GRADUATION 20/20 Leadership Team. The logic model, evaluation questions, and measurement table were developed with input from multiple stakeholder groups.

Of note, the SEA Leadership Team and RESA staff (including the RS³s) were pivotal in the development of the evaluation and evaluation tools. Using the WV GRADUATION 20/20 Implementation Manual as the foundation, we developed a protocol wherein the RS³s submit monthly reports, School Leadership Team documents, and School Action Plans to a coordinator in OSE. Together, the evaluator and OSE coordinator developed a checklist to track and monitor process documents. Further, with input from the RS³s, the evaluator created and/or modified templates and examples of the Core Data Tool, School Action Plan and Reflection Rubric to optimize the usefulness of the tools.

After the closure of RESAs in 2018, the WV GRADUATION 20/20 State Leadership Team revised our data collection and management process to reflect the infrastructure and support changes in the implementation process. These changes include dividing the reporting requirements of the RS³s among the LEA Points of Contact, and the School Leadership Team Leaders. In addition, the OSE has assumed more responsibility for providing support to the LEAs and School Leadership Teams.

The evaluation calls for a mixture of quantitative and qualitative data collection. The Reflection Rubric is an online tool; once data collection is completed the results will be analyzed to create both aggregate data (to be made available to all) as well as school specific data (shared with the appropriate Point of Contact and their schools). We believe the Reflection Rubric is reliable and valid tool because the items are framed within the stages of implementation from implementation science. Additionally, the foundation of the rubric was shadowed, with permission, after an implementation rubric that proved to be a valid measurement tool in another evaluation conducted by the WVDE's Office of Research, Accountability, and Data Governance. To analyze quantitative survey items (i.e., multiple-choice questions), we used SAS 9.4 to calculate and interpret measures of central tendency and dispersion (i.e., means and standard deviations). Statistical significance was established by conducting t tests; a t test determines if the difference in mean scores between two groups (such as pretest and posttest) represents a pattern and is not simply the result of chance. The WV GRADUATION 20/20 Reflection Rubric, designed as a pre/post-retrospective survey, collected paired data making it possible to conduct paired-samples t tests. Pre and Post Survey means were considered significantly different when t tests yielded P values of .05 or less. A P value of .05 or less indicates a 95% probability that the survey results were not observed due to chance.

Additionally, effect sizes using Cohen's d were calculated. Akin to their name, effect sizes measure the magnitude of difference in the mean scores between two measurements, in this study the pre and post implementation stages. Further, as a measure of strength between the differences of two mean scores, effect sizes are not affected by sample size. Cohen (1988) interpreted effect sizes lower than 0.15 to be negligible, between 0.15 and 0.40 to be small, between 0.40 and 0.75 to be medium, between 0.75 and 1.10 to be large, and above 1.10 to be very large.

The evaluator conducted the focus groups to gather qualitative data. The structured questions used in the focus groups were developed by the evaluator and peer reviewed; questions were made available in printed format to focus group participants during the focus group. Participants were informed of their rights, that they could stop participation at any time and were asked to provide verbal permission for recording the session. Recorded results were analyzed for themes using methodology described by Neil et al (2015). This method of rapid analysis of audio recordings directs evaluators to listen to short durations of a recording to identify recurrent themes. These themes along with examples are described in a table later in this portion of the report.

OSE has published and will continue to publish the SSIP annual report, which includes evaluation results. The SSIP is on the WVDE website and is disseminated to stakeholders at meetings throughout the year. Outcome data, specifically graduation rates, are drawn from the SEA data system (WVEIS) and put into visual presentations by the evaluator. The evaluator, with ten (10) years of experience in evaluation and statistical analysis, is responsible for the management and analysis of these data.

(2) How the State has demonstrated progress and made modifications to the SSIP as necessary.

How the State has reviewed key data that provide evidence regarding progress toward achieving intended improvements to infrastructure and the SiMR.

Review of key data in the progress toward achieving WV's SiMR includes examination of longitudinal graduation rate data at the state, county, and school levels. The table WV GRADUATION 20/20 High Schools 4-year Graduation Rates: SY 2016-2018 indicates graduation rate increase from one school year to the next among all students as well as students with disabilities (SWD). Of the 77 high schools that participated in WV GRADUATION 20/20 during school year 2017-2018 just over 50% saw increased graduation rates among the all group and slightly more than 40% had increased graduation rates among the students with disabilities subgroup.

Evidence of change to baseline data for key measures.

