IEEE 802 and ISOC Cooperative Fellowship Pilot Program Update

Glenn Parsons
IEEE-SA BOG Member-at-Large
IEEE 802.1 Chair

Jodi Haasz
International Affairs Senior Liaison

25 July 2016

Program Summary

- IEEE 802 and ISOC Cooperative Fellowship Pilot Program
  - IEEE 802 portion held during the November 2015 and March 2016 IEEE 802 plenaries
  - ISOC portion held during the April 2016 and July 2016 IETF meetings

- Five IEEE-SA Fellowships
  - Four from Academia
  - One from Industry

- Countries of residence
  - Brazil
  - Ethiopia
  - India (2)
  - Morocco

- Areas of Technical Interest
  - IEEE 802.3
  - IEEE 802.11
  - IEEE 802.15
  - IEEE 802.16
  - IEEE 802.21

Post-Program

- Participants will write a paper (no more than 500 words) on how they applied their experience to their professional activities and in their local and/or regional community

- IEEE-SA staff will follow up on fellowship recipients' activities

  - If fellowship recipients' have additional questions regarding IEEE 802 activities, IEEE-SA staff will contact the IEEE 802 mentor accordingly

Next Steps…

IEEE-SA Fellowship Program Staff Contact

Jodi Haasz
j.haasz@ieee.org
+1 732 562 6367

◆IEEE