Outreach in Asia

■ Japan:

- IEEE-SA and ARIB jointly hosted a workshop to promote IEEE standards projects in ICT. Glenn Parsons and Jon Rosdahl introduced wired and wireless projects in IEEE 802.
- Adrian Stephens and Jon Rosdahl met with Wi-Biz, a Japanese association of Wi-Fi service providers.
- Jon Rosdahl, Bruce Kraemer, Mano Hiroshi, along with several Japanese IEEE 802 participants, presented an “IEEE802 Wireless Standard Activity and the Standards Education Seminar”. The speakers used their own experience to illustrate how IEEE 802 works and helps them achieve their goals.

■ China:

- Bruce Kraemer, Walter Sun, and Meng Zhao met with key staff supporting “IEEE Working Group” in China’s IMT-2020 Promotional Committee.

Outreach in Asia (2)

- Korea:

- Bruce and Dr. Kishik Park, member of the IEEE-SA BOG, met with the leadership of the 802 Korea Forum, a newly established association backed by TTA. Bruce introduced them to the IEEE 802 EC and WFA.

- Taiwan

- Kevin Lu and Walter met with Taiwan Association of Information and Communication Standards (TAICS), a newly formed domestic SDO on 5G and communications.

MoU with ETSI

Expected to be formally approved at the ETSI General Assembly on 16-17 November