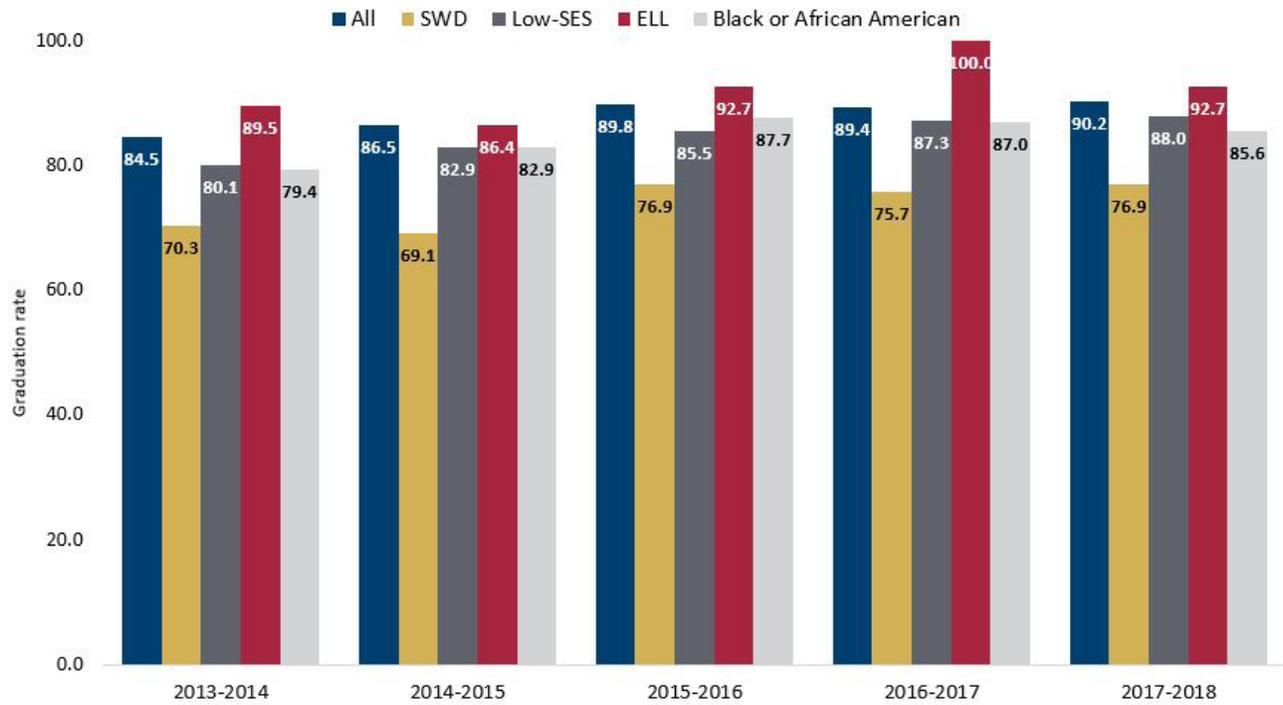

Progress toward achieving our SiMR is visible when looking at longitudinal graduation rates. Rates among students with disabilities are increasing and the gap between rates for the all group and the students with disabilities (SWD) group are shrinking. The gap between ALL students and SWD has narrowed by 6.1 percentage points from 2012 to 2018.

In 2015 West Virginia originally chose graduation as the State-identified Measurable Result (SiMR) with the target that 81.44% of youth with IEPs would graduate from high school with a regular diploma by 2017-2018. This trajectory was based on the goals from West Virginia’s Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) Flexibility Request approved in May of 2013. The current Indicator 1 targets approved by OSEP in the spring of 2018 are based on West Virginia’s Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) Consolidated Plan approved in January of 2018. The ESSA accountability 2030 trajectory is 95% of all students graduating from high school within four years of enrolling in Grade 9. This provides the target of 80.8% of SWD will graduate in 2018-2019. The graphs below depict improvements over time.

The 2017-2018 state graduation rate among students with disabilities experienced an increase of 1.3% compared to the 2016-2017 rate (75.69% and 76.86% respectively).

How data support changes that have been made to implementation and improvement strategies.

During school year 2017-2018 some districts saw positive impacts at the high school level and have added feeder middle and elementary schools to WV GRADUATION 20/20.

At the conclusion of the 2014-2015 pilot year, focus group data supported significant changes to the implementation as well as various improvement strategies. The WV GRADUATION 20/20 Implementation Manual was developed along with monitoring and tracking tools in the form of RS³ Logs, Contact Lists, Agenda/Minutes, Core Data Tool, and Action Plans.

A document content review of program artifacts demonstrated that despite changes to the state's education infrastructure, the program maintained momentum. Moreover, results from the WV GRADUATION 20/20 Reflection Rubric indicate statistically significant increases in implementation stages of the key components of the Evidence-Based-Practices (EBPs) chosen for this program. For rubric items and scales, all calculated effect sizes were considered to be medium to very large.

Data, both quantitative and qualitative, collected later in 2019 will be the first formal feedback from the LEA Points of Contact and School Leadership Teams since implementation strategies were adjusted due to the closure of the state's RESAs.

How data are informing next steps in the SSIP implementation.

Reports such as the One-Year Follow-up Report (Appendix H), along with qualitative data from the focus groups are helpful in informing next steps for WV GRADUATION 20/20. The One-Year Follow-up Survey Report, produced at the state and county inform WVDE and stakeholders about the quality of services provided to students with IEPs, as well as student outcomes one year after exiting high school. This correlates with the intent of schools to progress from using the Dropout Prevention Intervention Framework to implementing the Transition Practices and Predictors Framework.

Moreover, the use of qualitative data in the form of focus groups and open-ended comments from the Reflection Rubric assists in the continuous improvement cycle of implementing WV GRADUATION 20/20. In the summer of 2018 two focus groups were conducted comprised of School Leadership Team Members and district Central Office staff. Participants were asked to frame their responses within the 2017-2018 school year. See the tables below for major themes discovered when the evaluator analyzed the audio recordings from the focus groups along with deidentified comments from the rubric.

