

Explore historic Supreme Court records & briefs—the most comprehensive online collection available

A new addition to the Insight Product line...

ProQuest Insight products are select collections of U.S. government documents with workflow functionality to facilitate research, teaching, and learning involving historic and current legislative, judicial, and executive branch materials. Primary source content in each collection is compiled by our professional research staff and made accessible through a user-friendly, dynamic workspace allowing for easy, in-depth discovery. Links between collections enhance the value of the individual collections, facilitating understanding of government processes and multiple viewpoints. The Insight product features empower users to focus on what really matters – achieving superior research results.

We are pleased to announce the forthcoming Supreme Court Insight 1933-1974 – available as a stand-alone or a fully integrated, cross-searchable module on ProQuest Supreme Court Insight. Launch scheduled November 2019.

This next collection includes, where available, all dockets, petitioner briefs, respondent briefs, amicus briefs, joint appendices, oral arguments, and opinions for cases from 1933-1974.

Our sources for the 1933-74 module include partner depository libraries, the Law Library of Congress, the Supreme Court Library, and our microfiche.

Whenever possible, we scan from the original (paper) copy to ensure the best quality image and OCR.

The 1933-1974 collection adds numerous Landmark cases, including:
