At LAEDC 2021 you can submit short papers for its poster session. Posters offers the opportunity to present research work in progress to experts and receive valuable feedback. The session encourages networking and discussion among peers, which may lead to possible collaborative efforts in the region. Please let the EDS community know about your work and take part of a vibrant academic network.

Submitted works will be judged based on their originality, methodological quality and obtained preliminary results. Furthermore, accepted works will be included in a special volume of the journal Tecnología en Marcha, indexed in Scielo and a 5 minutes video presentation must be prepared presenting your poster.