| School Leadership Team Focus Group Results |
| Positive |
| RESAs were a lot of help with collecting data, keeping teams on track, helping to analyze data, and keeping teams informed. Provided much needed guidance and support. |
| Their RS3s and School Support Specialists walked through data sites (Zoom and BrightBytes) with them and was good at coaching them on BrightBytes and provided them with short-term goals. Also help them to see the bigger picture. |
| The integration and data results from BARR and PBIS enhanced WV GRADUATION 20/20 data and allowed for supporting data toward goals. |
| [The High School] has an exemplary WV GRADUATION 20/20 Team. The team members consistently and regularly come together to review data, monitor progress, and evaluate the action plan. |
| Good to have multi-county perspective from RS ³ – would give them ideas from other counties. |
| Multiple school districts said that they have a representative from the County Board of Education come to all of their meetings and this is very beneficial. |
| Linking DRS office with this process is a great way to build on transition services and action plans and partnering with other agencies and people. |
| Alignment of IEP and PEP has been helpful in providing transition services. |
| The climate survey is a positive tool schools are using the data from the change many aspects to encourage students to graduate. |
| [The High School] began the WV GRADUATION 20/20 program in the fall of the year. This is the first year of implementation and the majority of the year was focused on building the team, gathering data, and understanding the program. The [leadership] is highly committed to the program and the school. I expect the program to become very successful within the next few years. |
| Many of the students appreciate the one-on-one attention given to them through this program. The team members of WV GRADUATION 20/20 were persistent and checked up on a particular student consistently and the student ended up graduating. Members of the WV GRADUATION 20/20 team at the school work together and are willing to build a rapport with the students. |
| School Support Specialists were very accessible <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Some attended leadership meetings once a month • Helped with any questions • Kept teams on track and moving forward • Researched and supplied needed documents • Some helped prepare for RESA closing • Assisted with WV GRADUATION 20/20 • Graduation coach was very helpful |
| Now have capacity to set-up and maintain cohorts on ZoomWV-e. |
| SEA providing monetary support to LEAs to attend professional learning. |
| Some Special Education directors were highly involved, assisting with reporting, documentation, and providing funding. |
| Individual support via graduation coach / mentor / co-teachers who don't have homerooms worked with at-risk students one-on-one and saw improvement in some students' attitudes, engagement, and eventually successful graduation from school. |

| The integration and data results from BARR and PBIS enhanced WV GRADUATION 20/20 data and allowed for supporting data toward goals. |
| [The Leadership] is an educational leader, who is compassionate about a safe learning environment to nurture the success & well-being of her students & staff! |
| [The School Support Specialist] was an outstanding coordinator/leader. She was very efficient and gave great direction. |
| We felt we had a very productive school year! Our main barrier was finances, and WV GRADUATION 20/20 helped to alleviate that problem. Also, increasing parent buy-in was improved. Thanks to our [School Support Specialist] for her consistent feedback, ideas, and great data analysis! |
| We at [High School] within the Exceptional Students Department think that this program has been beneficial for our Exceptional Students. It provides incentives throughout the school year for attendance, grades, testing, discipline, and graduation. Many of our students are never recognized or rewarded for their hard work at school. |
| Our WV GRADUATION 20/20 group became a PLC over the course of the year. |
| It is hoped that changes in how alternate or modified diplomas are awarded will have a positive impact on graduation rates. |

| This is the first year of participation for the [High School]. The team has demonstrated impressive collaboration and commitment. One of the goals was the establishment of a school store. That goal has been obtained and the team is working with the [Special Education Teacher] to integrate some transitional and life-skills components. |
| [The High School] has a well-developed and functional team. New leadership, has strengthened the program and brought needed support for the goals and objectives. Additionally, the team added the social worker to assist with expertise in the area of attendance. Although the graduation rate experienced a slight decline this year the gaps between all students and students with disabilities as measured by academic proficiency are increasingly becoming more narrow. |
| Barriers |
| Activities took place but the alternative school will be relocating next year and will have new team members. |
| Changes in leadership and education staff often cause the program to get off track. |
| Lack of organization and management can slow progress and waste time. |
| Graduation coach assistance only once a week is not enough. |
| Funding amounts make a big difference in what we are able to do. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • [The High School] will need continued funding of The Learning Odyssey Program to provide Credit Recovery Instruction for at-risk students. • Limits amount of time team can meet. • Limits number of visits that students can go on. |
| Being able to offer the ACT at [High School] has truly made a difference for our students. |
| [The Junior High] joined the WV GRADUATION 20/20 cohort in mid-fall. As the first junior high school in [this area], they were without a model or protocols. Some sections of the Core Data Tool could not be completed because the data did not exist in Zoom (i.e. graduation rates). The school administration demonstrate strong support for the program and I am confident that success will be the outcome once more structure is developed for the middle/junior high school model. [The Leadership] is student-centered and willing to work toward helping the school design strategies that assist the students in meeting needs. |
| Suggestions for Improvement |
| Our team does not feel that some of the responsibilities outlined in this survey were always clearly communicated to us. Furthermore, as data and school-specific needs change, we need time to discuss this with our [School Support Specialist] liaison. However, for most meetings that we have as a whole team, the majority of the time seems to be spent discussing agenda items that are not specific to our school, and therefore do not help the team to make any strides as far as working on our plan for school improvement. A suggestion here could be that if there is an agenda with items which all schools need to cover, maybe we could do a conference call meeting to cover all those general items. Then, in our face to face meetings with our [School Support Specialist] liaison, teams could focus solely on individual school plans and needs/problems specific to that school. Some other barriers are getting buy-in from the staff. We have been working to increase our attendance rate, which helps to improve student grades and participation, so we have done some rewards and incentive activities for students who have met certain attendance and discipline requirements. Some staff members believe that we are just rewarding students for doing what they are “supposed to do in the first place”, and we are working to try and change that mindset. |
| Create framework or strategies and continue professional development to increase capacity so that the program can continue effectively even when there are changes in leadership and staff. Commitment, continuity, training, and strong leadership—with plans for a smooth transition of leadership if there are changes at a school—are very important to the success of the program. |
| The Point of Contact for our county must be a person who best serves the LD/BD/MI population and who will communicate what the program requires in order to have success. |

Teams that are provided with adequate training on WV GRADUATION 20/20, adequate time to meet, and funds to provide students with out-of-school experiences, [help the teachers] feel positive about the program and see success for their students.

Be sure to explain program and outline expectations to parents/families so they can provide additional support to their students.

How data support planned modifications to intended outcomes (including the SiMR) rationale or justification for the changes or how data support that the SSIP is on the right path.

Data collected to date provides evidence that the SSIP is on the right path.

- Over the last several years graduation rates among students with disabilities have been on an upward trajectory (SiMR) while the graduation rate gap between the all group and students with disabilities has decreased.
- Dropout rates among students with disabilities has decreased over time; currently the dropout rate for students with disabilities is 0.87%.
- The SEA has provided the services and resources outlined in the WV GRADUATION 20/20 MOU.
- Short-term outcomes, as listed in the WV GRADUATION 20/20 Measurement Table, have been accomplished.
- Document content reviews indicate the SEA and School Leadership Teams are actively engaged in the steps of the EBPs used in WV GRADUATION 20/20.
- Focus group results from key stakeholders, and School Leadership Teams provide positive feedback and thoughtful insights in ways to alleviate barriers and improve services.
- All items on the WV GRADUATION 20/20 Reflection Rubric yielded statistically significant increases in implementation stage; this is true for both the School Leadership Teams and the School Support Specialists. Effect sizes for all statistically significant results were medium to very large.

Stakeholder involvement in the SSIP evaluation

How stakeholders have been informed of the ongoing evaluation of the SSIP.

Please refer to the charts in component B. (2): Stakeholder Involvement in SSIP Implementation (a and b). This chart outlines how the Office of Special Education engaged stakeholder groups while the Regional Education Service Agencies (RESAs) were being phased out.

How stakeholders have had a voice and been involved in decision- making regarding the ongoing evaluation of the SSIP.

Beyond engaging with stakeholders listed in component B, key input regarding the implementation and evaluation of the program came from focus groups. We began conducting focus groups as part of the evaluation at the conclusion of the pilot year (2014-2015). Two focus groups with School Leadership Teams and LEA staff were conducted after the end of the 2017-2018 school year. Results of the focus groups are informing improvement to the implementation of WV GRADUATION 20/20 at the state, district, and school levels. Examples of changes to the evaluation as a result of stakeholder input include the design of the reflection rubric and updating program document templates (i.e., School Action Plan, Monthly Reporting Log, and the Core Data Tool) to be more user friendly and less burdensome for reporting purposes. See component C. (2) for focus group results.

Phase III, Year 3 Component D: Data Quality Issues

(1) Data limitations that affected reports of progress in implementing the SSIP and achieving the SIMR due to quality of the evaluation data.

Concern or limitations related to the quality or quantity of the data used to report progress or results.

To date, we have discovered few limitations to data for the purposes of evaluating the SSIP. Process measures primarily consist of document content reviews, checklists, and some qualitative data from focus groups and an open-ended item on the WV GRADUATION 20/20 Reflection Rubric. The Reflection Rubric is the tool we are using to measure implementation fidelity. The data collection window for the Reflection Rubric was April to August 2018. Reflection Rubric participation was notably less in 2018 (25 School Leadership Team responses and 32 responses from the School Support Specialists) as compared to 2017. This reduction in participation is most likely related to the closure of the state's Regional Education Service Agencies (RESAs). RESA staff resigned throughout the year and while we were able to maintain support from School Support Specialists, there may have been some disruption in support and communication. However, the Reflection Rubric still yielded statistically significant and impactful results (see Appendix G).

When interpreting results in any study, it is important to consider inherent limitations that may skew findings. Surveys that rely upon self-reported information always have a risk of response bias; respondents may exaggerate or underestimate, may have accurate recall difficulties, and may report information they perceive as socially acceptable. This study relies upon one self-reported survey, a retrospective pre-post survey. Retrospective pre-post surveys are convenient because they occur once (improving response rates) and the pre-post data are matched at the individual participant level. Some research postulates that response-shift bias (a type of bias created from pre-survey overestimation and post-survey underestimation of one's knowledge, skills and/or behaviors) is alleviated through using retrospective pre-post surveys (Moore & Tananis, 2009). Conversely, other research argues traditional pretest-posttest types of surveys result in less biased program effectiveness estimates. In a 2011 study, Nimon, Zigarmi and Allen discovered inflated effect sizes among retrospective pre-post survey items. According to their findings, surveys with before-and- after items presented side by side may introduce types of bias including theories of change, self- presentation and/or effort justification. Further, to resolve the issues of both response-shift bias and exaggerated effect sizes Nimon and colleagues (2011) recommend administering traditional pre-post surveys with a retrospective pre-post survey. While this solution would alleviate some bias, it was not possible to initiate in this study.

We continue to address data issues related to measuring our SiMR (state level graduation rates). One improvement made during 2017-2018 was the addition of a grade level code that indicates if a student plans to or has returned for services after attaining a modified diploma. This change allows districts to place students in the correct grade level as opposed to placing them in grade 13 or above or having them stay in the 12th Grade for multiple years.

Nimon, K., Zigarmi, D., & Allen, J. (2011). Measures of program effectiveness based on retrospective pretest data: Are all created equal? American Journal of Evaluation, 32 (1), 8-28.

Quality – Over the last two years the WVDE has paid special attention to the improvement of data quality. These changes may be seen in the restructuring of the department, including the addition of the Office of Education and Information Systems, and employment of several WV Education Information System (WVEIS) specialists, coordinators and managers. Work continues in the efforts to improve the data matching between WV’s SLDS system, ZoomWV and its informational system, West Virginia Education Information System (WVEIS) and WVEIS on the Web (WOW) applications.

Quantity – While more students are participating in the One-year Follow-up Survey (over 67%), we continue to work with districts in the effort to further increase the response rate. Another issue with quantity during the 2017-2018 school year was the inability to hold a focus group with the RS3s or the School Support Specialists due to the RESA closures. Further, fewer schools and School Support Specialists responded to the WV GRADUATION 20/20 Reflection Rubric. We believe this may have also been an unforeseen outcome related to the loss of RS3s and School Support Specialists throughout the school year. As districts and School Leadership Teams become more familiar with the adjustments made to the program in reaction to the loss of RESAs, we anticipate improved response rates for the Reflection Rubric.

Implications for assessing progress or results.

More responses need to be generated on the Parent Involvement Survey to ensure the representativeness of the sample. One-Year Follow-Up Surveys have seen an increase of about 100 students participating each year over the past two years. This increase in participation indicates a stronger likelihood the survey results are representative of the population. In addition, gathering a larger data set allows us to have greater confidence in the reliability of the survey data. We continue to improve data quality checks to ensure students exiting the school system are categorized correctly in our data system.

Plans for improving data quality.

Beyond strengthening internal capacity to address data quality, WV is working with several national TA centers. West Virginia has partnered with the Center for the Integration on IDEA Data (CIID) whose mission is to support State Education Agencies (SEAs) with the integration of IDEA Part B Sections 616 and 618 data with statewide longitudinal data systems (SLDS). The tool, Generate, is designed to automate and simplify EDFacts reporting, provide consistency across the SEA for IDEA data reporting, and produce user-friendly reports to support data use. Generate has the capability to produce reports that can be used to support administration and policy work toward improved educational outcomes for children with disabilities and their families. Generate is designed to help increase the efficiency of data submissions and improve the quality of IDEA data. West Virginia is in collaboration with the IDEA Data Center (IDC) to implement the use of the Data Processing Tool Kit. The kit will interface with Generate as well as improve knowledge of IDEA data and align our processing of EDFacts with the file specifications. Enhanced processing procedures will result in improved data quality and data fidelity.

Evidence that SSIP's evidence-based practices are being carried out with fidelity and having the desired effects.

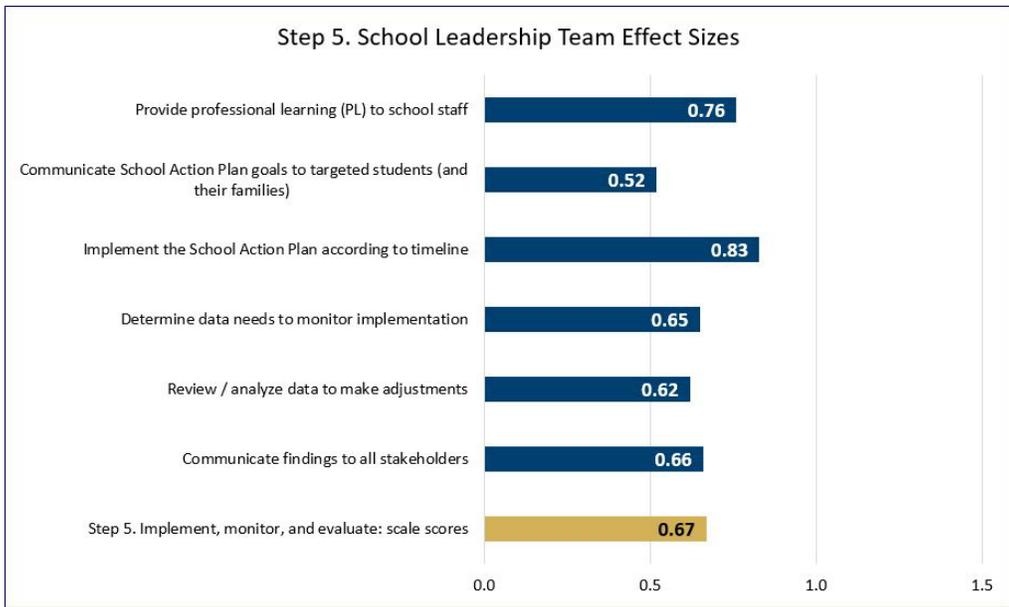

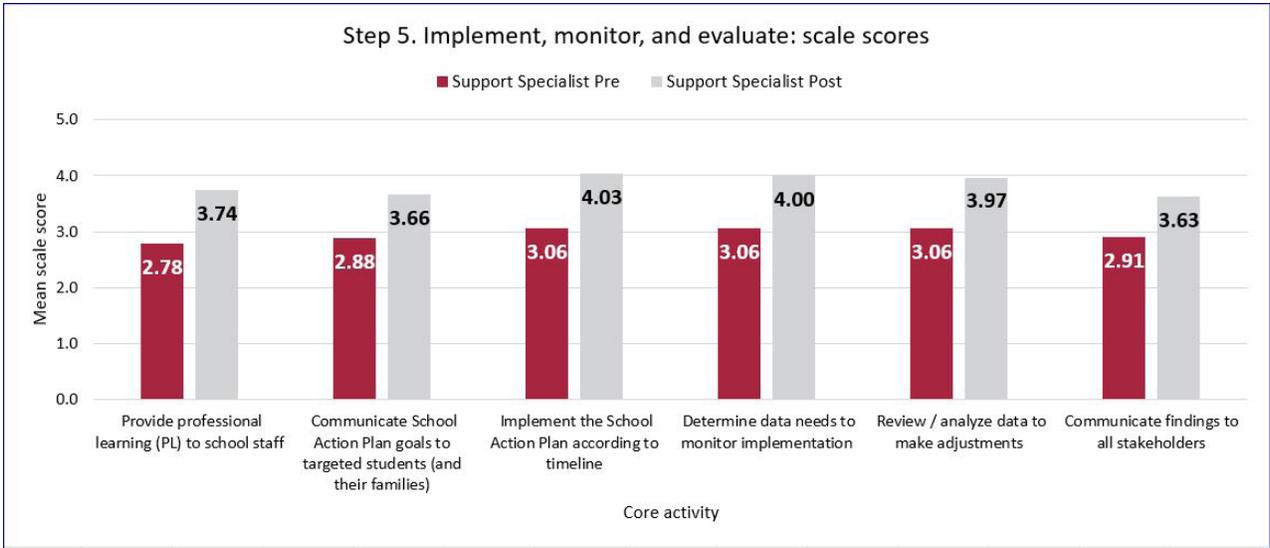

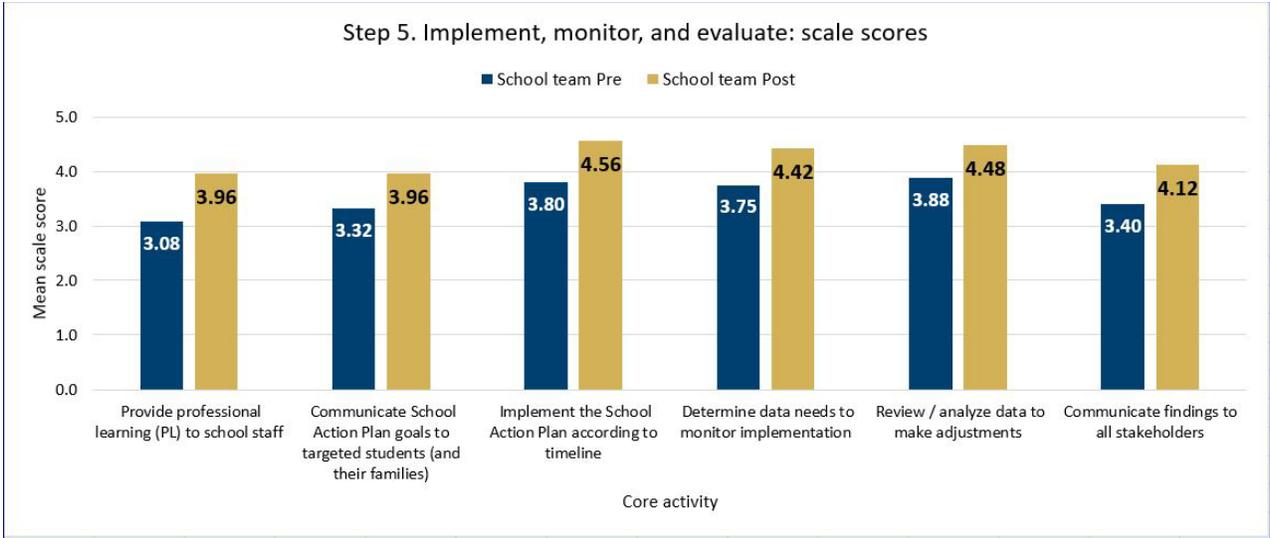

Discussed in Component B (1), the WVDE is carrying out its duties as described in the WV GRADUATION 20/20 MOU. These duties have resulted in the completion of the short-term outcomes listed in the WV GRADUATION 20/20 Measurement Table. Process measures at the RESA level indicate the RESAs and School Support Specialists supported the School Leadership Teams with fidelity. Specifically, WV GRADUATION 20/20 Reflection Rubric results suggest the School Leadership Teams and School Support Specialists are working within the steps of the two evidence-based frameworks with fidelity (Dropout Prevention Intervention and Transition Practices and Predictors Frameworks).

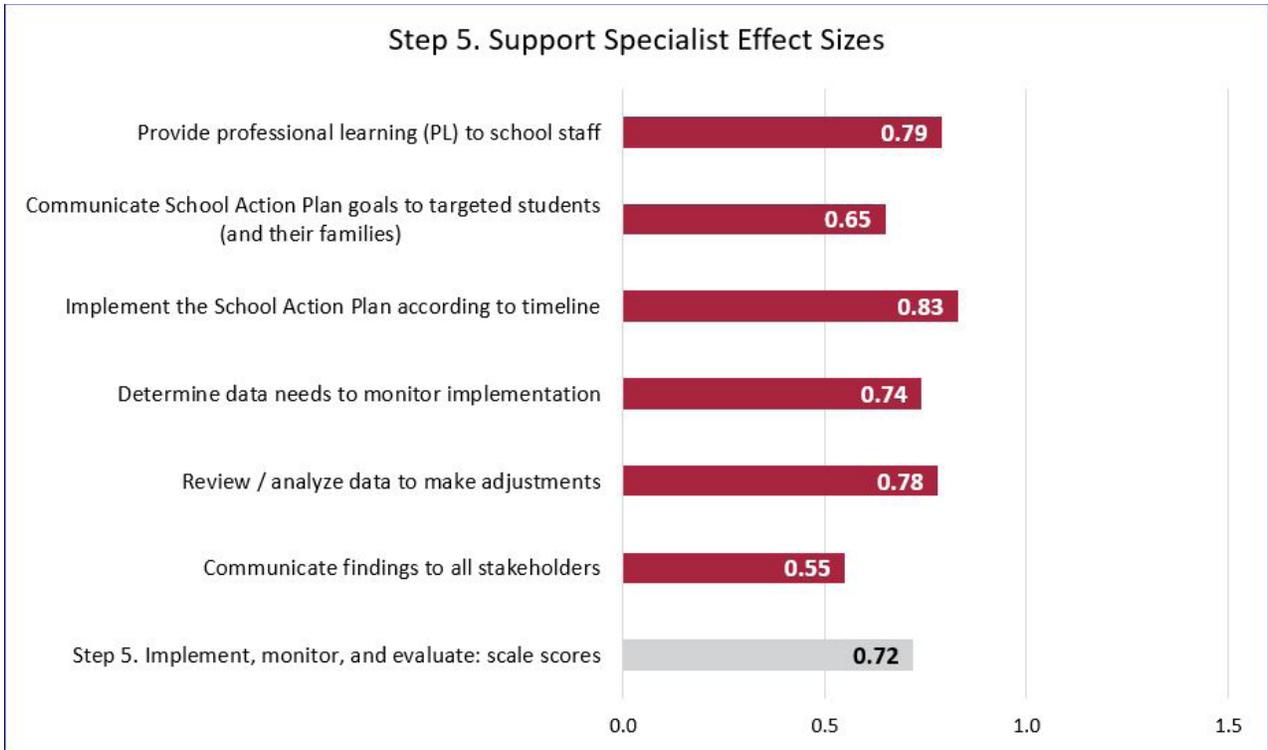

The WV GRADUATION 20/20 Reflection Rubric opened for data collection April 2018. The rubric, based on the five (5) stages of implementation in implementation science, had been redesigned with substantial input from the RS³s. Originally, a pre/post survey collected twice a year, the rubric is now a retrospective pre/post tool collected once a year. The use of a retrospective pre/post type survey reduces the burden of work on support personnel (originally RS³s and School Support Specialists) and the School Leadership Teams. The rubric is designed to capture implementation stages for both of the chosen EBPs; there are five (5) steps and multiple key components to each step. It was important to design the rubric in this manner to allow for the fact that schools are in different 'program years', and therefore, may be working only within the DPIF, or the Transition Practices, or some combination of both EBPs. As referred to in Component D. (1)a, the Reflection Rubric data were analyzed to calculate measures of central tendency, statistical significance, and effect size. Pre and post rubric means were considered significantly different when t tests yielded P values of .05 or less. Effect sizes lower than 0.15 are considered negligible, between 0.15 and 0.40 to be small, between 0.40 and 0.75 to be medium, between 0.75 and 1.10 to be large, and above 1.10 to be very large.

Analysis of rubric data revealed statistically significant increases in implementation stages for every core activity. The scale, based on implementation science, ranged from 1 to 5 with: 1 = Not yet established, 2 = Exploration-Identifying Need, 3 = Installation-Establishing Resources, 4 = Initial Implementation-Making Adjustments and 5 = Full Implementation-Well-Integrated. Every core activity implementation stage had additional information that further described the components of that stage. Additionally, when the core activities are combined to create the 5 implementation steps of the program, each step revealed significant increases; this held true for responses from school teams and from the School Support Specialists. See the graphs below that show the Reflection Rubric mean scale scores and effect sizes. On average, the School Leadership Teams and the School Support Specialists reported an increase by one implementation stage from pre to post. School teams tended to rate their level of implementation somewhat higher in the pre and post data as compared to the School Support Specialists. Effect sizes ranged from medium (0.40 and 0.75) and very large (1.10 and above). When compared to Reflection Rubric results from the previous year, both School Leadership Teams and School Support Specialists ranked many of the steps higher for pre and post measures. This indicates schools are closer to full implementation for Steps 1-3; showing a logical progression of implementation over multiple years of participation.

These data indicate School Leadership Teams and the School Support Specialists are in relative agreement as to implementation progress made during the 2017-2018 school year. Of note, both the teams and School Support Specialists report high levels of implementation for Steps 1-3. Other highlights include consensus that School Leadership Teams are well on their way to developing and implementing their School Action Plans but may be experiencing difficulty in communicating and sharing findings.

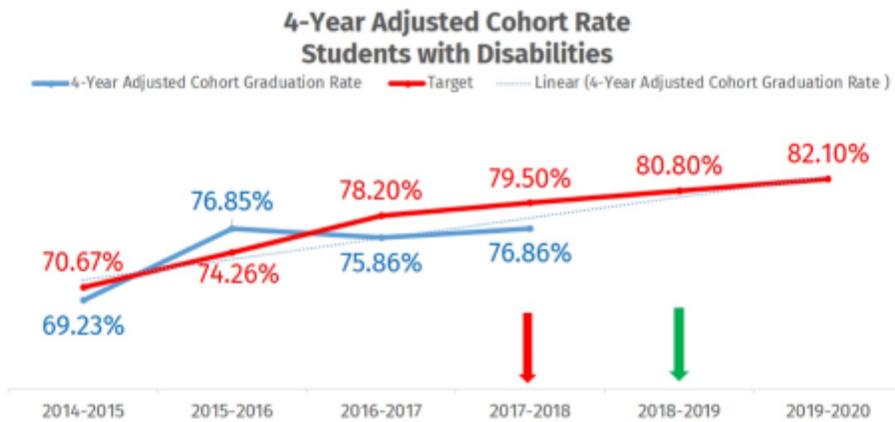

While we cannot draw correlations between the work of WV GRADUATION 20/20 and the state graduation rate, there have been increases in graduation rates, decreases in dropout rates and improvement in post-school outcomes among students with disabilities over the last several years.

Outcomes regarding progress toward short-term objectives that are necessary steps toward achieving the SiMR.

(2) Planned evaluation activities including data collection, measures and expected outcomes.

Evaluation activities for the upcoming school year will follow the activities listed in the WV GRADUATION 20/20 Logic Model (Appendix A) and outcomes listed in the WV GRADUATION 20/20 Evaluation Measurement Table (Appendix D). With the use of the Reflection Rubric, we are able to measure our intermediate outcomes – implementation fidelity of the Dropout Prevention Intervention Framework and CEEDAR’s Transition Practices and Predictors Framework. To date, the data indicate acceptable progress. The primary anticipated change to the evaluation activities is related to the complete closure of the RESAs and the required changes in implementation strategies. Points of Contact, School Leadership Team Leaders, and the Office of Special Education are sharing the responsibilities and duties previously held by the RESAs. For this coming year, we do not plan to ask the Points of Contact to complete the Reflection Rubric. This pause will give the Points of Contact more time to become familiar with WV GRADUATION 20/20. We will hold at least one focus group for the Points of Contact. The school teams will be expected to complete the Reflection Rubric and will have the opportunity to participate in one or more focus groups.

Appendix F

Welcome to the WV GRADUATION 20/20 Reflection Rubric

By completing this rubric you are consenting to participate in a research study. The purpose of the study is to determine the extent to which participating schools in West Virginia GRADUATION 20/20 are implementing the steps of either the Dropout Prevention Intervention Framework (DPIF) or the CEEDAR Transition Practices Framework. The results of this research study will be used to help determine revisions to the WV GRADUATION 20/20 initiative at the state, district, and school levels. Your participation in the study includes completing this survey once during the school year; it should not take more than 20 minutes of your time to complete. You will be presented with a series of items and asked to indicate your responses by selecting from multiple choice options.

Participation in this research study poses no more risk than you would encounter during the course of a normal day. It is the intention that results from this rubric will be used by the WV GRADUATION 20/20 School Leadership Teams, School Support Specialists, and the West Virginia Department of Education (WVDE) to improve supports and activities related to implementation of the DPIF and/or the Transition Practices Framework. All responses to this data collection activity shall remain completely confidential and no identification of individual participants will occur. All results will be reported in aggregate.

There is no compensation for taking part in this research study. Please note that your participation is completely voluntary and you may stop at any time. You will experience no penalties or loss of benefits if you should refuse to participate in the research. If you have questions about the research associated with WV GRADUATION 20/20 or this rubric, you may contact Amber Stohr, Coordinator, at the WVDE Office of Special Education at 304.558.2696 or astohr@k12.wv.us.

This research study has been reviewed and given exempt status by the WVDE Institutional Review Board (IRB).

Thank you for your participation!

Instructions

These rubrics are to be used to assess the fidelity with which WV GRADUATION

20/20 has been implemented by participating schools. They are NOT to be used to assess the fidelity with which any particular intervention selected by a school has been implemented.

The reflection rubric is designed to capture the stages of implementation at two specific time periods. First, choose the stage that best reflects the implementation level near the beginning of the school year (Autumn 2017). Second, choose the stage that best reflects the implementation level at the end of the school year (Spring 2018).

The rubric should reflect work done this school year only. The stages of implementation are: not yet established, exploration, installation, initial implementation, and full implementation. Each school will be at different levels of implementation for different activities. Further, it is not expected that a school reach the highest level of implementation for all activities in one school year -- full implementation may take a matter of weeks or months to achieve for some activities, while others may take well over a year. *****

As a group, each WV GRADUATION 20/20 School Leadership Team is to complete the reflection rubric near the end of the school year.

School Support Specialists are to complete a reflection rubric for each of the schools they support, also near the end of the school year.

The intent of the rubric is to allow schools to identify areas of strength and potential barriers as they work through the steps outlined in the Dropout Prevention Intervention Framework and/or the CEEDAR Transition Practices Framework.

The Transition Technical Assistance Center (TTAC) provides a wide array of training and technical assistance for local school districts throughout West Virginia.

Trainings may include:

- Transition Slide Guide
- Transition Services Planner
- Parent Guide
- PathwaysWV Website

The Center will work with 14 county school systems per year in order to cover the entire state in a 4-year time frame.

A key focus of this project will be on setting up Community Based Work Exploration sites and partnering with the state parks and the Hatfield-McCoy Trails to provide job training experiences for students with disabilities.

Emphasis will be on strengthening the partnership between local school districts, adult service agencies, and the WV Division of Rehabilitation Services (DRS). The center will educate teachers on the array of services that students may qualify for and inform educators of the new requirements of the Workforce innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA).

A resource available for teachers to use in their classrooms when discussing transitioning from school to post-secondary activities is the Pathways to the Future website - www.PathwaysWV.org.

- This website offers interest inventories, a resume and cover letter builder, and resources for parents, students, and teachers (including lesson plans under Media tab).
- An overview video is available on the home page to explain every aspect of the website.

The TTAC project is funded by the West Virginia Department of Education, Office of Special Education.

The Pathways to the Future website is funded by the West Virginia Division of Rehabilitation Services.

NOTES:

- Some strategies and activities are more 'big picture', while others are more detailed. This is normal. It is fine to have a variety of strategies and activities, you know best what is achievable in your school.
- Your Action Plan may include universal interventions (school wide initiatives) and interventions for targeted groups, such as at-risk SWD.
- Not ALL activities are required to have an evaluation component, but most will. Also, for some activities, it is to be expected that the person(s) responsible and timeline(s) may be the same.
- The following is a visual way to think about the terms goal, objective, strategy, and activity:
